Item 7.01 Regulation FD Disclosure.

On July 2, 2007, Angelica Corporation (the "Company") received a shareholder proposal from Jolly Roger Fund LP for inclusion in the Company's proxy statement for the 2007 annual meeting of shareholders. The shareholder proposal recommends that the board of directors of the Company "immediately engage a nationally recognized investment banking firm to explore all strategic alternatives (outside of the ordinary course of business) to increase shareholder value, including, but not limited to, the sale of Angelica Corporation, sales of assets or another extraordinary transaction." A copy of this proposal, as well as other correspondence received on that date from Jolly Roger Fund LP and its investment advisor Pirate Capital LLC, is attached to Amendment No. 9 to Schedule 13D filed with the SEC on July 2, 2007 by Thomas R. Hudson and Pirate Capital LLC.

Today the Company delivered a response letter to Jolly Roger Fund LP, a copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1. The response letter highlights the fact that the Company had previously retained nationally recognized investment banking firm Morgan Joseph & Co. Inc. to assist the Company's board of directors with a review and exploration of strategic alternatives which included all of the alternatives referenced in the Jolly Roger Fund LP's shareholder proposal. Today, the Company's board of directors approved the continued engagement of Morgan Joseph & Co. Inc. in this regard, which renders that proposal moot. Accordingly, the Company's letter to Jolly Roger Fund LP requests that it withdraw the above referenced proposal and that, if it fails to do so, the Company will submit to the SEC a request for a no action letter allowing the Company to exclude the proposal from the Company's proxy statement for the 2007 annual meeting of shareholders as the proposal has already been implemented.

Exhibit 99.1 is hereby incorporated by reference into this Item 7.01.
