ANNUAL MEETING

MAY 18, 2005

March 29, 2005

DEAR FELLOW STOCKHOLDER:

The year 2004 was one of substantial accomplishment for Station Casinos, Inc. (the Company) by almost any measure. The Company posted record earnings and its stockholders enjoyed a substantial increase in the value of their investment. In fact, during 2004, the Company's common stock increased $24.05 per share, a 79% increase in value, not including dividends. Even more impressively, from January 1, 2004 through the date of this letter, our common stock has increased $36.31 per share, a 119% increase in value, not including dividends.

Not only has the Company produced exceptional financial results, it is also an exceptional employer. In January 2005, FORTUNE Magazine named Station Casinos as one of the 100 Best Companies to Work For, based on the policies and culture of the Company and the opinions of the Company's employees.

Despite the Company's exceptional record of financial performance and delivering value to stockholders, this year's annual meeting may involve a proxy contest started by the Culinary Workers Local Union 226 and UNITE HERE (the Union). The Union, owner of 262 shares of common stock, will be seeking shareholder support for three non-binding stockholder proposals. Your Board of Directors is unanimously opposed to the Union's efforts.

We believe that the Union's motivation in waging the proxy contest is nothing more than a thinly-disguised pressure tactic to promote its own union organizing agenda. As you know, the Company's workforce is non-union, despite the Union's ongoing efforts to organize the Company. You also should know that the Union itself admits in its proxy materials:

Station Casinos has been one of the leading performers in the gaming industry.

The Company's position with respect to the Union dissidents will be more fully detailed in our proxy materials, which we are now preparing. Until our proxy materials reach you, do not return any card the Union dissidents may send to you.

We intend to communicate with you further and keep you informed of significant developments. On behalf of your Board of Directors, thank you for your continued interest and support.

Sincerely,

Frank J. Fertitta III
Chairman of the Board and
Chief Executive Officer
