PART III — NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, 10-D, N-SAR, N-CSR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

On August 7, 2012, Chimera Investment Corporation (the "Company", "our" or "we") disclosed in a Current Report on Form 8-K (the "Item 4.02 Form 8-K") that we are still completing an evaluation of our accounting policy related to the application of generally accepted accounting principles ("GAAP") to our non-Agency residential mortgage-backed securities portfolio. Our evaluation relates to the accounting for our non-Agency residential mortgage-backed securities portfolio under Financial Accounting Standards Board Accounting Standards Codification (ASC) Subtopic 320-10, Investments – Debt and Equity Securities, ASC Subtopic 325-40, Investments – Other – Beneficial Interests in Securitized Financial Assets, and ASC Subtopic 310-30, Receivables – Loans and Debt Securities Acquired with Deteriorated Credit Quality.

Additional time is required in order for us to complete this review before we will be in a position to file our Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended June 30, 2012. We will not be able to file our Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended June 30, 2012 within the extension period provided under Rule 12b-25.

As disclosed in the Item 4.02 Form 8-K, on August 1, 2012, our Audit Committee concluded, after discussions with management and Deloitte & Touche, LLP ("Deloitte"), our independent registered public accounting firm since our inception and up to and including for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2011, that each of our previously issued (i) consolidated financial statements included in our Annual Reports on Form 10-K for the years ended December 31, 2010, 2009 and 2008, and (ii) interim consolidated financial statements included in our Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended September 30, 2008 and for all subsequent quarters through the quarter ended September 30, 2011, need to be restated (the "Restatement"). In this Form 12b-25, the years and interim periods included in the Restatement are collectively referred to as the "Restatement Period."

In light of the need for a Restatement, our previously issued consolidated financial statements for the Restatement Period and the corresponding audit opinions of Deloitte on the consolidated financial statements and the reports on our internal controls over financial reporting included or described in our previously filed Annual Reports on Form 10-K for the years ended December 31, 2010, 2009 and 2008 should no longer be relied upon.

We currently intend to present the Restatement in our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2011 (the "2011 10-K"), which has not yet been filed. We are currently unable to estimate the timing for filing the 2011 10-K. We expect to file our Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarterly period ending March 31, 2012 within 60 days of filing the 2011 10-K and any subsequent unfiled Quarterly Reports will be filed as soon as practicable, including our Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended June 30, 2012 to which this Form 12b-25 relates.

We refer you to the Item 4.02 Form 8-K for more information related to the Restatement, including, without limitation, the nature of the accounting error giving rise to the Restatement and the estimate of the cumulative anticipated impact of the Restatement on our previously issued consolidated financial statements for the Restatement Period.

The above statements and those contained in the referenced Item 4.02 Form 8-K regarding the expected impact and amounts of the Restatement and the anticipated timing of our SEC filings constitute forward-looking statements that are based on our current expectations. The actual impact and amounts and the detailed presentation of the Restatement will be included in our upcoming filings after we have completed our work on the Restatement and Deloitte has completed its audit of our consolidated financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2011. There can be no assurance that the final impact and the amounts of the Restatement will not differ materially from estimates that are described or are referred to in this Form 12b-25 or that any other information set forth herein will not change materially before we file our restated consolidated financial statements. We specifically note that we are still evaluating our projection of cash flows for other-than-temporary impairment and income recognition purposes.

Disclosures About Forward-Looking Statements

This Form 12b-25 contains forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. These statements are based on the current beliefs and expectations of the Company's management and are subject to significant risks and uncertainties. Because these forward-looking statements involve risks and uncertainties, there are important factors that could cause our actual results, as well as our expectations regarding materiality or significance, the Restatement's quantitative effects, the effectiveness of our disclosure controls and procedures, material weaknesses in internal control over financial reporting and the filing of our untimely SEC reports, to differ materially from those in the forward-looking statements. These factors include, among other things, the risk that additional information may arise from the preparation of our restated consolidated financial statements and that our internal control over financial reporting may be inadequate or have weaknesses of which we are not currently aware or which have not been detected. The Company does not undertake to update the forward-looking statements to reflect the impact of circumstances or events that may arise after the date of the forward-looking statements. For a discussion of a variety of risk factors affecting our business and prospects, see "Item 1A — Risk Factors" in our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2010 (the "2010 10-K"), as supplemented by the reports we have filed since the 2010 10-K.
