Policy Regarding Shareholder Rights Plans

The Board will only adopt a shareholder rights plan if either:

- Shareholders have approved the adoption of the plan; or
- The Board, including at least a majority of the independent directors, in the exercise of its fiduciary responsibilities, determines that it is in the best interests of State Street's shareholders under the circumstances to adopt a plan without the delay in adoption that would result from seeking shareholder approval; provided that, in such case, the Board will put the plan to a shareholder ratification vote within 12 months of its adoption or the plan will expire. If the plan is put to a shareholder vote by the Board and ratification of the plan is not approved by a majority of the votes cast on the issue, the plan will be terminated immediately after the vote has been certified by the inspector of elections.
