Explanation Referred to in Part IV, Item (3) of Form 12b-25:

Stargold Mines, Inc. (the "Company"), formerly Sockeye Seafood Group Inc., (Sockeye Seafood Group Inc. merged with its wholly-owned subsidiary Stargold Mines, Inc. on November 23, 2006 and changed its name to Stargold Mines, Inc.). The Company is considered a development stage company in accordance with Statement of Financial Accounting Standards ("SFAS") No. 7 "Accounting and Reporting by Development Stage Enterprises."

Stargold Mines is currently working on acquiring licenses to develop and extract natural resources in the Siberian and Far Eastern Districts of Russia. The Company's operations have been limited to research on identifying potential acquisition targets and performing due diligence necessary to determine the potential economic viability of several potential mining sites. The capital requirements necessary to complete this work differ significantly from those required of a seafood marketing company whose business took place entirely in the United States through established partners.

Edgar Filing: Stargold Mines, Inc. - Form NT 10-Q

As such, Stargold Mines has no revenue to report for the six months ending June 30, 2007 as compared to $3,822 for the same period in 2006. Expenses have risen as administrative costs were $85 for the six month period ending June 30, 2006 versus approximately $7,223.64 for the same period this year. Professional fees have also increased significantly to cover the legal and accounting work necessary to evaluate potential acquisition targets from $2,000 for the six months ending in June to approximately $110,000 for the same period this year.

In order to meet these capital requirements, Stargold Mines raised $500,000 in funding this quarter.
