Dear Gene:

I am in receipt of Bill Barber's email (Current situation report) dated 4/16/03 and can only conclude the futility of my continuing as a member of the Board of Directors of Accesspoint Corporation. I have been a member of the board for too short a time to adequately familiarize myself with all the myriad facts relating to the many corporate issues and legal problems to enable a professional representation to all of the shareholders of Accesspoint Corporation.

The 4/16/03 email as indicated above reinforces the need for me to resign as an Accesspoint director effective immediately.

Thank you for allowing me the opportunity to serve, if only for a very short time.

Regards,

Bill DeVore
