Item 3.01 Notice of Delisting or Failure to Satisfy a Continued Listing Rule or Standard; Transfer of Listing.

On December 26, 2018, Capricor Therapeutics, Inc., a Delaware corporation (the “Company”), received a written notice (the “Notice”) from the Nasdaq Stock Market (“NASDAQ”) indicating that the Company has not been in compliance with the minimum bid price requirement set forth in NASDAQ Rule 5550(a)(2) for a period of 30 consecutive business days, due to the closing bid price for shares of the Company’s common stock (“Common Stock”) remaining below $1.00 from November 8, 2018 through December 24, 2018. NASDAQ Rule 5550(a)(2) requires listed securities to maintain a minimum closing bid price of $1.00 per share, and NASDAQ Rule 5810(c)(3)(A) provides that a failure to meet the minimum closing bid price requirement exists if the deficiency continues for a period of 30 consecutive business days. In accordance with NASDAQ Rule 5810(c)(3)(A), the Company is provided a compliance period of 180 calendar days from the date of the Notice, or until June 24, 2019, to regain compliance with the minimum closing bid price requirement. The Company can achieve compliance with the minimum closing bid price requirement if, during the compliance period, the minimum closing bid price per share of the Common Stock is at least $1.00 for a minimum of ten consecutive business days. The Company anticipates that the shares of Common Stock will continue to be listed and traded on The Nasdaq Capital Market during the compliance period(s).

The Notice does not have any immediate effect on the Company’s listing on The Nasdaq Capital Market or on the trading of the Common Stock. The Company is presently evaluating potential actions to regain compliance with all applicable requirements for continued listing on The Nasdaq Capital Market. There can be no assurance that the Company will be successful in maintaining its listing of the Common Stock on The Nasdaq Capital Market.
