Item 4. Purpose of Transaction

The reporting person acquired these shares for investment purposes. In November 2003, the reporting person began a critical review of Enercorp Inc.'s (Enercorp's) performance under the direction of past and current management. As a result of this review, the reporting person decided in late December 2003 to consider whether to effect a change in Enercorp's management, including but not limited to the election of new persons to serve on Enercorp's board of directors and the appointment of new corporate officers. The reporting person may acquire additional securities in Enercorp, may require Enercorp to hold a shareholders' meeting and solicit proxies therefore, negotiate with existing management, or may take a combination of those actions or consider other actions to cause a change of management. The reporting person's goals in affecting these changes will be to increase shareholder value and enhance Enercorp's business performance. The reporting person is considering a personal role in Enercorp's management, including acting as an officer or director of Enercorp.

Item 5. Interest in the Securities of the Issuer

(a) The reporting person's aggregate interest and percentage of common stock of Enercorp, Inc. equals 45,500 shares of common stock (6.5% of the shares of common stock outstanding). The shares of common stock described above are the only interest the reporting person has in Enercorp, Inc. common stock.
