Item 2.01 Completion of Acquisition or Disposition of Assets

Effective as of 12:01 a.m. Eastern Time on October 31, 2016, Johnson Controls International plc (Johnson Controls), the indirect parent company of Johnson Controls, Inc. (the Company) completed the separation and distribution of Johnson Controls automotive seating and interiors business (the Adient Business) from the rest of Johnson Controls (the separation), by means of a dividend in specie of the Adient Business, which the board of directors of Johnson Controls previously declared on September 8, 2016. The dividend in specie was effected through the transfer of the Adient Business from Johnson Controls to Adient plc (Adient) and the issuance of ordinary shares of Adient to holders of Johnson Controls ordinary shares on a pro rata basis (the distribution). In connection with the separation and distribution, the Company transferred the Adient Business to another wholly owned subsidiary of Johnson Controls for assets of equivalent value.

In the distribution, each Johnson Controls shareholder received one ordinary share of Adient for every ten ordinary shares of Johnson Controls held at the close of business on October 19, 2016, the record date for the distribution, and cash in lieu of fractional shares (if any) of Adient. Adient issued a total of approximately 93.7 million ordinary shares in the distribution. As a result of the distribution, Adient is now an independent public company and its ordinary shares are listed on the New York Stock Exchange under the symbol ADNT.
