ITEM 5.02 DEPARTURE OF DIRECTORS OR CERTAIN OFFICERS; ELECTION OF DIRECTORS; APPOINTMENT OF CERTAIN OFFICERS; COMPENSATORY ARRANGEMENTS OF CERTAIN OFFICERS.

(d) On January 29, 2014, the Board of Directors (the Board) of The Macerich Company (the Company) increased the number of directors to eleven and elected Steven Soboroff to serve as a director until the next annual meeting of stockholders and until his successor is duly elected and qualifies. The Board determined that Mr. Soboroff is an independent director under the Company's Director Independence Standards which comply with the New York Stock Exchange Corporate Governance Listing Standards.

Mr. Soboroff is the President of the Los Angeles Police Commission and has served in that position since his appointment to the Board of Police Commissioners by Los Angeles Mayor Eric Garcetti in August of 2013. Since 1978, he has been the managing partner of Soboroff Partners, a shopping center development and leasing company. During 2001 to 2010, he served in the roles of Chairman and CEO as well as President of Playa Vista, one of the country's most significant multi-use real estate projects. Mr. Soboroff also was the president of the Los Angeles Recreation and Parks Commission from 1995 to 2001 and a member of the Los Angeles Harbor Commission. In addition, Mr. Soboroff is a board member of several non-profit philanthropic and academic organizations.

As a non-employee director, Mr. Soboroff will participate in the Company's compensation and benefit programs for all non-employee directors of the Company as described in the Company's Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended September 30, 2013, Exhibit 10.4. In connection with his appointment to the Board, Mr. Soboroff also received 500 shares of restricted stock units of the Company, which will vest in one year. The Company intends to enter into its standard form indemnification agreement with Mr. Soboroff. There are no arrangements or understandings between Mr. Soboroff and any other person pursuant to which Mr. Soboroff was selected as a director, nor are there any transactions subject to Item 404(a) of Regulation S-K in which the Company is a participant and Mr. Soboroff has a material interest.

Special Stockholders Meetings. The amended Bylaws clarify that a special meeting of stockholders shall be held on the date and at the time and place set by the Chairman of the Board, the Chief Executive Officer, the President or the Board, whoever has called the meeting.

Advance Notice of Director Nominations and New Business Proposals from Stockholders. The amended Bylaws expand the information required to be disclosed by a stockholder nominating an individual for election to the Board or making a proposal of other business.

Action by Stockholders by Written Consent. The amended Bylaws remove a requirement, no longer required by Maryland law, that, in connection with stockholders taking action by unanimous written or electronic consent, the Company must obtain a written waiver from stockholders entitled to notice of a stockholders meeting but not entitled to vote at such meeting.

Fixing of Record Date. To conform to Maryland law, the amended Bylaws clarify that a meeting of stockholders may be adjourned or postponed to a date not more than 120 days after the original record date, without the need to set a new record date.

Surety Bonds. The amended Bylaws remove references to outdated provisions concerning the giving of bonds by officers, agents or employees of the Company.

Indemnification and Advance of Expenses as a Witness. The amended Bylaws clarify that a present or former director or officer is entitled to indemnification and the advancement of expenses to the maximum extent permitted by Maryland law in the event such director or officer is a witness in a proceeding.

Exclusive Forum for Certain Litigation. The amended Bylaws provide that, unless the Company agrees otherwise, derivative claims, breach of director, officer or employee duty claims, claims pursuant to the Maryland General Corporation Law, the Company's charter or Bylaws and claims governed by the internal affairs doctrine be brought in the Circuit Court for Baltimore City, Maryland (or, if that court does not have jurisdiction, the United States District Court for the District of Maryland, Baltimore Division).
