Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

On December 30, 2011, the Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors of Pixelworks, Inc. (the "Company") approved the Company's entry into a Change of Control Severance Agreement (the "Severance Agreement") and a Repatriation Agreement (the "Repatriation Agreement") with Mr. John Lau (the "Executive"), the Company's Senior Vice President, Foundry, IP and EDA.

Severance Agreement

The Severance Agreement provides for certain benefits in the event of the Executive's involuntary termination following a "change in control" of the Company (as defined in the Severance Agreement). An involuntary termination is a termination by the Company without "cause" or by the Executive for a "good reason event" (as such terms are defined in the Severance Agreement).

The Severance Agreement provides that in the event of an involuntary termination within twelve months following a change of control, the Executive will be entitled to the following benefits: (i) a lump sum cash payment equal to twelve months of base salary as in effect as of the date of such termination or, if greater, as in effect immediately prior to the change of control; (ii) accelerated vesting of stock options granted by the Company to the Executive prior to the change of control that would have otherwise vested during the twelve months following the termination; and (iii) the same level of Company-paid health coverage and benefits at the levels in effect on the day preceding the termination of the Executive until the earlier of when the Executive (and any eligible dependents) is no longer eligible to receive continuation coverage pursuant to COBRA, or twelve months from the date of termination.

The Severance Agreement also provides that in the event of an involuntary termination during the period between twelve and twenty-four months following a change of control (the "Second Year"), the Executive will be entitled to the following benefits: (i) a lump sum cash payment equal to the Executive's monthly base salary in effect at the time of termination, or if greater, at the time of change in control, multiplied by the number of whole months remaining in the Second Year after the termination occurs; (ii) accelerated vesting of all outstanding stock options granted by the Company to the Executive prior to the change of control that would have otherwise vested during the period after termination equal to the remaining number of whole months in the Second Year; and (iii) the same level of Company-paid health coverage and benefits at the levels in effect on the day preceding the termination of the Executive for the number of whole months remaining in the Second Year.

In the event the severance benefits under the Severance Agreement would be treated as excess parachute payments subject to excise taxes, the benefits would either be reduced to a level that would not trigger the excise taxes or would be paid in full, whichever results in the Executive retaining a greater benefit on an after-tax basis.

Repatriation Agreement

The Repatriation Agreement specifies the benefits, terms and conditions of Mr. Lau's relocation and repatriation from China to the United States. The Agreement provides for an increase in Mr. Lau's annual base salary from $200,000 to $210,000. Additionally, Mr. Lau will receive a one-time moving allowance of $5,000 and Company paid tax equalization and tax preparation fees related to Company income incurred on or before December 31, 2011. Upon repatriation, Mr. Lau will also be entitled to receive the Company's standard U.S. benefits.
