Item 2.02. Results of Operations and Financial Condition.

On July 2, 2007, The Medicines Company (the Company) announced that it expects net revenue for the quarter ended June 30, 2007 to be in the range of $56 million to $58 million.

Statements contained in this Form 8-K about The Medicines Company that are not purely historical, and all other statements that are not purely historical, may be deemed to be forward-looking statements for purposes of the safe harbor provisions under The Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Without limiting the foregoing, the words believes, anticipates and expects and similar expressions are intended to identify forward-looking statements and all statements as to revenue are forward-looking statements. These forward-looking statements involve known and unknown risks and uncertainties that may cause the Company's actual results, performance or achievements to be materially different from those expressed or implied by these forward-looking statements. For example, the revenue results for the quarter ended June 30, 2006 are preliminary and subject to change. Important factors that may cause or contribute to such differences include the extent of the commercial success of Angiomax, the impact of FAS 123R on our financial results, the impact of government regulation on the Company's business and the effects of exchange rate fluctuations and other international economic, political and other risks, and such other factors as are set forth in the risk factors detailed from time to time in the Company's periodic reports and registration statements filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission including, without limitation, the risk factors detailed in the Company's Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q filed on May 9, 2007, which are incorporated herein by reference. The Company specifically disclaims any obligation to update these forward-looking statements. These forward-looking statements should not be relied upon as representing the Company's estimates or views as of any date subsequent to the date of this press release.

The information in this Form 8-K shall not be deemed filed for purposes of Section 18 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (the Exchange Act) or otherwise subject to the liabilities of that section, nor shall it be deemed incorporated by reference in any filing under the Securities Act of 1933 or the Exchange Act, except as expressly set forth by specific reference in such a filing.

SIGNATURES

Pursuant to the requirements of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, the registrant has duly caused this report to be signed on its behalf by the undersigned hereunto duly authorized.
