(Attach extra sheets if needed.)

Campus Crest Communities, Inc. (the "Company") plans to file its Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended June 30, 2015 as soon as practicable, but does not currently expect that it will be filed within the extension period of five calendar days. As previously disclosed, the Company and certain of its affiliates recently completed (effective January 30, 2015) certain acquisitions pursuant to the Company's purchase and sale agreement, as amended, with the former members of Copper Beech Townhome Communities, LLC and Copper Beech Townhome Communities (PA), LLC (together "Copper Beech"). Due to the significance and complexity of this transaction, most notably the need to account for these interests as joint ventures through to the closing date and as a combination of joint ventures and wholly-owned interests for the balance of the quarter, the Company required additional time to complete the consolidation for the previous quarter. The extensive effort required to complete the Company's Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2014 and the Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended March 31, 2015 disrupted the normal timing for closing the books for the quarter ended June 30, 2015. Accordingly, the Company has concluded it is unable to file its quarterly report by the original filing deadline without unreasonable effort and expense.

(3) Is it anticipated that any significant change in results of operations from the corresponding period for the last fiscal year will be reflected by the earnings statements to be included in the subject report or portion thereof?

Yes  No

If so: attach an explanation of the anticipated change, both narratively and quantitatively, and, if appropriate, state the reasons why a reasonable estimate of the results cannot be made.

Due to the aforementioned significance and complexity of the accounting for the Copper Beech transaction, the Company cannot, at this time, provide a reasonable estimate and comparison of operating results, or an estimated date by which it expects to release its results for the quarter ended June 30, 2015, but will provide such an estimated date as soon as practicable.
