Section 5 - Corporate Governance and Management

Item 5.02. Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

On February 10, 2014, Peter Hoffman resigned as a Director of Seven Arts Entertainment Inc., and its subsidiaries (the "Company").

Section 8 - Other Events

Item 8.01 Other Events

On February 6, 2014, following a grand jury investigation that was previously disclosed, , the United States Attorney in the Eastern District of Louisiana issued an indictment against Peter Hoffman and an unrelated party for conspiracy and wire fraud in connection with State Film Infrastructure credits related to the property located at 807 Esplanade Avenue, New Orleans, Louisiana. The Company is not currently and is not expected to be a target of this investigation or any charges arising thereof.

Seven Arts Entertainment's CEO, Kate Hoffman stated "The US Attorney in New Orleans has charged Mr Hoffman with falsely obtaining tax credits for film infrastructure expenses for the restoration of a historic property for the purpose of establishing a residential and post production facility in New Orleans. Yet, these Film Infrastructure credits were certified and re-certified by Louisiana state authorities. Two forensic audits have been performed and accepted by the State. While the US Attorney seems to assert that the building is not in use as a residential and post production facility it has, as previously announced, been open and operating as such since July 2012. Several theatrical motion picture and television productions have enjoyed doing production work at the property with many more scheduled for 2014"
