Item 2. Acquisition or Disposition of Assets

On November 12, 2003, Global Payments Inc., or Global Payments, completed the acquisition of Latin America Money Services, LLC, or LAMS, a Delaware limited liability company which directly owned a majority of the outstanding equity interests in DoEx Dollar Express, Inc., a Texas corporation, or DoEx, and indirectly owned a majority of the outstanding equity interests in DoEx Envios, S.A. de C.V., a Mexican subsidiary of DoEx, or DoEx Envios. The transaction was structured as a merger of GP Ventures (Texas), Inc., a Delaware corporation and wholly-owned subsidiary of Global Payments, into LAMS, with LAMS remaining as the surviving entity in the merger. Global Payments also acquired the remaining equity interests in DoEx that were not already owned by LAMS from the DoEx Class B shareholders. As a result of the transaction, LAMS is now a wholly-owned subsidiary of Global Payments, DoEx is a wholly-owned subsidiary of LAMS and DoEx Envios is a majority-owned subsidiary of DoEx because one share of DoEx Envios is owned by GP Finance, Inc., a wholly-owned subsidiary of Global Payments.

Under the terms of the merger agreement, Global Payments paid approximately $190 million for LAMS, DoEx and DoEx Envios through a combination of approximately $65 million in cash-on-hand at closing and the issuance of approximately $125 million in promissory notes payable to the order of the LAMS members and the DoEx Class B shareholders. The LAMS members and the DoEx Class B shareholders are also eligible to receive a contingent payment of up to $10 million based on the 2003 financial results of DoEx. Concurrent with the acquisition, we changed the name of our Funds Transfer service offerings to Money Transfer, under which DoEx revenue will be reported. We intend to operate the acquired business in a manner consistent with DoEx's historical operations.

Founded in 1996, DoEx is a leading provider of consumer-to-consumer electronic money transfer services to the Latino community living in the United States and their Latin American families abroad. DoEx's services allow customers to send money from DoEx's network of retail branches in the United States to beneficiaries in Latin America. DoEx operates hundreds of branches across the United States in areas with large Latino populations, and has settlement arrangements with thousands of retail, bank and exchange house locations in Latin America.
