Item 2.05. Costs Associated with Exit or Disposal Activities.

(b) The McClatchy Company (the “Company”) has determined to reduce its workforce by about 10% as the company streamlines its operations and staff size. The Company announced the workforce reductions on June 16, 2008. The announced workforce reduction will come through both voluntary and involuntary separations and managed attrition involving about 1,400 positions. The Company will retain its strategic focus on sales, news and online operations as it realigns operations, with decisions about the size and profile of changes differing by newspaper operation.

The Company expects the announced workforce reduction to result in severance costs of approximately $30 million in the second quarter of 2008 and to produce annual savings of approximately $70 million.

On June 16, 2008, the Company issued a press release announcing the workforce reduction. The press release is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1 and information from the press release is hereby incorporated by reference.

Safe Harbor Statement

This report contains forward-looking statements, including those regarding the expected charges and future cash expenditures under, and anticipated timing of, the Plan. All forward-looking statements are based on management’s estimates, projections and assumptions as of the date hereof and include the assumptions that underlie such statements. These statements are subject to known and unknown risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ materially from those expressed or implied by such statements, including but not limited to revenues, anticipated savings from cost reduction efforts, cash flows, debt levels, as well as future opportunities for the company and any other statements about management’s future expectations, beliefs, goals, plans or prospects constitute forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Any statements that are not statements of historical fact (including statements containing the words “believes,” “plans,” “anticipates,” “expects,” estimates and similar expressions) should also be considered to be forward-looking statements. There are a number of important risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results or events to differ materially from those indicated by such forward-looking statements, including: the duration and depth of an economic recession in markets where McClatchy operates its newspapers may reduce its income and cash flow greater than expected; McClatchy may not consummate contemplated transactions which may enable debt reduction on anticipated terms or at all; McClatchy may not achieve its expense reduction targets or may do harm to its operations in attempting to achieve such targets; McClatchy’s operations have been, and will likely continue to be, adversely affected by competition, including competition from internet publishing and advertising platforms; McClatchy’s expense and income levels could be adversely affected by changes in the cost of newsprint and McClatchy’s operations could be negatively affected by any deterioration in its labor relations; and other risks described in the Company’s SEC filings. The Company undertakes no obligation to revise or update any forward-looking statements.
