Adjustments to 2015 Base Salaries

On January 2, 2015, the Compensation Committee (the “Committee”) of the Board of Directors of Capstead Mortgage Corporation (the “Company”) increased the base salaries for each of the Company’s executive officers, effective January 1, 2015, as follows:

	Current Annual Base Salary	Annual Base Salary Effective January 1, 2015
Executive
Andrew F. Jacobs	$ 750,000	$ 773,000
Phillip A. Reinsch	$ 420,000	$ 433,000
Robert R. Spears, Jr.	$ 525,000	$ 541,000
Michael W. Brown	$ 300,000	$ 309,000

2015 Annual Incentive Compensation Program Awards

The Committee also adopted the 2015 Annual Incentive Compensation Program applicable to the Company’s executive officers (the “2015 Short-Term Program”). The 2015 Short-Term Program is substantially the same as the 2014 Annual Incentive Compensation Program adopted by the Committee in January 2014. The 2015 Short-Term Program continues to provide specific metrics against which the Company’s performance is to be measured, specifically relative economic return, absolute economic return, relative operating efficiency and individual objectives for each of the executive officers. Payouts under the 2015 Short-Term Program will continue to be determined formulaically, defining target and maximum payout percentages based on multiples of base salary, thereby limiting the maximum annual incentive payout for each executive officer.

The 2015 Short-Term Program is filed with this Form 8-K as Exhibit 10.1 and is incorporated by reference herein. This summary does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the actual 2015 Short-Term Program filed as Exhibit 10.1 with this Form 8-K.

Extension of Dividend Equivalent Rights (“DERs”) short-term incentive compensation program

In 2008 the Committee instituted an additional performance-based short-term incentive compensation program for executives that provides for quarterly cash payments equal to per share dividends declared on the Company’s common stock multiplied by a notional amount of non-vesting or “phantom” common shares, referred to as DERs. DERs are not attached to any stock or option awards. DERs outstanding at December 31, 2014 totaled 654,000 and were scheduled to expire July 1, 2015. Effective January 2, 2015 the Committee extended the expiration dates of outstanding DERs to December 31, 2015.

2015 Long Term Awards

On January 2, 2015, the Committee also adopted long-term performance criteria for the 2015 incentive compensation awards (the “2015 Long-Term Award Criteria”) for the Company’s executive officers. The 2015 Long-Term Award Criteria are substantially the same as the 2014 long-term performance criteria adopted by the Committee in 2013. Immediately following the adoption of the 2015 Long-Term Award Criteria, the Committee granted performance units to the executive officers of the Company pursuant to the 2014 Flexible Long-Term Incentive Plan (the “Performance Units”).

The 2015 Long-Term Award Criteria provide specific metrics against which the Company’s performance is to be measured, specifically relative economic return, absolute economic return and relative total stockholder return. The awards are in the form of Performance Units, which are convertible into shares of common stock of the Company following a three-year performance period ending December 31, 2017. The number of shares of common stock into which the Performance Units are convertible is dependent on satisfaction of the performance metrics outlined in the 2015 Long-Term Award Criteria during the performance period.

For example, if the targeted performance levels are achieved over the three-year period, the Performance Units will convert into shares of common stock equal to the number of Performance Units granted. If the Company exceeds the targeted performance levels and reaches maximum performance thresholds, the Performance Units will convert into shares of common stock equal to twice the number of Performance Units granted. If the Company does not achieve the targeted performance levels but does achieve the minimum performance thresholds, the Performance Units will convert into shares of common stock equal to one-half the number of Performance Units granted. If the Company does not achieve even the minimum performance levels, the Performance Units will expire without converting into any shares of common stock. The conversion ratio will be adjusted to interpolate the appropriate conversion factor if performance levels are above the minimums but below the maximums. Accordingly, the Performance Units could expire without converting into any shares of common stock or could be convertible into as many as 200% of the number of Performance Units granted. The common stock, if any, into which the Performance Units are convertible will be issued by the Company following the end of the three-year performance period and on or prior to March 15, 2018.

Edgar Filing: CAPSTEAD MORTGAGE CORP - Form 8-K
