Item 5. Other Events

The Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) recently issued Regulation G, concerning the use of non-GAAP financial measures in registrant's financial statements. These rules became effective March 28, 2003. Prior to the effective date, on March 20, 2003, the SEC issued interpretations of that Regulation concerning, among other things, the incorporation by reference of financial statements in registration statements. In anticipation of the incorporation by reference in future registration statements of Vectren Corp.'s 2002 Annual Report on Form 10K filed on March 18, 2003 and in order to fully comply with Regulation G, the table labeled Cash Flow From Operating Activities under the Financial Condition, Sources & Uses of Liquidity, section of Item 7 "Management's Discussion and Analysis of Results of Operations and Financial Condition" should be deleted. That section of Item 7 now reads as follows:

The Company's primary historical source of liquidity to fund working capital requirements has been cash generated from operations. Cash flow from operating activities increased during the year ended December 31, 2002 compared to 2001 by $104.2 million and increased $141.5 million in 2001 compared to 2000. The primary reasons for the increases are favorable changes in working capital accounts due to a return to lower gas prices and increased earnings before
