Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On June 10, 2010, Aventine Renewable Energy Holdings, Inc. (the Company) entered into a non-binding letter of intent (the LOI) with New CIE Energy Opco, LLC d/b/a Riverland Biofuels (the Seller) and affiliates of certain holders of the Company's debt and equity securities (together, the Guarantors) to acquire an ethanol production facility situated in Canton, Illinois (the Facility). As required by the LOI, the Company has deposited with the Seller a sum of $5,000,000 as a non-refundable deposit (the Deposit). The Seller may use the Deposit only for certain purposes described in the LOI, including the extinguishment of existing third party liabilities of the Seller or for working capital expenditures to meet the Seller's payroll and overhead obligations associated with the Facility that are due and payable. The Deposit may be returned to the Company only in circumstances described in the LOI, including (i) a filing by which the Seller and/or the assets of the Seller are placed under the jurisdiction of the U.S. Bankruptcy Court and such proceeding is not dismissed within 30 days of filing, (ii) use by the Seller or its affiliates of any material portion of the Deposit in a manner other than as set forth above, (iii) the incurrence by the Seller of any additional material indebtedness or suffering of any additional material lien on any of its assets other than in the ordinary course of business, consistent with past practice, (iv) any material diminution in value of the assets to be acquired as a result of a casualty loss with respect to the fixed assets located at the Facility or (v) a refusal by or the inability of the Seller to close the transaction in accordance with any definitive agreement entered into for purposes of consummating the transaction, or to satisfy a material closing condition of the Seller contained in any such definitive agreement, or upon a breach of any of the Seller's material obligations contained in any such definitive agreement.

The Guarantors indirectly hold, collectively, a controlling interest in the Seller and, as required by the LOI, have entered into a guaranty whereby they have covenanted to act as guarantor of the Seller's obligations under the LOI related to the return of the Deposit in certain circumstances.

The transactions contemplated by the LOI are subject to the execution of a definitive agreement by the Company and the Seller.
