Item 3.01 Notice of Delisting or Failure to Satisfy a Continued Listing Rule or Standard; Transfer of Listing

On September 15, 2009, ICO Global Communications (Holdings) Limited (“Company”) received notification from The NASDAQ Stock Market’s Listing Qualifications Department (“NASDAQ”) that for the last 30 consecutive business days the bid price of the Company’s Class A common stock on The NASDAQ Global Market has closed below the minimum $1.00 per share required for continued inclusion under NASDAQ Marketplace Rule 5450(a)(1) (“Minimum Share Price Rule”). In accordance with NASDAQ Marketplace Rule 5810(c)(3)(A), the Company has 180 calendar days, or until March 15, 2010, to regain compliance. The NASDAQ Listing Qualifications Department informed the Company that if, at any time before March 15, 2010, the bid price of the Company’s Class A common stock closes at $1.00 per share or more for a minimum of 10 consecutive business days, NASDAQ will provide written notification that the Company has achieved compliance with the Minimum Share Price Rule, although NASDAQ may, in its discretion, require that the Company maintain a bid price in excess of $1.00 for a period in excess of 10 business days, but generally no more than 20 business days, before determining that the issuer has demonstrated the ability to maintain long-term compliance.

In the event the Company does not regain compliance with the Minimum Share Price Rule by March 15, 2010, NASDAQ will provide written notification that the Company’s Class A common stock will be delisted from The NASDAQ Global Market. At that time, the Company may appeal NASDAQ’s determination to delist the Company’s Class A common stock to a NASDAQ Listing Qualifications Panel. Alternatively, in the event such delisting is based solely upon non-compliance with the Minimum Share Price Rule, the Company could apply to transfer its Class A common stock to The NASDAQ Capital Market. If such an application were approved and the Company otherwise maintains the listing requirements for The NASDAQ Capital Market, other than with respect to the Minimum Share Price Rule, the Company would be afforded the remainder of The NASDAQ Capital Market’s second 180 calendar day grace period in order to regain compliance with the Minimum Share Price Rule.

This notification has no effect on the listing of the Company’s Class A Common Stock at this time. The Company intends to monitor the closing bid price of its Class A Common Stock between now and March 15, 2010. We intend to maintain the listing of our Class A Common Stock on The NASDAQ Global Market, and we will consider available options if our Class A Common Stock does not trade at a level likely to result in compliance with the Minimum Share Price Rule by March 15, 2010. In June 2009, our stockholders approved an amendment to our certificate of incorporation to effect a reverse stock split at a ratio of between 1-for-5 and 1-for-20. Our board of directors has authority to select a ratio within the approved range at any time prior to June 19, 2010. Our board of directors intends to effect the reverse stock split only if it determines the reverse split to be in the best interests of our stockholders. Such a reverse split would likely put us in compliance with the Minimum Share Price Rule.

The Company's press release dated September 18, 2009 with respect to the notification from NASDAQ described above is attached to this Form 8-K as Exhibit 99.1 and is incorporated herein by reference.
