Antitrust Improvements Act and Recro's ability to obtain financing to fund the initial cash payment. The Disposition is currently expected to be completed in the second quarter of 2015.

The Purchase Agreement also provides for certain termination rights for both the Sellers and Recro. Upon termination of the Agreement under specified circumstances, Recro may be required to pay Sellers a termination fee of $5,000,000.

Item 5.02(b). Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

On March 7, 2015, Geraldine Henwood notified the Board of the Company that she would be resigning as a member of the Company's Board effective immediately. Ms. Henwood's decision was not the result of any disagreement between the Company and Ms. Henwood on any matter, including with respect to the Company's operations, policies or practices.

Item 7.01. Regulation FD Disclosure.

On March 9, 2015, the Company issued a press release announcing, among other things, the execution of the Purchase Agreement. A copy of the press release is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1. This information, including Exhibit 99.1, shall not be deemed filed for purposes of Section 18 of the Exchange Act, or incorporated by reference in any filing under the Securities Act or the Exchange Act, except as shall be expressly set forth by specific reference in such a filing.

Forward-Looking Statements

Certain statements set forth herein may constitute forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995, as amended, including, but not limited to: statements concerning future financial and operating performance, business plans or prospects; the likelihood of continued revenue growth from the company's commercial products; the therapeutic and commercial value of the company's products and Meloxicam IV/IM; and the likelihood that the sale transaction with Recro will be completed on time or at all. The company cautions that forward-looking statements are inherently uncertain. Although the company believes that such statements are based on reasonable assumptions within the bounds of its knowledge of its business and operations, the forward-looking statements are neither promises nor guarantees and they are necessarily subject to a high degree of uncertainty and risk. Actual performance and results may differ materially from those expressed or implied in the forward-looking statements due to various risks and uncertainties. These risks and uncertainties include, among others: regulatory submissions may not occur or be submitted in a timely manner; the company, and its partners, may not be able to continue to successfully commercialize its products; there may be a reduction in payment rate or reimbursement for the company's products or an increase in the company's financial obligations to governmental payers; the U.S. Food and Drug Administration or regulatory authorities outside the U.S. may make adverse decisions regarding the company's products and Meloxicam IV/IM; the company's products may prove difficult to manufacture, be precluded from commercialization by the proprietary rights of third parties, or have unintended side effects, adverse reactions or incidents of misuse; completion of the sale to Recro is subject to customary closing conditions, including antitrust law clearance; and those risks and uncertainties described under the heading "Risk Factors" in the company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended Dec. 31, 2014, and in any other subsequent filings made by the company with the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) and which are available on the SEC's website at www.sec.gov. Existing and prospective investors are cautioned not to place undue reliance on these forward-looking statements, which speak only as of the date they are made. The information contained in this current report is provided by the company as of the date hereof and, except as required by law, the company disclaims any intention or responsibility for updating or revising any forward-looking information contained in this current report.
