MINERA ANDES ANNOUNCES CDN$20 MILLION EQUITY FINANCING

MINERA ANDES INCORPORATED (TSX:MAI) (the Company or Minera Andes) is pleased to announce that it has entered into an agreement with a Canadian investment dealer (the Lead Underwriter) pursuant to which the Lead Underwriter and a syndicate of underwriters (collectively, the Underwriters) have agreed to purchase for resale to the public and Minera Andes has agreed to issue Cdn$20,025,000 of units, on a bought deal basis, at a price of Cdn$0.75 per unit (the Offering). In addition, the Company has agreed to grant the Lead Underwriter an option (the Over-Allotment Option) to purchase additional units of Minera Andes to raise additional gross proceeds of up to 15% of the Offering, on the same terms and conditions as the Offering, exercisable any time, in whole or in part, up to 48 hours prior to the closing date of the Offering. If the Over-Allotment Option is exercised in full, the total gross proceeds to Minera Andes will be Cdn$23,028,750. Each unit consists of one (1) common share and one half of one common share purchase warrant, each whole warrant exercisable at Cdn$1.25 for a period of 5 years after closing. In the event that the volume weighted average trading price of the Company's common shares on the TSX (or such other stock exchange or quotation system on which the Company's shares are listed and where a majority of the trading volume occurs), for a period of 20 consecutive trading days exceeds $2.50, the Company may, within five days after such an event, provide notice to the warrant holders of early expiry and thereafter, the warrants will expire on the date which is 30 days after the date of the notice to the warrant holders.

The units to be issued under the Offering will be offered by way of a short form prospectus to be filed in all of the provinces of Canada, except Quebec.

The net proceeds from the Offering are expected to be used to fund ongoing exploration and development activities at the company's gold projects and working capital requirements as required.

The Offering is expected to close on or about August 27, 2009 and is subject to normal regulatory approvals, including the approval of the Toronto Stock Exchange.

The securities being offered have not been, nor will be, registered under the United States Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the U.S. Securities Act), and may not be offered or sold within the United States or to or for the account or benefit of U.S. Persons (as defined in Regulation S under the U.S. Securities Act) absent U.S. registration or an applicable exemption from U.S. registration requirements. This press release does not constitute an offer of securities for sale in the United States to or for the account or benefit of U.S. Persons.

Minera Andes is a gold, silver and copper exploration company with a 49% interest in the San José silver-gold mine in Santa Cruz, Argentina. The San José mine is owned by Minera Santa Cruz S.A. (MSC), which in turn is owned 49% by Minera Andes and 51% by Hochschild Mining plc. Hochschild is the operator of the San José mine, and exercises total operating control of the mine. The Corporation also owns the Los Azules copper project in San Juan province, where a scoping study has been completed and the Corporation is awaiting a decision by its joint venture partner, Xstrata Copper Company, if it will exercise its right to back in to a 51% ownership of the project. The Corporation holds or has an interest in approximately 304,000 acres of mineral exploration land in Argentina located in the regions near the San José mine and Los Azules project. The Corporation presently has 230,688,851 shares issued and outstanding.
