SUMMARY OF CERTAIN ADDITIONAL PROVISIONS OF THE DEPOSIT AGREEMENT

(11) Dividends and Distributions; Rights. Whenever the Depositary shall receive any cash dividend or other cash distribution by the Company in respect of any Deposited Securities (including cash in respect of redemption), if such cash dividend or other cash distribution is received in United States dollars, the Depositary shall distribute the dollars so received, and if such cash dividend or other cash distribution is received in a currency other than United States dollars, the Depositary will, if at the time of receipt thereof such amounts of foreign currency can in the judgment of the Depositary be converted on a reasonable basis into United States dollars transferable to the United States and subject to the provisions of the Deposit Agreement, convert such dividend or distribution into United States dollars and distribute the amount thus received, in either case to the Holders entitled thereto in proportion to the number of American Depositary Shares representing such Deposited Securities held by them respectively; provided, however, that the amount distributed will be reduced by any amounts required to be withheld by the Company, its agent or the Depositary on account of taxes. If in the judgment of the Depositary amounts received in foreign currency may not be converted on a reasonable basis into United States dollars transferable to the United States, or may not be so convertible for all of the Holders entitled thereto, the Depositary may in its discretion make such conversion, if any, and distribution in United States dollars to the extent permissible to the Holders entitled thereto and may distribute the balance of the foreign currency received and not so convertible by the Depositary to, or hold such balance for the account of, the Holders entitled thereto. If in the opinion of the Depositary any distribution other than cash or Shares upon any Deposited Securities cannot be made proportionately among the Holders entitled thereto, or if for any other reason the Depositary deems such distribution not to be feasible, the Depositary may adopt such method as it may deem equitable for the purpose of effecting such distribution, including the public or private sale of the securities or property thus received, or any part thereof, and the net proceeds of any such sale will be distributed by the Depositary to the Holders entitled thereto as in the case of a distribution received in cash. If any distribution upon any Deposited Securities consists of a dividend in, or free distribution of, Shares, the Depositary may with the Company's approval, and shall if the Company shall so request, distribute to the Holders entitled thereto, in proportion to the number of American Depositary Shares representing such Deposited Securities held by them respectively, additional Receipts for an aggregate number of American Depositary Shares representing the amount of Shares received as such dividend or free distribution. In lieu of delivering Receipts for fractional American Depositary Shares in any such case, the Depositary may sell the amount of Shares represented by the aggregate of such fractions and distribute the net proceeds as though such proceeds had been a distribution of cash or other property. If additional Receipts are not so distributed, each American Depositary Share shall thenceforth also represent the additional Shares distributed upon the Deposited Securities represented thereby. In the event that the Company shall offer or cause to be offered to the holder of any Deposited Securities any rights to subscribe for additional Shares or any rights of any other nature, the Depositary, after consultation with the Company and subject to the Memorandum and Articles of Association, the Companies Act 1985 and all applicable legislation and regulations, shall have discretion as to the procedure to be followed in making such rights available to Holders or in disposing of such rights on behalf of Holders; provided, however, that the Depositary will, if requested by the Company, either (a) make such rights available to Holders by means of warrants or otherwise, if lawful and feasible, or (b) if making such rights available is not lawful or not feasible, or if the rights represented by such warrants or other instruments are not exercised and appear to be about to lapse, sell such rights or warrants or other instruments at public or private sale, at such place or places and upon such terms as the Depositary may deem proper, and allocate the proceeds of such sales for the account of the Holders otherwise entitled thereto upon an averaged or other practicable basis without regard to any distinctions among such Holders because of exchange restrictions, or the date of delivery of any Receipt or Receipts, or otherwise.

(12) Redemption. In the event that the Company exercises any right of redemption in respect of Shares, the Depositary will redeem, from the amounts received by it in respect of such redemption, that number of American Depositary Shares which represents the number of Shares so redeemed. Subject to certain provisions of the Deposit Agreement regarding payments or the making of distributions with respect to the Deposited Securities, the redemption price per American Depositary Share to be redeemed will be equal to the per share amount received by the Depositary upon the redemption of the Shares multiplied by the number of Shares (or the fraction of a Share) represented by each such American Depositary Share. If less than all of the outstanding Shares are redeemed, the American Depositary Shares to be redeemed will be selected by lot or redeemed pro rata as may be determined by the Depositary.

The Company will deliver notice of its exercise of its right of redemption to the Depositary prior to the date fixed for redemption. Promptly after receiving such notice from the Company, the Depositary will mail copies thereof to all Holders of Receipts.

(13) Record Dates. Whenever any cash dividend or other cash distribution shall become payable or any distribution other than cash shall be made, or whenever rights shall be issued, with respect to the Deposited Securities, or whenever the Company shall redeem any of the Shares, or whenever the Depositary shall receive notice of any meeting at which holders of Shares or other Deposited Securities shall be entitled to be present or vote, the Depositary will fix a record date for the determination of the Holders who shall be entitled to receive such dividend, distribution, amounts in respect of redemption or rights, or the net proceeds of any sale thereof, or to attend or to give instructions for the exercise of voting rights at any such meeting, subject to the provisions of the Deposit Agreement.

(14) Voting of Deposited Securities. Upon receipt of notice of any meeting at which holders of Deposited Securities are entitled to vote, the Depositary will mail to the Holders a notice which will contain (a) such information as is contained in such notice of meeting and (b) a statement that the Holders at the close of business on a specified record date will be entitled to instruct the Depositary as to the exercise of the voting rights pertaining to the number of Shares or other Deposited Securities represented by their respective American Depositary Shares evidenced by such Holders' Receipts, and a brief statement as to the manner in which such instructions may be given. Subject to Article 6 above, upon the written request of a Holder of a Receipt or Receipts on such record date, received on or before the date established by the Depositary for such purpose, the Depositary will endeavor insofar as practicable to vote or cause to be voted the number of Shares or other Deposited Securities underlying the American Depositary Shares evidenced by such Receipt or Receipts in accordance with any such nondiscretionary instructions. The Depositary shall not vote Shares or other Deposited Securities underlying a Receipt except in accordance with written instructions from the Holder of such Receipt.

(15) Changes Affecting Deposited Securities. Upon any change in nominal value, split-up, consolidation or any other reclassification of Deposited Securities, or upon any recapitalization, reorganization, merger or consolidation or sale of assets affecting the Company or to which it is a party, any securities which shall be received by the Depositary in exchange for or in conversion of or in respect of Deposited Securities shall be treated as new Deposited Securities under the Deposit Agreement, and the American Depositary Shares shall thenceforth represent the new Deposited Securities so received in exchange or conversion, unless additional Receipts are delivered pursuant to the following sentence. In any such case the Depositary may with the Company's approval, and shall if the Company shall so request, execute and deliver additional Receipts as in the case of a stock dividend, or call for the surrender of outstanding Receipts to be exchanged for new Receipts.

(16) Reports; Inspection of Transfer Books. The Depositary will make available for inspection by Holders at the Depositary's Office and at any other designated transfer offices any reports and communications received from the Company which are both (a) received by the Depositary as the holder of the Deposited Securities, and (b) made generally available to the holder or holders of such Deposited Securities by the Company. Upon the written request of the Company, the Depositary will also send to Holders copies of such reports when furnished by the Company as provided in the Deposit Agreement.

The Depositary will arrange for the mailing to all Holders of any notice received by it in respect of any meeting at which holders of Deposited Securities are entitled to be present or to vote, or of any reconvening of any such meeting that has been adjourned, or of the taking of any action in respect of any cash or other distribution or any redemption or the offering of any rights in respect of Deposited Securities. The Depositary will keep books for the registration of Receipts and their transfer which at all reasonable times will be open for inspection by the Holders, provided that such inspection shall not be for the purpose of communicating with Holders in the interest of a business or object other than the business of the Company or a matter related to the Deposit Agreement or the Receipts.

(17) Withholding. Notwithstanding any other provision of the Deposit Agreement, in the event that the Depositary determines that any distribution in property (including Shares or rights to subscribe therefor) is subject to any tax which the Depositary is obligated to withhold, the Depositary may dispose of all or a portion of such property (including Shares and rights to subscribe therefor) in such amounts and in such manner as the Depositary deems necessary and practicable to pay such taxes, by public or private sale, and the Depositary shall distribute the net proceeds of any such sale after deduction of such taxes to the Holders entitled thereto.

(18) Liability of the Company and Depositary. Neither the Depositary nor the Company shall incur any liability to any Holder of this Receipt, if by reason of any provision of any present or future law of any country, or of any governmental authority, or by reason of any provision, present or future, of the Memorandum or Articles of Association of the Company or of the Deposited Securities or by reason of any act of God or war or other circumstance beyond its control, the Depositary or the Company shall be prevented or forbidden from, or delayed in, doing or performing any act or thing which by the terms of the Deposit Agreement it is provided shall be done or performed. Neither the Company nor the Depositary assumes any obligation or shall be subject to any liability under the Deposit Agreement to Holders, except to perform such obligations as are specifically set forth in the Deposit Agreement without gross negligence or bad faith. Neither the Depositary nor the Company shall be under any obligation to appear in, prosecute or defend any action, suit or other proceeding in respect of any Deposited Securities or in respect of the Receipts, which in its opinion may involve it in expense and liability, unless indemnity satisfactory to it against all expense and liability shall be furnished as often as may be required, and the Custodian shall not be under any obligation whatsoever with respect to such proceedings, the responsibility of the Custodian being solely to the Depositary. Neither the Depositary nor the Company shall be liable for any action or non-action by it in reliance upon the advice of or information from legal counsel, accountants, any person presenting Shares for deposit, any Holder, or any other person believed by it in good faith to be competent to give such advice or information. The Depositary will not be responsible for any failure to carry out any instructions to vote any of the Deposited Securities, or for the manner in which any such vote is cast or the effect of any such vote, provided that any such action or non-action is in good faith. The Depositary may own and deal in any class of securities of the Company and its affiliates and in Receipts. The Company shall indemnify the Depositary and the Custodian against, and hold each of them harmless from, any loss, liability or expense which may arise out of acts performed or omitted in accordance with the provisions of the Deposit Agreement and the Receipts, as the same may be amended from time to time, (i) by the Depositary or the Custodian, except for any liability arising out of the negligence or bad faith of either of them or (ii) by the Company or any of its agents.

(19) Resignation and Removal of Depositary; Substitution of Custodian. The Depositary may at any time resign as Depositary under the Deposit Agreement with respect to the Receipts by written notice of its election to do so delivered to the Company, such resignation to take effect upon the appointment of a successor depositary and its acceptance of such appointment as provided in the Deposit Agreement. The Depositary may at any time be removed by the Company, effective upon the appointment of a successor depositary and its acceptance of such appointment as provided in the Deposit Agreement. The Depositary may at any time appoint one or more substitute custodians and the term "Custodian" shall refer to each substitute.

(20) Amendment of Deposit Agreement and Receipts. The Receipts and the Deposit Agreement as it applies to the Receipts may at any time and from time to time be amended by agreement between the Company and the Depository. Any amendment which shall impose or increase any fees or charges (other than taxes or other governmental charges), or which shall otherwise prejudice any substantial existing right of Holders, shall not, however, become effective as to outstanding Receipts until the expiration of thirty days after notice of such amendment shall have been given to the Holders of outstanding Receipts. Every Holder at the time any amendment so becomes effective, if such Holder shall have been given such notice, shall be deemed, by continuing to hold such Receipt, to consent and agree to such amendment and to be bound by the Deposit Agreement as amended thereby. In no event shall any amendment impair the right of the Holder to surrender this Receipt and receive therefor the Deposited Securities represented hereby.

(21) Termination of Deposit Agreement. The Depository will at any time at the direction of the Company terminate the Deposit Agreement by mailing notice of such termination to the Holders of all Receipts then outstanding at least 30 days prior to the date fixed in such notice for such termination. The Depository may likewise terminate the Deposit Agreement by mailing notice of such termination to the Company and the Holders of all Receipts then outstanding at any time 60 days after the Depository shall have resigned, if a successor depository shall not have been appointed and accepted its appointment. If any Receipts shall remain outstanding after the date of termination of the Deposit Agreement, the Depository thereafter shall discontinue the registration of transfers of Receipts, shall suspend the distribution of dividends to the Holders thereof, and shall not give any further notices or perform any further acts under the Deposit Agreement, except that the Depository shall continue to collect dividends and other distributions pertaining to Deposited Securities, shall sell rights as provided in the Deposit Agreement, and shall continue to deliver Deposited Securities, together with any dividends or other distributions (including amounts in respect of any redemption) received with respect thereto and the net proceeds of the sale of any rights or other property, in exchange for Receipts surrendered to the Depository. At any time two years from the date of termination of the Deposit Agreement, the Depository may sell the Deposited Securities then held by it under the Deposit Agreement and hold the net proceeds of any such sale and any other cash then held by it under the Deposit Agreement, in an unsegregated account, without liability to any party for interest thereon, for the pro rata benefit of the Holders of theretofore unsurrendered Receipts.

Mr G F Pell, Chief Executive, Retail Markets.

IN ATTENDANCE

Mr A McKean, Assistant Secretary.

ISSUE OF CATEGORY II
NON-CUMULATIVE
DOLLAR PREFERENCE
SHARES OF US$0.01,
SERIES T

The Arran Capital Raising Committee (the Committee) had been appointed at a meeting of the Board of Directors of the Company held on 16 September 2007 as a Committee of such Board with authority to approve the external issuance of up to £5,000,000,000 in aggregate SHARES OF (or a foreign currency equivalent thereof at the time of US$0.01, SERIES T issue) of preference shares, capital securities or loan capital by the Company.

It was reported that the Company, acting on the advice of Merrill Lynch, Pierce, Fenner & Smith Incorporated, proposed to issue 64,000,000 Category II Non-cumulative Dollar Preference Shares of US$0.01 each in the capital of the Company, to be designated Series T (the Series T Preference Shares) at a public offering price of US$25.00 per Series T Preference Share plus accrued dividends, if any, since 27 September 2007 (with commissions to be deducted from the proceeds thereof payable to the Company), such Series T Preference Shares to be represented by and listed in the form of American Depositary Shares (the ADSs) evidenced by American Depositary Receipts on the New York Stock Exchange and that certain of the terms of issue of the Series T Preference Shares, by the terms of the Company s Articles of Association, were to be determined by the Committee prior to allotment thereof.

Mr McKean explained that it was proposed to issue the Series T Preference Shares into the United States market under the Form F-3 Shelf Registration Statement approved for filing with the United States Securities and Exchange Commission (the SEC) by the Board on 15 December 2004, filed with the SEC on 8 April 2005 and declared effective by the SEC on 25 April 2005 (the Shelf Registration Statement) and that in connection with such an issue it would be necessary to prepare a prospectus supplement (the Prospectus Supplement), supplemental to the base prospectus (the Prospectus) forming part of the Shelf Registration Statement.

Mr McKean also explained that the Company had in the Underwriting Agreement (defined below) agreed to issue 58,000,000 Series T Preference Shares (for the purposes of this paragraph, the initial Series T Preference Shares) and had further granted the Underwriters (defined below) an option (the Option) to purchase up to 8,700,000 additional Series T Preference Shares, to be represented by ADSs evidenced by American Depositary Receipts. The Option would expire 30 days after the date of the Prospectus Supplement and would only be exercisable for the purposes of covering over-allotments made by the Underwriters. Mr McKean noted that the Option had been exercised by the Underwriters and that 6,000,000 additional Series T Preference Shares were therefore required to be purchased and would be issued with terms identical to the terms of the initial Series T Preference Shares, including as to accrued dividends, and would be issued on the same date of issue as that for the initial Series T Preference Shares. References below to the Series T Preference Shares (including in paragraph (v) under Closing Matters below) and all related references shall be deemed to include the additional Series T Preference Shares which are to be issued pursuant to the Option simultaneously with the initial Series T Preference Shares.

After due consideration, IT WAS RESOLVED THAT the Company should issue the Series T Preference Shares.

Mr McKean explained that the purpose of the meeting was to consider, and if thought fit, ratify (if applicable) and approve (1) the launch of the issue of the Series T Preference Shares; (2) the terms of issue of the Series T Preference Shares; (3) the various actions and documents related to the closing of the issue of the Series T Preference Shares; and (4) the use of funds separately available to the Company to subscribe for 64,000,000 Non-cumulative Dollar Preference shares of US$0.01 each in the capital of The Royal Bank of Scotland plc (RBS).

LAUNCH OF ISSUE

The Committee would consider, and if thought fit, approve each matter in turn. It was noted that at the Annual General Meeting of the Company held on 20 April 2005 a further 71,000,000 Category II Non-cumulative Dollar Preference Shares were created and the Company's shareholders granted to the Directors the authority to allot all of the 71,000,000 newly created Category II Non-cumulative Dollar Preference Shares and the 179,500,000 authorised but unissued Category II Non-cumulative Dollar Preference Shares, such authority to expire on 20 April 2010.

Mr McKean confirmed that the UK Financial Services Authority (the FSA) had been notified of the issue of the Series T Preference Shares and it was anticipated that (subject to certain conditions) the Series T Preference Shares would be treated as forming part of non-innovative Tier 1 Capital.

It was further noted that the issue of the Series T Preference Shares would provide the Company with additional funds to finance in part the cash portion of the offer for ABN Amro Holding N.V. which is attributable to the Company, for its general corporate purposes, which may include the redemption or repurchase of outstanding securities (should all or part of the funds not be used for the purposes of such offer), and to strengthen the Company's capital base.

Accordingly, IT WAS RESOLVED:

- (a) THAT it was desirable and in the best interests of the Company that the Company issue the Series T Preference Shares, to be offered and sold in the United States pursuant to the Shelf Registration Statement and elsewhere and the Company hereby authorises and (where applicable) ratifies:
 - (i) the issue and sale of the Series T Preference Shares to be issued and sold by the Company to the underwriters of the issue, being Merrill Lynch, Pierce, Fenner & Smith Incorporated, Greenwich Capital Markets, Inc., Wachovia Capital Markets

There was tabled a pricing agreement between the Company and the Representatives of the Underwriters therein mentioned (the Pricing Agreement), providing for the purchase (i.e. subscription) price of the Series T Preference Shares to be US$25.00 (comprising the nominal amount of US$0.01 and a premium of US$24.99 per Series T Preference Share) per Series T Preference Share, and for the underwriting commission per Series T Preference Share to be US$0.50 for sales to certain institutions and US$0.7875 for other sales. SUBSCRIPTION BY THE
DOLLAR
DENOMINATED
PREFERENCE SHARES

Separately, Mr McKean advised that the Company proposed to use funds available to it (comprising funds other than those payable to the Company in connection with its issue of the Series T Preference Shares) to subscribe for 64,000,000 Category II Non-cumulative Dollar Preference Shares of US$0.01 each (the Preference Shares) at a subscription price and having a liquidation preference of US$25.00 each to be issued by RBS and designated Series X (the Series X Preference Shares).

Table of Contents

It was noted that the Series X Preference Shares would be issued on terms substantially similar to the terms of the Series T Preference Shares.

It was noted that the issue of the Series X Preference Shares would provide RBS with additional funds for its general corporate purposes, which may include the redemption or repurchase of outstanding securities, and to strengthen RBS's capital base, with the intention that the Preference Shares should constitute non-innovative Tier One capital of RBS.

It was also noted that, in terms of a special resolution of RBS passed on 23 August 2004, the Directors of RBS had authority under Section 80 of the Companies Act 1985 to allot the Preference Shares.

Careful consideration was given to the proposal and IT WAS RESOLVED:

- (i) THAT the subscription for the Preference Shares is in the best interests of the Company and the subscription be and it is hereby APPROVED;
- (ii) THAT any Director, the Secretary, the Director, Capital Management & Securitisation, the Deputy Secretary, any Assistant Secretary of the Company or any Attorney be, and they hereby are, authorised with full authority and instructed to approve, execute and deliver any applications, documents or instruments on behalf of the Company to effect the subscription for the Preference Shares; and
- (iii) THAT all further actions reasonably necessary and/or incidental (including the execution of any additional documentation), to allow the issue of and subscription for the Preference Shares to proceed be hereby authorised and approved and that any authorised signatory of the Company be hereby authorised to take such further action and sign, execute, enter into and deliver such further documentation.

It was noted that after the issue of the Series T Preference Shares, 95,500,000 Category II Non-cumulative Dollar Preference Shares of US$0.01 each remain authorised and available for issue.

Appendix

Terms of Issue of the Series T Preference Shares

The terms of issue of the Series T Preference Shares are set out below.

- (a) the Series T Preference Shares shall form a separate class of shares from the 8,000,000 Series F Category II Non-cumulative Dollar Preference Shares issued on 26 March 1997, the 12,000,000 Series H Category II Non-cumulative Dollar Preference Shares issued on 8 February 1999, the 34,000,000 Series L Category II Non-Cumulative Dollar Preference Shares issued on 30 September 2004 (in exchange for the Company's 34,000,000 Exchangeable Capital Securities, Series B which had originally been issued on 23 June 2003), the 37,000,000 Series M Category II Non-cumulative Dollar Preference Shares issued on 18 August 2004, the 40,000,000 Series N Category II Non-cumulative Dollar Preference Shares issued on 12 May 2005, the 22,000,000 Series P Non-cumulative Dollar Preference Shares issued on 26 October 2005, the 27,000,000 Series Q Non-cumulative Dollar Preference Shares issued on 25 May 2006, the 26,000,000 Series R Category II Non-cumulative Dollar Preference Shares issued on 27 December 2006 and the 38,000,000 Series S Category II Non-cumulative Dollar Preference Shares issued on 28 June 2007 (together, the Existing Series of Category II Non-cumulative Dollar Preference Shares);
- (b) the holders of the Series T Preference Shares shall be entitled (subject to the terms of this Resolution) to a non-cumulative preferential dividend at a rate of 7.25 per cent. per annum or US$0.4531 quarterly of the liquidation amount of US$25.00 per Series T Preference Share (equivalent to US$1.8125 per annum for each Series T Preference Share held), payable in cash in US Dollars. The dividend will be payable (subject to the terms of this Resolution) quarterly in arrear on, and to the holders on a record date 15 days prior to, 31 March, 30 June, 30 September and 31 December of each year (each a dividend payment date) in respect of the three month period ending on such date (each a dividend period), commencing with a payment on, and to the holders on a record date 15 days prior to, 31 December 2007, in respect of the initial period referred to in paragraph (d) below;
- (c) all of the provisions set out in Article 4(D)(2)(b) (as amended by Article 4(E)) and Article 4(E)(2)(g) of the Company's Articles of Association, and as further supplemented by the terms of this Resolution, shall apply to the Series T Preference Shares. It was noted that the provisions of Articles 4(D)(2)(b)(viii) and (ix) of the Company's Articles of Association were part of the terms of issue of the Existing Series of Category II Non-cumulative Dollar Preference Shares and that accordingly those provisions would affect the Series T Preference Shares in the event of non-payment of dividend on the Existing Series of Category II Non-cumulative Dollar Preference Shares;
- (d) in circumstances where any dividend otherwise payable on any dividend payment date is not declared and/or paid in full by reason of (i) lack of distributable profits

as referred to in Article 4(d)(2)(b)(i), (ii) the application of capital adequacy requirements referred to in Article 4D in Article 4(D)(2)(b)(iii) or (iii) the exercise by the Directors of their discretion referred to in Article 4(E)(2)(g)(i), the Company will notify the holders of the Series T Preference Shares as soon as reasonably practicable. Each such notification shall specify the reasons why the relevant dividend has not been declared and/or paid in full.

The Companies Act 1985 defines distributable profits as, in general terms, and subject to adjustment, accumulated realised profits less accumulated realised losses.

Article 4(D)(2)(b)(iii) of the Company's Articles of Association, which refers to the Bank of England's capital adequacy requirements, should now instead refer to the FSA and its capital adequacy requirements, regulations, guidelines or policies, as referred to above;

- (e) the dividend payable on the Series T Preference Shares shall accrue from 27 September 2007 notwithstanding the date or dates of allotment thereof, to and including the date of repayment, if any, of capital thereon. The amount of the dividend in respect of the initial period from (and including) 27 September 2007 to (but excluding) 31 December 2007 shall be US$0.4733 for each Series T Preference Share;
- (f) in addition to their rights under Article 4(D) (as supplemented and amended by Article 4(E)) of the Company's Articles of Association, the Series T Preference Shares shall carry the right to attend at a General Meeting of the Company and to speak to or vote upon any resolution proposed thereat in circumstances where the dividend stated to be payable on the Series T Preference Shares in respect of the three most recent dividend periods has not been declared and paid in full, and such right shall continue until the dividends have thereafter been declared and paid thereon in full in respect of three successive dividend periods, but not otherwise, together with the right in accordance with the Statutes (as defined in the Company's Articles of Association) to seek to requisition a General Meeting of the Company in the circumstances and for the period specified in this paragraph (f) (and for this purpose the Series T Preference Shares will be deemed to confer the number of votes referred to in paragraph (g) below);
- (g) whenever holders of Series T Preference Shares are so entitled to vote on a resolution at a General Meeting of the Company, on a poll every such holder who is present in person or by proxy shall have one vote for each such Series T Preference Share held subject to adjustment as hereinafter prescribed. Such adjustments as the Directors consider necessary to the number of votes to which each Series T Preference Share is entitled shall be made by the Directors at the time of the occurrence of the event requiring such adjustment to reflect:
 - (i) any capitalisation issue, consolidation, sub-division or re-classification of Ordinary Shares as a result of any distribution to the holders of Ordinary Shares of assets of the Company; and

Table of Contents

- (ii) issues of Ordinary Shares or grants of rights or options to subscribe for Ordinary Shares at a discount to the market value of the Ordinary Shares on the business day preceding the date of issue or grant as the case may be, ascertained by reference to the middle market quotation derived from the London Stock Exchange Daily Official List for such preceding business day (subject to the exceptions listed below), in each case in order to ensure as nearly as may be that the ratio which the number of vote(s) in a General Meeting to which the holder of a Series T Preference Share would be entitled on a poll bears to the number of vote(s) to which the holder of an Ordinary Share is entitled in such circumstances will be the same (but no higher) after than as it was before any such event. The exceptions referred to above are:
 - (a) rights issues at a discount of no more than 10 per cent. of such market value of the Ordinary Shares;
 - (b) any issue or grant of such number of Ordinary Shares as represents no more than 1 per cent. of the number of Ordinary Shares in issue from time to time for a consideration other than cash (in whole or in part), including, without limitation, for any purchase or acquisition of any shares or any other investments of any kind, or any business, undertaking or assets of any description, by the Company or any subsidiary;
 - (c) issues or grants under the Company's Profit Sharing (Share Ownership) Scheme, Executive Share Option Scheme or Savings-related Share Option Scheme or any additional or successive or substitute schemes or the equivalent schemes of any subsidiary of the Company; and
 - (d) issues pursuant to the provisions of Article 143 of the Company's Articles of Association;
- (h) the Series T Preference Shares shall not be redeemed by the Company prior to 31 December 2012 and, accordingly, the Redemption Date for the purposes of the Series T Preference Shares shall be any business day falling on or after 31 December 2012. Such Redemption Date shall apply equally in the case of any redemption of the Series T Preference Shares pursuant to any substitution thereof referred to below. In addition, the Directors will only exercise the Company's option to redeem any of the Series T Preference Shares on a Redemption Date if:
 - (i) the Company has given at least one month's prior notice to the FSA of its intention to do so, or such other period of notice, be it greater or less, as the FSA requires; and
 - (ii) at the time when the notice of such redemption is given and immediately following such redemption, the Company is or will be (as the case may be) in compliance with its capital adequacy requirements, as provided in the capital regulations relating to capital adequacy then in effect of the FSA, unless at the time of such redemption such requirement of the FSA no longer applies;

Table of Contents

- (i) if to be redeemed, the Series T Preference Shares shall only be redeemed in whole and not in part only;
