This Schedule 13D ("Schedule") is being filed on behalf of Avenir Corporation ("Avenir"), a Virginia corporation, and amends the Schedule 13D filed on November 12, 2013. This Schedule relates to the common stock, par value $0.001 per share, of Iridium Communications Inc., a Delaware corporation (the "Issuer"). Unless the context otherwise requires, references herein to "Securities" or "Shares" are to such common stock of the Issuer.

Item 3. Source and Amount of Funds or Other Consideration.

The Securities of the Issuer were primarily acquired on behalf of the investment advisory clients of Avenir under sole or shared discretionary authority granted Avenir. In addition, Avenir and/or its principal officers and employees purchased Shares in the Issuer for their personal accounts. The aggregate amount of funds used to purchase the Securities reported in this filing totaled approximately $23,435,040. In addition, none of the proceeds used to purchase the Securities were expressly provided through borrowings, though certain accounts managed by Avenir may carry margin balances from time to time.

Item 4. Purpose of Transaction

Avenir acquired the shares for investment purposes.

On March 31, 2014, Avenir sent the letter included as Attachment 1 below to Robert H. Niehaus.

Item 5. Interest In Securities Of The Issuer

(a) The aggregate number and percentage of Securities to which this Schedule 13D relates is 3,321,018 shares of the common stock of the Issuer, constituting approximately 4.3% of the 76,838,663 shares outstanding.

(b) Avenir generally has the sole power to dispose of or to direct the disposition of the Securities held for discretionary accounts of its investment clients, and may be granted the sole power to vote or direct the vote of such Securities; such powers may be retained by or shared with the respective clients for shared or non-discretionary accounts, for which Avenir generally makes recommendations with respect thereto.

(c) All purchase or sale transactions in the Securities for the past 60 days are on Schedule A.

(d) The investment advisory clients of Avenir have the sole right to receive and, subject to notice, to withdraw the proceeds from the sale of the Securities, and the sole power to direct the receipt of dividends from any of the Securities held for their respective accounts. Such clients may also terminate the investment advisory agreements without penalty upon appropriate notice.

(e) Not applicable

Item 6. Contracts, Arrangements, Understandings or Relationships with Respect to Securities of the Issuer

The powers of disposition with respect to Securities owned by discretionary private accounts of Avenir are established in written investment advisory agreements between clients and Avenir, which are entered into in the normal and usual course of the business of Avenir as a registered investment advisor and which are generally applicable to all securities purchased for the benefit of each such discretionary private account. There are no special or different agreements relating to the Securities of the Issuer.

The written investment advisory agreements with clients do not contain provisions relating to borrowing of funds to finance the acquisition of the Securities, acquisition of control, transfer of securities, joint ventures, or any of the other transactions listed in the instructions to Item 7 of Schedule 13D other than voting of proxies. In connection with voting, Avenir may be allowed or directed to vote the proxies received by accounts classified as "discretionary" or "shared" accounts; such authority is generally retained by the clients for accounts classified as "non-discretionary".

Mr. Robert H. Niehaus
Chairman of the Board

Attn: Secretary, Board of Directors

Dear Bob:

Edgar Filing: Iridium Communications Inc. - Form SC 13D/A

We write regarding the amended Iridium registration statement that was filed late on Friday, March 28th increasing the total potential capital raise to $225 million from $150 million. While the larger amount is far closer to the estimate we gave you of the capital required to fund the business through the NEXT initiative, the dramatic upsize, coming less than two months after the initial filing, demonstrates once again how challenged Iridium's management and Board of Directors finds itself in accurately forecasting the company's capital requirements. The company has consistently underestimated its capital requirements and as a result, is once again being required by a nervous banking group to raise equity - for the second time in 18 months. The first equity raise was needlessly dilutive and the terms were harsh. Against our counsel, the mix of securities for the new offering does not include a rights offering, which would permit your current shareholders to avoid further dilution. This is senseless and sends a clear message to the owners of the business.

In our discussions, you claimed that rights offerings were not common in the United States and not the preference of your shareholders. Your first claim is wrong. As proof, we pointed out a $2.4 billion rights offering completed by New York Stock Exchange-listed Turquoise Hill in January of this year. Existing investors were permitted to acquire shares at a discount to market and have since enjoyed a 42% gain on their subscribed shares. We also told you that Liberty Media's John Malone has a history of using rights offerings. Nine days after that conversation, Liberty announced a rights offering which will be priced at a 20% discount to the trailing 20 day average stock price. Liberty's shares rose 9% on the announcement. We question your second claim as you offered no proof for your statement that other large Iridium shareholders are uninterested in a rights offering. Further, it is illogical that they prefer dilution over a choice to avoid dilution. Since you are in the private equity business, think about this - how would your limited members react if the managing member ignored their wishes and diluted them by sourcing capital from third parties?

Iridium shares trade well below book value and nearly 30% below the 2009 IPO price, despite a stock market that has more than doubled over that period of time. That poor record is in part a direct reflection of Iridium's callous disregard for its shareholders. It is clear that Iridium's board has lost the confidence of its shareholders and the accumulated evidence strongly suggests that it is not equal to the task of managing its overleveraged balance sheet while protecting per share value. It is time for the company to seek outside help regarding alternatives ranging from a minority investment by a strategic partner to the sale of the entire company with the objective of maximizing per share value for existing shareholders. We are prepared to assist the company in identifying an advisor. We further suggest that the company cease its current efforts to raise capital and to seek bank covenant waivers while the process unfolds.

We look forward to your prompt response.

Very Truly Yours,

/s/ Peter C. Keefe
