Press Release

Espoo, Finland February 27, 2012

Closing of the transaction to transfer responsibility for the Norwegian nationwide TETRA Nødnett project to Motorola Solutions, Inc. completed

Nokia Siemens Networks and Motorola Solutions, a leading provider of mission-critical communications solutions, have completed the transaction to transfer responsibility for the Norwegian nationwide TETRA Nødnett project including the transfer of 25 employees from Nokia Siemens Networks in Norway to Motorola Solutions.

The signing of the agreement to transfer responsibility for the Nødnett project including associated employees was announced earlier this year on January 11.

All regulatory approvals, including Norwegian government approval, have been obtained, and Motorola Solutions has assumed responsibility for the continued roll out, implementation and operation of the nationwide Nødnett network for Norway's public safety agencies with immediate effect.
