NOTES TO CONDENSED CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

NOTE 1.

Basis of Presentation

The accompanying unaudited condensed consolidated financial statements of Scherer Healthcare, Inc. and its subsidiaries (the Company) include all adjustments (all of which are of normal, recurring nature) that, in the opinion of management, are necessary for a fair presentation of the results for the period indicated. Quarterly results of operations are not necessarily indicative of annual results. These statements should be read in conjunction with the consolidated financial statements and the notes thereto included in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2002.

Revenue Recognition

Revenue for services provided is recorded when the Company has completed the service. Product revenue is recorded by the Company when products are received by customers or independent distributors. The Company's payment terms for product sales are the same for all customers, i.e. 1% discount if paid in 10 days, net due in 30 days. The Company does not offer price protection. In accordance with Statements of Financial Accounting Standards (SFAS) No. 48, Revenue Recognition When Right of Return Exists, transactions with customers and distributors qualify as sales at delivery. The Company's return and exchange policy is as follows:

The Company will accept for exchange or credit all merchandise returned in the original and unopened packages within one year after the expiration date;

Merchandise will not be accepted for exchange or credit if purchased at sacrifice, fire or bankruptcy sale, or sold on a non-returnable basis or if deteriorated from causes beyond the Company's control;

Merchandise eligible for return may be exchanged for merchandise of equal value, for a return of the purchase price, or for credit to be applied to future orders;

Exchange merchandise is required to be shipped prepaid by the customer; and

The return of merchandise constitutes an authorization without recourse to the Company to destroy without payment any return items deemed unfit for resale.

Investments

The Company uses the equity method of accounting for companies and other investments in which the Company has significant influence. Generally this represents common stock ownership or convertible rights of at least 20%, and not greater than 50%, of the company in which the Company has the investment and, for investments in limited liability companies, investments of at least 5% of ownership percentages.

The Company performs analysis of the operations and financial position of all investments on a quarterly basis subsequent to its initial investment, including a review of quarterly unaudited financial statements. The Company considers any increase/decrease in the Company's investments to be temporary unless other information related to sale or cessation exists.

Goodwill and Intangible Assets

The Financial Accounting Standards Board ( FASB ) recently issued SFAS No. 141 Business Combination and SFAS No. 142 Goodwill and Other Intangible Assets. SFAS No. 141 eliminates the pooling method of accounting for all business combinations initiated after June 30, 2001. SFAS No. 142 requires that goodwill no longer be amortized against earnings, but instead be reviewed periodically for impairment, with any identified impairment treated as a cumulative effect of change in accounting principle. As of April 1, 2002, no goodwill impairment was identified.

The Company adopted SFAS No. 142, effective April 1, 2002, as a result amortization of goodwill was discontinued. The following is a proforma presentation of reported net income and earnings per share, adjusted for the exclusion of goodwill amortization net of related income tax effect:

March 31, 2002	$ 1,788,000	$ (431,000)	$ 1,357,000

The net amount of goodwill at September 30, 2002, and March 31, 2002, was $2,067,000. There were no intangible assets reclassified to goodwill upon adoption of SFAS No. 142.

Amortization expense related to goodwill and intangible assets was $41,000 and $68,000 for the three months ended September 30, 2002 and 2001, respectively, and $81,000 and $136,000 for the six months ended September 30, 2002, and 2001, respectively. Estimated aggregate future amortization expense for intangible assets remaining as of September 30, 2002, are $190,000 for fiscal 2003 and $200,000 for fiscal 2004.

Recent Accounting Pronouncements

In August 2001, the FASB issued SFAS No. 144, Accounting for the Impairment or Disposal of Long-Lived Assets. SFAS No. 144 addresses the financial accounting and reporting for the impairment or disposal of long-lived assets. SFAS No. 144 supersedes SFAS No. 121 but retains the fundamental provisions of SFAS No. 121 for (i) recognition/measurement of impairment of long-lived assets to be held and used, and (ii) measurement of long-lived assets to be disposed of by sale. SFAS No. 144 also supersedes the accounting and reporting provisions of Accounting Principles Board's (APB) No. 30, Reporting the Results of Operations - Reporting the Effects of Disposal of a Segment of a Business and Extraordinary, Unusual and Infrequently Occurring Events and Transaction, for segments of business to be disposed of, but retains APB No. 30's requirement to report discontinued operations separately from continuing operations and extends that reporting to a component of an entity that either has been disposed of or is classified as held for sale. SFAS No. 144 is effective for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2001. The company adopted the provisions of SFAS No. 144 effective April 1, 2002. The adoption of this standard did not have any impact on the Company's financial statements.

In April 2002, the FASB issued SFAS No. 145, Rescission of FASB Statements No. 4, 44, and 64, Amendment of FASB Statement No. 13, and Technical Corrections, which provides for the rescission of several previously issued accounting standards, new accounting guidance for the accounting of certain lease modifications and various technical corrections that are not substantive in nature to existing pronouncements. The Company will adopt SFAS No. 145 on April 1, 2003, except for the provisions relating to the amendment of SFAS No. 13, which was adopted for transactions occurring subsequent to May 15, 2002. The Company is currently assessing the impact of SFAS No. 145 on its financial position and results of operations.

In July 2002, the FASB issued SFAS No. 146, Accounting for Costs Associated with Exit or Disposal Activities, which requires companies to recognize costs associated with exit or disposal activities when they are incurred rather than at the date of a commitment to an exit or disposal plan. SFAS No. 146 is to be applied prospectively to exit or disposal activities initiated after December 31, 2002. The Company is currently assessing the impact of SFAS No. 146 on its financial position and results of operations.

Edgar Filing: SCHERER HEALTHCARE INC - Form 10-Q

The Company had the following investments as of September 30, 2002, and March 31, 2002:

	September 30, 2002	March 31, 2002
Investments in marketable securities, at market value	$	$ 8,811,000

Other investments, at cost	28,000	29,000
Total	$ 318,000	$ 9,143,000

During the six months ended September 30, 2002, the Company liquidated all investments in marketable securities. Previously, the Company's investments in marketable securities, at market value, consisted of investments in long-term high-grade marketable securities composed primarily of government and corporate fixed income bonds. These marketable securities were classified as available-for-sale and were being carried at market value based on quoted market prices. There were no unrealized holding gains (losses) on these investments reported as other comprehensive income (loss) for the six months ended September 30, 2002, due to the liquidation.

The amortized cost and fair market value of the Company's marketable securities are as follows:

March 31, 2002
Municipal bonds	$ 6,408,000	$ (243,000)	$ 6,165,000
Corporate bonds	2,733,000	(87,000)	2,646,000

Edgar Filing: SCHERER HEALTHCARE INC - Form 10-Q

The Company had one investment in an unconsolidated company, MedicareFacts, LLC, recorded on the equity method of accounting, of $290,000 and $303,000 as of September 30, 2002, and March 31, 2002, respectively. The Company's equity in the net loss of the unconsolidated company was $13,000 for the six months ended September 30, 2002.

The equity method of accounting is used for investments in companies in which the Company has significant influence. This represents common stock ownership or convertible rights of at least 5% for investments in limited liability companies.

MedicareFacts, LLC designs and develops reimbursement guides which provide a single source for all coding and coverage information needed to file accurate Medicare claims, thus ensuring optimal reimbursement and compliance with government regulations. These products are used principally by hospitals and clinical laboratories. The Company's investment is in the form of a two-year 10% series B unsecured convertible note in the aggregate principal amount of $400,000 that matures in October 2002, and which converts, at the Company's option, into 17% of the outstanding common stock of MedicareFacts, LLC as of September 30, 2002. At this time, MedicareFacts, LLC is unable to retire the debt or pay accrued interest and is in negotiation to refinance its unsecured convertible notes.

Note 5. Comprehensive Income

The Company follows SFAS No. 130, Reporting Comprehensive Income. This statement establishes standards for reporting and display of comprehensive income and its components in a full set of general purpose financial statements. The Company has chosen to disclose comprehensive income, which consists of net income and unrealized gains (losses) on marketable securities, in the consolidated statements of stockholders' equity. During the quarter ended September 30, 2002, the Company eliminated $330,000 of unrealized loss when it liquidated all of its marketable securities.

During the six months ended September 30, 2002, an officer of the Company exercised options for 50,000 shares at the approximate purchase price of $85,000.

Note 8. Subsequent Events

Subsequent to the end of the second quarter of fiscal year 2003, the Company's Board of Directors approved, and on October 9, 2002, the Company entered into an agreement and plan of merger pursuant to which Stericycle, Inc. will acquire the Company and all of its interests for approximately $41.5 million in cash. Upon completion of the merger transaction, the Company will become a wholly owned subsidiary of Stericycle, Inc. The transaction is subject to the approval of the Company's stockholders, customary closing conditions and regulatory review. If the transaction is closed, each issued and outstanding share of the Company's common stock will be acquired for $8.57 and each share of the Company's preferred stock will be acquired for $100.00, together with an amount equal to cumulative dividends, if any. In addition, all outstanding options to purchase the Company's common stock will be canceled, and each canceled option will represent the right to receive upon completion of the merger a cash payment in an amount equal to the option spread (i.e., the product of (i) the number of shares of common stock issuable upon exercise of the option multiplied by (ii) the excess, if any, of $8.57 per share over the exercise price per share payable under the terms of the option.

Item 2. Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations

The following discussion contains, in addition to historical information, forward-looking statements within the meaning of Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and Section 21E of the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, which represent the Company's expectations or beliefs. When used in this report, the words may, could, should, would, believe, anticipate, estimate, expect, intend, similar expressions are intended to identify forward-looking statements. These statements by their nature involve substantial risks and uncertainties, certain of which are beyond the Company's control. The Company cautions that various factors, including the factors described in the Company's filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the SEC), as well as general economic conditions, changes in applicable laws and regulations, industry trends, the impact of the proposed merger with Stericycle, including the impact of the announcement of such transaction, a dependence upon and/or loss of key employees, vendors or customers, the loss of strategic product shipping relationships, customer demand, product availability, competition (including pricing and availability), concentrations of credit risks, distribution efficiencies, capacity constraints and technological difficulties could cause actual results or outcomes to differ materially from those expressed in any forward-looking statements of the Company. Reference is made to this report as well as the Company's most recent Annual Report on Form 10-K and other reports filed with the SEC for other factors that could affect the forward-looking statements. Any forward-looking statement speaks only as of the date of this report and the Company undertakes no obligation to update any forward-looking statement or statements to reflect events or circumstances after the date on which such statements are made or to reflect the occurrence of an unanticipated event. New factors emerge from time to time, and it is not possible for the Company to predict all of such factors. Further, the Company cannot assess the impact of each such factor on its business or the extent to which any factor, or combination of factors, may cause actual results to differ materially from those contained in any forward-looking statements.

Application of Critical Accounting Policies

The methods, estimates and judgments the Company uses in applying its most critical accounting policies have been a significant impact on the results the Company reports in its financial statements. The SEC has defined critical accounting policies as policies that involve critical accounting estimates that require (i) management to make assumptions that are highly uncertain at the time the estimate is made, and (ii) different estimates that could have been reasonably used for the current period, or changes in the estimates that are reasonably likely to occur from period to period, which would have a material impact on the presentation of the Company's financial condition, changes in financial condition or had results of operations. Based on this definition, the Company's most critical policies include: revenue recognition; accounting for investments, which impacts write-offs of investments; allowances for doubtful accounts, which impact selling, general and administrative; and the assessment of recoverability of goodwill and other intangible assets, which impacts write-offs of goodwill and intangibles. These policies are discussed further below, as well as the estimates and management's judgments involved. The Company also has other key accounting policies, such as policies for revenue recognition, including unbilled accounts receivable and deferred revenue, as well as policies governing the estimate of the useful life of its property and equipment. The Company believes these other key policies either do not generally require it to make estimates and judgments that are as difficult or subjective, or it is less likely that they would have a material impact on the Company's reported results of operation for a given period.

Revenue for services provided is recorded when the Company has completed the service. Product revenue is recorded by the Company when products are received by customers or independent distributors. The Company's payment terms for product sales are the same for all customers, i.e. 1% discount if paid in 10 days, net due in 30 days. The Company does not offer price protection. In accordance with SFAS No. 48,

Revenue Recognition When Right of Return Exists, transactions with customers and distributors qualify as sales at delivery. The Company's return and exchange policy is as follows:

The Company will accept for exchange or credit all merchandise returned in the original and unopened packages within one year after the expiration date;

Merchandise will not be accepted for exchange or credit if purchased at sacrifice, fire or bankruptcy sale, or sold on a non-returnable basis or if deteriorated from causes beyond the Company's control;

Merchandise eligible for return may be exchanged for merchandise of equal value, for a return of the purchase price, or for credit to be applied to future orders;

The return of merchandise constitutes an authorization without recourse to the Company to destroy without payment any return items deemed unfit for resale.

The Company uses the equity method of accounting for companies and other investments in which the Company has significant influence. Generally this represents common stock ownership or convertible rights of at least 20%, and not greater than 50%, of the company in which the Company has the investment and, for investments in limited liability companies, investments of at least 5% of ownership percentages.

The Company performs analysis of the operations and financial position of all investments on a quarterly basis subsequent to its initial investment, including a review of quarterly unaudited financial statements. The Company considers any increase/decrease in the Company's investments to be temporary unless other information related to sale or cessation exists.

The Company maintains allowances for doubtful accounts for estimated losses resulting from the failure of its customers to make required payments. The Company bases its estimates on the aging of its accounts receivable balances and its historical write-off experience, net of recoveries. If the financial condition of the Company's customers were to deteriorate, additional allowances may be required. The Company believes the accounting estimate related to the allowance for doubtful accounts is a critical accounting estimate because changes in it can significantly affect net income and treatment of the allowance requires the Company to anticipate the economic viability of its customers and requires a degree of judgment.

The Company adopted SFAS No. 141 and 142 on accounting for business combinations and goodwill on April 1, 2002. Accordingly, the Company no longer amortizes goodwill, but will continue to amortize other acquisition related costs. The Company expects amortization of permit acquisition costs to be approximately $190,000 in fiscal 2003, down from $261,000 of amortized goodwill and permit acquisition costs in fiscal 2002. The Company assesses the impairment of long-lived assets whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate these carrying values may not be recoverable.

Edgar Filing: SCHERER HEALTHCARE INC - Form 10-Q

In conjunction with the implementation of the new accounting rules for goodwill, the Company has completed the initial goodwill impairment test required by SFAS No. 142. To accomplish this, the Company identified its reporting units and determined the carrying value of each reporting unit by assigning the assets and liabilities, including existing goodwill and intangible assets, to those reporting units as of the date of adoption and determined the fair value of each reporting unit and compared it to the reporting unit's carrying amount. The Company considers itself to have two reporting units. To the extent the reporting unit's carrying amount exceeds its fair value, an indication exists that the reporting unit's goodwill may be impaired and the Company must perform the second step of the impairment test. In the second step, the Company must compare the implied fair value of the reporting units goodwill, determined by allocating the reporting unit's fair value to all of its assets and liabilities in a manner similar to a purchase price allocation in accordance with SFAS No. 141, to its carrying amount, both of which would be measured as of the date of adoption.

The Company performed the initial goodwill impairment test required by SFAS No. 142 during the first quarter of fiscal 2003. The Company considers itself to have two reporting units. As of April 1, 2002, based on the Company's comparison of the fair value of the reporting units to its carrying value inclusive of goodwill, there was no impairment of goodwill recorded upon implementation of SFAS No. 142. The Company will continue to test for impairment on an annual basis, coinciding with its fiscal year end, or on an interim basis if circumstances change that would more likely than not reduce the fair value of its reporting unit below its carrying amount.

The Company adopted SFAS No. 144 on accounting for the impairment or disposal of long-lived assets effective April 1, 2002. The adoption of this standard did not have an impact on the Company's financial statements.

In April 2002, the FASB issued SFAS No. 145, Rescission of FASB Statements No. 4, 44, and 64, Amendment of FASB Statement No. 13, and Technical Corrections, which provides for the rescission of several previously issued accounting standards, new accounting guidance for the accounting of certain lease modifications and various technical corrections that are not substantive in nature to existing pronouncements. The Company will adopt SFAS No. 145 on April 1, 2003, except for the provisions relating to the amendment of SFAS No. 13, which was adopted for transactions occurring subsequent to May 15, 2002. The Company is currently assessing the impact of SFAS No. 145 on its financial position and results of operations.

In July 2002, the FASB issued SFAS No. 146, Accounting for Costs Associated with Exit or Disposal Activities, which requires companies to recognize costs associated with exit or disposal activities when they are incurred rather than at the date of a commitment to an exit or disposal plan. SFAS No. 146 is to be applied prospectively to exit or disposal activities initiated after December 31, 2002. The Company is currently assessing the impact of SFAS No. 146 on its financial position and results of operations.

Subsequent Events

Subsequent to the end of the second quarter of fiscal year 2003, the Company's Board of Directors approved a definitive agreement pursuant to which Stericycle, Inc. will acquire the Company and all of its interests for $41.5 million in cash. Upon completion of the merger transaction, the Company will become a wholly owned subsidiary of Stericycle, Inc. The transaction is subject to the approval of the Company's shareholders, customary closing conditions and regulatory review. If the transaction is closed, each issued and outstanding share of the Company's common stock will be acquired for $8.57 and each share of the Company's preferred stock will be acquired for $100.00, together with an amount equal to cumulative dividends, if any. In addition, all outstanding options to purchase the Company's common stock will be canceled, and each canceled option will represent the right to receive upon completion of the merger a cash payment in an amount equal to the option spread (i.e., the product of (i) the number of shares of common stock issuable upon exercise of the option multiplied by (ii) the excess, if any, of $8.57 per share over the exercise price per share payable under the option), less any required withholding taxes.

The merger agreement specifies that the transaction is subject to the approval of the Company's stockholders, customary closing conditions and regulatory reviews, including approval of the merger transaction by the New York City Business Integrity Commission. The merger agreement is terminable in certain circumstances by the Company, including in connection with a determination to accept a qualified superior proposal (subject to payment of a termination fee in the amount of $1.5 million).

In connection with the merger agreement, Robert P. Scherer, Jr., the Company's Chairman of the Board of Directors, President and Chief Executive Officer who controls the voting power over a majority of the shares of common stock, is a party to a voting agreement pursuant to which he has agreed to vote all of the shares of common stock over which he has voting power in favor of the merger transaction. Mr. Scherer has sole voting power over shares representing approximately 52.0% of the Company's outstanding common stock and shared voting power over shares representing approximately 7.7% of the Company's outstanding common stock. (The party with whom Mr. Scherer shares voting power over these latter shares is not a party to the voting agreement.) Under the voting agreement, Mr. Scherer has given his proxy to the Company's president and CEO and its Chief Financial Officer to vote the shares subject to the voting agreement at the special meeting of the Company's stockholders to be held for the purpose of voting on the proposed merger transaction. The voting agreement terminates automatically upon, among other things, the termination of the merger agreement or the merger agreement becoming terminable pursuant to specified sections of the merger agreement.

Mr. Scherer has entered into a five-year noncompetition agreement with Stericycle pursuant to which, in consideration for his receiving $195,000 per year during the term of the agreement, he will not provide services for any competing business or solicit for a competing business any customer or employee of the Company. In addition, Stericycle has agreed to pay Mr. Scherer a one time consulting fee of $225,000 on the effective date of the merger transaction in exchange for his entering into a three-year consulting agreement whereby he will provide consulting services to Stericycle upon its request. These two agreements do not become effective until the closing of the merger transaction.

The Company's net sales increased 8% to $5,536,000 for the second quarter of fiscal 2003 from $5,132,000 for the second quarter of fiscal 2002. The Company's operating income increased 1% to $469,000 for the second quarter of fiscal 2003 from $463,000 for the second quarter of fiscal 2002. The Company's cost of goods sold of the Waste Management Services Segment is made up of direct labor and related costs and benefits to collect and process waste, vehicle and equipment maintenance, repair and depreciation, waste disposal costs and interest on capital leases used to finance vehicle acquisitions. The cost of goods sold for the Consumer Healthcare Products Segment is made up of the cost of materials for products distributed and the related shipping expenses. The Company's cost of goods sold on a consolidated basis for the quarter ended September 30, 2002, and September 30, 2001, was 68% and 65%, respectively, of net sales. Selling, general and administrative expenses decreased to 24% of net sales for the second quarter of fiscal 2003 from 26% of net sales for the second quarter of fiscal 2002 on a consolidated basis. Selling, general and administrative expenses in both of the Company's business segments is made up of:

management, administrative and office compensation, related costs and benefits;

utilities, insurance, property depreciation, bad debt, professional fees, rent, amortization, advertising promotion, travel and miscellaneous other expenses.

The Company's net sales increased 8% to $10,939,000 for the six months ended September 30, 2002, from $10,166,000 for the six months ended September 30, 2001. The Company's operating income increased 0.2% to $1,019,000 for the first six months of fiscal 2003 from $1,017,000 for the first six months of fiscal 2002. Cost of goods sold increased to 66% of net sales for the six months ended September 30, 2002, from 64% of net sales for the six months ended September 30, 2001. Selling, general and administrative expenses decreased to 25% of net sales for the six months ended September 30, 2002, from 26% of net sales for the six months ended September 30, 2001. The primary reasons for these changes are discussed below.

The results of operations of the Company are dependent upon the results of operations of each of its subsidiaries operating in the Company's individual business segments. Set forth below is a discussion of the results of operations of each of these segments.

Waste Management Services Segment

Net sales in the Company's Waste Management Services Segment, which operates through Bio Waste Systems, Inc. and Medical Waste Systems, Inc. (collectively, Bio Systems), increased 9% to $5,116,000 for the second quarter of fiscal 2003 from $4,694,000 for the second quarter of fiscal 2002. Bio Systems' net sales increased 8% to $10,042,000 for the six months ended September 30, 2003, from $9,265,000 during the same period in fiscal 2002. As in the last few years, the sales growth is primarily due to securing new hospital contracts for Bio Systems' core business of providing sharps (including sharp-edged medical waste such as scalpels, syringes, and needles) disposal services which utilize cost effective reusable containers.

Bio Systems' operating income decreased to $402,000 for the quarter ended September 30, 2002, from $524,000 for the quarter ended September 30, 2001. Bio Systems' cost of goods sold for the second quarter of fiscal 2003 was 71% of net sales compared to 68% for the second quarter of fiscal 2002. Selling, general and administrative expenses remained at 21% of Bio Systems' net sales for the quarter ended September 30, 2002, and for the quarter ended September 30, 2001.

Bio Systems' operating income decreased 3% to $900,000 for the six months ended September 30, 2002, from $1,122,000 for the six months ended September 30, 2001. Primarily due to the reasons discussed below, Bio Systems' cost of goods sold for the six months ended September 30, 2002, as a percentage of its net sales was 69% compared to 67% for the six months ended September 30, 2001. Bio Systems' selling, general and administrative expenses remained at 21% of net sales for the first six months of fiscal 2003 and for the first six months of fiscal 2002.

Preparing new accounts for service requires, among other things, installation of Bio Systems' reusable containers and sometimes considerable operational follow-up which causes increases in certain costs and expenses such as operating payroll and expense for the hardware related to the installation of the reusable containers. Although Bio Systems continues to increase revenue through new hospital contracts, the pricing pressures combined with certain contract restrictions have hampered Bio Systems' ability to effectively absorb these costs and expenses as compared to prior periods. Bio Systems' costs and expenses for waste disposal have increased slightly due to the outsourcing of the disposal of the laboratory and surgical fluid waste and red bag waste. The reusable containers that Bio Systems uses to collect the laboratory and surgical fluid waste are larger than the sharps collection containers and the waste disposal machinery at Bio Systems' processing facility is not currently equipped to process these larger containers. In the future, Bio Systems intends to process these larger containers at its processing facility by retrofitting its waste disposal system at a cost that is not expected to be material to Bio Systems' results of operations.

Consumer Healthcare Products Segment

Net sales for the Consumer Healthcare Products Segment, which operates through Scherer Laboratories, Inc. (Scherer Labs), decreased 4% to $420,000 for the second quarter of fiscal 2003 from $438,000 during the same period in fiscal 2002. Scherer Labs' net sales decreased 0.4% to $897,000 for the six months ended September 30, 2002 from $901,000 for the six months ended September 30, 2001.

Scherer Labs' operating income increased 20% to $211,000 for the second quarter of fiscal 2003 from $176,000 for the second quarter of fiscal 2002 and increased 24% to $444,000 for the six months ended September 30, 2002, from $359,000 for the six months ended September 30, 2001. The increase in operating income is primarily due to the increased gross margin resulting from consolidating its packaging process in one location.

Corporate

The Company's operating expenses in the Corporate Segment decreased to $144,000 for the quarter ended September 30, 2002, from $237,000 for the quarter ended September 30, 2001. For the six months ended September 30, 2002, operating expenses in the Corporate Segment decreased to $325,000 from $464,000 for the same period in fiscal 2002. Certain administrative, accounting, management oversight and payroll services are performed by the Company's corporate office. The Corporate operating expenses primarily include the salaries and wages of the personnel who perform these functions (including the Company's executive officers), rent expense, and professional accounting and legal fees. The salaries and wages decreased to $104,000 for the second quarter of fiscal 2003 from $165,000 for the second quarter of fiscal 2002 and to $206,000 for the first six months of fiscal 2003 from $264,000 for the first six months of fiscal 2002. Professional, legal, accounting and financial consulting fees decreased to $16,000 for the second quarter of fiscal 2003 from $33,000 for the second quarter of fiscal 2002 and decreased to $46,000 for the first six months of fiscal 2003 from $148,000 for the first six months of fiscal 2002.

Other Income

The Company's interest income decreased to $80,000 for the second quarter of fiscal 2003 from $114,000 for the second quarter of fiscal 2002 and decreased to $194,000 for the six months ended September 30, 2002, from $306,000 for the six months ended September 30, 2001. The Company recognized equity in net losses of unconsolidated companies of $1,000 and $13,000 for the second quarter of fiscal 2003 and for the six months ended September 30, 2002, respectively, relating to its equity method investments, and the gain on liquidation of our marketable securities resulted in a gain of $223,000 in the second quarter of fiscal 2003 compared to a loss on the sale of marketable securities of $34,000 in the second quarter of fiscal 2002. For the six months ended September 30, 2002, the net gain on marketable security transactions was $19,000 compared to the $34,000 loss on the sale of marketable securities for the six months ended September 30, 2001.

Provision for Income Taxes

During the first quarter of fiscal 2003, the Company's taxable income used the remaining net operating loss carryforward balance that existed as of March 31, 2002. The provision for income taxes increased to $349,000 for the first six months of fiscal 2003 from a tax benefit of $808,000 for the first six months of fiscal 2002.

Liquidity and Capital Resources

The Company's cash and cash equivalents totaled $15,757,000 at September 30, 2002, an increase of $10,196,000 from March 31, 2002. The Company's working capital increased to $18,286,000 at September 30, 2002, from $8,155,000 at March 31, 2002. This increase was primarily for the reasons described below and the result of investment transactions described above.

Cash Flow from Operating Activities

The Company's cash provided by operating activities totaled $1,818,000 for the first six months of fiscal 2003, as compared to $1,777,000 for the first six months of fiscal 2002.

Cash Flows from Investing and Financing Activities

The Company's investing activities provided cash of $8,407,000 for the six months ended September 30, 2002, as compared to a use of cash of $1,696,000 for the six months ended September 30, 2001. This change was primarily from the liquidation of the Company's positions in all marketable securities. For the six months ended September 30, 2002, the Company acquired in its Waste Management Services Segment new vehicles, factory machinery and equipment, office equipment and containers amounting to $761,000, versus $507,000 for the six months ended September 30, 2001.

Net cash used for financing activities was $29,000 for the six months ended September 30, 2002, after receiving $85,000 from exercised options, and $68,000 for the six months ended September 30, 2001.

Management of the Company believes that its current cash on hand and its current and future cash flow is sufficient to maintain its current operations.
