TO BE HELD ON JUNE 23, 2006

INFORMATION CONCERNING SOLICITATION AND VOTING

General

The enclosed proxy is solicited on behalf of the Board of Directors of Zoom Technologies, Inc. ("Zoom"), for use at the Annual Meeting of Stockholders to be held on Friday, June 23, 2006 at 10:00 a.m. Eastern time (the "Annual Meeting"), or at any continuation or adjournment thereof, for the purposes set forth herein and in the accompanying Notice of Annual Meeting of Stockholders. This proxy statement, the accompanying Notice of the Annual Meeting, proxy card, and Zoom's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ending December 31, 2005 are first being mailed to stockholders on or about May 19, 2006.

Record Date, Stock Ownership and Voting

Only stockholders of record at the close of business on April 26, 2006 are entitled to receive notice of and to vote at the Annual Meeting. At the close of business on April 26, 2006 there were outstanding and entitled to vote 9,346,966 shares of common stock, par value $.01 per share ("Common Stock"). Each stockholder is entitled to one vote for each share of Common Stock. One-third of the shares of Common Stock outstanding and entitled to vote is required to be present or represented by proxy at the Annual Meeting in order to constitute the quorum necessary to take action at the Annual Meeting.

The five (5) nominees for the Board of Directors who receive the greatest number of votes cast by stockholders present in person or represented by proxy and entitled to vote thereon will be elected directors of Zoom.

Votes cast by proxy or in person at the Annual Meeting will be tabulated by the inspector of elections appointed for the Annual Meeting. The inspector of elections will treat abstentions as shares of Common Stock that are present and entitled to vote for purposes of determining a quorum. Abstentions will have no effect on the outcome of the vote for the election of directors. Shares of Common Stock held of record by brokers who do not return a signed and dated proxy or do not comply with the voting instructions will not be considered present at the Annual Meeting, will not be counted towards a quorum and will not be voted in the election of directors. Shares of Common Stock held of record by brokers who return a signed and dated proxy or comply with the voting instructions but who fail to vote on the election of directors will be considered present at the Annual Meeting and will count toward the quorum but will have no effect on the proposal not voted.

Revocability of Proxies

Any person giving a proxy in the form accompanying this proxy statement has the power to revoke it at any time before it is voted. It may be revoked by filing a written notice of revocation with the Secretary of Zoom at Zoom's headquarters, 207 South Street, Boston, Massachusetts 02111, by duly executing a proxy bearing a later date, or by attending the Annual Meeting and voting in person.

Solicitation

All costs of this solicitation of proxies will be borne by Zoom. Zoom may reimburse banks, brokerage firms and other persons representing beneficial owners of shares for their reasonable expenses incurred in forwarding solicitation materials to such beneficial owners. Solicitation of proxies by mail may be supplemented by telephone, fax, electronic mail, or personal solicitations by directors, officers, or employees of Zoom. No additional compensation will be paid for any such services.

PROPOSAL NO. 1ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

A board of five (5) directors is to be elected at the Annual Meeting. The Board of Directors, upon the recommendation of the Nominating Committee, has nominated the persons listed below for election as directors of Zoom. Unless otherwise instructed, the proxy holders will vote the proxies received by them for the nominees named below. All nominees are currently directors of Zoom. In the event that any nominee is unable or declines to serve as a director at the time of the Annual Meeting, the proxies will be voted for the nominee, if any, who shall be designated by the present Board of Directors to fill the vacancy. It is not expected that any nominee will be unable or will decline to serve as a director. The proposed nominees are not being nominated pursuant to any arrangement or understanding with any person. Each director elected will hold office until the next Annual Meeting or until his successor is duly elected or appointed and qualified, unless his office is earlier vacated in accordance with the Certificate of Incorporation of Zoom or he becomes disqualified to act as a director. The Board of Directors held seven (7) meetings during the year ending December 31, 2005. All of Zoom's directors are encouraged to attend Zoom's annual meeting of stockholders. All of Zoom's directors other than Mr. Furman who were serving at the time were in attendance at Zoom's 2005 Annual Meeting.

Standing committees of the Board include an Audit Committee, a Compensation Committee and a Nominating Committee. During 2005 Messrs. Donovan, Furman and Woods served as the members of each of these Committees. Effective June 24, 2005 Mr. L. Donovan, Furman and Woods and has determined that each individual is "independent" as such term is defined under the current listing standards of the Nasdaq Stock Market. In addition, each member of the Audit Committee is independent as required under Section 10A(m)(3) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended. Prior to his resignation in June 2005, the Board of Directors reviewed the qualifications of Mr. Gordon and determined that he qualified as an "independent" director under the Nasdaq Stock Market listing standards.

Audit Committee. Messrs. Donovan, Furman and Woods are currently the members of the Audit Committee. The Board of Directors has determined that Mr. Woods qualifies as an "audit committee financial expert" as defined by applicable SEC rules.

The Audit Committee operates under a written charter adopted by the Board of Directors, which is publicly available on Zoom's website at www.zoom.com. Under the provisions of the Audit Committee Charter, the primary functions of the Audit Committee are to assist the Board of Directors with the oversight of (i) Zoom's financial reporting process, accounting functions and internal controls and (ii) the qualifications, independence, appointment, retention, compensation and performance of Zoom's independent registered public accounting firm. The Audit Committee is also responsible for the establishment of "whistle-blowing" procedures, and the oversight of certain other compliance matters. The Audit Committee held seven (7) meetings during 2005. See "Audit Committee Report" below.

Compensation Committee. Messrs. Donovan, Furman and Woods are currently the members of Zoom's Compensation Committee. A copy of the Compensation Committee's written charter is publicly available on Zoom's website at www.zoom.com. The Compensation Committee held one (1) meeting during 2005.

Nominating Committee. Messrs. Donovan, Furman, and Woods are currently the members of Zoom's Nominating Committee. The primary functions of the Nominating Committee are to (i) identify, review and evaluate candidates to serve as directors of Zoom, and (ii) make recommendations to the Board of candidates for all directorships to be filled by the stockholders or the Board.

The Nominating Committee may consider candidates recommended by stockholders as well as from other sources such as other directors or officers, third party search firms or other appropriate sources. For all potential candidates, the Nominating Committee may consider all factors it deems relevant, such as a candidate's personal integrity and sound judgment, business and professional skills and experience, independence, possible conflicts of interest, diversity, the extent to which the candidate would fill a present need on the Board, and concern for the long-term interests of the stockholders. In general, persons recommended by stockholders will be considered on the same basis as candidates from other sources. If a stockholder wishes to recommend a candidate for director for election at the 2007 Annual Meeting of Stockholders, it must follow the procedures described in "Deadline for Receipt of Stockholder Proposals and Recommendations for Director."

A copy of the Nominating Committee's written charter is publicly available on Zoom's website at www.zoom.com. The Nominating Committee held one (1) meeting during 2005.

AUDIT COMMITTEE REPORT

The Audit Committee has reviewed and discussed with management Zoom's audited consolidated financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2005. As required by Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1, as amended, "Independence Discussion with Audit Committees," the Audit Committee has received and reviewed the required written disclosures and a confirming letter from KPMG LLP regarding their independence, and has discussed the matter with KPMG.

Based on its review and discussions of the foregoing, the Audit Committee recommended to the Board of Directors that Zoom's audited consolidated financial statements for 2005 be included in Zoom's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2005.

Options generally may not be exercised later than 36 months after the date of grant. On October 26, 2005, the Company accelerated the vesting of all stock options (including 50% of those identified in this table) that were scheduled to vest on or before May 6, 2006. Options to purchase Zoom's Common Stock may also be granted to employees who are neither officers nor directors of Zoom under Zoom's 1998 Employee Equity Incentive Plan, as amended (the "1998 Equity Incentive Plan"). The 1990 Stock Option Plan and the 1998 Plan are each administered by the Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors. In addition, from time to time, the Board of Directors has authorized Mr. Manning to award a limited number of options under the 1998 Equity Incentive Plan throughout the year.

Insider Participation in Compensation Decisions

Decisions regarding executive compensation are made by the Compensation Committee. The Compensation Committee, currently consisting of Messrs. Donovan, Furman, and Woods, is also responsible for administering the 1990 Stock Option Plan and the 1998 Equity Incentive Plan, including determining the individuals to whom stock options are awarded, the terms upon which option grants are made, and the number of shares subject to each option granted under the 1990 Stock Option Plan and the 1998 Equity Incentive Plan. No member of the Compensation Committee is a former or current officer or employee of Zoom. Mr. Manning and Mr. Kramer, both of whom are executive officers and directors of Zoom, made recommendations to the Compensation Committee regarding the granting of stock options and participated in deliberations of the Compensation Committee concerning executive officer compensation. Neither Mr. Manning nor Mr. Kramer participated in any vote establishing their compensation.

Compensation Committee Report on Executive Compensation

The primary objectives of the Compensation Committee in developing executive compensation policies are to enhance the performance of Zoom by closely aligning the financial interests of Zoom's executive officers with those of its stockholders and to attract and retain key executives important to the long-term success of Zoom. To effect these objectives, Zoom pays its executive officers what the Compensation Committee believes to be relatively low cash compensation while providing those officers with performance-based long-term incentive compensation and the opportunity to build an ownership interest in Zoom through the granting of stock options. None of Zoom's executive officers received a bonus for 2005. Any future bonuses will be determined by the Compensation Committee, based on their subjective determination and the future performance of Zoom.

Frank B. Manning, Zoom's Chief Executive Officer, received cash compensation for the year ending December 31, 2005, in the amount of $129,272. The Compensation Committee has not conducted any surveys of salaries of executive officers, but based upon its experience believes that the cash compensation of its executive officers, including the compensation received by Mr. Manning, is low compared to the cash compensation of comparable executive officers in similarly situated companies. The low level of compensation of Mr. Manning reflects Mr. Manning's request to limit his cash compensation in favor of stock options.

During fiscal 2005 Mr. Manning was granted options to purchase 100,000 shares of Common Stock at an exercise price of $2.45 per share. Other executive officers as a group were granted options to purchase 235,000 shares of Common Stock at an exercise price of $2.45 per share. In determining the number of options to be granted to the executive officers, the Compensation Committee reviews recommendations provided by Mr. Manning, the Chief Executive Officer, and makes a subjective determination regarding that recommendation based upon the following criteria: (i) the level of cash compensation; (ii) the compensation paid by companies that might compete with Zoom for the employee's services; and (iii) the individual executive officer. No particular weight is given to any of these factors, rather each executive officer's total compensation package is reviewed as a whole, and recommendations from the Chief Executive Officer are given deference absent countervailing concerns.

Performance Graph

The following graph compares the annual change in Zoom's cumulative total stockholder return for the five (5) year period from December 31, 2000 through December 31, 2005, based upon the market price of Zoom's Common Stock, with the cumulative total return on the Standard & Poor's 500 Stock Index and the Standard & Poor's Information Technology Composite Index for that period.

The Performance Graph assumes the investment of $100 on December 31, 2000 in Zoom's Common Stock, the Standard & Poor's 500 Stock Index and the Standard & Poor's Information Technology Composite Index, and the reinvestment of any and all dividends.

SECTION 16(a) BENEFICIAL OWNERSHIP REPORTING COMPLIANCE

Pursuant to Section 16(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, Zoom directors and officers, as well as any person holding more than ten percent (10%) of Zoom's Common Stock, are required to report initial statements of ownership of Zoom's securities and any subsequent changes in such ownership to the Securities and Exchange Commission. Specific filing deadlines of these reports have been established and Zoom is required to disclose in this proxy statement any failure to file by these dates during the year ending December 31, 2005. Based on a review of such reports, and on written representations from reporting persons, Zoom believes that all Section 16(a) filing requirements were complied with during 2005, except as follows: one transaction was inadvertently reported one day late on behalf of Mr. Terry Manning involving a stock option exercise by such person on March 21, 2005 under Zoom's 1990 Stock Option Plan.

INDEPENDENT REGISTERED PUBLIC ACCOUNTING FIRM

The Audit Committee has appointed UHY LLP (“UHY”) as Zoom’s principal accountants and independent registered public accounting firm, to audit the consolidated financial statements of Zoom for the year ending December 31, 2006. KPMG LLP (“KPMG”) served as Zoom’s principal accountants and independent registered public accounting firm for the year ended December 31, 2005. A representative of each of KPMG LLP and UHY LLP will be present at the meeting to make a statement if such representative desires to do so and to respond to appropriate questions.

Previous independent registered public accounting firm

On April 6, 2006, the appointment of KPMG as Zoom’s principal accountants and independent registered public accounting firm was terminated. This action was approved by Zoom’s Audit Committee. KPMG’s reports on Zoom’s consolidated financial statements for the fiscal years ended December 31, 2005 and 2004 did not contain any adverse opinion or a disclaimer of opinion, nor were the reports qualified or modified as to uncertainty, audit scope or accounting principle.

In connection with the audits of Zoom’s fiscal years ended December 31, 2005 and 2004 and through April 6, 2006, there were no disagreements with KPMG on any matter of accounting principles or practices, financial statement disclosure, or auditing scope or procedure, which disagreements, if not resolved to the satisfaction of KPMG, would have caused it to make reference thereto in its reports on Zoom’s financial statements for such years. In connection with the audits of Zoom’s fiscal years ended December 31, 2005 and 2004 and through April 6, 2006, there were no reportable events as described in Item 304(a)(1)(v) of Regulation S-K.

Zoom requested that KPMG furnish it with a letter addressed to the Securities and Exchange Commission stating whether or not it agrees with the above statements. A copy of such letter, dated April 12, 2006, was filed as Exhibit 16.1 to Zoom’s Current Report on Form 8-K filed with the SEC on April 12, 2006.

New independent registered public accounting firm

On April 6, 2006, upon the approval of Zoom’s Audit Committee, UHY was engaged as its principal accountants and the independent registered public accounting firm. The appointment became effective on April 21, 2006. During Zoom’s fiscal years ended December 31, 2005 and 2004 and through April 6, 2006, Zoom did not consult with UHY regarding any of the matters or events set forth in Item 304(a)(2)(i) and Item 304(a)(2)(ii) of Regulation S-K. The principal reason for the new engagement of UHY was the substantially lower fees expected to be charged by UHY in connection with Zoom’s 2006 audit as compared to the fees quoted by KPMG.

Principal Accountant Fees and Services

The following table summarizes the fees of KPMG, Zoom’s principal accountants and independent registered public accounting firm, during the years ended December 31, 2005 and 2004, billed to Zoom for each of the last two years for audit services and for other services:

Audit Committee Policy on Pre-Approval of Services of Independent Registered Public Accounting Firm

The Audit Committee's policy is to pre-approve all audit and permissible non-audit services provided by the independent registered public accounting firm. These services may include audit services, audit-related services, tax services and other services. Pre-approval is generally provided for up to one year. The Audit Committee may also pre-approve particular services on a case-by-case basis.
