statements and notes thereto contained in this Registration Statement. In the opinion of management, all adjustments, consisting of normal recurring adjustments, necessary for a fair presentation of financial position and the results of operations for interim are not necessarily indicative of the results to be expected for the full year.

Item 2. Management's Discussion and Analysis or Plan of Operation.

Plan of Operation.

The Company has created relationships with a limited number of clients. Furthermore, the Company plans on increasing its client base through advertisement and by broadening the services in which it currently provides.

Results of Operations

The Company's operations during the quarterly period ended March 31, 2002, resulted in $266 in revenues and incurred expenses of $1,466, stemming from costs related to sales, and also, general and administrative expenses.

Liquidity

At March 31, 2002, the Company had total current assets of $1,433 and total liabilities of $3,654. Management believes that its cash on hand of $1,433 will be sufficient to allow it to continue its operations for the next six months.
