Item 7.01 Regulation FD disclosure.

On September 12, 2014, Seagate Technology plc (or the Company) announced that it expects to report fiscal first quarter 2015 revenue of at least $3,650 million. The Company previously said that it expected revenue for the quarter of approximately $3,550 million. Additionally, Seagate also announced that it expects to generate $650 million to $700 million from its Cloud Systems and Solutions group in fiscal year 2015.

The information in this Current Report on Form 8-K is furnished but shall not be deemed to be filed for purposes of Section 18 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, or otherwise subject to the liability of such section.

Cautionary Note Regarding Forward-Looking Statements

This Current Report contains forward-looking statements within the meaning of Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933 and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, each as amended, in particular, statements about our estimated quarterly revenue. These forward-looking statements are based on information available to the Company as of the date of this Current Report and are based on management's current views and assumptions. These forward-looking statements are conditioned upon and also involve a number of known and unknown risks, uncertainties, and other factors that could cause actual results, performance or events to differ materially from those anticipated. Such risks, uncertainties, and other factors may be beyond the Company's control and may pose a risk to the Company's operating results. Such risks and uncertainties include, but are not limited to; the uncertainty in global economic conditions as consumers and businesses may defer purchases in response to tighter credit and financial news, the impact of the variable demand and adverse pricing environment for disk drives, particularly in view of current business and economic conditions; dependence on the Company's ability to successfully qualify, manufacture and sell its disk drive products in increasing volumes on a cost-effective basis and with acceptable quality, particularly the new disk drive products with lower cost structures; the impact of competitive product announcements; possible excess industry supply with respect to particular disk drive products; and the timing and magnitude of orders, shipments and accrual of expenses in the final weeks of the fiscal quarter. Information concerning risks, uncertainties and other factors that could cause results to differ materially from the expectations described in this Current Report is contained in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K filed with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission on August 7, 2014, the Risk Factors section of which is incorporated into this Current Report by reference, and other documents filed with or furnished to the Securities and Exchange Commission. The forward-looking statements in this report should not be relied upon as representing the Company's views as of any subsequent date and the Company undertakes no obligation to update forward-looking statements to reflect events or circumstances after the date they were made.
