The Company's Certificate of Incorporation provides that the Company's Board of Directors is divided into three classes (Class I, Class II and Class III). At each Annual Meeting of Stockholders, directors constituting one class are elected for a three-year term.

Robert Howard, the founder and Chairman of the Board of Directors of the Company, was the inventor of the first impact dot matrix printer. Mr. Howard was

Edgar Filing: ICAD INC - Form 10-K/A

Chief Executive Officer of the Company from its establishment in 1984 until December of 1993. He was the founder, and from 1969 to April 1980 he served as President and Chairman of the Board, of Centronics Data Computer Corp. ("Centronics"), a manufacturer of a variety of computer printers. He resigned from Centronics' board of directors in 1983. From April 1980 until 1983, Mr. Howard was principally engaged in the management of his investments. Commencing in mid-1982, Mr. Howard, doing business as R.H. Research, developed the ink jet technology upon which the Company was initially based. Mr. Howard contributed this technology, without compensation, to the Company. Mr. Howard was Chairman of the Board of Presstek, Inc. ("Presstek"), a public company which has developed proprietary imaging and consumables technologies for the printing and graphic arts industries from June 1988 to September 1998 and served as Chairman Emeritus of the Board of Presstek from September 1998 to December 2000.

W. Scott Parr joined the Company in January 1998, as President and Chief Executive Officer. He was appointed to the Company's Board of Directors in February 1998. In connection with the merger of ISSI, W. Kip Speyer, the President and Chief Executive Officer of ISSI assumed the position of Chief Executive Officer of the Company and Mr. Parr continued in the position of President of the Company. Upon Mr. Speyer's resignation in September 2002, Mr. Parr was re-appointed as Chief Executive Officer of the Company. Prior to joining iCAD, Mr. Parr served as Divisional Director and a member of the Board of Directors of SABi International Ventures, Inc. in 1997, where he was responsible for restructuring and upgrading certain US companies owned by foreign and venture investors. From 1995 to 1997, Mr. Parr was Chief Executive Officer, General Counsel and Director of Allied Logic Corporation, a start-up venture specializing in proprietary molding and manufacturing technologies. From 1990 to 1995 Mr. Parr was General Counsel and a Director of LaserMaster Technologies, Inc.

Annette Heroux joined the Company in October 1987 as Accounting Manager and was named Controller in October 1998 and Vice President of Finance, Chief Financial Officer in July 1999. Prior to joining the Company, Ms. Heroux worked from 1980 to 1987 for Laurier, Inc., a semiconductor equipment manufacturer, in various financial and managerial capacities.

James Harlan has been the Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer of HNG Storage Company, a natural gas storage, development and operations company since 1998. From 1991 to 1997 Mr. Harlan served as General Manager and Chief Financial Officer of Pacific Resources Group and planning and finance development work with various manufacturing and distribution businesses in Asia. He also served as operations research and planning analyst for the White House Office of Energy Policy and Planning from 1977 to 1978, the Department of Energy from 1978 to 1981, and U.S. Synthetic Fuels Corporation from 1981 to 1984. He has a PhD in Public Policy with an operations research dissertation from Harvard University and a BS in Chemical Engineering from Washington University.

Maha Sallam has been the Executive Vice President for the Company since June 2002. From 1997 until the acquisition of ISSI in June 2002, Dr. Sallam served as Director and Vice President of Regulatory Affairs and Clinical Testing and Secretary of ISSI. She was one of ISSI's founders and has over eleven years of industry and research experience in image analysis including a doctoral dissertation, conference presentations and several publications on the automated analysis of digital mammograms. Dr. Sallam received her doctorate degree in Computer Science and Engineering from the University of South Florida in May 1997. She also earned a Master of Science from the University of South Florida in 1991 and a Bachelor of Science in Computer Engineering from the University of South Florida in 1990.

Edgar Filing: ICAD INC - Form 10-K/A

Brett Smith, the son of Mrs. Kit Howard, the wife of the Company's Chairman, has been the Chairman and CEO of ei3 Corporation, a provider of technology services to manufacturing companies utilizing advanced frame relay and internet technologies. Prior to joining ei3 Mr. Smith was a member of the restructuring team for Delta V Technologies, a subsidiary of Presstek, where he served as Director of Business Development from 1996 to 1999. From 1995 to 1996 Mr. Smith worked for the Asia Times newspaper start-up team in Hong Kong. He began his career as an analyst, from 1992 to 1994, at Susquehanna Investment Group. Mr. Smith received a Bachelor of Science from Emory University.

Elliot Sussman is currently President and CEO of Lehigh Valley Hospital and Health Network, a position he has held since 1993. Dr. Sussman is the Leonard Parker Pool Professor of Health Systems Management, Professor of Medicine, and Professor of Health Evaluation Sciences at Pennsylvania State University's College of Medicine. Dr. Sussman served as a Fellow in General Medicine and a

Robert Wood Johnson Clinical Scholar at the University of Pennsylvania, and trained as a resident at the Hospital of the University of Pennsylvania. Dr. Sussman holds a Masters in Business Administration from the Wharton School, University of Pennsylvania, a Medical Degree from Harvard University and a Bachelor of Arts Degree from Yale University.

Kevin Woods has been the Vice President of Research and Development for the Company since June 2002. From 1997 until the acquisition of ISSI in June 2002, Dr. Woods served as Director and Vice President of Research and Development and was one of ISSI's founders. Prior to joining ISSI, Dr. Woods held a competitively awarded, post-doctoral research position funded by the U.S. Army Medical Research and Material Command's Breast Cancer Research Program. He has been researching the automated analysis of digital mammogram images and has been awarded research grants totaling over $1,400,000 for this purpose. Dr. Woods received his doctoral degree in Computer Science and Engineering from the University of South Florida in 1991. Dr. Woods also received a Master of Science and Bachelor of Science in Computer Engineering from the University of South Florida in 1989.

OPTION GRANTS IN LAST FISCAL YEAR

The following table sets forth certain information regarding stock options granted by the Company to the Named Persons in 2002.

Name	Individual Grants				Expiration Date	Potential Realization Assumptions Rate of Price Increase for 5 Years
	Number of Securities underlying Options Granted(1)	Percent of Total Options Granted to Employees in Fiscal Year(2)	Exercise of Base Price ($/Sh)	Expiration Date
W. Kip Speyer	75,000 (4)	25%	.80	05/29/2011	3
	550,000		3.49	06/28/2012	1,200
W. Scott Parr	25,000	5%	1.75	01/16/2012	2
	100,000		2.69	11/29/2012	16
Richard F. Lehman	15,372	1%	1.55	11/04/2012	1
William A. Langille	20,000	2%	1.75	01/16/2012	2
	34,500		1.55	11/04/2012	3

(1) All of the foregoing options vest in installments at various times between January 16, 2002 and June 28, 2005.

(2) The total number of options granted in fiscal 2002 includes 500,000 options of the Company issued in exchange for ISSI options in connection with the merger in June 2002.

(3) The potential realizable value columns of the table illustrate values that might be realized upon exercise of the options immediately prior to their expiration, assuming the Company's Common Stock appreciates at the compounded rates specified over the term of the options. These numbers do not take into account provisions of options providing for termination of the option following termination of employment or non transferability of the options and do not make any provision for taxes associated with exercise. Because actual gains will depend upon, among other things, future performance of the Common Stock, there can be no assurance that the amounts reflected in this table will be achieved.

(4) Represents options of the Company issued in exchange for ISSI options in connection with the merger in June 2002.

AGGREGATED OPTION EXERCISES IN LAST FISCAL YEAR AND FISCAL YEAR-END OPTION VALUES

The following table sets forth information regarding the exercise of stock options during the Company's last completed fiscal year by each of the Named Persons and the fiscal year-end value of unexercised options.

(2) Options granted pursuant to the Company's merger and 1993 and 2001 Stock Option Plans.

The Company does not have any employment agreements with its executive officers or key employees.

In September 2002, the Company entered into a Separation Agreement with each of W. Kip Speyer, the former Chief Executive Officer of iCAD and Gregory J. Stepic, the former Vice President of Finance of iCAD. The Separation Agreements acknowledged the resignations of each of Messrs. Speyer and Stepic and provided for severance payments to Messrs. Speyer and Stepic of $500,000 and $148,000, respectively, in lieu of any severance payments to which they may have been entitled to under their employment agreements. The severance payments, less any required withholding by the Company, are payable to Mr. Speyer in equal installments over a 30 month period and to Mr. Stepic in equal installments over a 12 month period, in each case subject to the right to accelerate payments upon the sale of the outstanding stock of the Company or upon a sale by the Company of substantially all of its assets. Under the Separation Agreements, each of Messrs. Speyer and Stepic was entitled to retain his outstanding options of the Company which remain exercisable in accordance with their respective terms. Also, pursuant to the Separation Agreements Messrs. Speyer and Stepic each agreed to remain bound by the confidentiality and non-competition provisions of their employment agreements for the periods set for in the employment agreements.

Compensation of Directors

The Company does not pay cash compensation to members of its board of directors for their services as board members. The Company does reimburse members of the board for out-of-pocket expenses incurred for attendance at board and board committee meetings.

During fiscal 2002 the Company granted the following ten year options to its board members: an aggregate of 125,000 options exercisable at prices ranging from $1.75 to $2.69 per share to W. Scott Parr, which options were immediately exercisable; 75,000 options exercisable at $1.55 per share to James Harlan, which options vest annually in three equal installments beginning on September 30, 2003; 100,000 options exercisable at $3.49 per share to Maha Sallam, which options were immediately exercisable; 20,000 options exercisable at $1.55 per share to Brett Smith, which options vest annually in three equal installments beginning on September 30, 2003; 45,000 options exercisable at $1.55 per share to Dr. Elliot Sussman, which options vest annually in three equal installments beginning on September 30, 2003; and 155,000 options exercisable at $3.49 per share to Kevin Woods, which options were immediately exercisable.

COMPENSATION COMMITTEE INTERLOCKS AND INSIDER PARTICIPATION

There is no Compensation Committee or other committee of the Company's Board of Directors performing similar functions. The person who performed the equivalent function in 2002 was Robert Howard, Chairman of the Board under the direction of the Board of Directors. W. Scott Parr, Chief Executive Officer and a director, participated in discussions with Mr. Howard during the past completed fiscal year in his capacity as an executive officer in connection with executive officer compensation. During 2002 none of the executive officers of the Company served on the Board of Directors or Compensation Committee of any other entity.

(1) Represents the aggregate number of shares of common stock issuable upon exercise of individual arrangements with option and warrant holders. These options and warrants are five years in duration, expire at various dates between December 31, 2004 and February 28, 2005, contain anti-dilution provisions providing for adjustments of the exercise price under certain circumstances and have termination provisions similar to options granted under stockholder approved plans. See Note 8 of Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements for a description of the Company's Stock Option Plans.

Item 13. Certain Relationships and Related Transactions.

The Company has a Revolving Loan and Security Agreement (the "Loan Agreement") with Mr. Robert Howard, Chairman of the Board of Directors of the Company, under which Mr. Howard has agreed to advance funds, or to provide guarantees of advances made by third parties in an amount up to $3,000,000. The Loan Agreement expires January 4, 2004, subject to extension by the parties. Outstanding advances are collateralized by substantially all of the assets of the Company and bear interest at prime interest rate plus 2%. Mr. Howard is entitled to convert outstanding advances made by him under the Loan Agreement into shares of the Company's common stock at any time based on the outstanding closing market price of the Company's common stock at the lesser of the market price at the time each advance is made or at the time of conversion.

In March 2002, Mr. Howard converted $500,000 of advances made under the Loan Agreement into 215,517 shares of restricted common stock of the Company.

During the second quarter of 2002 the Company borrowed $250,000 and in November 2002 the Company repaid Mr. Howard $50,000 pursuant to the Loan Agreement. As of December 31, 2002, $200,000 was owed by the Company and the Company had $2,800,000 available for future borrowings under the Loan Agreement.

In connection with the merger of Howtek, Inc. and ISSI in June 2002, the Company issued 2,000,000 shares of common stock to an entity owned by Mr. Robert Howard in exchange for 1,600,000 shares of ISSI common stock owned by the entity.

The Company had Secured Demand Notes and Security Agreements (the "Notes") owed to Mr. Robert Howard. The principal of these Notes was due and payable in full, together with interest accrued and any penalties provided for, on demand. Under the terms of the Notes the Company agreed to pay interest at the lower rate of (a) 12% per annum, compounded monthly or (b) the maximum rate permitted by applicable law. Payment of the Notes was secured by a security interest in certain assets of the Company. In March 2002 the Company repaid the principal balance due in the amount of $500,000 and the Notes were discharged.

The facility formerly housing the Company's principal executive offices and research and development laboratory was leased by the Company from Mr. Robert

Edgar Filing: ICAD INC - Form 10-K/A

Howard. Rental expense for the year ended December 31, 2002 was $78,500. The Company relocated in January 2003 to a facility leased from an unaffiliated party.

Item 14. Controls and Procedures -----

Within the 90 days prior to the filing date of this Annual Report on Form 10-K, an evaluation was carried out (the "Controls Evaluation"), under the supervision and with the participation of Company's management, including its Chief Executive Officer ("CEO") and its Chief Financial Officer ("CFO"), of the effectiveness of the Company's "disclosure controls and procedures" (as defined in Section 13a-14 (c) and 15d-14 (c) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 ("Disclosure Controls"). Based upon that evaluation, the CEO and CFO have concluded that the Disclosure Controls are effective to ensure that the information required to be disclosed by the Company in reports it files or submits under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 is recorded, processed, summarized and reported as required by the rules and forms of the Securities and Exchange Commission.

The CEO and CFO note that, since the date of the Controls Evaluation to the date of this Annual Report on Form 10-K, there have been no significant changes in the Company's internal controls or in other factors that could significantly affect the internal controls, including any corrective actions with regard to significant deficiencies and material weaknesses.
