Item 2. Acquisition or Disposition of Assets

On November 30, 2001, AirGate PCS, Inc. (the "Company") acquired iPCS, Inc. (together with its subsidiaries, "iPCS"). Subsequent to November 30, 2001 and through February 23, 2003, the results of operations and accounts of iPCS were consolidated with the Company in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. On February 23, 2003, iPCS filed a Chapter 11 bankruptcy petition in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Northern District of Georgia for the purpose of effecting a court-administered reorganization. In accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, subsequent to February 23, 2003, the Company ceased consolidating the accounts and results of operations of iPCS and the accounts of iPCS were recorded as an investment using the cost method of accounting. On October 17, 2003, the Company irrevocably transferred all of its shares of iPCS common stock into a trust organized under Delaware law as described below. On the date of the transfer, generally accepted accounting principles require this disposition to be accounted for as a discontinued operation.

Edgar Filing: AIRGATE PCS INC /DE/ - Form 8-K

The Company filed a prospectus and solicitation statement on Form S-4 with the Securities and Exchange Commission on September 26, 2003 with respect to a proposed restructuring of certain of the Company's indebtedness. In connection with the proposed restructuring, the Company would issue up to 33 million shares of its common stock. As a result of this issuance, the Company would undergo an ownership change under Section 382 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended. An ownership change of the Company would also cause an ownership change of its wholly-owned subsidiary, iPCS. This ownership change could have a detrimental effect on the use of certain net operating losses ("NOLs") of iPCS and, consequently, could subject the Company's restructuring to the automatic stay protection of the iPCS bankruptcy court.

In order to prevent such an effect, on October 17, 2003, the Company irrevocably transferred all of its shares of iPCS common stock into a trust organized under Delaware law. The Company's shareholders on the date of transfer to the trust are the trust's sole beneficiaries (the "Beneficiaries"). Such Beneficiaries' interest in the trust is equal to their percentage ownership of the Company on October 17, 2003. The Company received no cash consideration from its shareholders or the trust in connection with the transfer. The bankruptcy court overseeing iPCS' bankruptcy approved (i) the transfer of the iPCS shares to the trust, (ii) the Trust Agreement (the "Agreement") by and between AirGate and Wilmington Trust Company, as trustee, and (iii) upon confirmation of iPCS's plan of reorganization by the bankruptcy court, the distribution to the Beneficiaries of iPCS stock if the iPCS plan of reorganization that the court approves provides for such distribution. It is likely that the iPCS bankruptcy court will ascribe little to no value to the iPCS stock held in the trust.

Under the Agreement, the trustee will administer the trust and the Company will have no ability to direct the trustee in its administration of the trust. The Company will pay all expenses of the trust and the trustee.

The Agreement provides that the Beneficiaries may not transfer their interest in the trust in any manner except by bequest or inheritance or by operation of law. Distributions from the trust to the Beneficiaries will be made only upon the final approval of an iPCS plan of reorganization by the iPCS bankruptcy court which provides for a distribution to the Beneficiaries. The trust will terminate upon the earlier of (i) a distribution as described in the previous sentence, (ii) the approval of an iPCS plan of reorganization by the iPCS bankruptcy court that does not provide for such a distribution and (iii) October 17, 2006. Upon termination, the trustee will distribute the iPCS stock to the Beneficiaries. Under no circumstances will the iPCS stock revert to or vest with the Company.

The Agreement states that iPCS' Board of Directors will retain control over iPCS and that Timothy M. Yager will remain as iPCS' Chief Restructuring Officer. The trustee of the trust may not, other than as directed by iPCS' Board of Directors or by the iPCS bankruptcy court, (i) alter or amend iPCS' certificate of incorporation or bylaws, (ii) issue any securities, (iii) remove any of iPCS' directors or (iv) change the size of iPCS' Board of Directors. In addition, the trustee may not amend the terms of the management agreement between iPCS and an affiliate of Mr. Yager or take any action to remove Mr. Yager or any other officer of iPCS. Except as discussed above regarding distributions of the iPCS stock to the Beneficiaries, the trustee may not sell or transfer such stock. Finally, the trustee must vote the iPCS stock in accordance with the directions of the iPCS Board of Directors and the trustee has no obligation to act absent direction from the iPCS Board of Directors.

The Agreement further provides that the trustee must deliver to the Beneficiaries within 90 days of the end of each calendar year, a report showing assets and liabilities of the trust as of the end of the year and the receipts and disbursements of the trust for the period. The report must also describe the changes in the trust's assets and the actions taken by the trustee during the period. The trustee must also mail to the Beneficiaries interim reports describing any material events relating to the iPCS stock. Neither the trustee nor iPCS is required to deliver iPCS' financial statements to the Beneficiaries.

The summary of the Agreement set forth above is qualified in its entirety to the terms of the Agreement. A copy of the Agreement is attached hereto as exhibit 99.1 and is incorporated herein by reference.

AIRGATE PCS, INC.
 FOOTNOTES TO PRO FORMA CONDENSED
 CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
 (Unaudited)

Edgar Filing: AIRGATE PCS INC /DE/ - Form 8-K

On November 30, 2001, AirGate PCS, Inc. (the "Company") acquired iPCS, Inc. (together with its subsidiaries, "iPCS"). Subsequent to November 30, 2001 and through February 23, 2003, the results of operations and accounts of iPCS were consolidated with the Company in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. On February 23, 2003, iPCS filed a Chapter 11 bankruptcy petition in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Northern District of Georgia for the purpose of effecting a court-administered reorganization. In accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, subsequent to February 23, 2003, the Company ceased consolidating the accounts and results of operations of iPCS and the accounts of iPCS were recorded as an investment using the cost method of accounting with a balance totalling approximately $(184) million. On October 17, 2003, the Company irrevocably transferred all of its shares of iPCS common stock into a trust. It is expected that the balance will continue to be reflected in the Company's balance sheet until confirmation of the iPCS plan of reorganization by the iPCS bankruptcy court.

The pro forma adjusted operations for the nine months ended June 30, 2003 and fiscal year ended September 30, 2002 include allocations for management services and related expenses provided to both AirGate and iPCS. The Company formed AirGate Service Company, Inc. ("ServiceCo"), a restricted subsidiary of AirGate, to provide management services to both AirGate and iPCS. Generally, the management personnel included in ServiceCo allocations were AirGate staff in the Company's principal corporate offices in Atlanta and the iPCS accounting staff in Geneseo, Illinois. ServiceCo expenses were allocated between AirGate and iPCS based on the percentage of subscribers they contributed to total number of Company subscribers, which approximated 60% for AirGate and 40% for iPCS. Expenses that related to ServiceCo or both companies, such as rents associated with the Atlanta and Geneseo offices, consulting costs incurred and other expenses related to these management services were allocated in accordance with the ServiceCo allocation. For the year ended September 30, 2002, iPCS paid ServiceCo a net total of $1.7 million for ServiceCo expenses. For the nine months ended June 30, 2003, iPCS paid ServiceCo a net of $2.7 million for Service Co expenses. On January 27, 2003, iPCS retained a Chief Restructuring Officer and began terminating services provided by ServiceCo in March, 2003. All remaining services were terminated by iPCS by September 30, 2003.

As a result of the ServiceCo allocation, the nine months ended June 30, 2003 and fiscal year ended September 30, 2002 pro forma adjusted results may be more favorable than results in the future.

The following is a description of the pro forma adjustment to reflect the effects of the disposition of iPCS. The disposition is further described in this Form 8-K.

- (1) Represents the adjustment to reclassify the operations of iPCS from continuing to discontinued operations for the periods presented.
