Item 5.03. Amendments to Articles of Incorporation or Bylaws; Change in Fiscal Year

Amended and Restated Bylaws

On October 19, 2015, the Board of Directors (the “Board”) of Chimera Investment Corporation (“Chimera”) approved and adopted Amended and Restated Bylaws (the “Amended Bylaws”) for Chimera. The Amended Bylaws became effective immediately upon approval by the Board. The amendments generally:

- Removed the requirement that Chimera’s annual meeting take place during the month of June;
- Elaborate on various procedural aspects relating to meetings of stockholders, including the information to be provided by a stockholder who wishes to introduce business or nominate a director candidate and procedures for inspectors, for the conduct of the meeting by the chair, and for stockholders wishing to request a special meeting;
- Clarified that notices of stockholders’ meetings may be given electronically, that “householding” of stockholder notices is permitted and that Chimera may postpone or cancel a stockholders’ meeting by making a public announcement;
- Clarify the method and procedures for director resignations and language related to the existing majority voting standard for directors, including to eliminate the automatic “holdover” provision and to permit the Board to consider and act upon any proposed resignation of a director (as required by Chimera’s corporate governance guidelines) who failed to obtain a majority vote, and clarified directors’ and officers’ rights to indemnification and expense advance rights consistent with Maryland law;
- Clarifies the rights of the Board and stockholders to ratify matters and the rights of Board committees to delegate to subcommittees, and obligations related to Board committee proceedings and record keeping;
- Reduced certain non-mandatory officer positions, and facilitated the ability to have an independent Board chair; and
- Provided more flexibility in terms of choosing financial institutions, issuing uncertificated shares and dealing with emergencies.

The foregoing description of the Amended Bylaws does not purport to be complete and is qualified by reference to the full text of the Amended Bylaws, which is attached as Exhibit 3.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K and incorporated herein by reference.
