RE: Changes in connection with the disposal of our treasury shares in the event we are unable to exchange exchangeable bonds for our common shares.

Prior to the amendment: In the event we are unable to exchange exchangeable bonds (the EBs) for our common shares due to certain limitations on foreign ownership set forth under the Telecommunication Business Act, bondholders may be paid in cash in lieu of shares (such cash to be acquired through the sale of our treasury shares on the open market). The amount payable to bondholders in lieu of shares would equal the aggregate value of the shares the bondholders should otherwise have received in exchange for the EBs, calculated based on the volume weighted average price of such shares during the period specified by the bondholder in accordance with the Indenture.

As amended: In the event we are unable to exchange exchangeable bonds (the EBs) for our common shares due to certain limitations on foreign ownership set forth under the Telecommunication Business Act, bondholders may be paid in cash in lieu of shares, which amount payable to bondholders in lieu of shares would equal the aggregate value of the shares the bondholders should otherwise have received in exchange for the EBs, calculated based on the volume weighted average price of such shares during the period specified by the bondholder in accordance with the Indenture. The board of directors has resolved to delegate to the representative directors the power to decide whether and when to dispose of treasury shares to fund such cash payment.

Date of the board resolution: May 26, 2006
