Notes to the Interim Financial Statements

NOTE 1- BASIS OF PRESENTATION

The accompanying unaudited interim financial statements of Cole, Inc. have been prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles and the rule of the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC"), and should be read in conjunction with the audited financial statements. In the opinion of management, all adjustments, consisting of normal recurring adjustments, necessary for a fair presentation of financial position and the results of operations for interim are not necessarily indicative of the results to be expected for the full year.

Item 2.Management's Discussion and Analysis or Plan of Operation.

Plan of Operation.

The Company created relationships with a limited number of clients, these relationships have ceased to generate revenue. Furthermore, the Company will continue to rebuild its business by attracting new clients. The Company has discontinued its advertising, but will start a new advertising campaign if it is successful in raising funds.

Results of Operations

The Company's operations during the quarterly period ended September 30, 2001, resulted in $0 in revenues and incurred expenses of $769, stemming from costs related to sales, and also, general and administrative expenses.

Liquidity

At September 30, 2002, the Company had total cash of $9 and total liabilities of $3,762. Management believes that its cash on hand of $9 will not be sufficient to allow it to continue its operations for the next three months. The Company's management will loan the Company money, not to exceed $25,000. This will give the Company sufficient funds to continue operations for the next twelve months.
