PROXY STATEMENT

GENERAL INFORMATION ABOUT THE MEETING

Proxy Solicitation

Our Board of Directors is soliciting your vote on matters that will be presented at our 2010 Annual Meeting of Shareholders and at any adjournment or postponement. This proxy statement, the accompanying proxy card or voting instructions and our 2009 annual report are being mailed on or about March 25, 2010. This proxy statement contains information on these matters to assist you in voting your shares.

Shareholders Entitled to Vote

If you were a shareholder of record of our common stock, par value $.25 per share, at the close of business on March 19, 2010, you can vote. For each matter presented for vote, you have one vote for each share you own.

Shareholders of Record and Beneficial Owners

If your shares are registered directly in your name with our transfer agent, American Stock Transfer & Trust Company, you are considered the shareholder of record of those shares. We have mailed these proxy materials directly to you.

Edgar Filing: WEST PHARMACEUTICAL SERVICES INC - Form DEF 14A

If your shares are held in a stock brokerage account or by a bank or other holder of record, you are considered the beneficial owner of shares held in street name. These proxy materials have been forwarded to you by your broker, bank or other holder of record who is considered the shareholder of record of those shares. As the beneficial owner, you may direct your broker, bank or other holder of record on how to vote your shares by using the proxy card included in the mailing or by following their instructions for voting on the Internet.

Voting Methods

You may vote using any of the following methods:

Proxy Card or Voting Instruction Card. Be sure to complete, sign and date the card and return it in the prepaid envelope.

Via the Internet. The Internet voting procedure is designed to authenticate votes cast by use of a personal identification number. The procedure allows shareholders to appoint a proxy, provides voting instructions and confirms that your actions have been properly recorded. The website for Internet voting is www.voteproxy.com. The enclosed proxy card contains specific instructions on Internet voting. Please have your proxy card handy when you go online. Internet voting facilities for shareholders of record will be available 24 hours a day and will close at 11:59 PM Eastern Time on May 3, 2010.

In Person at the Meeting. If you are a shareholder of record and attend the meeting, you may deliver your completed proxy card in person. If you are a beneficial owner, you must obtain a proxy from your broker, bank or other holder of record and present it to the judge of elections with your ballot in order to vote.

Table of Contents

Participants in West 401(k) Plan. Any shares you may hold in our 401(k) plan have been added to your other holdings on your proxy card. Your completed proxy card serves as voting instructions to the trustee of that plan. You may direct the trustee how to vote your plan shares by submitting your proxy vote for those shares, along with the rest of your shares, by Internet or mail, all as described on the enclosed proxy card. If you do not instruct the trustee how to vote, your plan shares will be voted by the trustee in the same proportion that it votes shares in other plan accounts for which it received timely voting instructions.

In each case, your shares will be voted as you instruct. If you return a signed card but do not provide voting instructions, your shares will be voted FOR the nominees for election as directors and FOR the ratification of the appointment of PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP as our independent registered public accounting firm for the year ending December 31, 2010.

Changing Your Vote

Even after you have submitted your proxy, you may revoke or change your vote at any time before the proxy is exercised by filing with our corporate secretary either a notice of revocation or a duly executed proxy bearing a later date. You may also vote in person at the meeting, although attendance at the meeting will not by itself revoke a previously granted proxy.

Quorum and Vote Required

A quorum is necessary to conduct business at the annual meeting. A quorum consists of the presence at the meeting either in person or represented by proxy of the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of our common stock entitled to vote. You are part of the quorum if you have voted by proxy. As of the record date for the meeting, 33,221,220 shares of our common stock were issued and outstanding.

Abstentions, including brokers holding customers' shares of record who cause abstentions to be recorded at the meeting, and broker non-votes are considered shareholders who are present and entitled to vote, and they count toward the quorum. A broker non-vote occurs when a broker or other nominee that holds shares for another does not vote on a particular item because the nominee does not have discretionary voting authority for that item and has not received instructions from the owner of the shares. Although there are no controlling precedents under Pennsylvania law regarding the treatment of broker non-votes in certain circumstances, we intend to apply the principles set forth below.

Election of Directors: Directors are elected by a plurality, which means that the director nominee with the most votes for a particular slot is elected for that slot. Abstentions and broker non-votes will not be taken into account in determining the outcome of the election. Please note that this year the rules regarding how brokers may vote your shares have changed. Brokers may no longer vote your shares on the election of directors without your specific instructions on how to vote so we encourage you to provide instructions to your broker regarding how to vote your shares.

Ratification of Auditors: To be approved, this matter must receive the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the shares present and entitled to vote on the item. Shares held by brokers that have not received instructions from their customers can vote on this matter. Therefore, abstentions and broker non-votes have the effect of negative votes.

Costs of Solicitation

We pay the cost of soliciting proxies. Proxies will be solicited on behalf of the Board by mail, telephone, other electronic means or in person. We have retained Innisfree M&A Incorporated, 501 Madison Avenue, New York, NY 10022, to help with the solicitation for a fee of $25,000 plus reasonable out-of-pocket costs and expenses. We will reimburse brokerage firms and other custodians, nominees and fiduciaries their reasonable out-of-pocket expenses for forwarding solicitation materials to shareholders and obtaining their votes.

CORPORATE GOVERNANCE

Corporate Governance Principles

Our Board has adopted corporate governance principles to provide guidance to our Board and its committees on the Board's and committees roles, director qualifications and responsibilities, board and committee composition, organization and leadership. As part of its review of corporate governance developments, the Board modifies the corporate governance principles as warranted. Together with our Articles of Incorporation, Bylaws, Board committee charters and Code of Business Conduct, these guidelines present a comprehensive picture of how the Board addresses its governance responsibilities to ensure our vitality and success. The governance principles and any modifications made to them are published on our website under the Investors Corporate Governance captions at www.westpharma.com. You may request a printed copy of the principles from our corporate secretary.

Board Leadership Structure

The Board believes that our CEO is best situated to serve as Chairman because he is the director most familiar with our business and industry and most capable of effectively identifying strategic priorities and leading the discussion and implementation of strategy. Independent directors and management have different perspectives and roles in strategy development. Our independent directors bring experience, oversight skills and expertise from outside our organization and industry, while the CEO brings company-specific experience and expertise. The Board believes that the combined role of Chairman and CEO promotes strategy development and implementation, and facilitates information flow between management and the Board, which are essential to effective governance.

One of the key responsibilities of the Board is to develop strategic direction and hold management accountable for implementing the strategy once it is developed. The Board believes the combined role of Chairman and CEO, together with the Chairman, Independent Directors having the duties described below, is in the best interest of shareholders because it provides the appropriate balance between strategy development and independent oversight of management.

Chairman, Independent Directors

Anthony Welters, an independent director who serves as Chairman of the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee, was selected by the Board to serve as the Chairman, Independent Directors for all meetings of non-management directors held in executive session. The Chairman, Independent Directors confers with the CEO on Board agenda items, meeting schedules, presentations and other communications; acts as Chairman for Board discussions on any subject where the CEO would not be the appropriate person to chair such discussions; and serves as principal liaison between the CEO and the independent directors.

The CEO and the Chairman, Independent Directors create the agenda for each Board meeting. Each independent director may add items to the agenda. Independent directors meet in regularly scheduled executive sessions and in special executive sessions called by the Chairman, Independent Directors.

The Board's Role in Risk Oversight

The Board has an active role, as a whole and at the committee level, in overseeing management of our risks. The Board regularly reviews information about our financial condition and operations, and the risks associated with each. Our Board's Compensation Committee is responsible for overseeing the management of risks relating to our executive compensation plans and arrangements. The Audit Committee oversees management of financial reporting risks. The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee manages risks associated with the independence of the Board of Directors and potential conflicts of interest. Although each committee is responsible for evaluating certain risks and overseeing the management of those risks, the entire Board of Directors is regularly informed about them through committee reports.

Communicating with the Board

Interested parties can communicate with the Chairman, Independent Directors or the non-management directors as a group by sending a letter addressed to our Board of Directors, c/o Vice President, General Counsel and Secretary, West Pharmaceutical Services, Inc., 101 Gordon Drive, Lionville, PA 19341. Communications to a particular director should be addressed to that director at the same address.

Our corporate secretary maintains a log of all communications received through this process. Communications to specific directors are forwarded to those directors. All other communications are transmitted directly to the Chairman, Independent Directors who decides whether they should be forwarded to a particular Board committee or to management for further handling.

Director Independence Standards

Our Board of Directors has adopted a formal set of categorical director qualification standards used to determine director independence. The standards meet or exceed the independence requirements of the NYSE corporate governance listing standards. Under the standards, a director must be determined to have no material relationship with us other than as a director. The standards specify the criteria for determining director independence, including strict guidelines for directors and their immediate families regarding employment or affiliation with us or our independent registered public accounting firm. The standards also prohibit Audit Committee members from having any direct or indirect financial relationship with us and they restrict not-for-profit relationships of all directors with us. The full text of our Standards may be found on our website at www.westpharma.com under the Investors Corporate Governance captions.

With the assistance of our General Counsel, the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee has reviewed the applicable legal standards for Board and Board committee member independence, our standards of independence and the criteria applied to determine audit committee financial expert status. The Committee has also reviewed a summary of the answers to annual questionnaires completed by each director. On the basis of this review, the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee has reported its findings to the full Board and the Board has affirmatively determined that each of its non-employee directors is independent of us and our management under our standard of independence. In making its determination, the Board considered relevant facts and circumstances, including direct and indirect transactions and relationships between each director and us.

Criteria for Board Membership

As a leading manufacturer of pharmaceutical packaging and delivery systems with global operations, we believe that our Board should include a mix of backgrounds and expertise that enhances the ability of the directors collectively to understand the issues facing us and to fulfill the Board's and the Board committees' responsibilities. Members of our Board should have high standards of integrity and commitment, exhibit independence of judgment, be willing to ask hard questions of management and work well with others. Directors are expected to devote sufficient time to our affairs and be free of conflicts of interest; engage in constructive discussion with each other and management and demonstrate diligence and faithfulness in attending Board and committee meetings.

The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee reviews annually with the Board the size and composition of the Board as a whole to determine the qualifications and areas of expertise needed to further enhance the composition of the Board. As a result of this process, the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee has identified the following specific criteria as important for potential director candidates: (1) senior level executive leadership at public companies, particularly companies with international operations; (2) leadership in the healthcare or public health fields; (3) science or technology backgrounds; and (4) financial expertise. The Committee works with management and the other directors to attract candidates with those qualifications. The goal of the Committee is to achieve a Board that reflects the appropriate balance and diversity of knowledge, experience, skills and expertise.

Nomination of Directors

To identify new, non-management director candidates, the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee considers individuals suggested or recommended from a variety of sources, including Committee members, other directors, our CEO, customers, suppliers, Board advisors and our shareholders. The Committee has not employed a third-party search firm, but it reserves the right to do so. All persons recommended for nomination to our Board, regardless of the source of the recommendation, are evaluated in the same manner by the Committee. Shareholders who wish to recommend or nominate director candidates must provide information about themselves and their candidates and comply with procedures and timelines contained in our Bylaws. These procedures are described under Deadlines and Procedural Requirements for Submission of Proxy Proposals and Nomination of Directors for the Next Year; Other Matters on page 47.

Code of Business Conduct

All of our employees, officers and directors are required to comply with our Code of Business Conduct. The Code of Business Conduct covers fundamental ethical and compliance-related principles and practices such as accurate accounting records and financial reporting, avoiding conflicts of interest, the protection and use of our property and information and compliance with legal requirements. The Board has adopted a comprehensive corporate compliance and ethics program and has named John R. Gailey III our chief compliance officer.

Table of Contents

The chief compliance officer delivers semi-annual reports on the corporate compliance and ethics program to the Audit Committee.

Our Code of Business Conduct can be found on our website at www.westpharma.com under the Investors Corporate Governance Code of Business Conduct captions. You may request a printed copy from our corporate secretary.

Board and Committee Membership

During 2009, our Board met six times. Each director attended at least 75% of the Board meetings and the meetings of the Board committees on which he or she served. Our Board holds regular executive sessions of only non-management directors to conduct a self-assessment of its performance and to review management's strategy and operating plans, the criteria by which our CEO and other senior executives are measured, management's performance against those criteria and other relevant topics. Last year, non-management directors held three executive sessions in conjunction with regularly scheduled Board meetings, and the independent directors held two separate meetings.

All directors are expected to attend the annual meeting of shareholders, and all of our directors attended the 2009 annual meeting.

The current standing committees of the Board are the Audit Committee, the Compensation Committee, the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee, the Finance Committee and the Innovation and Technology Committee. The Board has adopted a written charter for each committee, which can be found on our website at www.westpharma.com under the Investors Corporate Governance captions. You may request a printed copy of each committee's charter from our corporate secretary.

The Audit Committee. The Audit Committee assists our Board in its oversight of (1) the integrity of our financial statements; (2) the independence and qualifications of our independent auditors; (3) the performance of our internal audit function and independent auditors; and (4) our compliance with legal and regulatory requirements. In carrying out these responsibilities, the Audit Committee, among other things:

- Reviews and discusses our annual and quarterly financial statements with management and the independent auditors;
- Manages our relationship with the independent auditors, including having sole authority for its appointment, retention and compensation; reviewing the scope of its work; approving non-audit and audit services; and confirming the independence of the independent auditors; and

- Oversees management's implementation and maintenance of disclosure controls and procedures and internal control over financial reporting.

Audit Committee Financial Experts. The Board has determined that each current member of the Audit Committee is an audit committee financial expert within the meaning of SEC regulations.

The Compensation Committee. The Compensation Committee monitors the effectiveness of our executive compensation programs in realizing our compensation philosophy; reviews and approves corporate goals and objectives relevant to the compensation of our executive officers and evaluates their performance against those goals and objectives; and, either as a committee or together with the other independent directors, determines and approves our executive officers' compensation levels based on that evaluation. Final decisions on the compensation of our Chief Executive Officer are discussed with and approved by the independent directors in executive session. The Compensation Committee also makes recommendations to our Board on incentive and equity-based compensation plans. In overseeing the administration of those plans, the Compensation Committee approves all grants and awards to executive officers, establishes performance goals and determines whether or not those goals have been met.

Our Compensation Committee has delegated certain authority, responsibilities and duties to a committee of senior officers, referred to as the plan committee. The plan committee may make equity awards to newly-hired employees as part of a new-hire package and to existing employees in connection with promotions or for retention purposes, subject to guidelines and an overall annual share limitation. The plan committee may not make any awards or grants to our officers. The plan committee is composed of our CEO, Vice President, Human Resources, General Counsel and Corporate Controller.

Compensation Consultant and 2009 Fees. The Compensation Committee has retained Towers Perrin, now known as Towers Watson, to provide executive compensation consulting services. Towers Perrin also provides non-executive compensation consulting services to us. The executive compensation consulting services provided during 2009 totaled $162,786. The non-executive compensation consulting services provided during 2009 totaled $358,279.

The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee. The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee identifies qualified individuals to serve as Board members; recommends nominees for director and officer positions; determines the appropriate size and composition of our Board and its committees; monitors a process to assess Board effectiveness; reviews related-party transactions; and considers matters of corporate governance. After review by the independent directors, the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee formally recommends to our Board a successor to our CEO. The committee also reviews and makes recommendations to the Board on the form and level of director compensation. The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee administers director equity-based compensation awards.

The full charter of the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee, which was amended by our Board in December 2009, is attached to this proxy statement as Appendix A.

The Finance Committee. The Finance Committee serves as our Board's liaison with management on important financial transactions and financial-policy matters. The Finance Committee consults with and advises management on financial strategies and procedures, acquisitions, divestitures and capital-expenditure requests.

The Innovation and Technology Committee. The Innovation and Technology Committee provides guidance to our Board on technical and commercial innovation strategies; reviews emerging technology trends that may affect our business; reviews our major innovation and technological programs and overall patent strategies; and assists our Board in making well-informed choices about investments in new technology.

Table of ContentsRecovery of Incentive Compensation

In February 2010, our Board of Directors adopted a policy regarding the recovery or cancellation of annual or long-term equity-based and performance-based compensation for all employees, including our named executive officers. The policy allows us to cancel or seek repayment of incentive awards from any employee who engages in conduct materially harmful to us or whose fraud or misconduct gives rise to a significant or material restatement of financial results. It also allows us to seek repayment of award amounts that were overpaid due to mathematical errors, fraud, misconduct or gross negligence. Recovery may be obtained from any award recipient during the three-year period following payment of the award. This new incentive compensation recovery policy applies to all awards made on or after February 2010 and will be incorporated into all future awards.

The Compensation Committee has the sole and absolute authority to exercise discretion in the application of the incentive compensation recovery policy with respect to all executive officers and directors. We believe the new policy preserves value for our shareholders by providing the Compensation Committee with a specific method to recover amounts that should not have been paid.

(1) The amounts in this column are comprised of: (i) the dividend equivalents credited to each account under the Director Deferred Compensation Plan, and (ii) with respect to Mr. Hofmann, Dr. Paula Johnson, Mr. Neafsey, Mr. Weiland, Mr. Worden, Dr. Young, and Mr. Zenner, charitable contributions of $1,000 each made under our non-discriminatory charitable contribution matching program, which is available to all our employees and directors.

Fees Earned and Paid in Cash. The amounts in the Fees Earned and Paid in Cash column are retainers and meeting fees earned for serving on our Board, Board committees and as committee chairs and Chairman, Independent Directors. All annual retainers and meeting fees are paid quarterly. The amounts do not reflect elections to defer fees under the Non-Qualified Deferred Compensation Plan for Non-Employee Directors (Director Deferred Compensation Plan). With respect to the first three quarters payments in 2009, Mr. Neafsey, Mr. Weiland and Mr. Welters deferred 100% of their cash compensation and Dr. Young deferred 50% of his cash compensation. With respect to the last quarter of 2009, Mr. Welters and Mr. Weiland deferred 100% of their cash compensation and Dr. Young deferred 50% of his cash compensation.

Stock Awards. The amounts in the Stock Awards column reflect the grant date fair value for deferred stock awards made in 2009. The grant date fair value is determined under FASB Accounting Standards Codification (ASC) Topic 718 Stock Compensation. In 2009, each non-employee director was awarded 2,100 shares of deferred stock. The 2009 deferred stock had a grant date fair market value of $33.24 per share based on the closing price of our common stock on the award date, May 5, 2009. For a more detailed discussion on the grant date fair value for our deferred stock awards, refer to Note 17, Stock-Based Compensation, to the consolidated financial statements contained in our 2009 Form 10-K. Deferred-stock awards are made on the date of our annual meeting and vest on the date of the following year s annual meeting, provided that the director continues to serve on our Board on that date. Deferred-stock awards also vest on a director s retirement, if earlier.

All deferred stock is credited to an account under the Director Deferred Compensation Plan and is distributed as shares of common stock according to the terms of that plan, as described below. When dividends are paid on common stock, additional shares of deferred stock are credited to each director s deferred stock account as if those dividends were used to purchase additional shares.

Stock Options. Prior to 2007, non-employee directors received annual grants of stock options, which vested on the first anniversary of the grant date. After benchmarking this practice, our Board of Directors stopped granting stock options to directors.

The following table presents information on stock awards and stock options as of December 31, 2009 for each person who served as a non-employee director during that year.

Table of ContentsDirector Deferred Compensation Plan

All non-employee directors may participate in the Director Deferred Compensation Plan, which permits participants to defer all or a part of their annual cash retainers and meeting fees until their Board service terminates. Deferred fees may be credited to a stock-unit account that is deemed invested in our common stock or to an account that earns interest at the prime rate of our principal commercial bank. The stock-unit accounts also are credited with dividend equivalents based on the number of stock units having been credited to the account as of the dividend record date.

The value of a director's account balance is distributed on termination of Board service. The value of a director's stock-unit account is determined by multiplying the number of stock units credited to the account by the fair market value of our common stock on the termination date.

Directors may receive their distribution as a lump sum or in up to 10 annual installments. Separate elections may apply to amounts earned and vested before 2005 and amounts earned and vested after December 31, 2004. Deferred stock is distributed in shares of stock and deferred stock units are distributed in cash. If a director elects the installment option, any cash-account balances during the distribution period will earn interest at the prime rate of our principal commercial bank and deferred stock will be credited with dividends until paid. Partial shares are distributed in cash.

The following table summarizes the amounts credited to each Director Deferred Compensation Plan account as of December 31, 2009:

Name	Stock Units Value(1) ($)	Deferred Stock Value (1) ($)	Amount Invested in Cash Account (2) ($)	Total Account Balance ($)
Thomas W. Hofmann		226,968	-0-	226,968

Patrick J. Zenner	294,181	252,605	-0-	546,786

(1) Value is determined by multiplying the number of stock units or shares of deferred stock, as applicable, times the fair market value of a share of stock on December 31, 2009, $39.20.

(2) Mr. Worden is the only director with amounts invested in the interest-bearing account. This account earned interest at a rate of 3.25%, compounded quarterly, which resulted in $2,195 being credited to his account in 2009.

ITEM 1 ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

Our Board of Directors is currently divided into three classes, with each class serving a three-year term. The Board has nominated Thomas W. Hofmann, L. Robert Johnson, John P. Neafsey and Geoffrey F. Worden for election as Class II directors. All of the nominees have agreed to be named and to serve, and we expect each nominee to be able to serve if elected. If any nominee is not able to serve, the nominating and corporate governance committee will recommend to our board a replacement nominee. The Board may then designate the other nominee to stand for election. If you voted for the unavailable nominee, your vote will be cast for his or her replacement.

At the 2011 annual meeting, our Board will recommend that shareholders approve an amendment to our Articles of Incorporation requiring annual director elections. If approved, all directors would stand for re-election each year, beginning with the 2012 annual meeting.

EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

COMPENSATION DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

This discussion and analysis describes our executive compensation philosophy, process, plans and practices as they relate to our named executive officers and gives the context for understanding and evaluating the more specific compensation information contained in the tables, charts and related disclosures that follow.

Overview of Our Business Environment

We are a global manufacturer of components and systems for injectable drug delivery and plastic packaging and delivery system components for the pharmaceutical, healthcare and consumer products industries. We compete with several companies in our pharmaceutical components product lines. However, we supply a major portion of the U.S. market for pharmaceutical elastomer and metal packaging components and have a significant share of the European market for these components. The vast majority of our business is conducted in healthcare markets. Our customer base includes the leading global producers and distributors of pharmaceuticals, biologics, medical devices and personal-care products. Our position in the broader healthcare and pharmaceutical supplier industries also puts us in a highly competitive talent market.

We operate our businesses in a very competitive, regulated and complex technological environment. Our strategy of differentiating our products and services requires us to make the investments necessary to continuously improve the quality and value of our offerings and to consistently introduce new and advanced features and products. We sell most of our new product offerings to pharmaceutical companies for use with their drug compounds. As such, those products are subject to relatively lengthy development and approval cycles and are dependent on the success of our customers' products. As a supplier to major pharmaceutical and device companies, our revenues are exposed to the impact of the current global economic downturn and potential U.S. healthcare reform and other trends such as consolidation within the pharmaceutical industry.

Compensation Program Philosophy

Our compensation philosophy is to (1) provide competitive executive pay opportunities tied to our short-term and longer-term success and (2) attract, motivate and retain the type of executive leadership that will help us achieve our strategic objectives. To reach these goals, we believe our compensation programs should embody the following values:

- Have a strong pay-for-performance element with a major portion of executive pay at risk based on achievement of financial performance goals. Performance goals should use metrics that we believe are the best indicators of our financial success and shareholder value creation. Total pay should be targeted at the appropriate market level with greater rewards paid for exceeding goals.
- Support achievement of both operating performance and strategic objectives. Annual bonuses should reward performance against key budgeted targets, while long-term incentives should keep management focused on business growth and effective use of capital.
- Link management compensation with the interests of shareholders. Executives should have an interest in enhancing shareholder value. Incentives should facilitate stock ownership and the value of incentive awards should result from increasing stock price.
- Be fair and market-competitive to assure access to needed talent and encourage retention. The program should be flexible enough to accommodate pay practices in markets in which we compete for talent.
- Provide compensation opportunities that are consistent with each executive's responsibilities, experience and performance.

We design our executive compensation programs primarily to reward management for achieving financial and performance goals using metrics that we believe are the best indicators of the success of our business. Because we believe a growing, profitable company creates shareholder value, our executive compensation program in 2009 continued to emphasize the achievement of various measures of profitability and growth as described below.

How Our Compensation Committee Sets Executive Pay

The Compensation Committee develops our overall compensation philosophy, approves our executive compensation programs, makes all decisions about the compensation of our executive officers, including the named executive officers, and oversees our cash and equity-based incentive compensation plans. The Compensation Committee approves guidelines for grants of awards under these plans.

Table of Contents

In 2009, our executive compensation program continued to consist of three principal elements: (1) base salary; (2) an annual cash bonus; and (3) long-term incentives in the form of performance-vesting share units (PVSUs) and stock options.

The Compensation Committee sets base salaries, target bonus levels and expected long-term incentive award values by reference to a select group of industry-specific comparator companies of reasonably similar size and complexity referred to as the Business Segment Comparator Group. The Committee also considers compensation data from a broad survey of healthcare and other companies referred to as the Talent Market Comparator Group as a way of confirming that our executive pay is competitive.

To assure that executive compensation is fair and market-competitive, base salaries and targeted annual and long-term incentive opportunities are generally set at or near (i.e., +/- 15%) median pay levels of the market as represented by pay practices in the Business Segment and Talent Market Comparator Groups. We target the 75th percentile for the combined value of cash compensation and long-term incentives, if maximum performance is achieved, which will yield above-average compensation for superior performance. The Committee also may adjust individual components to take into account such factors as an executive's role in overall corporate policy-making, potential for advancement and/or development, relative experience and the length of time in his position. The Committee reviews and discusses Dr. Morel's compensation with the independent directors in executive session before making a final decision on his salary and bonus and long-term incentive opportunities.

The Compensation Committee exercises judgment in view of the above standards, considering CEO recommendations in setting long-term award target levels for non-CEO executives and discussions with the independent directors regarding the target levels for the CEO. The Committee also considers potential shareholder dilution of equity awards and overall business and market conditions. Long-term grants do not affect the amount of an employee's retirement benefits.

Consistent with our compensation philosophy, annual bonuses and long-term incentive awards generally represent a greater percentage of the total compensation of the executives who have the most influence over and responsibility for the achievement of performance objectives, thus emphasizing the pay-for-performance aspect of our compensation programs.

Each year, the Compensation Committee reviews the nature and amounts of all elements of the named executive officers' compensation, both separately and in total, using comprehensive tally sheets that include the current value of outstanding stock option and PVSU awards (as compared to their grant-date value), deferred compensation account balances and retirement-plan benefits. In its review of these tally sheets in 2009, the Committee noted that declining year-over-year equity values and projected equity-award values supported our pay-for-performance philosophy and accomplished the Committee's goals of linking compensation with shareholder value.

Use of Compensation Data

The Compensation Committee determines the peer groups to be used for compensation purposes based on information and analysis provided by Towers Perrin, its independent compensation consultant. The Committee has selected the comparator group companies based on the following guiding principles:

Edgar Filing: WEST PHARMACEUTICAL SERVICES INC - Form DEF 14A

- Business Segment Comparator Group companies should reflect businesses and industries that are similar in complexity as measured by global footprint, manufacturing capabilities, revenues, materials, intellectual-property profile and customer characteristics;
- The overall comparator samples should reflect those companies with which we compete for business, and more broadly, those with which we compete for talent;
- To the extent possible, the selection process should be driven by appropriate criteria versus selection of individual companies; and

Table of Contents

- Data samples should be robust, provide decision-quality data for all executive positions and be readily available.

The composition of the Business Segment Comparator Group was proposed by Towers Perrin based on the criteria described above, and selected by the Compensation Committee and management. It consists of the following companies:

Business Segment Comparator Group

Abbott Medical Optics Inc.	Cooper Industries plc	Edwards Lifesciences LLC	Pall Corporation
AptarGroup, Inc.	C. R. Bard, Inc.	Hospira, Inc.	Respironics, Inc.
Arrow International, Inc.	Covidien plc	Invacare Corporation	Rochester Medical Corporation
Baxter International Inc.	Dade Behring	Kinetic Concepts, Inc.	Theragenics Corporation
Beckman Coulter, Inc.	Datascope Corp.	Mentor Corporation	Varian Medical Systems, Inc.
Becton, Dickinson & Company	Dentsply International Inc.	Millipore Corporation

The Committee agreed that the Talent Market Comparator Group should consist of companies that participate in Towers Perrin's annual executive compensation database, which have revenues of $500 million to $2 billion and operate in the chemicals, electronics and scientific equipment, healthcare/medical products, industrial manufacturing or pharmaceuticals industries. Intended to represent the marketplace where we compete for talent, the Committee uses this broader group to confirm the competitiveness of compensation paid to similar executives at the Business Segment Comparator Group companies. The Committee also uses it when information on particular executive positions within the primary peer-group companies is unavailable. The companies in the Talent Market Comparator Group in 2009 were:

Talent Market Comparator Group

Abbott Medical Optics, Inc.	Cubic Corporation	Mine Safety Appliances Company
Alpharma Inc.	Donaldson Company, Inc.	Mueller Water Products, Inc.
Ameron International Corporation	Endo Pharmaceuticals	Omnova Solutions, Inc.

Our Named Executive Officers for 2009

Our named executive officers in 2009 are: Donald E. Morel, Jr., Chief Executive Officer; William J. Federici, Vice President and Chief Financial Officer, and our three most highly compensated executive officers other than our CEO and CFO: Steven A. Ellers, President and Chief

Edgar Filing: WEST PHARMACEUTICAL SERVICES INC - Form DEF 14A

Operating Officer; John R. Gailey III, Vice President, General Counsel and Secretary; and Heino Lennartz, President, Pharmaceutical Packaging Systems Europe Region. Last year, Mr. Lennartz served as Vice President Finance, MIS & Purchasing for Europe & Asia Pacific until July 2009, when he was promoted to President, Europe Region, Pharmaceutical Systems Division. He received his current title in February 2010 as part of an organizational realignment that created two new reporting segments: Pharmaceutical Packaging Systems and Pharmaceutical Delivery Systems.

Matthew T. Mullarkey served as our Chief Operating Officer until he left us in November 2009. Although he was not an executive officer on December 31, 2009, we must disclose Mr. Mullarkey's compensation in the Summary Compensation Table and other compensation tables because under SEC rules his 2009 compensation would have qualified him as a named executive officer had he remained an executive officer on that date. For this reason, we also include Mr. Mullarkey's compensation in this discussion and analysis.

Table of Contents

Elements of Our Compensation Programs and 2009 Compensation Decisions

Base Salary

Base salary represents the only fixed component of the three main elements of our executive compensation program. It is intended to provide a baseline, minimum amount of annual compensation for our executives that is fair and market-competitive.

The Committee, at the request of the CEO, froze salaries for the named executive officers other than Mr. Mullarkey and Mr. Lennartz.

On January 1, 2009, Mr. Mullarkey assumed full responsibilities as our Chief Operating Officer. In recognition of his increased responsibilities, the Compensation Committee increased his base salary by $25,000, or 5.9%, to $450,000. In determining his new salary, the Committee considered the CEO's recommendations and comparative compensation data. Although Mr. Mullarkey's salary was well below the market median of the Business Comparator Group and approximately 11% below the median of the Broad Talent Market Comparator Group, the Compensation Committee believed this was an appropriate level in light of the fact that Mr. Mullarkey was new to the position and relatively new to the Company. The Compensation Committee also increased Mr. Lennartz's salary in connection with his promotion to President, Europe Region. After considering comparative compensation data, the Committee decided to raise his salary to $300,989, a 19% increase over his prior salary of $252,218. Mr. Lennartz is paid in Euros and the salary figures are converted to U.S. Dollars at the rate of 1.3941 Dollars per Euro.

Annual Incentive Plan Design and Rationale

Our Annual Incentive Plan is formula-based and designed to motivate our senior executives by rewarding them with a cash bonus when they achieve or exceed annual financial performance targets. The Annual Incentive Plan contains multiple financial metrics, weighted according to their importance. The targets and weighting may vary according to organization unit. The Compensation Committee determines the annual incentive performance criteria, and weighting based on proposals from our CEO and Vice President, Human Resources.

Consistent with prior years, the Compensation Committee selected earnings per share (EPS) and operating cash flow on a non-GAAP basis as performance metrics for the 2009 Annual Incentive Plan for the U.S.-based named executive officers. These metrics are appropriate for the named executive officers given their broad responsibilities and ability to significantly affect our EPS and operating cash flow.

For Mr. Lennartz, who heads our European pharmaceutical packaging systems business unit, the Committee selected regional performance as the primary metric, with a division results and a corporate-wide element (EPS) also represented. These metrics are intended to focus Mr. Lennartz on improving revenues and operating profit in the region over which he has control, contributing to the pharmaceutical division performance and taking actions that will increase our consolidated earnings and shareholder value. The targets for the named executive officers and their relative weighting are as follows:

Table of Contents

2009 Annual Incentive Plan

Performance Metrics and Weighting

(1) The adjusted EPS and adjusted consolidated operating cash flow metrics consists of GAAP EPS and operating cash flow, adjusted to budgeted foreign-exchange rates, and may exclude the impact of certain discrete or infrequent items such as acquisitions and restructuring gains or losses.

(2) The adjusted regional results metric consists of European regional GAAP revenue (25.0% weight), regional operating income (50.0% weight), and regional cash flow (25.0% weight) adjusted for budgeted exchange rates. It may exclude the impact of certain discrete or infrequent items such as acquisitions and restructuring gains or losses.

(3) The adjusted Pharmaceutical Systems Division results metric consists of GAAP division revenue (33.5% weight) and division operating income (66.5% weight), adjusted for budgeted exchange rates, and may exclude certain discrete or infrequent items such as acquisitions and restructuring gains or losses.

The Compensation Committee assigns a target bonus opportunity to each named executive officer, expressed as a percentage of his base salary. The Compensation Committee establishes each target opportunity through an analysis of compensation for comparable positions in the Business Segment and Talent Market Comparator Groups. The combination of base salary and target bonus is intended to approximate the median market if the performance targets are met, and approach the 75th percentile if targets are exceeded. Target bonus opportunities range from 50% to 100%. Consistent with our overall compensation design, executives with greater responsibilities for influencing financial performance have higher target bonus levels as a percentage of salary.

Table of Contents

An executive's Annual Incentive Plan award is calculated by multiplying his base salary times his bonus opportunity times the applicable payout factor for each performance metric times the weighting for that performance metric. The following formula illustrates the calculation of the bonus payout for each performance measure:

$$\begin{array}{ccccccc}
 \text{Base Salary} & \times & \text{Target Bonus Opportunity} & \times & \text{Payout Factor} & \times & \text{Weighting} & = & \text{Performance Measure Bonus Payout} \\
 & & \text{(i.e., \% of salary)} & & \text{(based on achievement against target)} & & & &
 \end{array}$$

The payout factor is based on the level of performance versus the targeted performance. If actual performance matches 100% of the performance metric target, the payout factor for that metric is 100%. If the performance level does not meet the threshold amount currently set at 85% of target performance the payout factor for that metric is zero. If actual performance exceeds 100% of targeted performance, the payout factor will be greater than 100%. Payouts are capped at 150% of the target bonus opportunity. No bonus is paid if actual performance falls below 85% of all metrics. The following chart shows the payout factor for the Annual Incentive Plan. Performance between points is straight-line interpolated.

Annual Incentive Plan Payout Factor

Executives may choose to receive up to 100% of their bonus in common stock instead of cash. The shares are referred to as bonus shares. This option increases executive stock ownership and further aligns executives with shareholder interests. As an inducement to acquire and hold shares, we also grant one additional time-vested restricted share, referred to as an incentive share, for each four bonus shares received. To encourage long-term stock ownership, promote retention and reward long-term service, incentive shares vest in full if the executive holds the bonus shares for at least four years and remains employed during that time.

We pay dividends on incentive (restricted) shares during the four-year vesting period. Participants may receive dividends in cash or reinvest them in additional shares if the recipient participates in our dividend reinvestment plan. We believe that this approach appropriately rewards and does not penalize named executive officers who choose to have a portion of their Annual Incentive Plan bonus paid in stock. While a recipient may receive dividends on shares that ultimately do not vest, we believe this provides the proper balance between rewarding recipients for creating additional shareholder value and further aligning their interests with shareholders by choosing to have a portion of their bonus paid in stock.

2009 Annual Incentive Bonus Payments

The Compensation Committee reviewed and approved the proposed 2009 performance criteria based on our Board-approved budget because it believed the proposed goals represented appropriate stretch targets and were aligned with shareholder interests. Performance targets for the corporate unit which included Dr. Morel, Mr. Federici, Mr. Ellers, Mr. Gailey and Mr. Mullarkey were adjusted EPS of $2.17 (weighted 35%) and adjusted operating cash flow of $156.6 million (weighted 65%). Mr. Lennartz's targets and their weighting were:

(1) All targets and performance against the targets reflect 2009 budgeted exchange rates. Actual exchange rates had a positive effect on reported results. These favorable effects $0.15 per share of EPS, $39.6 million of regional revenue, $7.0 million of regional operating income, $42.3 million of Pharmaceutical Systems Division revenue and $7.0 million of Pharmaceutical Systems Division operating income were removed for determining achievement of targets.

(2) Adjusted Consolidated EPS performance excludes the impact of restructuring and certain other discrete charges and credits of $0.16 per share.

(3) Adjusted Consolidated Operating Cash Flow excludes the impact of $1.9 million of cash paid for restructuring expenses.

(4) Regional and Pharmaceutical Systems Division performance excludes the impact of the acquisition of West Pharmaceutical Services Normandie SAS and related costs as follows: regional and division revenue adjusted downward $9.0 million, regional operating income adjusted upward $1.0 million, and division operating income adjusted upward $1.9 million.

The table below shows the 2009 target and actual Annual Incentive Plan awards paid to each of the named executive officers. The total actual award is included in the Non-Equity Incentive Plan Compensation column of the Summary Compensation Table.

Long-Term Incentive Program Design and Rationale

We designed our long-term equity compensation program to complement the objectives of the Annual Incentive Plan by encouraging longer-term sales growth and profitable investments. Long-term incentives also are intended to align executive and investor interests; assist in retaining key executive personnel; and give executives an opportunity to create wealth over time based on increasing stock value. We generally use two types of long-term incentive awards: PVSUs, which entitle the recipient to receive a number of shares of our common stock dependent on achievement of multi-year financial targets; and non-qualified stock options that vest over time. Last year, we added a supplemental long-term incentive cash-based program to provide incentives to improve profitability during a period of slower revenue growth.

PVSUs

We believe our shareholders place a premium on growing our business while carefully managing capital. To help further these objectives, the Compensation Committee selected compound-annual-revenue-growth-rate (CAGR) and return-on-invested-capital (ROIC) performance metrics. We believe CAGR and ROIC are equally important in creating shareholder value, and, therefore, each metric is weighted equally. We also believe that performance should be measured over an extended period so CAGR and ROIC are measured over a three-year period. Each PVSU award agreement contains a target payout for the recipient. For PVSU awards to our named executive officers, the Committee generally selects a targeted payout that would deliver shares with an expected value within the 50th percentile of market (as represented by the Business or Talent Market Comparator Groups) if 100% of the performance target is achieved.

The number of shares an executive earns at the end of a performance period is calculated by multiplying the target number of PVSUs awarded at the beginning of the period times the applicable payout factor for each performance metric times the weighting for that performance metric. The following formula illustrates the calculation of the PVSU payout for each performance measure:

$$\begin{array}{rcccl}
 \textbf{Target PVSUs} & & \textbf{Payout Factor} & & \textbf{Weighting} & & \textbf{Number of} \\ \text{(i.e., number of shares to be} & \times & \text{(based on achievement} & \times & \text{(50\%)} & = & \text{Shares Earned} \\ \text{earned if performance equals} & & \text{against target)} & & & & \\ \text{100\% target)} & & & & & &
 \end{array}$$

As in our Annual Incentive Plan, our long-term incentive program includes a payout factor based on the actual performance versus the performance targets. If actual performance matches 100% of the performance metric targeted level, the payout factor for that metric is 100%. If actual performance exceeds target performance, the payout factor is greater than 100%. The PVSU payout opportunity is capped at 200% and actual payouts may range from 0% to 200% based on actual results. No payouts are made if actual performance falls below 70% of both the CAGR and ROIC targets. The following table shows the payout factor for the PVSUs. Performance between points is straight-line interpolated.

Stock Options. Consistent with our compensation philosophy, stock options are designed to encourage a strategy that yields increases in share value and rewards our named executive officers for continued long service. The following table describes the principal features of stock options granted to our named executive officers and how those provisions support our compensation philosophy.

Stock Option Feature	Provision	Link to Compensation Philosophy
Exercise price	Fair market value on grant date	Value of options are linked to share price increases
Option term	10 years	Encourages executives to make long-term decisions to benefit us and our shareholders
Vesting period	Vest over four years	Helps us retain key employees
Exercise period after employment termination	May be exercised for 90 days	Ensures that executives do not share in stock value increases after they terminate for reasons other than retirement
Exercise period after retirement	May be exercised for the full 10-year term	Rewards long service and provide income security and to encourage executives to think long-term as they near the end of their career

Supplemental Long-Term Incentive Plan. During 2009, lower drug utilization trends, reduced patient spending and aggressive inventory management practices by our customers amid the global economic recession affected our revenue growth expectations over the near- to mid-term. In response to these developments, the Compensation Committee in July 2009 made supplemental cash-based incentive awards based on increasing our operating profit margin (OPM) through December 31, 2011. The goal of the supplemental awards is to focus management on profit growth over the intermediate term. Operating profit margin is defined as consolidated operating profit divided by consolidated net sales.

Under the supplemental awards our named executive officers will receive a cash payment depending on the achievement of our pre-established, objective performance goals. The amount will depend on how well our actual OPM compares to the target OPM at the end of the performance period. The Committee chose a cash-based award rather than an equity-based award to reduce potential shareholder dilution impact and extend the number of shares available for issuance under our shareholder-approved incentive plan. To ensure that OPM is increasing in steps over the 2.5-year performance period, it will be measured at the end of each calendar year. However, the award will not be paid out until OPM is calculated for 2011 and only if the award recipient is employed on the date of the payout. The OPM for each year in the period will be calculated and compared to the target for that year and a payout amount for that period will be based on actual performance compared to target performance. The following table shows the targeted OPM and weighting for each period.

July 1, 2009 – December 31, 2011

Supplemental Long-Term Incentive Award

Performance Targets and Weighting

Relevant Performance Period	Target OPM	Target OPM Increase During the Period	Payout Weight
July 1, 2009 to December 31, 2009	10.5%	0.3%	20%
January 1, 2010 to December 31, 2010	11.2%	0.7%	40%

Edgar Filing: WEST PHARMACEUTICAL SERVICES INC - Form DEF 14A

January 1, 2011 to December 31, 2011	12.2%	1.0%	40%
	Total	2.0%	100%

Like PVSU awards, the payouts under the OPM plan will vary based on achievement versus the target OPM for each performance period. Payouts are capped at 150% of the target opportunity. Executives will receive no payout if performance is below 85% of target performance. The OPM plan payout factor calculation is shown in the following table. If actual OPM falls between any of the performance range percentages above in any year, the payout for that portion of the supplemental award will be determined by straight-line interpolation.

Table of ContentsOPM Plan Payout Factor*2009 PVSUs Awards and Stock Option Grants

The Compensation Committee made stock option grants and PVSU awards for the 2009-2011 performance period in February 2009. In determining the award levels, the Committee noted that our share price had declined approximately 20% since the 2008 grant. While this decrease in share price was less on average than the decline in share price between our Business Segment Comparator Group (25%) and the S&P 500 (40%) over the same period, the Committee decided to reduce the expected value of 2009 awards approximately 20% for a number of reasons. First, using fewer shares reduced shareholder dilution and preserved shares for future awards under our shareholder-approved 2007 Omnibus Incentive Compensation Plan. Second, the Compensation Committee felt that awarding a lower value in light of the current economic conditions more closely aligned the interests of our named executive officers with those of our shareholders. Finally, the reduction was consistent with the practices at other companies within our Business Segment Comparator Group and the market at large. The chart below contains information about the stock option grants and PVSU awards made to the named executive officers in 2009:

(1) The number of PVSUs is based on achievement of 100% of target. The number of shares that may be earned range from zero if the performance threshold is not reached to 200% of target if maximum performance is achieved.

(2) The Committee calculated expected value by adding the value of the stock options (based on a Black-Scholes valuation method) and the value of PVSUs based on the fair-market value (closing price) of our common stock on the grant date. Mr. Lennartz received two awards in 2009: 2,500 stock appreciation rights and 800 PVSUs in February when he was our regional Vice President Finance; and 10,000 options and 1,200 PVSUs upon his promotion to President, Europe Region on July 14, 2009. For the February awards, the Black-Scholes value of stock options and stock appreciation rights was $6.95 per share and the fair-market value of each PVSU was $32.09. For Mr. Lennartz's July awards, the Black-Scholes value of his option grant was $7.39 per share and the fair-market value of each PVSU was $32.58. Mr. Lennartz's February grant was made before he was promoted to Regional President. Consistent with our award practice for non-executive overseas employees, Mr. Lennartz's February awards are payable in cash.

2009 Long-Term Incentive Plan Payouts

For PVSUs awarded for the three-year performance period ended December 31, 2009, the Compensation Committee set a target CAGR and ROIC goal of 10% each. In setting the 2007-2009 CAGR and ROIC targets, the Committee considered past performance, our weighted average cost of capital and sales growth expectations in the markets in which we operate. Management achieved 10.1% ROIC, or 101.0% of the ROIC target, and 3.5% CAGR, or 35% of CAGR target. The following table shows the PVSU targets, performance and payouts for the three-year performance period ended December 31, 2009.

The table below shows the target and maximum PVSU award share payouts and the actual number and value of the share payouts for the three-year period ended December 31, 2009, including additional shares awarded pursuant to dividend equivalents.

(1) Target PVSU payouts are calculated based on achievement of 100% of the ROIC and CAGR targets. Share payouts range from 0% to 200% of the target depending on actual achievement.

(2) Based on actual payout factor achieved of 51.0%. Includes shares credited due to dividend equivalent re-investment as follows: Dr. Morel 627; Mr. Federici 171; Mr. Ellers 257; Mr. Gailey 86; Mr. Lennartz 17; and Mr. Mullarkey 146.

(3) The value of the shares earned is determined by reference to the closing stock price, $38.22, on February 19, 2010, the date the awards were earned.

(4) Before becoming an executive officer, Mr. Lennartz, like all non-executive officer overseas employees, received PVSUs that were payable in cash and not stock.

(5) Mr. Mullarkey's long-term incentive plan bonus is payable under his severance agreements with us. Payment may be delayed if required by applicable tax law.

Information about PVSUs awarded to each named executive officer in 2009 is reflected in the 2009 Grants of Plan-Based Awards Table on page 33. The number of options or PVSUs previously granted to, or held by, a named executive officer is not a factor in determining individual grants. Past awards were granted based on performance in prior years. As a result, potential accumulated wealth is not viewed as relevant in arriving at the current year awards.

We credit dividend equivalents on unvested PVSUs over the three-year vesting period at a rate that assumes the participant will earn the target award. At the time of the payout, the credited dividend equivalents are then increased or decreased based on the payout factor earned for the applicable three-year performance period. Because the payout factor earned for the 2007-2009 performance period was 51%, the number of dividend equivalents accrued over that period was multiplied by 51% and the remaining 49% of accrued dividend equivalents was forfeited.

Awards Earned Under the 2009 Supplemental Plan

For the 2009 period, management achieved a 9.67% OPM, or 92.1% of target, resulting in a payout factor of 71.1%. The payout factor is multiplied by the 2009 portion of the target award to determine the actual award earned for each named executive officer in 2009 as shown in the following chart.

The 2009 portion of the award is reflected in the Non-Equity Incentive Compensation column and accompanying text of the Summary Compensation Table on page 30.

Retirement Plans and Termination Payments

Dr. Morel, Mr. Federici, Mr. Ellers and Mr. Gailey participate in our defined benefit and defined contribution retirement programs for U.S.-based employees. In addition to the standard benefits available to all eligible

Table of Contents

U.S.-based employees, we maintain non-qualified defined benefit plans in which these four executives participate. All tax-qualified defined benefit plans have a maximum compensation limit and a maximum annual benefit, which restrict the benefit to participants whose compensation exceeds these limits. The non-qualified plans provide benefits to key salaried employees, including those four named executives, using the same benefits formula used under the tax-qualified plans but without regard to the compensation limits and maximum benefit accruals for tax-qualified plans.

Mr. Mullarkey participated in these programs before his termination. He forfeited his entire defined-benefit pension plan benefit when he left. He will receive benefits according to the terms of our defined contribution plans. Mr. Lennartz participates in defined contribution plans maintained for our German employees. One of those plans is broad-based for all of our German employees and the other plan, established in 2009, is maintained for the benefit of regional senior management employees paid by our European headquarters in Eschweiler, Germany.

We also provide our named executive officers with benefits when their employment terminates in various circumstances, as described under Estimated Payments Following Severance, Current Named Executive Officers and Payments On Termination in Connection With a Change in Control sections below. We believe that these retirement plans and agreements are an important element in ensuring that the executives remain focused on our business in the event of a threat or occurrence of a change in control; encourage executives to act in the best interests of the shareholders in assessing a transaction; and protect our value by retaining key talent.

Termination Payments to Mr. Mullarkey

Mr. Mullarkey's employment terminated on November 18, 2009. Under the terms of his Severance and Noncompete Agreement, we will pay his salary and continue medical, dental and life insurance for 12 months. These benefits are payable in consideration of a release of claims in our favor and his agreement not to compete with us. The Compensation Committee also agreed to give him the additional benefits in recognition of his contributions during his tenure. Information about his severance payments and benefits is located under Payments Following Severance Mr. Mullarkey on page 42.

The Role of Our Compensation Consultant and Executives in the Compensation Process

Towers Perrin reports directly to the Compensation Committee. During 2009, Towers Perrin performed the following tasks for the Committee:

- Prepared competitive market data with respect to the compensation of the executive officer group;
- Provided input on the Committee's pay recommendations for the Chief Executive Officer;

Edgar Filing: WEST PHARMACEUTICAL SERVICES INC - Form DEF 14A

- Provided input on compensation program design and philosophy, incentive-pay mix and comparator groups against which executive pay is benchmarked; and

- Provided information on executive compensation trends.

Our CEO and our Vice President, Human Resources, together with Towers Perrin, make recommendations to the Compensation Committee on incentive-plan design and incentive-compensation targets for each named executive officer other than the CEO. Their recommendations are influenced to a large degree by Towers Perrin's evaluation of the median incentive compensation levels of the Business Segment Comparator Group and Talent Market Comparator Group, which is reviewed at least annually. The CEO prepares salary recommendations for each executive officer after reviewing comparative-salary data and discusses job performance and the rationale for his recommendations with the Committee.

Other Compensation Policies

Personal Benefits. We provide our named executive officers with other benefits that we believe are reasonable and competitive so that we may attract and retain talented senior executives. In total, they represent a small percentage of the named executive officers' overall compensation. These benefits are reflected in the "All Other Compensation" column of the 2009 Summary Compensation Table.

Stock Ownership Requirements. First adopted in 1994, stock-ownership goals for all executive officers reflect our view that senior management should have a significant equity position in the Company. Stock-ownership goals align executives with the interests of shareholders and encourage a longer-term focus. These goals specify a value equal to particular multiples of the executive's base salary, which executive officers must acquire within five to seven years of attaining their position. The CEO's goal is 5x base salary and the goal for all other executive officers is 2x base salary. Our stock may be held in various forms to achieve the ownership guidelines, including shares held directly, shares held in retirement and savings plans accounts, and bonus and restricted stock awarded under our incentive plans. The Committee reviews progress against these goals every year. All of our named executive officers currently meet their guidelines. We prohibit hedges of our common stock by executive officers or employees.

Equity-Awards Policy. Under the Compensation Committee's equity-awards policy, all equity awards (other than grants for newly hired employees and grants for promotions or for retention purposes) are made once per year at the Committee meeting in February or March, following the release of earnings for the prior fiscal year. The policy also confirms that the grant date of any equity award is the date the award is approved at a meeting of the Compensation Committee or plan committee and that the exercise price of any stock option is determined as of the grant date in compliance with the terms of the applicable incentive plan.

Accounting Impact on Executive Compensation. We consider the accounting implications of our compensation decisions in the design of our compensation and benefit programs. We seek to deliver cost-effective compensation and benefit programs that meet our needs while ensuring an appropriate impact on reported earnings and other financial measures that we deem important. We have also taken steps to ensure that all of our nonqualified deferred compensation plans and arrangements comply with the regulations under Section 409A of the Internal Revenue Code.

Deductibility of Executive Compensation. Under Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code, a publicly held corporation is denied a federal tax deduction for compensation in excess of $1,000,000, which is paid to its chief executive officer, chief financial officer and its three most-highly compensated executive officers other than those officers. Qualified performance-based compensation and certain other compensation are not subject to the deduction limitation. Our Board of Directors has taken action to cause cash bonus awards (including the annual incentive and supplemental awards) and grants of stock options, PVSUs and other stock awards under our incentive plans to be treated as qualified performance-based compensation and, therefore, not limited by Section 162(m).

(1) These amounts are an estimate of the increase in actuarial present value of the named executive officers' age-65 accrued benefit under our retirement plans for 2009. Amounts are payable only when a participant's employment terminates, and may be reduced if benefits are commenced prior to retirement. Assumptions underlying the estimates are described under 2009 Pension Benefits Table on page 38. As detailed in the Pension Benefits section below, the increase in this value from 2008 to 2009 versus 2007 to 2008 is mainly due to the change in discount rates used to calculate the present value of future pension payments.

(2) Mr. Mullarkey's employment terminated on November 18, 2009. A portion of the amounts reported for him was forfeited upon his termination as per the terms and conditions applicable to those amounts. Except as modified by his severance agreements with us, discussed on page 42, the generally applicable terms and conditions described below applied to Mr. Mullarkey.

Edgar Filing: WEST PHARMACEUTICAL SERVICES INC - Form DEF 14A

(3) Mr. Mullarkey's award made in February 2009 had an original grant date fair value of $278,000. However, this award and his July 2008 award were modified upon his termination in November 2009. These modifications resulted in a reduction in grant date fair value of $130,800. Therefore, the net amount reported in this column is $147,200. For a description of the modifications to Mr. Mullarkey's awards upon his termination see "Modifications to Mr. Mullarkey's Options Upon Termination" on page 32.

Bonus. The amount reported in this column for Mr. Lennartz is his winter holiday bonus. The amount reported in this column for Mr. Mullarkey is a relocation bonus for his relocation to the Lionville, Pennsylvania area during 2009. A relocation bonus of one month's salary is generally paid to all salaried employees who relocate at our request.

Stock Awards. The amounts in the "Stock Awards" column reflect the grant date fair value in each year for incentive (time-vesting restricted) shares and unearned PVSUs whether those units are distributable in shares of stock or cash. The grant date fair value is determined under FASB ASC Topic 718. As required, for the performance-based PVSU awards, the grant date fair value was determined based on the probable outcome of the performance-based conditions excluding any discount for forfeitures. For a more detailed discussion on the values used for our PVSUs and incentive shares, including the assumptions used in calculating their grant date fair values, please refer to Note 17, Stock-Based Compensation, to the consolidated financial statements contained in our 2009 Form 10-K.

Table of Contents

The following table summarizes the grant date fair value for PVSU awards and incentive shares granted to each named executive officer for each year included on the table. With respect to the PVSUs granted to Mr. Lennartz in 2009, $25,672 are payable in cash and $97,740 are distributable in stock only.

Option Awards. The amounts in the Option Awards column reflect the grant date fair value in each year for awards of stock options and stock appreciation rights. As required by SEC rules, grant date fair value is determined under FASB ASC Topic 718. The following table summarizes the grant date fair values for stock options and stock appreciation rights granted in 2009:

Name	Options ($)	SARs ($)
	695,000

Donald E. Morel, Jr.
William J. Federici	180,700
Steven A. Ellers	278,000
John R. Gailey III	90,350
Heino Lennartz	73,900	17,375
Matthew T. Mullarkey	278,000

Grant date fair value for options was calculated using the Black-Scholes option pricing model based on the following assumptions:

	July 2009	February 2009	February 2008	February 2007
Expected Life (Years)	5	5	5	5
Risk-Free Interest Rate	2.37%	1.89%	2.92%	4.46%
Dividend Yield	1.84%	1.87%	1.34%	1.16%
Expected Volatility	27.2%	27.0%	24.7%	30.3%

The per-share Black-Scholes value for the option and SAR awards made to all named executive officers on February 24, 2009 was $6.95. The Black-Scholes value for the option award made in connection with the appointment of Mr. Lennartz as an officer on July 14, 2009 was $7.39 per share. For a more detailed discussion of the assumptions used to calculate grant date fair value for our options, refer to Note 17, Stock-Based Compensation, to the consolidated financial statements contained in our 2009 Form 10-K.

Table of Contents

Modifications to Mr. Mullarkey's Options Upon Termination. As originally granted, Mr. Mullarkey would have 90 days following employment termination to exercise any vested options, and any unvested options would terminate on the termination date. As part of his severance package, the Compensation Committee allowed his option awards to continue vesting and remain exercisable through November 18, 2010, the end of his severance period. As required under SEC rules, the following table shows the incremental fair value of the modified awards, computed as of the modification date under FASB ASC Topic 718.

Grant Date	Options Affected (#)	Per Share Grant Date Fair Value ($)	Per Share Fair Value on Modification Date ($)	Per Share Fair Value Difference ($)	Total Incremental Difference ($)
July 2008	20,000	10.84	3.56	(7.28)	(145,600)
February 2009	10,000	6.95	8.43	1.48	14,800
				Total	(130,800)

The incremental decrease of $130,800 reduced the amount shown in Mr. Mullarkey's Stock Options column from $278,000 to $147,200.

Non-Equity Incentive Plan Compensation. The amounts in the Non-Equity Incentive Plan column are the sum of Annual Incentive Plan awards made with respect to 2009 performance and the portion of each named executive officer's supplemental long-term incentive award made in July 2009 (Supplemental Award) that has been earned during 2009. Annual Incentive Plan awards are paid in cash, except participants may elect to have up to 100% paid in our common stock. For details of the Annual Incentive Plan, refer to the description beginning on page 18 and for the Supplemental Awards, refer to the description beginning on page 24. Supplemental Awards are measured over a 30-month performance period that ends December 31, 2011, and these awards will be payable in cash after that date. The portion of the amount for 2009 attributable to each type of award is set forth in the table below.

Name	Annual Incentive Plan Award ($)	Supplemental Award ($)	Total ($)
Donald E. Morel, Jr.	687,832	78,210	766,042
William J. Federici	232,162	21,330	253,492

Heino Lennartz	131,968	10,665	142,633
Matthew T. Mullarkey (1)	281,376		281,376

(1) Mr. Mullarkey will be paid his 2009 Annual Incentive Plan bonus under his severance agreement, but he forfeited his entire supplemental award of $31,995 on his termination.

All Other Compensation. The amounts in the All Other Compensation column consist of: (1) costs of providing a Company-leased vehicle, including lease payments, gas, maintenance and insurance; (2) for U.S.-based executives the total of the Company matching contributions made in 2009 on cash deferrals to the Employee Deferred Compensation Plan and 401(k) plan and for Mr. Lennartz the total company contribution to deferred compensation programs maintained for employees in Germany; (3) the incremental cost of medical benefits provided to executives that are not available to other employees; (4) Company-paid life insurance premiums; (5) dividends credited in 2009 on unvested incentive shares and dividend equivalents credited in 2009 on unearned PVSUs, whether the awards are payable in cash or stock and whether or not those awards have been deferred; (6) severance pay for Mr. Mullarkey and (7) tax gross-ups. The incremental cost of medical benefits was determined by subtracting the total amount that was paid by us in 2009 for salaried non-executive employees at our corporate headquarters from the total premium that was paid by us for coverage under the medical plan applicable to named executive officers in 2009.

* The market value of the unvested incentive shares and unearned PVSUs is based on the closing price of our common stock on December 31, 2009, $39.20.

 Under the terms of Mr. Mullarkey's severance agreement with us described below, he will continue to vest in all of his options through February 28, 2010 and they will remain exercisable through 12:01 AM on November 18, 2010 at which time they will expire. In addition, all PVSUs other than the grant made with respect to 2007-2009 performance period were forfeited as of the date of his termination, November 18, 2009.

(1) Options are exercisable in 20% annual increments beginning one year from the grant date.

(2) Options became exercisable on October 25, 2009.

(3) Options are exercisable in 25% annual increments beginning one year from the grant date.

(4) These incentive shares were granted on March 24, 2006, February 27, 2007, February 26, 2008 and February 24, 2009 and vest 100% four years from the grant date if the bonus share to which the incentive share relates has not been sold and the employee has not terminated employment. The incentive shares will also vest 25% per year if a named executive officer retires. Currently, only Mr. Gailey and Mr. Ellers are eligible to retire. Dividends are paid on unvested incentive shares and distributed or reinvested as additional stock. Unvested incentive shares are forfeited on employment termination.

(5) These PVSUs were awarded on February 27, 2007, February 26, 2008, and February 24, 2009, and each covers a three-year performance period. They will be earned, if at all, on December 31, 2009, December 31, 2010 and December 31, 2011, respectively, subject to satisfaction of the applicable performance criteria and generally subject to the recipient's continued employment through those dates. As required by the SEC's disclosure rules, the number of PVSUs shown assumes a target payout of 100% will be achieved.

(6) Stock appreciation rights exercisable in 25% annual increments beginning one year from the grant date. The SARs are settled and paid in cash rather than shares.

(7) 25% of total options granted were vested immediately. Remaining options were to vest in equal annual installments beginning on February 26, 2009.

(8) Options vest in equal installments on February 26 in 2009, 2010, 2011 and 2012.

2009 Option Exercises and Stock Vested Table

The following table provides information about the value realized by the named executive officers on the exercise of stock options and vesting of stock awards during the 2009 fiscal year.

Name	Option Awards		Stock Awards

(1) The value realized is equal to the difference between the option exercise price and the fair market value of our common stock on the date of exercise, multiplied by the number of options exercised.

(2) This column reflects incentive shares that were awarded in 2005 and vested in February 2009, and PVSUs that were awarded in 2006 and earned in February 2009, whether or not either award was deferred under the Employee Deferred Compensation Plan, including additional shares awarded pursuant to dividend equivalents. The following table shows the number of vested incentive shares and PVSU payouts, and the number of additional shares distributed due to dividend equivalents.

Name	Vested Incentive	PVSU Payouts (#)	Dividend Equivalents
	Shares (#)		Paid on PVSU Payouts (#)
Donald E. Morel, Jr.	904	23,858	949
William J. Federici	917	6,164	245
Steven A. Ellers	955	10,438	415
John R. Gailey III	153	2,983	118

(3) The value of vested incentive shares was determined by multiplying the number of vested incentive shares by $28.97, the fair market value of our common stock on the vesting date, March 5, 2009. The value of the PVSUs was determined by multiplying the number of vested units by $32.09, the fair market value of our common stock on the payout date, February 24, 2009.

Pension Benefits

Retirement Plan. Until December 31, 2006, we maintained a final average pay defined benefit pension plan, which calculated retirement benefits for salaried participants as a percentage of average annual earnings. The normal retirement benefit equals 1.9% of the average of a participant's five highest consecutive calendar years of compensation out of the participant's last 10 calendar years of service, multiplied by his or her years of service up to 25 years, plus 0.5% of that average multiplied by his or her years of service in excess of 25 but not more than 35 years. The benefit is reduced by the participant's expected social security benefits.

Table of Contents

Effective January 1, 2007, each participant's accrued benefit under the retirement plan's pension formula was frozen, and the pension benefits related to service on or after January 1, 2007 for all existing and new participants are expressed as a cash balance type formula. Under the cash balance approach, an allocation is made at the end of each calendar year (or on employment termination, if earlier) to a participant's hypothetical cash balance account. The allocation is determined by the age of the participant and the percentage of annual compensation assigned to that age band by the basic cash balance formula.

For participants who have attained minimum age and service requirements, an additional annual allocation referred to as a transition benefit is made to their accounts to replace all or part of the benefit for participants who were participating in the retirement plan on December 31, 2006. The transition benefit percentage will remain for the duration of the transition period, which continues for 12 years or until retirement, whichever comes first. The transition benefit is applicable only to employees who were actively employed on January 1, 2007 and the allocation percentage is based on the age of the participant on that date. The transition benefit for each of the named executive officers eligible to participate, other than Mr. Mullarkey, is 8%. Mr. Mullarkey does not qualify for a transition benefit. Each year, the balance in the hypothetical account will be credited with interest at a rate equal to the average 30-Year Treasury Bond Rate for November of the year prior to the year the interest is credited.

In general, the compensation used for determining a participant's benefits under the retirement plan consists of base salary, overtime, annual incentive awards (paid in cash or stock) and other cash remuneration, plus a participant's contributions to our 401(k) plan.

Normal retirement age under the retirement plan is age 65. Participants with 10 years of service may retire and commence payment of their frozen benefits upon reaching age 55, with reduced benefits based on age at the retirement date. Of the named executive officers, only Mr. Ellers and Mr. Gailey are currently eligible for early retirement under the retirement plan with respect to their frozen benefits. All participants may commence distribution of their cash balance benefits on employment termination, without regard to age or years of service, but will forego any future interest credits.

The retirement benefit that each participant will receive at retirement will be the sum of the accrued benefit under the old pension formula as of December 31, 2006, plus the amount allocated to the participant's cash-balance account. A participant vests in his or her combined benefit upon reaching three years of service.

The increase in pension benefit values from 2008 to 2009 is primarily due to the interest rate used to determine the pension values. The interest rates decreased from 2008 to 2009 rather than the previous experience of an increase in the interest rate from 2007 to 2008, and, therefore, the present value of the benefits, in particular the value of the frozen final average pay benefit, increased more than in prior years. For 2008, the increase in the interest rate partially offset the benefit accrual earned during 2008. As the interest rate decreases, the present value of the benefit will increase for the accrual of benefits. A decrease in the interest rates will increase the present value of amounts payable in the future. There was an additional change made to reflect the increase in the interest crediting rate for 2010. Previously, the interest crediting rate on the cash balances was 4.00% and it is now 4.31%. This also increased the present value of the cash balance benefit as it is anticipated to earn more interest than previously expected.

SERP. IRS requirements currently limit the compensation that can be used to calculate a participant's benefit under a qualified retirement plan to $245,000 and the annual benefit is limited to $195,000. The SERP provides out of our general assets an amount substantially equal to the difference between the total benefit accrued under the retirement plan and the amount of benefit the retirement plan is permitted to provide under the statutory limits on benefits and earnings. The SERP, unlike the qualified retirement plan, also includes salary and bonus amounts contributed to the Employee Deferred Compensation Plan for purposes of determining a participant's retirement benefits.

Before January 1, 2009, SERP benefits were payable at the same time and in the same form as benefits payable under the qualified retirement plan, except that SERP participants could elect to receive their SERP benefits in a lump sum. Due to changes in the tax laws, the SERP was amended effective January 1, 2009 to provide that benefits accrued on or after January 1, 2005 are payable in a lump sum on the date that is six months following termination of employment. These benefits may be reduced to reflect early commencement of benefits before age 65. Benefits accrued before January 1, 2005 are still payable according to the SERP rules in effect on December 31, 2008.

The following table shows the actuarial present value of accumulated pension benefits payable to our named executive officers under our retirement plan and the SERP. Mr. Lennartz is based in Germany and is not eligible to participate in U.S. company-sponsored defined benefit retirement plans. The benefits were determined using assumptions consistent with those used by us in our financial statements.

(1) Equals the number of full years of credited service as of December 31, 2009. Credited service begins with a participant's hire date and ends with the date of employment termination.

(2) An actuarial present value of the benefits is calculated by estimating expected future payments starting at an assumed retirement age, weighting the estimated payments by the estimated probability of surviving to each post-retirement age, and discounting the weighted payments at an assumed discount rate to reflect the time value of money. The actuarial present value represents an estimate of the amount which, if invested as of December 31, 2009 at a discount rate of 6.0%, would be sufficient on an average basis to provide estimated future payments based on the current accumulated benefit. Estimated future payments are assumed to be in the form of a single lump-sum payment at retirement determined using interest-rate and mortality assumptions contained in the Revenue Procedure 2000 Mortality Table projected to 2025 using Scale AA with a linear phase-out. The assumed retirement age for each named executive officer is 63 and the assumed cash balance crediting rate is 4.31%. Actual benefit present values will vary from these estimates depending on many factors, including an executive's actual retirement age, future-credited years of service, future compensation, applicable interest-rates and regulatory changes.

(3) Mr. Mullarkey accrued a Retirement Plan and SERP benefit during 2009, but forfeited both benefits upon his termination in November 2009 because he failed to satisfy either plans' vesting requirement of three years of service.

2009 Nonqualified Deferred Compensation

The Employee Deferred Compensation Plan allows highly compensated employees, including executive officers, to defer up to 100% of salary and cash bonus. We match at the rate of 100% of the first 3% of salary deferrals, plus 50% of the next 2%. Employer matching contributions made before January 1, 2007 vest 20% per year of service and matching contributions made on or after January 1, 2007 are 100% vested. Participants also may defer payout of annual bonus shares and PVSUs. We contribute one time-vested incentive share for each four bonus shares deferred.

Deferred cash contributions may be invested in a selection of investment options that mirror the funds available under our 401(k) plans. Incentive shares will vest on the fourth anniversary of the date of contribution or will vest pro rata on retirement, death and/or disability, if earlier. During the time these awards are deferred, they are deemed invested in our common stock and receive additional credits for dividend equivalents. All deferred stock awards are distributed in shares of common stock.

Amounts deferred in any year, except for matching contributions on cash contributions, will be distributed automatically in a lump sum five years after the year of deferral. A participant may choose to defer these amounts to another date or until employment termination. Matching contributions on cash contributions are only distributable on employment termination. Participants may elect to receive their distributions on termination in a cash lump sum, stock lump sum, or in up to 10 equal annual installments.

German Executive Deferred Compensation Plan. In 2009, we adopted a new deferred compensation plan for our European corporate headquarters senior employees, including Mr. Lennartz. Under the plan, a contribution is made to a tax-deferred account for eligible employees. The amount of the contribution equals 3% of their base compensation up to the limit on wages under the German social security system plus 13% of their base compensation in excess of that limit. Base compensation includes a participant's base salary plus the three-year average of the bonus earned under our Annual Incentive Plan.

Beginning in 2010, participants will be eligible to defer their Annual Incentive Plan and holiday bonuses. The account earns interest at the rate of 2.25%, compounding annually or at the average of a German government bond index, whichever is greater as measured at the time a participant commences distributions under the plan. Distributions generally can begin when a participant is eligible to retire under the German social security system, death or permanent disability. They are payable in three forms: (1) an annuity (purchased with the account balance), (2) a lump sum or (3) up to 10 annual installments. Distributions do not require a participant to terminate employment.

The following table shows the executive contributions, earnings and account balances for the U.S.-based named executive officers in the Employee Deferred Compensation Plan and for Mr. Lennartz in the German Deferred Compensation Plan. Each executive is currently 100% vested in his entire account balance.

(1) Amounts in this column reflect the named executive officers' deferral of compensation. With respect to Mr. Mullarkey, the entire amount in this column is his deferred salary during 2009, which is also included in the Salary column of the 2009 Summary Compensation Table on page 30. Mr. Gailey deferred $51,148 of his 2008 Annual Incentive Plan award that was paid in 2009 and was included in the Non-Equity

Edgar Filing: WEST PHARMACEUTICAL SERVICES INC - Form DEF 14A

Incentive Compensation column of last year's Summary Compensation Table. In addition, Mr. Gailey deferred $92,644 of his PVSUs with respect to the 2006-2008 performance period that was paid in 2009 and was included in the Stock Awards column of last year's Summary Compensation Table.

(2) For U.S.-based named executive officers, amounts in this column reflect our matching contributions under the Employee Deferred Compensation Plan. All of the matching contributions were matching contributions on deferred salary. No deferred incentive shares were credited during 2009. For Mr. Lennartz, the amount in this column reflects our required contribution.

(3) For U.S.-based executives, these amounts reflect the net gains (losses) attributable to the investment funds in which the executives have chosen to invest and for deferred shares of stock contributed to the Employee Deferred Compensation Plan. We have assumed that Mr. Lennartz is credited with interest at a guaranteed rate of 2.25%.

Table of Contents

(4) The total balance includes amounts contributed for prior years which have all been previously reported in the Summary Compensation Table for the year those amounts were deferred.

(5) Amounts were converted at a rate of 1.3941 U.S. Dollars per Euro.

Payments on Disability

Each current U.S. named executive officer has long-term disability coverage, which is available to all eligible U.S. employees. The coverage provides six months of full salary continuation followed by up to 60% of pay with a $25,000 monthly limit. Eligible U.S. employees also continue to earn cash balance pay credits at the rate of pay in effect when they became disabled under the retirement plan and SERP. Employees who are vested in our retirement plan also receive continued medical coverage while on disability on the same terms as active employees. Deferred compensation is payable according to the executive's election. Outstanding unvested stock options would be forfeited and outstanding vested stock options would be exercisable for the term of the option. Outstanding PVSUs and unvested incentive shares would be forfeited when an employee becomes disabled.

Mr. Lennartz is also covered by group disability coverage, which is generally available to all German-based employees. This coverage entitles him to receive one million Euros ($1,394,100, converted at a rate of 1.3941 U.S. Dollars per Euro) if he becomes permanently disabled under German social security laws. He would also receive any amounts deferred under the German Executive Deferred Compensation Plan.

Mr. Mullarkey was not disabled at the time of his termination and his disability benefits ceased on December 31, 2009.

Payments on Death

Each U.S.-based named executive officer has group life insurance benefits, which are available to all eligible U.S. employees. The benefit is equal to 1x pay with a maximum limit of $500,000, plus any supplemental life insurance elected and paid for by the named executive officer. Dr. Morel's beneficiaries will also receive a benefit of $1,750,000 payable under the terms of a term life insurance policy paid for by us.

For U.S.-based named executive officers, deferred compensation is payable according to the executive's election on file. Outstanding unvested stock options would be forfeited and outstanding vested stock options would be exercisable for the term of the option. Outstanding PVSUs and unvested incentive shares would be forfeited when an employee dies.

Mr. Lennartz is covered by group life insurance coverage, which is generally available to all German-based employees at varying levels depending on position. The insurance entitles his beneficiaries to receive one million Euros ($1,394,100, converted at a rate of 1.3941 U.S. Dollars per Euro) upon his death. They would also receive any amounts deferred under the German Executive Deferred Compensation Plan.

Under our agreement with Mr. Mullarkey, his death benefits continue on the same terms that applied while he was employed for 12 months following his termination or until he receives similar benefits from a new employer, whichever occurs first.

Estimated Payments Following Severance - Current Named Executive Officers

We have agreements with Dr. Morel and Mr. Ellers that entitle them to severance benefits on certain types of employment terminations not related to a change in control. Mr. Gailey and Mr. Federici are not covered under a general severance plan and any severance benefits payable to them under similar circumstances would be determined by the Compensation Committee in its discretion. Mr. Lennartz's severance arrangements are governed by his employment agreement.

Dr. Morel. Dr. Morel has an employment agreement that entitles him to a lump-sum severance payment if he is terminated involuntarily other than for cause. The amount of the payment is equal to his annual base salary in effect on the termination date plus an amount equal to his salary for the next year if it has been set (or if not set, his current base salary). The payment would be made six months following his termination date. Dr. Morel's employment agreement does not entitle him to additional payments or benefits if his employment is terminated for cause or as a result of his death or disability. Cause means the conviction of a felony; the willful failure to perform his job duties; gross negligence or willful misconduct in the performance of his duties; willful misconduct that materially injures us; or the violation of the non-compete, the non-solicitation or the confidentiality obligations under the agreement.

Any severance pay would be contingent on execution of a release and other customary provisions, including compliance with non-competition, non-solicitation and confidentiality obligations contained in the agreement.

Mr. Ellers. Mr. Ellers has an agreement that requires him not to compete with us for one year following his employment termination. The agreement entitles him to one year of salary if he leaves us for any reason other than a for cause termination by us. Half of the amount is payable in a lump sum after six months and the remainder bi-weekly. The agreement also provides him with medical, dental and life insurance coverage for the one-year period, so long as he pays required employee contributions.

Mr. Ellers is not entitled to any additional payments or benefits if his employment is terminated for cause or by reason of death or disability.

Cause is defined in the agreement as dishonesty; disloyalty; willful misconduct; gross negligence; theft, conviction of a crime; drunkenness; unethical business conduct; or refusal to perform his duties or a breach of the agreement.

If any of the named executive officers are entitled to payments under the agreements described above and under a change in control agreement described below, the named executive officer will be entitled to only one payment as described in the respective agreements.

Mr. Lennartz. Under Mr. Lennartz's employment agreement, each party must give six months' notice of a termination. This is a standard German employment agreement. Severance pay equal to his monthly base compensation may be paid in lieu of six months' notice. Monthly base compensation is equal to his monthly base salary plus one-twelfth of his three-year average Annual Incentive Plan bonus. In addition, if we terminate him without cause, Mr. Lennartz is entitled to receive a payment equal to one month of salary per year of service. As of December 31, 2009, Mr. Lennartz was entitled to receive nine months' total base compensation if we terminate him without cause.

Estimated Severance Payments Table

The table below reflects amounts that executives would receive on certain terminations of employment other than following a change in control. No named executive officer will receive any enhanced benefit as a result of a termination for cause. The amounts do not include amounts payable through a plan or arrangement that is generally applicable to all salaried employees.

(1) This amount is the total of unvested PVSUs that based on past practice would become accelerated due to retirement measured at their fair market value on December 31, 2009, $39.20, using an assumed 100% performance rate for the 2007-2009 and 2008-2010 performance periods. These awards would still be payable at the same time and subject to the same performance conditions that apply to awards to participants who remain active, and thus may be greater than or less than the target amount.

(2) This amount reflects the current premium incremental cost to us for continuation of elected benefits to the extent required under an applicable agreement.

(3) The life insurance benefit represents additional life insurance paid for by us over the standard coverage level.

Payments Following Severance Mr. Mullarkey

Under a severance and non-compete agreement between us and Mr. Mullarkey and a severance benefits agreement that we entered into with him when he left us, Mr. Mullarkey is entitled to certain payments and benefits in exchange for his execution of a waiver of claims and agreement not to compete with us for a period of twelve months. The following table lists the benefits and their value:

Severance Benefit	Amount or Value of Benefit
Continued salary for 12 months	$	450,000
Continued medical, dental and life insurance benefits for 12 months	$	10,546
2009 Annual Incentive Plan bonus	$	309,750

Relocation allowance	$	10,000(3)
Outplacement Assistance	$	25,000
Total	$	1,188,344

(1) The amount is calculated by multiplying the number of PVSUs on the vesting date, February 19, 2010 (5,858 shares) by the fair market value of our common stock on December 15, 2009 ($39.80), the date on which the Compensation Committee approved his agreement.

(2) Stock options will continue to vest through February 28, 2010 and will be exercisable until November 18, 2010, the end of his severance period. The amount is calculated by multiplying the difference between the exercise price and the fair market value of our common stock on December 15, 2009 ($39.80), the date on which the Compensation Committee approved his agreement.

(3) Represents estimated costs associated with his residential lease termination and relocation of household goods.

Payments On Termination in Connection With a Change in Control

Dr. Morel, Mr. Ellers, Mr. Federici and Mr. Gailey. We have entered into agreements with each of our U.S.-based named executive officers, as well as certain other of our officers, which provide the benefits described below on qualifying terminations of employment in connection with or within two years following a change in control. For Dr. Morel, Mr. Federici, Mr. Ellers and Mr. Gailey, the agreements provide for the following compensation and benefits if their employment is terminated under certain circumstances following a change in control:

- Cash severance pay equal to 3x the sum of the executive's highest annual base salary in effect during the year of termination and the average annual bonus for the three years (or, if employed less than three years, the lesser period) immediately preceding the change in control. Severance compensation will be reduced on a pro rata basis if an executive reaches normal retirement age or commences retirement within three years following the change in control. The severance payments for Mr. Ellers, Mr. Federici and Mr. Gailey are payable in monthly installments, and the severance payments for Dr. Morel are payable in a lump sum. If any of these individuals is a key employee at the time of his termination, payments will be delayed six months to the extent required by applicable tax law.

Table of Contents

- Immediate vesting of any unvested benefits and matching contributions under our 401(k) plans and the Employee Deferred Compensation Plan as of the termination of the executive's employment.
- Immediate vesting of all unvested stock options, stock appreciation rights, shares of stock, stock units and other equity-based awards awarded under any compensation or benefit plan or arrangement.
- Continued medical, dental, life and other benefits for 36 months after termination of the executive's employment, or until his retirement or eligibility for similar benefits with a new employer.
- Outplacement assistance.

Employment terminations that entitled an executive to receive the severance benefits under a change in control, consist of (i) resignation following a constructive termination of his employment, (ii) employment termination other than by reason of death, disability, continuous willful misconduct or normal retirement, or (iii) voluntary resignation during a 30-day period beginning 12 months following the change in control.

Definition of Change in Control. For each agreement, a change in control is defined generally as any such event that requires a report to the SEC, but includes any of the following:

- Any person or entity other than us, any of our current directors or officers or a trustee or fiduciary holding our securities, becomes the beneficial owner of more than 50% of the combined voting power of our outstanding securities;
- An acquisition, sale, merger or other transaction that results in a change in ownership of more than 50% of the combined voting power of our stock;
- A change in the majority of our Board of Directors over a two-year period that is not approved by at least two-thirds of the directors then in office who were directors at the beginning of the period; or
- Execution of an agreement with us, which if consummated, would result in any of the above events.

Definition of Constructive Termination. A constructive termination generally includes any of the following actions taken by us without the executive's written consent following a change in control:

- Significantly reducing or diminishing the nature or scope of the executive's authority or duties;
- Materially reducing the executive's annual salary or incentive compensation opportunities;
- Changing the executive's office location so that he must commute more than 50 miles, as compared to his commute as of the date of the agreement;
- Failing to provide substantially similar fringe benefits, or substitute benefits that were substantially similar taken as a whole, to the benefits provided as of the date of the agreement; or
- Failing to obtain a satisfactory agreement from any successor to us to assume and agree to perform the obligations under the agreement.

However, no constructive termination occurs if the executive:

- Fails to give us written notice of his intention to claim constructive termination and the basis for that claim at least 10 days in advance of the effective date of the executive's resignation; or
- We cure the circumstances giving rise to the constructive termination before the effective date of the executive's resignation.

Non-Competition. To receive the severance benefits under the agreement, the executive must agree not to be employed by any of our competitors or compete with us in any part of the United States (any market or territory, in the case of Dr. Morel) for up to one year (two years, in the case of Dr. Morel) following employment termination for any reason.

Excise-Tax Indemnification. The named executive officers are entitled to full indemnification for any excise taxes that may be imposed by Section 4999 of the Internal Revenue Code in connection with the change in control, including interest and penalties, and payment of their legal fees and expenses if we contest the validity or enforceability of the agreement. Currently, no named executive officer would receive a gross-up payment.

Mr. Lennartz. Mr. Lennartz is entitled to the same termination benefits he would be entitled to in the absence of a change in control of the company.

Mr. Mullarkey. At the time of Mr. Mullarkey's termination in 2009, our obligations to provide any additional change-in-control benefits ceased. Therefore, he is not entitled to any of the benefits described above.

Estimated Benefits on Termination Following a Change in Control December 31, 2009

The following table shows potential payments to the named executive officers if their employment terminates following a change in control under existing contracts, agreements, plans or arrangements. The amounts assume a December 31, 2009 termination date and use the closing price of our common stock as of December 31, 2009, $39.20.

(1) This amount represents three times the sum of the executive officer's (a) highest annual base salary in effect during the year of termination and (b) the average annual bonus for the three years (or, if employed less than three years, the lesser period). These amounts are based on the salary rates in effect on December 31, 2009 and bonuses paid in during the three years before the year containing the termination date (2006, 2007 and 2008).

- (2) This amount represents the payout of all outstanding PVSU awards on a change in control at the target payout level with each award then pro-rated based on the time elapsed for the applicable three-year performance period.
- (3) This amount represents the value of all unvested restricted awards, which would become vested on a change in control (whether or not the awards were deferred). The amount was calculated by multiplying an executive's number of unvested shares by the fair market value of a single share on December 31, 2009, which was $39.20.
- (4) This amount is the intrinsic value (fair market value on December 31, 2009 ($39.20 per share) minus the per share exercise price) of all unvested stock options for each executive. Any option with an exercise price of greater than fair market value was assumed to be cancelled for no consideration and, therefore, had no intrinsic value.
- (5) This amount represents the payout of the supplemental award on a change in control at the target payout level with each award then pro-rated based on the time elapsed for the applicable three-year performance period.
- (6) This amount represents the employer-paid portion of the premiums for medical, dental and life insurance coverage for Dr. Morel, Mr. Federici, Mr. Ellers and Mr. Gailey.
- (7) This amount represents the cost of providing outplacement assistance.
- (8) This amount reflects the gross-up an executive would receive if he is subject to excise tax under Section 4999 of the Internal Revenue Code. The gross-up, if any, is calculated using the assumptions required by the Internal Revenue Code and includes an imputed value associated with deemed enhancements to benefits payable under our retirement plan and SERP. The imputed amounts are as follows Dr. Morel - $44,319; Mr. Federici - $21,455; Mr. Ellers - $144,944; and, Mr. Gailey - $123,898. These values are calculated using the same mortality table discussed in the Pension Benefits section above, a 4.31% cash balance plan crediting rate, an assumed retirement age of 63 and the discount rate required by the Internal Revenue Code.

(9) Although Mr. Ellers and Mr. Gailey are eligible to retire under our Retirement Plan and SERP, and their agreements with us provide that severance pay would be reduced by payments made under those plans, we have calculated the severance pay without regard to this reduction.

(10) Amount converted at a rate of 1.3941 U.S. Dollars per Euro.

REVIEW OF RELATED PERSON TRANSACTIONS

The Board has adopted a written policy and procedures relating to the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee's review and approval of transactions with related persons that are required to be disclosed in proxy statements under Securities and Exchange Commission regulations. A related person includes our directors, officers, 5% shareholders and immediate family members of these persons. Under the policy, the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee reviews the material facts of all related person transactions, determines whether the related person has a material interest in the transaction and may approve, ratify, rescind or take other action with respect to the transaction. In approving the transactions the Committee will take into account, among other factors, whether the transaction is on terms no less favorable than terms generally available to an unaffiliated third party under the same or similar circumstances and the extent of the related person's interest in the transactions.

The Committee has reviewed and pre-approved certain types of related person transactions, including (1) director and executive officer compensation that is otherwise required to be reported in our proxy statement under Securities and Exchange Commission regulations; (2) certain transactions with companies at which the related person is an employee only; (3) charitable contributions that would not disqualify a director's independent status. The policy and procedures can be found on our website at www.westpharma.com under the Investors Corporate Governance - Related Party Transaction Policies and Procedures captions.

SECTION 16(a) BENEFICIAL OWNERSHIP REPORTING COMPLIANCE

Section 16(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, requires that our directors and officers file reports of holdings and transactions in our shares with the SEC and the New York Stock Exchange. Based on our records and other information, we believe that in 2009 our directors and officers met all applicable Section 16(a) filing requirements during 2009.

Audit Committee Policy on Pre-Approval of Audit and Permissible Non-Audit Services

Our Audit Committee has responsibility for appointing, setting compensation and overseeing the work of the Company's independent registered public accounting firm. As part of this responsibility, the Committee has established a policy to pre-approve all audit and permissible non-audit services provided by the independent registered public accounting firm. Prior to engagement for the next year's audit, management will submit a list of services and related fees expected to be rendered by the independent registered public accounting firm during that year for pre-approval by the Audit Committee. Those services fall within one of the four following categories:

Audit Fees include fees for audit work performed on the financial statements and internal control over financial reporting, and work that generally only the independent registered public accounting firm can reasonably be expected to provide, including statutory audits or financial audits for our subsidiaries or affiliates; services associated with SEC registration statements; periodic reports and other documents filed with the SEC or other documents issued in connection with securities offerings (e.g., comfort letters, consents); and assistance in responding to SEC comment letters.

Audit-Related Fees are fees for assurance and related services that are reasonably related to the performance of the audit or review of our financial statements and are traditionally performed by the independent registered public accounting firm, including due diligence related to potential business acquisitions/divestitures, financial statement audits of employee benefit plans and special procedures required to meet certain regulatory requirements.

Tax Fees include fees for all services, except those specifically related to the audit of the financial statements, which are performed by the independent registered public accounting firm's tax personnel and may include tax advice, tax analysis and compliance, and review of income and other tax returns.

All Other Fees are fees for those services not captured in any of the above three categories. For 2009, this category consisted of the cost of accounting research software offered by PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP.

The Board of Directors recommends a vote FOR the ratification of the appointment of PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP as our independent registered public accounting firm for 2010.
