b) The Girl, LLC

Pursuant to an agreement dated July 1, 1999 with Artistic License Films Inc., Hollywood invested through March 31, 2001, $35,000 for a 22.533% interest in a new entity, The Girl, LLC a limited liability company ("The Girl, LLC") formed to finance, produce and distribute the film "The Girl". NOTE 5 - MARKETABLE SECURITIES - AFFILIATE

On November 24, 1998, pursuant to a sales agreement (the "Sales Agreement") entered into during September 1998 by and between Breaking Waves and Play Co. Toys & Entertainment Corp. ("Play Co," a toy retailer and a publicly traded company whose Chairman of the Board is also the President of Shopnet and the Company), Breaking Waves purchased 1,400,000 unregistered shares of Play Co.'s common stock for a total of $504,000 comprised of $300,000 in cash and by shipping $204,000 of merchandise to Play Co. After the purchase, Breaking Waves owned 25.4% of the outstanding common stock of Play Co.

During the quarter ended March 31, 2000, and subsequent thereto, Play Co. converted a portion of its series E preferred stock into common stock, thereby reducing Breaking Waves' percentage. As of March 31, 2000, Breaking Waves' common stock percentage was approximately 11% which was subsequently reduced to approximately 1.5%. Accordingly, the investment in Play Co. is accounted for under the requirements of SFAS No. 115, "Accounting for Certain Investments in Debt and Equity Securities." NOTE 5 - MARKETABLE SECURITIES - AFFILIATE (con't.)

On March 28, 2001, Play Co. filed for protection under Title

Edgar Filing: SHOPNET COM INC - Form 10QSB

Eleven of the United States Code with the United State Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of New York. The fair market value of the investment as of March 31, 2001 is $12,700.

Under SFAS 115, the securities are considered available for sale and therefore the carrying value is based on the fair market value of the securities at March 31, 2001 which amounted to $12,700. The change in unrealized gain or loss has been recorded as a component of comprehensive income. The Company has pledged such shares as collateral for a standby letter of credit in connection with Breaking Waves entering into a new factoring agreement with Century Business Credit Corporation ("Century") and are therefore considered non-current (See Note 6 (b)).

NOTE 6 - DUE TO FACTOR

a) CIT Group

On August 20, 1997, Breaking Waves entered into a factoring and revolving inventory loan and security agreement (as amended December 9, 1998) with CIT Group (formerly, Heller Financial, Inc. "CIT") to sell their interest in all present and future receivables without recourse. Breaking Waves paid CIT a factoring commission of .85% of the first $5,000,000 of receivables sold and .65% of receivables sold in excess of $5,000,000 for each year.

Breaking Waves took advances of up to 85% of the receivable, with interest at the rate of 1 3/4% over prime. In connection with the factoring agreement, the Company agreed to maintain $1,150,000 of cash in a segregated account in order to collateralize standby letters of credit. In addition, during the year ended December 31, 1999, Breaking Waves was required to transfer an additional $200,000 of cash as collateral for the standby letter of credit. On or about September 12, 2000 the agreement with CIT was cancelled and a new factoring agreement was entered into as discussed below. As of March 31, 2001, a balance of $1,683 is due from CIT and as of December 31, 2000, a balance of $312 was due to CIT. Interest expense related to this agreement totaled $-0- and $92,192 for the three months ended March 31, 2001 and 2000.

NOTE 6 - DUE TO FACTOR (con't.)

b) Century Business Credit Corporation

On or about September 12, 2000, Breaking Waves entered into a factoring and revolving inventory loan and security agreement with Century to sell their interest in all present and future receivables without recourse. Breaking Waves submits all sales offers to Century for credit approval prior to shipment, and pays a factoring commission of .75% of receivables sold. Century retains from the amount payable to Breaking Waves a reserve for possible obligations such as customer disputes and possible credit losses on unapproved receivables. Breaking Waves may take advances of up to 85% of the receivables, with interest at the rate of 1 3/4% over prime.

In connection with the factoring agreement, the Company agreed to continue maintaining $1,150,000 of cash in a segregated account in order to collateralize standby letters of credit for Breaking Waves. Additionally, Breaking Waves was required to pledge as additional collateral $200,000 of its own cash and its investment in Play Co., which is represented by 1,270,000 shares of Play Co's common stock.

Pursuant to the terms of a Reimbursement and Compensation Agreement, a trust ("Trust"), the beneficiary of which is a relative of the Company's President and Chief Executive Officer and a majority stockholder, pledged assets as collateral for securing a $250,000 letter of credit to replace a portion of a letter of credit previously pledged by the Company. Accordingly, on December 20, 2000 the original agreement with the factor was amended to allow such replacement of collateral. Breaking Waves' Loan and Security Agreement with Century dated December 20, 2000 requires the provision of one or more letters of credit in the aggregate amount of $1,150,000 to partially secure the line of credit.

Breaking Waves agreed to reimburse the Trust for any and all losses, fees, charges and expenses to the Trust in the event the letter of credit is called by Century and/or the issuing bank demands reimbursement from the Trust. Breaking Waves' obligations are guaranteed by the Company in addition to being secured by a first security interest in all of the assets of the Company and a subordinate security interest in all of the assets of Breaking Waves. Breaking Waves paid a fee of $42,500 to the Trust and reimbursed the Trust for all related professional and other fees incurred by the Trust in connection with such transaction.

b) Significant vendors and customers

Breaking Waves purchases 100% of its inventory from two vendors in Indonesia and one in Samoa. Breaking Waves believes other sources and vendors are available and that it is not dependent exclusively on these vendors. For the three months ended March 31, 2001 Breaking Waves had two customers, which comprise 27% and 13%, of net sales, respectively. Breaking Waves' business is considered seasonal with a large portion of its revenues and profits being derived between November and March. d) License agreements

- i) On October 16, 1995, Breaking Waves entered into a license agreement with Beach Patrol, Inc. ("Beach") for the exclusive use of certain trademarks in the United States.

General

Shopnet.com, Inc. ("Shopnet" or the "Company") was incorporated in the State of Delaware on December 1, 1995 as Hollywood Productions, Inc. On May 10, 1999, Shopnet filed an amendment to its Articles of Incorporation effecting a change in its name to its current one. On May 12, 1999, it incorporated a new wholly-owned subsidiary, Hollywood Productions, Inc. ("Hollywood"), to which it assigned its film production business thereby rendering Shopnet a holding company for Hollywood and another wholly-owned subsidiary, Breaking Waves, Inc. ("Breaking Waves"). Shopnet was formed initially for the purpose of acquiring screenplays and producing motion pictures. In September 1996, in connection with the completion of its Initial Public Offering ("IPO"), it acquired all of the capital stock of Breaking Waves which designs, manufactures, and distributes private and brand name label children's swimwear.

The consolidated financial statements at March 31, 2001 include the accounts of Shopnet and its wholly owned subsidiaries, Breaking Waves and Hollywood (collectively referred to as the "Company" except where specific delineation is required), after elimination of all significant intercompany transactions and accounts.

The following discussion and analysis should be read in conjunction with the consolidated financial statements and related footnotes which provide additional information concerning the Company's financial activities and condition. Since Shopnet and its subsidiaries operate in different industries, the discussion and analysis is presented by segment in order to be more meaningful.

Three months ended March 31, 2001 as compared to the three months ended March 31, 2000

Breaking Waves

For the three months ended March 31, 2001 and 2000, Breaking Waves generated net sales of $3,653,260 and $2,720,982, respectively, with a cost of sales amounting to $2,437,428 and $1,771,477, respectively. The increase in sales amounting to $932,278, or approximately 34.2%, from 2000 to 2001 was primarily attributable to the introduction of the new "Coral Cove" product line. The gross profit for the three months ended March 31, 2001 amounted to $1,215,832, or 33.4% of sales, as compared to the three months ended March 31, 2000 during which it amounted to $949,505, or 34.9% of sales.

Selling, general, and administrative expenses during the three months ended March 31, 2001 and 2000 amounted to $711,879 or 19.5% of sales and $497,260 or 18.3% of sales, respectively.

The major components of the Breaking Waves selling, general, and administrative expenses are as follows for the three months ended March 31:

Royalty fees		89,887
Rent expense		24,522
Factor commissions		36,276
Miscellaneous general corporate overhead expenses		107,948

The overall expense increase of approximately $214,619 is directly associated with the sales increase for the quarter as compared to the prior year quarter.

In November 1998, Breaking Waves purchased 1,400,000 shares of Play Co. Toys & Entertainment Corp. ("Play Co.") for a total of $504,000 comprised of $300,000 in cash and by shipping $204,000 in merchandise. After the purchase, Breaking Waves owned 25.4% of the outstanding common stock of Play Co.

During the quarter ended March 31, 2000, and subsequent thereto Play Co. converted a portion of its series E preferred stock into common stock, thereby reducing Breaking Waves' percentage. As of March 31, 2000, Breaking Waves' common stock percentage was approximately 11% which was subsequently reduced to approximately 1.5%. Accordingly, the investment in Play Co. is accounted for under the requirements of SFAS No. 115, "Accounting for Certain Investments in Debt and Equity Securities." Carrying value is based on fair market value during the quarter. The unrealized gain for the quarter ended March 31, 2000 which amounted to $698,500 has been recorded as a component of comprehensive income

On March 28, 2001, Play Co. filed for protection under Title Eleven of the United States Code with the United State Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of New York. The fair market value of the investment as of March 31, 2001 is $12,700. The change in unrealized gain or loss has been recorded as a component of comprehensive income.

Interest expense in connection with its factoring agreement amounted to $156,022 and $92,192 for the three months ended March 31, 2001 and 2000, respectively.

Edgar Filing: SHOPNET COM INC - Form 10QSB

Breaking Waves generated net income of $351,767 and $347,726, for the three months ended March 31, 2001 and 2000, respectively, after an estimated income tax provision of $-0- and $5,000, respectively, for the three months ended March 31, 2001 and 2000.

Hollywood

On May 12, 1999, Shopnet incorporated a wholly-owned subsidiary, Hollywood, to which it assigned its film production business. All film related operations prior to May 12, 1999 were conducted by Shopnet under its former name.

For the three months ended March 31, 2001 and 2000, Hollywood generated no sales from its motion picture "Dirty Laundry." Although sales have been minimal since the completion of the motion picture, the Company expects increases in sales during 2001 and thereafter as a result of a newly implemented marketing strategy.

Hollywood has also invested in movie ventures. See "Investments in Movie Ventures."

Shopnet.com

For the three months ended March 31, 2001 and 2000, Shopnet generated minimal revenue comprised of interest from its money market and other ancillary revenue from its corporate office.

Shopnet's selling, general, and administrative expense amounted to $142,922 and $140,819 for the three months ended March 31, 2001 and 2000, respectively. This represents an increase of $2,103, or approximately 1.5%.

Liquidity and Capital Resources

At March 31, 2001, the Company has a consolidated working capital amounting to $740,801. The Company anticipates that its current available cash will be sufficient for the next twelve months and does not anticipate any cash shortfalls. Breaking Waves' ownership interest in Play Co. amounted to approximately 1.5% as of March 31, 2001 as evidenced by the 1,270,000 shares of common stock it currently owns. As of March 31, 2001, Breaking Waves has decreased its investment in Play Co. to $12,700 based on fair market value of its common stock holdings.

The Company considers highly liquid investments with maturities of three months or less at the time of purchase to be cash equivalents. Included in cash are certificates of deposit of $900,400. Shopnet maintains cash deposits in accounts which are in excess of Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation limits by approximately $800,000. Shopnet believes that such risk is minimal. Shopnet maintains a letter of credit with a financial institution as a condition of Breaking Wave's factoring agreement. The financial institution requires Shopnet to maintain $1,150,000 on deposit as collateral for the letter of credit. The $900,400 of certificates of deposit represents a portion of the $1,150,000. In addition, during 1999, Breaking Waves was required to transfer a $200,000 cash deposit to its factoring agent as additional collateral. Accordingly, both cash amounts are designated as restricted.

For the three months ended March 31, 2001 and 2000, the Company reported consolidated net income of $207,797 and $205,008 after an income tax expense of $-0- and $5,466, respectively. In addition, for the three months ended March 31, 2001 and 2000, the Company reported comprehensive net income of $112,547 and $903,508, which includes an unrealized gain (loss) on the investment in Play Co. of ($95,250) and $698,500, respectively.

On February 1, 2000, the Company sold 100,000 shares of common stock for $300,000 (before certain offering costs) pursuant to a transaction with an unrelated party.

On March 30, 2000, the Company entered into a revolving line of credit agreement with a bank. Total available credit under the line of credit was $250,000. Total borrowings under the line as of March 31, 2000 were $100,000. The outstanding balance was to be repaid in monthly installments including 9% interest. As a condition of the line of credit, the Company was required to deposit $250,000 in a certificate of deposit as collateral. The certificate of deposit was classified as restricted cash.

Hollywood accounts for the investment in Battle Studies on the equity method. Accordingly, as of March 31, 2001, Hollywood has recorded its investment at $215,163. This represents its initial investment of $220,000 less $4,837 of equity loss for its proportionate share of Battle Studies.

On October 12, 2000, Battle Studies entered into a distribution agreement with Raven Pictures International ("Raven Pictures") to distribute Battle Studies motion picture ("Machiavelli Rises") to foreign countries. Battle Studies has granted rights under the agreement for the theatrical, video, non-theatrical and television markets. The term of the agreement is for twenty-four months for all portions of territory outside of the United States and English speaking Canada. The Girl, LLC retains all rights to the motion pictures, the screenplays, and all ancillary rights attached thereto.

Factoring Arrangements

CIT Group

On August 20, 1997, Breaking Waves entered into a factoring and revolving inventory loan and security agreement (as amended December 9, 1998) with CIT Group (formerly, Heller Financial, Inc. "CIT") to sell their interest in all present and future receivables without recourse. Breaking Waves took advances of up to 85% of the receivable, with interest at the rate of 1 3/4% over prime. Century retains from the amount payable to Breaking Waves a reserve for possible obligations such as customer disputes and possible credit losses on unapproved receivables. Breaking Waves may take advances of up to 85% of the receivables, with interest at the rate of 1 3/4% over prime. In connection with the factoring agreement, the Company agreed to maintain $1,150,000 of cash in a segregated account in order to collateralize standby letters of credit for Breaking Waves. Additionally, Breaking Waves was required to pledge as additional collateral $200,000 of its own cash and its investment in Play Co. which is represented by 1,270,000 shares of Play Co.'s common stock. Pursuant to the terms of a Reimbursement and Compensation Agreement, a trust ("Trust"), the beneficiary of which is a relative of the Company's President and Chief Executive Officer and a relative of a majority stockholder, pledged assets as collateral for securing a $250,000 letter of credit to replace a portion of a letter of credit previously pledged by the Company. Accordingly, on December 20, 2000 the original agreement with the factor was amended to allow such replacement of collateral. Breaking Waves' Loan and Security Agreement with Century dated December 20, 2000 requires the provision of one or more letters of credit in the aggregate amount of $1,150,000 to partially secure the line of credit.

Breaking Waves agreed to reimburse the Trust for any and all losses, fees, charges and expenses to the Trust in the event the letter of credit is called by Century and/or the issuing bank demands reimbursement from the Trust. Breaking Waves' obligations are guaranteed by the Company in addition to being secured by a first security interest in all of the assets of the Company and a subordinate security interest in all of the assets of Breaking Waves. Breaking Waves paid a fee of $42,500 to the Trust and reimbursed the Trust for all related professional and other fees incurred by the Trust in connection with such transaction. Interest expense related to this agreement totaled $156,022 for the three months ended March 31, 2001. Century has a secured interest in Breaking Wave's inventory as collateral for the advances. ### License Agreements

On October 16, 1995, Breaking Waves entered into a license agreement with Beach Patrol, Inc. ("Beach"). Pursuant to the licensing agreement, Breaking Waves was given the right to use certain designs for its children's line under the "Daffy Waterwear" label from January 1, 1996 to June 30, 1998. Thereafter, the agreement provided for a three year extension, at the option of Breaking Waves, through and until June 30, 2001. Breaking Waves has exercised this option, thereby so extending the agreement. The agreement calls for minimum annual royalties of $75,000 to $200,000 over the life of the agreement with options based on sales levels from $1,000,000 for the first year to $4,000,000 in the sixth year. Breaking Waves has negotiated an additional two year extension thereby extending the agreement through and until June 30, 2003, and it contains a provision for an additional two year extension, at the option of Breaking Waves, through and until June 30, 2005. The new agreement signed February 28, 2001 and effective July 1, 2001 calls for minimum annual royalties of $50,000 to $87,500 over the life of the extension with options based on sales levels from $1,000,000 for the seventh year to $1,750,000 in the tenth year. ("Consultant") a New York Corporation, whereby Mr. Nash, the Consultant's sole stockholder shall provide sales and consulting services in connection with Breaking Waves' new Gottex line. Mr. Nash has provided similar services for the past twelve years with another company for which he represented the Gottex children's swimwear line.
