Item 8.01 Other Events.

Chemtura Corporation advised today that it expects third quarter 2005 earnings to be significantly below First Call consensus estimates. Earnings per share for the third quarter, before merger-related and other charges, are forecast to be approximately ten cents per share, which reflects about $40 million in lower than expected operating income.

The Company also announced that it will host a teleconference at 10:00 a.m. this morning to further comment and answer investor and analysts questions.

A copy of a press release announcing this information is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1 and is incorporated by reference herein.
