Media Release

Credit Suisse Group presents revised segment financial results to reflect new reporting structure

Zurich, April 11, 2006 Credit Suisse Group today presents its revised segment financial results for the fiscal years 2005, 2004 and 2003 for its Credit Suisse banking business and its Winterthur insurance business. This follows the launch of the integrated global bank on January 1, 2006. These revised segment results reflect the Group's new reporting structure, effective from the first quarter of 2006. Under the new structure, Credit Suisse Group will have a separate reporting segment for each of its three banking divisions, and a separate and single reporting segment for Winterthur. The revised segment results do not affect the Group's previously reported consolidated financial results.

Credit Suisse Group confirmed its previously announced 2007 net income target of CHF 8.2 billion, which includes an after-tax cost synergy benefit of CHF 0.2 billion. The Group also provided medium-term income targets for its Investment Banking, Private Banking and Asset Management divisions in connection with the changes in its reporting structure.

The medium-term income targets for Credit Suisse Group's banking divisions are as follows: in 2007, pre-tax income for Investment Banking is expected to be CHF 4.0 billion, pre-tax income for Private Banking is expected to be CHF 4.6 billion and pre-tax income for Asset Management is expected to be CHF 1.1 billion. These targets include a positive impact from synergies that are expected to arise from the integration strategy.

The revised segment results are available online at www.credit-suisse.com/revisedfinancials

Credit Suisse Group will publish its first-quarter 2006 results on May 2, 2006.

Cautionary statement regarding forward-looking information

This press release contains statements that constitute forward-looking statements. In addition, in the future we, and others on our behalf, may make statements that constitute forward-looking statements. Such forward-looking statements may include, without limitation, statements relating to our plans, objectives or goals; our future economic performance or prospects; the potential effect on our future performance of certain contingencies; and assumptions underlying any such statements.

Words such as “believes,” “anticipates,” “expects,” “intends” and “plans” and similar expressions are intended to identify forward-looking statements but are not the exclusive means of identifying such statements. We do not intend to update these forward-looking statements except as may be required by applicable laws.

By their very nature, forward-looking statements involve inherent risks and uncertainties, both general and specific, and risks exist that predictions, forecasts, projections and other outcomes described or implied in forward-looking statements will not be achieved. We caution you that a number of important factors could cause results to differ materially from the plans, objectives, expectations, estimates and intentions expressed in such forward-looking statements. These factors include (i) market and interest rate fluctuations; (ii) the strength of the global economy in general and the strength of the economies of the countries in which we conduct our operations in particular; (iii) the ability of counterparties to meet their obligations to us; (iv) the effects of, and changes in, fiscal, monetary, trade and tax policies, and currency fluctuations; (v) political and social developments, including war, civil unrest or terrorist activity; (vi) the possibility of foreign exchange controls, expropriation, nationalization or confiscation of assets in countries in which we conduct our operations; (vii) the ability to maintain sufficient liquidity and access capital markets; (viii) operational factors such as systems failure, human error, or the failure to properly implement procedures; (ix) actions taken by regulators with respect to our business and practices in one or more of the countries in which we conduct our operations; (x) the effects of changes in laws, regulations or accounting policies or practices; (xi) competition in geographic and business areas in which we conduct our operations; (xii) the ability to retain and recruit qualified personnel; (xiii) the ability to maintain our reputation and promote our brand; (xiv) the ability to increase market share and control expenses; (xv) technological changes; (xvi) the timely development and acceptance of our new products and services and the perceived overall value of these products and services by users; (xvii) acquisitions, including the ability to integrate acquired businesses successfully, and divestitures, including the ability to sell non-core assets; (xviii) the adverse resolution of litigation and other contingencies; and (xix) our success at managing the risks involved in the foregoing.

We caution you that the foregoing list of important factors is not exclusive; when evaluating forward-looking statements, you should carefully consider the foregoing factors and other uncertainties and events, as well as the risks identified in our most recently filed Form 20-F and reports on Form 6-K furnished to the US Securities and Exchange Commission.

Changes implemented with new reporting structure
Minority interests, internal commissions and other items

Minority interests

Minority interest results relating primarily to entities in which the Group is considered to have a controlling interest, but has no significant economic interest, are reported as an accounting adjustment in Corporate Center

Internal commissions

Internal commission payments were accounted for gross in Wealth & Asset Management and are now netted against revenues in Asset Management

Segments will be managed and reported on a pre-tax basis

Taxes, minority interests, extraordinary items, discontinued operations and cumulative effect of accounting changes will be reported on a consolidated group level

Economic Risk Capital (ERC)

Tier 1 ratio and Basel II implementation

Edgar Filing: CREDIT SUISSE GROUP - Form 6-K

Economic Risk Capital (ERC) at Credit Suisse Group

Application and disclosure of ERC-based measures is becoming a widely recognized standard within the industry

ERC has been an integral part of risk, capital and performance measurement at Credit Suisse for over 5 years

Credit Suisse has adopted harmonized performance measurement approach across the banking business

Credit Suisse will begin disclosing average ERC and Return on ERC for its banking segments externally from first quarter 2006

Edgar Filing: CREDIT SUISSE GROUP - Form 6-K

Return on Economic Risk Capital (RoERC)

Risk, capital and performance measurement and management

Consistent measure based on pure economic risk perspective

Provide appropriate signals to management about risk changes and business performance

Support capital resource allocation/re-allocation decisions

Used in the assessment of incremental transactions

Allows performance measurement at a granular level

Objective

Benefits

Return
on ERC

Considers returns against a pure risk-adjusted capital

Tier 1 ratio and Basel II implementation

Edgar Filing: CREDIT SUISSE GROUP - Form 6-K

Tier 1 ratio and Basle II implementation

Target tier 1 ratio of ~10 % under current rules and regulations (Basle I)

Preliminary impact analysis on Basle II suggests overall negative effect on Credit Suisse Group consolidated Tier 1 ratio

Negative effect on Investment Banking business offset in part by positive effect resulting from Private Banking operations

Launched series of initiatives to try to mitigate negative impact mainly within Investment Banking
