RESULTS OF GOING PRIVATE TRANSACTION

On January 14, 2010 Gander Mountain Company (the Company) effected a 1-for-30,000 reverse split (the Reverse Split) of the Company's common stock, par value $.01 per share. Those shareholders who, immediately following the Reverse Split, owned less than one share of the common stock will, in lieu thereof, be paid an amount, in cash, equal to $5.15 per share of their pre-Reverse Split common stock, and will no longer be shareholders of the Company. Immediately following the Reverse Split, the Company effected a forward split of the common stock (the Forward Split and together with the Reverse Split, the Reverse/Forward Stock Split) pursuant to which each share of common stock registered in the name of a shareholder holding at least one share of Common Stock immediately after the effective time of the Reverse Split, including fractions thereof for holders holding in excess of one whole share following the Reverse Split, were converted into 30,000 shares of common stock.

Wells Fargo Bank, N.A., who will act as the Company's exchange and payment agent (the Exchange Agent), will send all shareholders with stock certificates representing the right to receive cash payments a letter of transmittal with instructions to be used to transmit common stock certificates. Upon proper completion and execution of the letter of transmittal, and the return of the letter of transmittal and accompanying stock certificate(s) to the Exchange Agent, each shareholder entitled to receive payment will receive a check for such shareholder's stock. Shareholders should allow for approximately five business days after mailing for the Exchange Agent to receive the letter of transmittal and accompanying stock certificate. The Exchange Agent will send a check for such shareholder's stock within approximately seven to ten business days after receiving such properly completed letter of transmittal and accompanying stock certificate. In the event we are unable to locate a shareholder, or if a shareholder fails properly to complete, execute and return the letter of transmittal and accompanying stock certificate to the Exchange Agent, any funds payable to such holder pursuant to the Reverse/Forward Stock Split will be held in escrow until a proper claim is made, subject to applicable abandoned property laws. Shareholders should not send their stock certificates to the Company or the Exchange Agent until after they have received the letter of transmittal and instructions.

The results of the Company's going private transaction are as follows:

Number of shares outstanding prior to the transaction:	24,197,732
Number of shares outstanding after the transaction:	20,248,015
Approximate number of shareholders of record prior to the transaction:	92
Approximate number of shareholders of record after the transaction:	15
Total cash payable in lieu of fractional shares:	$ 20,341,042.28

The Company will issue Holiday Stationstores, Inc. and Gratco, LLC an aggregate of 3,949,717 shares of common stock in exchange for funding the amounts required to pay cash in lieu of the fractional shares resulting from the Reverse Split.

UPDATED OPINION OF GREENE HOLCOMB & FISHER, LLC

As previously announced, the special committee retained Greene Holcomb & Fisher, LLC (Greene Holcombe) to act as its independent financial advisor and to render to the special committee an opinion as to the fairness, from a financial point of view, to the shareholders receiving cash in lieu of fractional interests in connection with the Reverse/Forward Stock Split of the consideration such shareholders would receive in the transaction, and to unaffiliated continuing shareholders who retain their common stock immediately following the Reverse/Forward Stock Split of the consideration to be offered to such continuing shareholders pursuant to the offers to purchase to be commenced by the Company following consummation of the Reverse/Forward Stock Split.

On September 27, 2009, Greene Holcomb delivered to the special committee its oral opinion, subsequently confirmed in writing, that as of that date and based upon and subject to the assumptions, factors and limitations set forth in the written opinion, (i) the $5.15 per pre-split share to be received by the shareholders receiving cash in lieu of fractional interests in connection with the Reverse/Forward Stock Split is fair, from a financial point of view, to the shareholders receiving cash in lieu of fractional interests in connection with the Reverse/Forward Stock Split (other than the Holiday Group, the Gratco Group and their affiliates); and (ii) the $5.15 per share to be offered to unaffiliated continuing shareholders who retain their common stock immediately following the Reverse/Forward Stock Split is fair, from a financial point of view, to those continuing shareholders.

On January 14, 2010, at the request of the special committee, Greene Holcomb delivered to the special committee its bring-down oral opinion, subsequently confirmed in writing, that as of that date and based upon and subject to the assumptions, factors and limitations set forth in the written opinion, (i) the $5.15 per pre-split share to be received by the shareholders receiving cash in lieu of fractional interests in connection with the Reverse/Forward Stock Split is fair, from a financial point of view, to the shareholders receiving cash in lieu of fractional interests in connection with the Reverse/Forward Stock Split (other than the Holiday Group, the Gratco Group and their affiliates); and (ii) the $5.15 per share to be offered to unaffiliated continuing shareholders who retain their common stock immediately following the Reverse/Forward Stock Split is fair, from a financial point of view, to those continuing shareholders.

The full text of Greene Holcomb's written opinion dated January 14, 2010 is filed herewith as Annex A. We urge our shareholders to read the Greene Holcomb opinion carefully in its entirety for a complete statement of the considerations and procedures followed, factors considered, findings, assumptions and qualifications made, the bases for and methods of arriving at these findings, limitations on the review undertaken in connection with the opinion, and judgments made or conclusions undertaken by Greene Holcomb in reaching its opinion.

While Greene Holcomb rendered its opinions and provided certain analyses to the special committee, Greene Holcomb was not requested to, and did not make, any recommendation to the special committee as to the specific form or amount of the consideration to be received by shareholders in the Reverse/Forward Stock Split and offers to purchase. Greene Holcomb's written opinions, which were directed to the special committee, address only the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the consideration per share to be paid for fractional shares in connection with the Reverse/Forward Stock Split and to be offered in the offers to purchase, and do not address the Company's underlying business decision to proceed with, or effect, the Reverse/Forward Stock Split, or the relative merits of the Reverse/Forward Stock Split compared to any alternative business strategy or transaction in which the Company might engage. As noted elsewhere in the information statement mailed to the Company's shareholders, Greene Holcomb's opinions to the special committee were one of many factors taken into consideration by the special committee and the board in determining to approve the Reverse/Forward Stock Split and the offers to purchase.

Greene Holcomb also made a presentation to the special committee providing updated financial analysis on January 12, 2010. That presentation is filed as Exhibit (c.8) hereto. Information contained in updated presentation is substantially similar to the information provided in Greene Holcomb's written presentation to the special committee on September 27, 2009, as described in the information statement mailed to the Company's shareholders. The financial analyses in the updated presentation were based on information about market, economic and other conditions and other information that was available as of January 12, 2010. Accordingly, the financial analyses differed due to changes in those conditions.

Special Committee of the Board of Directors

Gander Mountain Company

180 5th St E # 1300
St Paul, MN 55101-1664

Ladies and Gentlemen:

Gander Mountain Company (the "Company") has previously announced a 1 for 30,000 reverse stock split (the "Reverse Split"), which will then be immediately followed by a 30,000 for 1 forward stock split. As a result of the reverse-forward stock split (the "Reverse/Forward Split"), (a) each shareholder owning fewer than 30,000 shares of the Company's common stock before the split (a "Cashed-Out Holder") will receive $5.15 in cash for each of such shareholder's pre-split shares (the "Cancellation Price"), and (b) each share of the Company's common stock held by a shareholder owning 30,000 or more shares before the split (a "Remaining Holder") will continue to represent one share of the Company's common stock. In connection with the Reverse/Forward Split, we understand that under two Funding and Indemnification Agreements dated September 27, 2009 with the Company (the "Agreements"), certain shareholders of the Company (the "Funding Shareholders") have agreed to offer to purchase (the "Offer to Purchase," and together with the Reverse/Forward Split, the "Transaction") at a price per share equal to the Cancellation Price all shares of the Company's common stock that remain outstanding and are held by the remaining shareholders other than the Funding Shareholders and affiliates of the Funding Shareholders (the "Remaining Holders"). In addition, under the Agreements, the Funding Shareholders have agreed to be responsible for the Company's obligations to pay for fractional shares in the Reverse Split, to indemnify the Company, and to make payments for the Company in the event the Company is required to pay current or former shareholders any amounts in excess of the Cancellation Price. The Transaction is described in more detail in a Schedule 13E-3, as amended, filed by the Company with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

On September 27, 2009, we provided an opinion to the Special Committee of the Board of Directors of the Company (the "Committee") that, as of September 27, 2009, (i) the Cancellation Price to be received by the Cashed-Out Holders in the Reverse Split is fair, from a financial point of view, to the Cashed-Out Holders, and (ii) the Cancellation Price to be offered to the Remaining Holders is fair, from a financial point of view, to the Remaining Holders.

We have relied upon and assumed, without independent verification, the accuracy and completeness of the financial and other information provided to or discussed with us by the Company or obtained by us from public sources, including, without limitation, the Projections referred to above. With respect to the Projections, we have relied on representations that they have been reasonably prepared on bases reflecting the best currently available estimates and judgments of the senior management of the Company as to the expected future performance of the Company. We have not assumed any responsibility for the independent verification of any such information, including, without limitation, the Projections, and we have further relied upon the assurances of the senior management of the Company that they are unaware of any facts that would make the information, including the Projections, provided to us, incomplete or misleading. We have assumed that there have been no material changes in the assets, financial condition, results of operations, business or prospects of the Company since the date of the last financial statements made available to us. We have also assumed that the Company is not a party to any material non-public pending transaction, including external financing, recapitalizations, acquisitions or merger discussions, other than the Transaction.

In arriving at our opinion, we have not performed or obtained any independent appraisal of the assets or liabilities (contingent or otherwise) of the Company, nor have we been furnished with any appraisal. We express no opinion regarding the liquidation value of the Company. In addition, we have undertaken no independent analysis of any outstanding, pending or threatened litigation, material claims, possible unasserted claims or other contingent liabilities to which the Company or any of its affiliates is a party or may be subject, or of any other governmental investigation of any possible unasserted claims or other contingent liabilities to which the Company or any of its affiliates is a party or may be subject. At the Company's direction and with its consent, our opinion makes no assumption concerning, and therefore does not consider, the potential effects of any such litigation, claims, investigations or possible assertions of claims, or the outcomes or damages arising out of any such matters.

We have assumed that: (i) all the necessary governmental and regulatory approvals and consents required for the Transaction will be obtained; and (ii) that the Transaction will be consummated in a timely manner and in accordance with the terms of the Agreements without any limitations, restrictions, conditions, amendments or modifications, regulatory or otherwise, that collectively would have a material adverse effect on the Company or the contemplated benefits to the Company of the Transaction, or will otherwise change the amount of the Cancellation Price. We do not express any opinion as to the price or range of prices at which the shares of the Company common stock may trade subsequent to the announcement of the Transaction.

In addition, for our services in rendering this opinion, the Company will pay us a fee that is not contingent upon the consummation of the Transaction. In addition, the Company has agreed to reimburse us for certain expenses and to indemnify us against certain liabilities arising out of our engagement. This letter is furnished pursuant to our engagement letter dated April 7, 2009, as amended, and has been approved by our fairness opinion committee. It is understood that this letter is intended for the benefit and use of the Committee in connection with its consideration of the Transaction. This opinion does not constitute a recommendation to the Committee as to how to vote in connection with its consideration of the Transaction nor does this letter constitute a recommendation to any Remaining Holder as to whether to tender any shares of the Company's common stock in response to the Offer to Purchase. This letter does not address the Company's underlying business decision to pursue the Transaction, the relative merits of the Transaction as compared to any alternative business strategies that might exist for the Company, or the effects of any other transaction in which the Company might engage.

Furthermore, this letter does not address: (i) the tax or legal consequences of the Transaction to the Company, its security holders or any other party; or (ii) the fairness of any portion or aspect of the Transaction to any one class or group of the Company's or any other party's security holders vis-à-vis any other class or group of the Company's or such other party's security holders (including the fairness of the Transaction to the Cashed-Out Holders vis-à-vis the Remaining Holders). We did not consider any benefits that may inure to any shareholder of the Company as a result of the Transaction or any related transactions other than in that shareholder's capacity as a Cashed-Out Holder of the Company's common stock or a shareholder receiving the Offer to Purchase. This letter addresses solely the Cancellation Price payable to the Cashed-Out Holders and offered to the Remaining Holders, and does not address any other term of agreement relating to the Transaction.

We note that the Reverse Split and the Offer to Purchase will take place at different times after the date hereof. Our opinion relates to the fairness of the Cancellation Price to the Cashed-Out Holders and offered to Remaining Holders as of the date hereof. Our opinion is subject to the assumptions and conditions contained herein and is necessarily based on economic, market and other conditions, and the information made available to us, as of the date hereof. Events occurring after the date hereof could materially affect the assumptions used in preparing, and the conclusions reached in, this opinion. We assume no responsibility for updating, revising or reaffirming our opinion based on circumstances or events occurring after the date hereof.

Based on and subject to the foregoing, it is our opinion that, as of the date hereof: (i) the Cancellation Price to be received by the Cashed-Out Holders in the Reverse Split is fair, from a financial point of view, to the Cashed-Out Holders (other than Funding Shareholders and their affiliates); and (ii) the Cancellation Price to be offered to the Remaining Holders is fair, from a financial point of view, to the Remaining Holders.

Sincerely,

GREENE HOLCOMB & FISHER LLC
