PART III -- NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail the reasons why the Form 10-K, 11-K, 10-Q, N-SAR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

The registrant is not able to file its Form 10-KSB for the period ended June 30, 2004 on the date required because the registrant's independent accountant, KPMG LLP, has not finalized its audit of the registrant's financial statements in a manner timely enough to provide its consent for filing by the required date of September 28, 2004. On September 27, 2004 at approximately 6:00 p.m., KPMG contacted the registrant and raised, for the first time, concerns over whether the fact that the registrant had not addressed the accounting and reporting for debentures which were in default at June 30, 2004. The registrant's accountant has indicated that they need additional time to complete their audit procedures subsequent to the registrant's determination of the appropriate accounting and disclosure for the impact of the default on such debentures. The registrant expects to file its Form 10-KSB within the 15 calendar days provided by this extension.
