Item 3.01 Notice of Compliance with a Continued Listing Rule or Standard; Transfer of Listing.

On March 19, 2008, Senesco Technologies, Inc. (the Company) received a letter from the American Stock Exchange (AMEX) informing the Company that it has resolved the continued listing deficiencies referenced in the AMEX s letters dated June 15, 2007 and October 24, 2007. The conclusion is based upon a review of publicly available information pertaining to the Company, including its Securities and Exchange Commission filings.

Senesco is now subject to the provisions of Section 1009(h) which states that if the Company, within 12 months of March 1, 2008, is again determined to be below the continued listing standards, the AMEX staff then may take appropriate action, which, depending upon the circumstances, may include providing the Company with an opportunity to submit a plan to the AMEX advising the AMEX of action the Company has taken, or will take, that would bring it into compliance with the continued listing standards, or the AMEX may immediately initiate delisting proceedings.
