Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

Agreement and Plan of Merger

On June 6, 2013, Alexander & Baldwin, Inc. (A&B), A&B II, LLC, a Hawaii limited liability company and a wholly owned subsidiary of A&B (Merger Sub), Grace Pacific Corporation, a Hawaii corporation (Grace), GPC Holdings, Inc., a Hawaii corporation and a wholly owned subsidiary of Grace (GPC Holdings), and David C. Hulihee, in his capacity as the shareholders' representative, entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the Merger Agreement), providing for the merger of GPC Holdings with and into Merger Sub, with Merger Sub surviving as a wholly-owned subsidiary of A&B (the Merger). Prior to the Merger, Grace will undertake a restructuring (the Restructuring) in order to separate its natural materials and construction businesses (Grace Businesses) from its petroleum and retail gasoline businesses, so that A&B will acquire only the Grace Businesses in the Merger.

Pursuant to the Merger Agreement and subject to the terms and conditions thereof, at the effective time of the Merger, the shareholders of Grace (the Grace Shareholders) will, in the aggregate, receive $235 million, subject to adjustment at closing, composed of 85% A&B common stock and 15% cash (subject to adjustment at closing). The number of A&B shares to be issued at closing will be determined by the 20-day volume weighted average price (VWAP) of A&B common stock shortly prior to closing, subject to a collar of $31.50 and $37.50. Accordingly, A&B will issue at closing not more than approximately 6.341 million shares and not less than approximately 5.327 million shares. Approximately 71% of the shares issued at closing will be subject to a six-month lockup from the effective time of the Merger.

The Merger Agreement contains customary representations, warranties and covenants of A&B, Grace and GPC Holdings.

An amount of cash equal to 12% of the aggregate merger consideration otherwise deliverable to Grace Shareholders at the effective time of the Merger will be withheld pro rata from Grace Shareholders and retained by A&B to secure any closing adjustment to the aggregate purchase price and certain indemnification obligations of Grace Shareholders pursuant to the Merger Agreement. These funds will be released by A&B in accordance with the terms and conditions set forth in the Merger Agreement.

Pursuant to the Merger Agreement, the Grace Shareholders have agreed to indemnify A&B for a number of items, including, among others, losses resulting from breaches of representations, warranties and covenants and certain identified liabilities. These indemnification obligations are in certain cases limited to claims that in the aggregate exceed a specified deductible amount and are limited to 10% of the aggregate merger consideration.

The Merger Agreement and the other transactions contemplated thereby have been approved by the special committees and the boards of directors of A&B and Grace. Walter A. Dods, Jr., a director of A&B and Grace and holder of approximately 12% of Grace shares, will receive greater than 1% of the currently issued and outstanding shares of A&B common stock in the Merger. Accordingly, pursuant to the NYSE rules, A&B will hold a special meeting at which the shareholders of A&B will be asked to approve the issuance of A&B common stock in the Merger (A&B Shareholder Approval). GPC Holdings also will hold a special meeting at which the Grace Shareholders will be asked to approve the Merger (Grace Shareholder Approval).

Edgar Filing: Alexander & Baldwin, Inc. - Form 8-K

In addition to obtaining the A&B Shareholder Approval and the Grace Shareholder Approval, the consummation of the Merger is subject to various customary closing conditions, including, among others, expiration of the waiting period under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act.

The Merger Agreement also contains certain termination rights for both A&B and Grace, including that Grace may terminate the Merger Agreement if the VWAP of A&B common stock is less than $29.00, and A&B may terminate the Merger Agreement if the VWAP of A&B common stock is greater than $40.00. The Merger Agreement further provides that, upon termination of the Merger Agreement under specified circumstances, a party would be required to pay the other party's expenses in an amount up to $3 million. In certain circumstances, Grace would be obligated to pay A&B a termination fee of $7 million plus A&B's expenses up to $3 million.

Voting Agreement

Concurrently with the execution of the Merger Agreement, and in consideration thereof, RCCI Management, LLC, Waikoloa Heights Investment Partners, David C. Hulihee, Walter A. Dods, Jr. and Bill D. Mills, principal shareholders of Grace (Principal Shareholders) and, in the case of Messrs. Hulihee, Dods, and Mills, directors of Grace, holding approximately 71% of Grace shares, have entered into a voting agreement with A&B and Merger Sub. Pursuant to the terms of the voting agreement, the Principal Shareholders have agreed to vote their shares of common stock of Grace and GPC Holdings, as applicable, in favor of the holding company reorganization as part of the Restructuring, in favor of the Merger, and against any proposal that would interfere with the Restructuring or the Merger or any of the other transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement.

Subject to certain exceptions described in the voting agreement, the Principal Shareholders have also agreed, among other things, not to offer for sale, sell, transfer, tender, pledge, encumber, assign or otherwise dispose of their shares of common stock of Grace and GPC Holdings, as applicable, or to enter into any agreement related to any of the foregoing transactions.

Lock-Up Agreement

Concurrently with the execution of the Merger Agreement, and in consideration thereof, each of the Principal Shareholders also has entered into a lock-up agreement with A&B and Merger Sub pursuant to which each of the Principal Shareholders has agreed, subject to certain exceptions, not to offer, sell, pledge, hypothecate or otherwise transfer or dispose of, directly or indirectly, any shares of A&B common stock issued to such Principal Shareholder pursuant to the Merger Agreement for a period of six months following the effective time of the Merger.
