PROXY STATEMENT

General Information

This proxy statement is furnished to holders of Newmont Mining Corporation common stock, Newmont Mining Corporation of Canada Limited exchangeable shares, and Newmont Mining Corporation CHESSE Depository Interests in connection with the solicitation of proxies on behalf of the Board of Directors of Newmont Mining Corporation (Newmont or the Corporation) to be voted at the Annual Meeting of Stockholders of Newmont to be held on April 28, 2004. Stockholders of record at the close of business on March 2, 2004 will be entitled to notice of and to vote at the meeting and at all adjournments.

Stockholders Entitled to Vote.

The holders of record of the following securities at the close of business on March 2, 2004 (the Record Date) are entitled to vote at Newmont's 2004 Annual Meeting of Stockholders (the Annual Meeting) to be held on Wednesday, April 28, 2004:

common stock of the Corporation, par value $1.60 per share (the Newmont Common Stock), of which there were 400,563,988 shares outstanding as of the Record Date (including shares represented by the Newmont CHESSE Depository Interests (CDIs) referred to below);

exchangeable shares of Newmont Mining Corporation of Canada Limited, a Canadian corporation (Newmont Canada), of which there were 42,252,191 shares outstanding (the Newmont Exchangeable Shares) as of the Record Date and entitled to vote pursuant to the terms of the Newmont Special Voting Stock described below; and CDIs, of which there were 70,286,743 outstanding as of the Record Date, which vote on a ten-for-one basis.

Voting Your Shares.

Newmont Common Stock. Each share of Newmont Common Stock that you own entitles you to one vote. Your proxy card shows the number of shares of Newmont Common Stock that you own.

You may vote your shares by signing and returning the enclosed proxy card. If you vote by proxy card, your proxy (each or any of the individuals named on the proxy card) will vote your shares as you instruct on the proxy card. If you sign and return the proxy card, but do not give instructions on how to vote your shares, your shares will be voted as recommended by the Newmont Board of Directors.

Edgar Filing: NEWMONT MINING CORP /DE/ - Form DEF 14A

You may vote by telephone or by the Internet by following the telephone or Internet voting instructions that are included with your proxy card. If you vote by telephone or the Internet, you do not need to return your proxy card.

You may attend the Annual Meeting and vote in person. We will give you a ballot when you arrive. However, if your stock is held in the name of your broker, bank or another nominee, you must get a proxy from the broker, bank or other nominee. This will be the only way we can be sure that the broker, bank or other nominee has not already voted your shares on your behalf.

Newmont Exchangeable Shares. Each Newmont Exchangeable Share that you own has economic rights (such as the right to receive dividends and other distributions) that are, as nearly as practicable, equivalent to those of shares of Newmont Common Stock. Holders of Newmont Exchangeable Shares have a right through a Voting and Exchange Trust Agreement (the "Voting Agreement") to vote at stockholders meetings of the Corporation. The Newmont Exchangeable Shares, however, are not shares issued by Newmont and, therefore, a holder of Exchangeable Shares is not a registered stockholder of Newmont, but is a registered shareholder of Newmont Canada. The Newmont Exchangeable Shares are exchangeable at the option of the holders into Newmont Common Stock on a one-for-one basis.

Table of Contents

There are two ways to vote your Newmont Exchangeable Shares.

You may vote by signing and returning the enclosed voting instruction form. The voting instruction form permits you to instruct Computershare Trust Company of Canada, as trustee under the Voting Agreement (the Trustee), to vote at the Annual Meeting. The Trustee holds one share of special voting stock of the Corporation (the Newmont Special Voting Stock) that is entitled to vote on all matters on which the shares of Newmont Common Stock vote. The share of Newmont Special Voting Stock has a number of votes in respect to the Annual Meeting equal to the lesser of (a) the number of Newmont Exchangeable Shares outstanding on the Record Date (other than Newmont Exchangeable Shares held by Newmont or its affiliates), or (b) 10% of the total number of votes attaching to the Newmont Common Stock then outstanding. Based upon the number of shares of Newmont Common Stock and Newmont Exchangeable Shares outstanding as of the Record Date, the Trustee will be entitled to cast up to 40,056,399 votes at the Annual Meeting. If more than that number of votes are received, the Trustee will cast its votes for or against each matter brought before the Annual Meeting in the same proportion as reflected in the votes actually received. The Trustee must receive your voting instructions by 5:00 p.m. in Toronto, Ontario, Canada, on April 22, 2004. This will give the Trustee time to tabulate the voting instructions and vote on your behalf. The Trustee will exercise each vote attached to the Newmont Special Voting Stock only on the basis of instructions received from the relevant holders of Newmont Exchangeable Shares. In the absence of instructions from a holder as to voting, the Trustee will not have any voting rights with respect to such Newmont Exchangeable Share.

You may attend the Annual Meeting and vote in person. As a holder of Newmont Exchangeable Shares, you may attend the Annual Meeting in person to vote directly the number of votes to which you are entitled (subject to the voting limitation discussed above). Please refer to the Notice to Exchangeable Shareholders and Voting Instruction Form enclosed with this proxy material for additional instructions on voting at the meeting.

Newmont CDIs. The Newmont CDIs are units of beneficial ownership in Newmont Common Stock held by CHESSE Depository Nominees Pty Ltd (ACN 071 346 506) (CDN), a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Australian Stock Exchange Limited (ACN 008 624 691). References to Newmont Mining Corporation for purposes of Australian equity holders are to Newmont Mining Corporation ARBN 099 065 997, organized in Delaware with limited liability, and principally regulated in accordance with the laws and rules of Delaware. Since July 1, 2002, Newmont CDIs have traded on the Australian Stock Exchange (ASX) as a Foreign Exempt Listing granted by the ASX, which provides an ancillary trading facility to the Corporation's primary listing on the New York Stock Exchange. Newmont CDIs entitle holders to dividends and other rights economically equivalent to Newmont Common Stock on a ten-for-one basis. CDN, as the stockholder of record (or its proxy or substitute), will vote the underlying shares of Newmont Common Stock in accordance with the directions of the CDI holders. Your CDI Voting Instruction Form shows the number of Newmont CDIs that you own.

You may vote by signing and returning the enclosed CDI Voting Instruction Form. Newmont has appointed National Shareholder Services Pty Ltd in Adelaide, South Australia, Australia, as its agent with respect to the collection and processing of voting instructions from Newmont CDI holders. The enclosed CDI Voting Instruction Form permits you to instruct National Shareholder Services to vote your Newmont CDIs on your behalf. National Shareholder Services must receive your voting instructions by 5:00 p.m., Adelaide time, on April 22, 2004, to give them enough time to tabulate the voting instructions on your behalf.

You may attend the Annual Meeting; however, to vote your shares, please use the enclosed CDI Voting Instruction Form as described above.

Revocation of Proxy or Voting Instruction Form.

Revocation of Newmont Common Stock Proxy. A stockholder who executes a proxy may revoke it by delivering to the Secretary of the Corporation, at any time before the proxies are voted, a written notice of revocation bearing a later date than the proxy, or attending the Annual Meeting and voting in person (although attendance at the Annual Meeting will not in and of itself constitute a revocation of a proxy). Written notice revoking a proxy should be sent to the attention of the Secretary of the Corporation at 1700 Lincoln Street, Denver, Colorado 80203. A stockholder may substitute another person in place of those persons presently named as proxies.

Revocation of Exchangeable Shares Voting Instruction Form. A registered holder of Newmont Exchangeable Shares who has submitted a Voting Instruction Form may revoke the Voting Instruction Form by completing and signing a Voting Instruction Form bearing a later date and depositing it with the Trustee. No notice of revocation or later-dated Voting Instruction Form, however, will be effective unless received by the Trustee prior to 5:00 p.m., Toronto time, on April 22, 2004.

A non-registered holder of Newmont Exchangeable Shares may revoke a Voting Instruction Form at any time by written notice to the intermediary, except that an intermediary is not required to act on a revocation of a Voting Instruction Form that is not received by the intermediary at least ten days prior to the Annual Meeting.

Revocation of Newmont CDI Voting Instruction Form. A holder of Newmont CDIs who has completed and returned a CDI Voting Instruction Form (in the manner described above) may revoke the directions to CDN contained therein by delivering to National Shareholder Services, 180 Flinders Street, Adelaide 5000, South Australia, Australia, no later than April 22, 2004, a written notice of revocation bearing a later date than the CDI Voting Instruction Form previously sent.

Quorum, Tabulation and Voting.

Quorum. The holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of capital stock of the Corporation entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting must be present in person or represented by proxy in order to constitute a quorum for all matters to come before the meeting. For purposes of determining the presence of a quorum, shares of capital stock of the Corporation include all shares of Newmont Common Stock (including shares represented by Newmont CDIs) and the maximum number of shares of Newmont Common Stock that the Trustee of the Newmont Exchangeable Shares is entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting.

Tabulating Votes. Votes at the Annual Meeting will be tabulated by two inspectors of election who will be appointed by the Chairman of the meeting and who will not be candidates for election to the Board of Directors. The inspectors of election will treat shares of capital stock represented by a properly signed and returned proxy as present at the Annual Meeting for purposes of determining a quorum, without regard to whether the proxy is marked as casting a vote or abstaining.

Broker Non-Votes and Abstentions. Abstentions and broker non-votes as to particular matters are counted for purposes of determining whether a quorum is present at the Annual Meeting. Abstentions are counted in tabulations of the votes cast on proposals presented to stockholders, whereas broker non-votes are not counted for purposes of determining whether a proposal has been approved. Abstentions have the same effect as votes against proposals presented to stockholders. A non-vote occurs when a nominee holding shares for a beneficial owner votes on one proposal, but does not vote on another proposal because the nominee does not have discretionary voting power and has not received instructions to do so from the beneficial owner.

Votes Required to Approve the Proposals.

Election of Directors. Directors will be elected by a favorable vote of a plurality (meaning the largest number of votes cast) of those shares of capital stock present and entitled to vote, in person or by proxy, at the Annual Meeting. A stockholder may withhold votes from any or all nominees.

Ratify PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP as the Corporation's Independent Auditors for 2004. The affirmative vote of a majority of the shares present and entitled to vote, in person or by proxy, at the Annual Meeting is required to ratify the Audit Committee's appointment of PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP as the Corporation's independent auditors for 2004.

Table of Contents

Other Items. If any other items are presented at the Annual Meeting, they must receive an affirmative vote of a majority of the shares present and entitled to vote, in person or by proxy, in order to be approved.

Solicitation Costs.

The enclosed proxy and/or voting instruction form is solicited by the Board of Directors of the Corporation. This proxy material will be mailed to the holders of Newmont Common Stock, Newmont CDIs and Newmont Exchangeable Shares on or about March 26, 2004. In addition to solicitation by mail, solicitation of proxies and voting instruction forms may be made by certain officers and employees of the Corporation by mail, telephone or in person. The Corporation has retained Georgeson Shareholder Communications Inc. to aid in the solicitation of brokers, banks, intermediaries and other institutional holders in the United States and Canada for a fee of US$14,000. All costs of the solicitation of proxies will be borne by the Corporation. The Corporation also will reimburse brokerage firms and others for their expenses in forwarding proxy materials to beneficial owners of Newmont Common Stock, Newmont Exchangeable Shares and Newmont CDIs.

If the proxy cards representing shares of Newmont Common Stock held under the Retirement Savings Plans are not returned duly signed and dated, the Administration Committees of the Retirement Saving Plans shall instruct the trustee with respect to how to vote any such shares for which instructions are not received.

Participants in the Canadian Employee Share Savings Program. If you are a participant in the Employee Share Savings Program, a non-registered Canadian Savings Plan (Savings Plan), shares of Newmont Common Stock that are held for you under this Savings Plan may be voted through the proxy card accompanying this mailing. The Savings Plan is administered by Sun Life Financial (Sun Life). Sun Life, as the stockholder of record of the Newmont Common Stock held in the Savings Plan, will vote the shares held for you in accordance with the directions you give on the enclosed proxy card, provided that you return the proxy card duly signed and dated to the address indicated on the enclosed envelope. If the proxy cards representing shares of Newmont Common Stock held under the Savings Plan are not returned duly signed and dated, your shares will not be voted.

Board Recommendation.

THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS RECOMMENDS THAT THE STOCKHOLDERS VOTE FOR ALL OF THE FOREGOING NOMINEES AND, UNLESS A STOCKHOLDER GIVES INSTRUCTIONS ON THE PROXY CARD TO THE CONTRARY, THE PROXIES NAMED THEREON INTEND SO TO VOTE.

Independence of Directors.

Edgar Filing: NEWMONT MINING CORP /DE/ - Form DEF 14A

Each of the nominees for election as director are independent of management and the Corporation, except for Mr. Murdy and Mr. Lassonde, who are officers of the Corporation, and Mr. Schulich, who is an officer of and a consultant for a subsidiary of the Corporation. The Board of Directors has determined that the members designated as independent have no relationship with the Corporation that may interfere with the exercise of their independence from management and the Corporation. In making the independence determination, the Board considered the requirements of the New York Stock Exchange and the Corporation's Corporate Governance Guidelines. Among other factors, the Board considered current or previous employment with the Corporation, its auditors or their affiliates by the director or his immediate family members, ownership of voting securities of the Corporation, and material relationships with the Corporation.

With respect to material relationships, the following relationships are not considered material for purposes of assessing independence: service as an officer, director, employee or trustee or greater than five percent beneficial ownership in (a) a supplier to the Corporation if the annual gross revenues to the Corporation are less than $1,000,000 or two percent of the gross revenues of the supplier; (b) a lender to the Corporation if the total amount of the Corporation's indebtedness to such lender is less than one percent of the total consolidated assets of the lender; or (c) a charitable organization if the total amount of the Corporation's total annual charitable contributions to the organization are less than $1 million or two percent of that organization's total annual gross receipts (excluding any amounts received through the Corporation's employee matching program for charitable contributions), whichever is greater.

Stock Ownership of Directors and Executive Officers.

As of March 2, 2004, the directors and executive officers of the Corporation as a group beneficially owned in the aggregate 11,667,561 shares of Newmont Common Stock (including shares represented by Newmont CDIs) and Newmont Exchangeable Shares, constituting approximately 2.1% of the voting power of the outstanding capital stock of the Corporation. Except as set forth below, no director or executive officer beneficially owned (a) more than 1% of the outstanding shares of Newmont Common Stock, Newmont Exchangeable Shares or Newmont CDIs, or (b) shares with voting power in excess of 1% of the voting power of the outstanding capital stock of the Corporation. Each director and executive officer has sole voting power and dispositive power with respect to all shares beneficially owned by them, except as set forth below.

Messrs. Lassonde and Schulich beneficially owned 2,497,031 and 6,290,393 shares, respectively, of Newmont Exchangeable Shares, constituting in the aggregate 5.9% and 14.9%, respectively, of the outstanding Newmont Exchangeable Shares. Mr. Lassonde owned less than 1% of the voting power of the outstanding capital stock of the Corporation, and Mr. Schulich owned 1.4% of the voting power of the outstanding capital stock of the Corporation, which is comprised of 40,056,399 voting exchangeable shares and 400,563,988 shares of Newmont Common Stock.

The following table sets forth the number of shares of Newmont Common Stock, including shares in the form of Newmont CDIs and Newmont Exchangeable Shares, beneficially owned by Newmont's directors and executive officers at March 2, 2004:

Director's Compensation.

Directors who are neither officers nor employees of the Corporation are entitled to receive $35,000 per year for serving as directors, and a fee of $1,000 per meeting of the Board of Directors. Each director who is neither an officer nor an employee of the Corporation receives an attendance fee of $1,000 per meeting of a committee of which he is a member. In recognition of the additional time and effort devoted by the chairman of each committee, each non-employee chairman receives an annual cash retainer. The chairman of the Audit Committee receives an annual retainer of $15,000, and the chairman of each of the other committees receives an annual retainer of $5,000.

Pursuant to the Corporation's 2000 Non-Employee Directors Stock Plan (the "Directors Stock Plan"), directors who are neither officers nor employees of the Corporation or any of its subsidiaries receive the equivalent of $25,000 in shares of common stock of the Corporation annually on the first business day following their election or re-election at the Corporation's Annual Meeting. If a person who is neither an officer nor employee of the Corporation or any of its subsidiaries becomes a director in any calendar year after the date of the Corporation's Annual Meeting held in such calendar year, such person will receive the equivalent of $25,000 of shares of Newmont Common Stock of the Corporation on the first business day following such person's election as a director of the Corporation. Shares awarded under the Directors Stock Plan may not be sold, transferred, pledged, assigned or otherwise encumbered or disposed of by the director until the earliest of the expiration of five years after the date of receipt of such shares by the director, the date the director ceases to be a director by reason of death or disability, or the later of (a) the date the director ceases to be a director for any reason other than death or disability or (b) the expiration of six months after the date of receipt of such shares by the director. However, a director may sell, transfer or assign shares awarded under the Directors Stock Plan to, or instruct the Corporation to issue such shares directly to, a member of the director's immediate family or a trust or certain other entities solely for the benefit of, or owned by, the director or any such immediate family members.

In addition, the Corporation has a program under which it makes annual charitable contributions to qualified United States charitable programs at the request of each director who is not an officer or employee of the Corporation: $2,500 matching gift to a qualified cultural or charitable organization or hospital; $5,000 matching gift to a qualified educational organization; and $2,500 gift, with no matching requirement, to an educational or charitable organization.

As a director of the Corporation, Mr. Schulich is entitled to receive the cash retainer and meeting fees described above. Mr. Schulich also receives (a) $25,000 in cash per year for serving as the non-executive chairman of Newmont Capital Limited, a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Corporation ("Newmont Capital"), and (b) $250,000 in cash per year pursuant to a three-year Consulting Agreement with Newmont Capital, entered into on April 1, 2002 and expiring on March 31, 2005, under which he provides general merchant banking advice and guidance. The Consulting Agreement was entered into, in part, in lieu of $750,000 in severance compensation that Mr. Schulich otherwise would have received following his resignation as an officer and employee of Franco-Nevada Mining Corporation Limited in February 2002. Because he serves as an officer of and consultant to a subsidiary of the Corporation, Mr. Schulich is deemed to be ineligible to participate in the Corporation's 2000 Non-Employee Directors Stock Plan, which means that he is not eligible to receive the annual $25,000 restricted stock award received by other non-employee directors of the Corporation.

Pierre Lassonde, President of the Corporation and a director, entered into an Employment Agreement with a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Corporation on February 16, 2002. See Executive Agreements on page 16 for a description of Mr. Lassonde's agreement.

The Corporation's retirement policy for directors provides that, except at the request of the Board of Directors, no director may stand for reelection to the Board of Directors after reaching age 72. Unless otherwise agreed in advance, employee directors retire from the Board of Directors when they retire from employment with the Corporation. On retirement from the Board of Directors at any time after attaining age 65, a director who was serving on the Board of Directors on January 27, 1999 and who is not entitled to a pension under the Corporation's Pension Plan (i.e., a director who has not been an officer or employee of the Corporation or any of its subsidiaries) and who has served for at least ten consecutive years as a director of the Corporation is entitled to be paid an annual sum of $25,000 and an amount equal to the per annum fee paid to him in the year 2002, for life.

On May 7, 2003, the Board of Directors selected Joseph P. Flannery to serve as lead director for the following year. Mr. Flannery will retire from the Board of Directors in April 2004, and another lead director will be selected.

Communications with Stockholders. Any stockholder who desires to contact the Corporation's lead director or the other members of the Board of Directors may do so by writing to the Secretary, Newmont Mining Corporation, 1700 Lincoln Street, Denver, Colorado 80203 USA. Any such communication should state the number of shares beneficially owned by the stockholder making the communication. The Secretary will forward to the lead director any such communication addressed to him or to the Board of Directors generally, and will forward such communication to other board members, as appropriate, provided that such communication addresses a legitimate business issue. For any communication relating to accounting, auditing or fraud, such communication will be forwarded immediately to the Chairman of the Audit Committee.

Director Nomination Process. The Corporation has established a process for identifying and nominating director candidates that has resulted in the election of a highly-qualified and dedicated Board of Directors. The following is an outline of the process for nomination of candidates for election to the Board: (a) The Chairman and Chief Executive Officer, the Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee or other members of the Board of Directors identify the need to add new Board members, with careful consideration of the mix of qualifications, skills and experience represented on the Board; (b) the Chairman of the Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee coordinates the search for qualified candidates with input from management and other Board members; (c) the Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee engages a candidate search firm to assist in identifying potential nominees, if it deems such engagement necessary and appropriate; (d) selected members of management and the Board of Directors interview prospective candidates; and (e) the Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee recommends a nominee and seeks full Board endorsement of the selected candidate, based on its judgment as to which candidate will best serve the interests of the Corporation's stockholders.

The Board of Directors has determined that directors should possess the following minimum qualifications: (a) the highest personal and professional ethics, integrity and values; (b) commitment to representing the long-term interest of the stockholders; (c) broad experience at the policy-making level in business, government, education, technology or public interest; and (d) sufficient time to effectively fulfill duties as a Board member. The Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee considers any candidates submitted by stockholders on the same basis as any other candidate. A participant's remuneration covered by the Pension Plan is his or her average annual base salary and bonus, including amounts paid in the form of restricted stock (as reported in the Summary Compensation Table) for the 60 consecutive months in which the highest level of compensation was paid to the participant during the last 120 months of the participant's career with the Corporation or its subsidiaries (except for Mr. Lassonde). The approximate years of actual credited service as of the end of 2003 for each named executive officer (except for Mr. Lassonde) is: Mr. Murdy 11 years (see Executive Agreements below); Mr. Francisco 13 years; Mr. Dow 25 years; and Mr. Hansen 21 years. Benefits shown are computed on a straight single life annuity basis beginning at age 62. Such amounts have not been reduced for Social Security benefits. Bonus amounts paid in the form of restricted stock will not be considered in calculating levels of compensation for executives hired or promoted to executive status after January 1, 2004. Any bonus amounts paid in the form of restricted stock for plan years after December 31, 2007 will not be considered in calculating levels of compensation under the plan for any participants.

Mr. Lassonde participates in the Corporation's International Retirement Plan (the International Plan), which provides participants with a basic, savings and supplemental payment upon retirement or termination of employment. The basic and savings payments are calculated based on participants' age and annual compensation during each year of participation in the International Plan. Because Mr. Lassonde is over 50 years of age, an amount equal to 9% of his annual compensation for 2003 ($79,803) was accrued for his basic payment and 3% of his annual compensation for 2003 ($26,601) was accrued for his supplemental payment. Additionally, $12,000 was accrued for Mr. Lassonde's anticipated savings payment. Pursuant to Mr. Lassonde's Employment Contract, in 2004, accruals under the International Plan will increase to 18% of his annual compensation for his basic payment and 6% of his annual compensation for his supplemental payment. It is estimated that, upon retirement, Mr. Lassonde will be entitled to basic payment of $1,436,485 and a savings payment of $107,478. Mr. Lassonde also will be entitled to a supplemental payment of approximately $478,828 upon termination of his employment or retirement. Thus, the total estimated retirement payment for Mr. Lassonde under the International Plan is $2,022,792.

Officers' Death Benefit Plan and Group Life Insurance Program. The Corporation has an Officers' Death Benefit Plan for the benefit of the named executive officers and other executive officers of the Corporation. The plan provides a death benefit of three times final annual base salary for an executive officer who dies while an active employee and a death benefit of one times final annual base salary for an executive officer who dies after retiring at or after normal retirement age. For retirement prior to normal retirement age, the post-retirement death benefit is 30% to 100% of one times final annual base salary, depending on the number of years remaining to normal retirement age. Coverage under the Officers' Death Benefit Plan is offset by group life insurance maintained for the benefit of all salaried employees of the Corporation and certain of its subsidiaries.

Executive Agreements.

Mr. Murdy's letter of offer of employment from the Corporation provides that if his employment is terminated other than for cause (as defined in the Corporation's Severance Pay Plan), or if he terminates employment after a reduction in base salary or a significant reduction in duties and responsibilities (as determined by independent members of the Board of Directors of the Corporation), he will be entitled to receive 24 months of his then salary (as defined in the Corporation's Severance Pay Plan) plus certain other severance benefits. Mr. Murdy's letter agreement with the Corporation provides that upon his retirement from the Corporation on or after his 62nd birthday, he will receive an additional one-half year of credited service under the Corporation's supplemental pension plan for each otherwise credited year of his service with the Corporation or any of its subsidiaries in computing his pension benefits. In the event Mr. Murdy's employment with the Corporation or any of its subsidiaries terminates prior to his 62nd birthday, he will not be entitled to such benefit unless his termination constitutes a qualifying termination as defined in the letter agreement. Generally, a qualifying termination means (a) a termination due to Mr. Murdy's death or disability, (b) a termination by Mr. Murdy for good reason (as defined in the letter agreement), (c) a termination of Mr. Murdy by the Corporation without cause (as defined in the Corporation's Severance Pay Plan), or (d) a termination that qualifies Mr. Murdy for enhanced severance benefits under his Change of Control Agreement (see Change of Control Employment Agreements below). Any benefits to which Mr. Murdy may be entitled under the Corporation's Severance Pay Plan (as described below) reduce the benefits due under these arrangements.

Pursuant to Mr. Lassonde's Employment Agreement dated February 16, 2002, as of December 31, 2003, Mr. Lassonde is paid a base salary of $506,000 annually to perform his duties as President of the Corporation, including, but not limited to, the management, operation, strategic direction and overall conduct of the merchant banking and business development functions of the Corporation. In addition, Mr. Lassonde is eligible to participate in Newmont's incentive plans, welfare benefit program, stock option plans and retirement plans. Should Mr. Lassonde be terminated for any reason other than for cause, he will receive the benefit he would be eligible for under the Corporation's Severance Pay Plan and/or the Executive Change of Control Severance Plan. In the event his employment is terminated, Mr. Lassonde is not required to resign from the Board of Directors of the Corporation; instead, he will be considered a non-employee director at such time and will be eligible to be considered for nomination by the Board for re-election as a director at the next scheduled annual meeting of stockholders, on the same basis as any other non-employee director. The agreement expires on February 15, 2005, but will automatically renew for one-year terms thereafter unless terminated by either party.

Change of Control Employment Agreements. The Corporation is a party to change of control employment agreements with each of the named executive officers, other than Mr. Lassonde (see above). The change of control employment agreements have three-year terms, which terms are automatically extended for one year upon each anniversary unless a notice not to extend is given by the Corporation. If a Change of Control (as defined in the agreements) occurs during the term of an agreement, then the agreement becomes operative for a fixed three-year period. The agreements provide generally that the executive's terms and conditions of employment (including position, location, compensation and benefits) will not be adversely changed during the three-year period after a Change of Control of the Corporation. If the Corporation terminates the executive's employment (other than for cause, death or disability), the executive terminates for good reason during such three-year period, or the executive terminates employment for any reason during the 30-day period following the first anniversary of the Change of Control, and upon certain terminations prior to a Change of Control in connection with or in anticipation of a Change of Control, the executive is generally entitled to receive (a) three times the sum of (i) the executive's annual base salary plus (ii) the executive's annual bonus (as determined in the agreements), (b) accrued but unpaid compensation, (c) welfare benefits for three years, (d) a pro rata bonus for the year in which the termination of employment occurs, and (e) a lump sum payment having an actuarial value equal to the additional pension benefits the executive would have received if he or she had continued to be employed by the Corporation for an additional three years. In addition, the agreements provide that the executive is entitled to receive a payment in an amount sufficient to make the executive whole for any excise tax on excess parachute payments imposed under Section 4999 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended. In the event of a Change of Control, the agreements will supersede any individual employment agreements entered into by the Corporation with the executives, and the executive will not be permitted to participate in the Corporation's severance plans or policies, including the Severance Pay Plan described below, during the three-year period following a Change of Control. Mr. Lassonde participates in the Corporation's Change of Control Severance Plan for Executive Employees. In general, the terms of this Plan are similar to those of the change of control agreements described above, except for item (a) above, which under the Plan includes a payment of two (rather than three) times the sum of (i) the executive's annual base salary plus (ii) the executive's annual bonus.

Severance Pay Plan. Each of the named executive officers participates in the Corporation's Severance Pay Plan. Participants in the Severance Pay Plan with at least one year of service (a) who have been continually employed by the Corporation or one of its subsidiaries or affiliates on and after August 1, 1991, or (b) whose employment with the Corporation or one of its subsidiaries or affiliates is involuntarily terminated other than for cause (as defined in the Severance Pay Plan) within 24 months after a change of control (as defined in the Severance Pay Plan) of the Corporation (other than those participants whose employment began on or after May 1, 1993) are entitled to receive a minimum of the greater of (i) four weeks of salary (as defined in the Severance Pay Plan), together with an additional two weeks of salary for each year of service; or (ii) from nine to 78 weeks of salary depending on the salary grade of the participant, calculated based on the participant's salary as of April 30, 1993. Each of the named executive officers who are otherwise eligible for severance pay under clause (ii) above would receive 52 weeks of salary. Participants whose employment began on or after May 1, 1993 and whose employment is involuntarily terminated are entitled to receive only the amount determined as set forth in clause (i) in the previous sentence. Under the Severance Pay Plan, the maximum severance allowance benefit payable to a participant calculated as set forth above is 104 weeks of the participant's salary. In addition to the amount described above, each participant is also entitled to a lump sum payment equal to the Corporation's matching contribution that would have been made under the Corporation's Retirement Savings Plan calculated in accordance with the relevant provisions of the Severance Pay Plan and any accrued and unused vacation time. Participants under the Severance Pay Plan are also entitled to certain fringe benefits, such as coverage under the Corporation's medical and dental plans and life insurance plan, as set forth in the Severance Pay Plan.

Report of the Compensation and Management Development Committee on Executive Compensation

The report of the Compensation and Management Development Committee and the performance graph that follow shall not be deemed incorporated by reference by any general statement incorporating by reference this Proxy Statement into any filing under the Securities Act of 1933 or under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 except to the extent that the Corporation specifically incorporates the information by reference, and shall not otherwise be deemed filed under such Acts.

The Compensation and Management Development Committee of the Board of Directors is composed entirely of directors who are not officers or employees of the Corporation or any of its subsidiaries, and are independent, as independent is defined in the listing standards of the New York Stock Exchange and the Corporation's Corporate Governance Guidelines. The Committee has adopted a Charter that describes its responsibilities in detail. The Committee's responsibilities include discharging the Board's responsibilities relating to compensation of the Corporation's executive officers and other key employees. Additional information about the Committee's role in corporate governance can be found in the Committee's charter, available on the Corporation's website at www.newmont.com under the Investor Information section.

The Committee, in consultation with management and independent experts in the field of executive compensation, began evaluating the Corporation's executive compensation plans in November 2002 to ensure the level and mix of executive compensation promoted the Corporation's ability to attract and retain a highly-skilled and motivated executive team. Recent acquisitions and growth have increased the complexity of the Corporation's business and dictated the need to design a new compensation program based on new performance measures. Such a program was designed and implemented in 2003.

The Corporation's compensation strategy remains focused on linking the interests of management and stockholders, attracting and retaining a highly-skilled executive team, and basing rewards on both personal and Corporation performance. The new executive compensation program contains four elements: competitive base salaries, annual cash incentives determined by the Corporation's and each executive's performance against set targets, a stock-based intermediate term incentive plan driven by the Corporation's performance, and long-term incentives in the form of stock options. The program is designed so that the sum of these four elements, assuming performance targets are met, will generally reach the third quartile for comparable positions in industry generally and in the mining industry, as set forth in executive level compensation surveys.

During 2003, the Corporation implemented share ownership guidelines for executives, which were put in place to increase the connectivity of interests between executive management and stockholders.

Base Salaries. The base salaries for the Corporation's executive officers, including Mr. Murdy and the other named executive officers, fall within salary ranges that reflect competitive base pay levels within industry generally and within the mining industry for the positions they hold. The Corporation subscribes to and participates in surveys of executive level compensation. One of these surveys includes not only the companies that comprise the Standard & Poor's Gold Index (shown on the Corporation's performance graph below), but also includes a number of companies that the Committee believes are more appropriate for comparison with the Corporation for purposes of analyzing executive compensation. The Corporation participates in other surveys as well, which cover a wide range of industries and companies. Although many of the companies included in these broader surveys are not capable of meaningful comparison with the Corporation, the Corporation and the Committee use such surveys to identify general trends in executive compensation. Based on a review of such survey information and the advice of expert compensation consultants, the Committee believes that the base salaries of the Corporation's executive officers are generally in the median of salaries for comparable positions. Mr. Murdy's base salary is consistent with the Corporation's compensation philosophy that base salaries be set at approximately the median for comparable positions.

Annual Cash Incentives. Annual cash incentive awards are made pursuant to the Corporation's Annual Incentive Compensation Plan (AICP). The named executive officers (and other senior management) are eligible to receive both a corporate performance bonus and a personal performance bonus. Participants in the AICP are assigned target awards as a percentage of their eligible base salary. Target award percentages increase at higher management levels to 100% of eligible base salary in the case of the Chief Executive Officer. The weighting of corporate performance and personal performance factors varies by participant, and in the case of Mr. Murdy is approximately two-thirds corporate performance and one-third personal performance at target.

The 2003 corporate performance bonus was paid in cash based upon new economic performance goals, which consist of (a) certain goals relating to net asset value, (b) certain reserve replacement goals, (c) certain free cash flow goals, and (d) an earnings goal. All of these performance goals were established by the Committee. The AICP bonus amount depends on the Corporation's performance against these goals. If the Corporation meets the goals, each eligible employee would receive a payment equal to his or her target percentages level; if the Corporation exceeds the goals, the payment can increase to as high as 200% of the target percentages level; if the Corporation does not meet the goals, the payment can decrease and, if the Corporation fails to achieve certain threshold performance, the payment will not be made at all. In 2003, the Corporation's executive officers and other senior management achieved a corporate performance percentage of 183.1% of target performance, based on the Corporation's actual performance results as compared to the 2003 economic performance goals.

The personal performance bonus is also paid in cash. Target bonus levels are determined by the executives' grade level within the executive grade structure, and payouts are based on an evaluation of each executive's personal contribution to the Corporation. In 2003, the maximum payout percentage for the personal performance bonus was reduced from 200% to a maximum of 150% of the target level for the grade (with awards paid above target based on exemplary performance). Performance deemed to fall below expectations will result in a payment below the target level, or in some case no payment at all. In 2003, personal performance awards to the named executive officers and other AICP participants were based on certain factors such as the individual goals and accomplishments of the relevant executive officer, as well as such executive officer's contributions to the positive results realized by the Corporation during 2003.

Mr. Murdy's total 2003 AICP bonus of $1,248,283 was equal to 172% of his 2003 base salary. Mr. Murdy's corporate performance bonus of $889,408 (71% of such total award) was based on a payout percentage of 183.1%, as described above. His personal performance bonus of $358,875 (29% of such total award) was based on Mr. Murdy's personal performance evaluation. In evaluating Mr. Murdy's overall performance, the Committee considered the following accomplishments and positive results in 2003:

Net income of $475.7 million ($1.16 per share, basic) for 2003, an increase of 208% from $154.3 million ($0.42 per share, basic) for 2002.

Record year-end equity gold reserves of 91.3 million ounces, a 5% increase from reserves reported at year-end 2002.

The approval of the Ahafo project in Ghana (following unanimous parliamentary approval of a foreign investment agreement with the government), and the Phoenix project in Nevada. These two projects, together with ongoing projects such as Leeville in Nevada, will position the Corporation to increase future production with lower cost operations.

Completion of the successful integration of Franco-Nevada and Normandy, and substantial progress with respect to asset rationalization based on the execution of more than 40 value-accretive transactions during 2003.

Debt reduction of $739 million (41%) from year-end 2002, with cash and cash equivalents exceeding consolidated debt at the end of 2003 by $237 million.

Substantial elimination of the inherited Newmont Australia Limited hedge books, including complete elimination of the Yandal hedge book.

Table of Contents

Completion of an over-subscribed equity offering of 25 million shares in November, at $42.40 per share, for gross proceeds of approximately $1 billion.

Implementation of the Five Star Management System at all operating sites, which focuses on employee health and safety, environmental protection, and social responsibility and community relations.

Restricted Stock Awards. The Corporation's new executive compensation program also includes awards of restricted stock based on the Corporation's performance. Restricted stock awards are intended to reward the named executive officers and other eligible executives based on the attainment of economic performance goals established by the Committee. These goals track the corporate performance goals established under the AICP, as described above, and the Corporation must achieve certain threshold performance before any restricted stock awards are paid. Awards are paid in the form of restricted shares of Newmont Common Stock under the Newmont Mining Corporation 1999 Employees Stock Plan, with such shares vesting in equal installments over three years. Prior to the vesting of any restricted stock, a recipient has the right to vote such shares and to receive dividends. Once the shares are vested, a recipient has all the rights of full ownership. Executives are assigned target awards as a percentage of their eligible base salary. For 2003 these target percentages ranged from 40% to 135%. As with the AICP, the restricted stock bonus amount depends on the Corporation's performance against these goals. If the Corporation meets the goals, each eligible employee would receive a payment equal to his or her target percentage level; if the Corporation exceeds the goals, the payment can increase to as high as 200% of the target percentage level; if the Corporation does not meet the goals, the payment can decrease and, if the Corporation fails to achieve certain threshold performance, the payment will not be made at all. In 2003, the Corporation's executive officers and other senior management achieved a corporate performance percentage of 183.1% of target performance, based on the Corporation's actual performance results as compared to the 2003 economic performance goals.

In recognition of Mr. Murdy's contributions to the Corporation during 2003, the Committee, according to the performance payout level of 183.1% of target, awarded Mr. Murdy a bonus of 42,628 restricted shares of Newmont Common Stock with a value of $1,792,091 as of the date of grant.

The new executive compensation program eliminates the Intermediate Term Incentive Compensation Plan (ITIP), which paid bonuses in the form of cash and restricted stock based on a consolidated three-year performance measurement. The elimination of the ITIP results in a reduction in total direct compensation for the executive team, including for Mr. Murdy, over the next three years. In order to address this reduction, the Committee approved a three-year cash transition payment to those executives who previously participated in the ITIP. The transition payment is also based on the Corporation's achievement of the new corporate performance goals under the AICP, which paid out at 183.1% based on the Corporation's actual performance during 2003. The 2003 transition payment for Mr. Murdy was $565,321.

Stock Options. Stock options, the fourth element of executive compensation, are a long-term incentive designed to link executive rewards with stockholder value over time. The award of stock options promotes the creation of stockholder value because the benefits cannot be realized unless stock price appreciation occurs. The Committee believes that the number of stock options awarded should be sufficient in amount to provide a strong incentive to increase stockholder value, with the number of options increasing in proportion to the relative potential influence of the recipient on overall performance of the Corporation. In addition, the Committee believes that option awards are intended to reward recipients making a long-term commitment to the Corporation. The stock options granted to Mr. Murdy and other executives vest over three years. In considering the amount of stock options to be awarded to Mr. Murdy, the Committee considered the Corporation's performance and relative stockholder return, the value of similar incentives awarded to chief executive officers of comparable companies and the awards granted in prior years. During 2003, the Committee granted to Mr. Murdy options to purchase 110,000 shares of common stock.

Summary. The Committee believes that the combination of competitive base salaries, annual incentives paid in cash, intermediate term incentive compensation paid in restricted stock, and stock options comprises a highly-effective and motivational senior executive compensation program, which works to attract and retain talented executives and strongly aligns the interests of senior management with those of the stockholders of the Corporation in seeking to achieve over time above-average long-term returns on investment.

The Audit Committee has established procedures for engagement of PwC to perform services other than audit, review and attest services. In order to safeguard the independence of PwC, for each engagement to perform such non-audit service, (a) management and PwC affirm to the Audit Committee that the proposed non-audit service is not prohibited by applicable laws, rules or regulations; (b) management describes the reasons for hiring PwC to perform the services; and (c) PwC affirms to the Audit Committee that it is qualified to perform the services. The Audit Committee has delegated to the Chairman its authority to pre-approve such services in limited circumstances, and any such pre-approvals are reported to the Audit Committee at its next regular meeting. All services provided by PwC in 2003 were permissible under applicable laws, rules and regulations and were pre-approved by the Audit Committee in accordance with its procedures. The Audit Committee considered the amount of non-audit services provided by PwC in assessing its independence.

Former Auditors.

Newmont's Board of Directors, upon recommendation of the Audit Committee, approved dismissal of Arthur Andersen LLP (Andersen) as the Corporation's independent auditors effective May 23, 2002.

Andersen served as the Corporation's independent auditors for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2001. Andersen's report on the Corporation's financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2001 (the Report) did not contain an adverse opinion or disclaimer of opinion and was not qualified or modified as to uncertainty, audit scope or accounting principles. During the fiscal year ended December 31, 2001, and the subsequent interim period through March 31, 2002, there were no disagreements with Andersen within the meaning of Instruction 4 of Item 304 of Regulation S-K on any matter of accounting principles or practices, financial statement disclosure, or auditing scope or procedure, which disagreements if not resolved to Andersen's satisfaction would have caused Andersen to make reference to the subject matter of the disagreements in connection with its Report. During the term of Andersen's engagement, there were no reportable events (as such term is defined in Item 304(a)(1)(v) of Regulation S-K promulgated under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934).

The Board of Directors appointed the firm of PwC to serve as the Corporation's independent auditors for fiscal year 2002. PwC's engagement commenced May 23, 2002. On May 23, 2002, the Corporation filed a Current Report on Form 8-K, reporting the dismissal of Andersen and engagement of PwC. A letter from Andersen addressed to the Securities and Exchange Commission stating that Andersen agrees with the statements made by the Corporation in the Current Report on Form 8-K was included as Exhibit 16.1.

Proposal No. 3 Stockholder Proposal

The Corporation has been advised that the following resolution and statement in support thereof may be presented by or on behalf of a beneficial owner of Newmont's common stock at the Annual Meeting of Stockholders. The following is the text of the shareholder proposal, as submitted:

3-Shareholder Input on a Poison Pill

RESOLVED: Shareholders request that our Directors increase shareholder voting rights and submit any adoption, maintenance or extension of a poison pill to a shareholder vote as a separate ballot item on the earliest possible shareholder ballot. Also once this proposal is adopted, any material change or discontinuing of this proposal is requested to be submitted to a shareholder vote as a separate ballot item at the earliest subsequent shareholder ballot.

This topic won an overall 60% yes-vote at 79 companies in 2003.¹ I do not see how our Directors could object to this proposal because it gives Directors the flexibility to ignore our shareholder vote if our Directors seriously believe that they have a good reason. I believe that there is a greater tendency for shareholders, who more closely follow our company, to vote in favor of this proposal topic.

Emil Rossi, P.O. Box 249, Boonville, Calif. 95415 submitted this proposal.

The Potential of a Tender Offer Can Motivate Our Directors

Hectoring directors to act more independently is a poor substitute for the bracing possibility that shareholders could turn on a dime and sell the company out from under its present management.

Council of Institutional Investors Recommendation²

The Council of Institutional Investors www.cii.org, an organization of 130 pension funds investing $2 trillion, called for shareholder approval of poison pills.^{2, 3} Based on the 60% overall yes-vote in 2003 many shareholders believe companies should allow their shareholders a vote.

Newmont's Response in Opposition to Proposal.

The Corporation has maintained a Shareholder Rights Plan for many years, which is the type of plan referred to as a "Poison Pill" and challenged by the foregoing proposal. Studies suggest that rights plans serve their principal objectives—protection against inadequate offers and abusive tactics and increased bargaining power resulting in higher value for shareholders in certain cases. A recent independent study released by Institutional Shareholder Services (ISS) found that strong takeover defenses are correlated with higher shareholder returns, stronger profitability measures, higher dividend payouts and other positive financial measures.¹

The Board of Directors adopted the rights plan to assure that all shareholders receive fair and equal treatment and because it believes the rights plan can help maximize shareholder value in the event of a proposed takeover of the Corporation. The rights plan provides the Board with more time to negotiate and to make decisions in a transaction involving control of the Corporation.

The rights plan does not prevent a takeover, and will not interfere with any merger or other business combination approved by the Board. The rights plan simply imposes a significant penalty upon any person or group which acquires 15% (the Board may reduce this amount to not less than 10%) or more of our outstanding common stock without approval of the Board. The effect is to give anyone seeking to purchase control of Newmont a strong incentive to deal with the Board, which, in turn, gives the Board the opportunity to insist that the price paid to our shareholders is fair and adequately represents the Corporation's true value.

Newmont's rights plan does not eliminate the obligation of directors to exercise their fiduciary duty as required under Delaware law. Our Board, which is composed of a majority of independent directors, would have the obligation, notwithstanding the existence of the rights plan, to act in the best interests of our shareholders in response to a takeover proposal.

Rights plans have been adopted by over 2,000 companies, including nearly 60% of the companies listed on the Standard & Poor's 500 index. Studies indicate that, on balance, shareholders of corporations with rights plans receive greater value in the event of a change of control than do shareholders whose companies do not have rights plans. The Board believes that the Corporation's and its shareholders' interests are best served by the Board continuing to make decisions regarding the adoption, maintenance or extension of a rights plan consistent with the fulfillment of its fiduciary duties. The Board unanimously recommends a vote against this proposal, which it believes could eliminate or limit its discretion to act in what it reasonably believes to be in the best interests of the Corporation and its shareholders in the future.

Board Recommendation.

THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS RECOMMENDS THAT STOCKHOLDERS VOTE AGAINST PROPOSAL NO. 3.

NEWMONT MINING CORPORATION

Notice to Exchangeable Shareholders

Our records show that you hold Exchangeable Shares of Newmont Mining Corporation of Canada Limited (Newmont Canada, formerly known as Franco-Nevada Mining Corporation Limited), a Canadian company. The Exchangeable Shares provide you with economic and voting rights that are, as nearly as practicable, equivalent to those of holders of shares of common stock of Newmont Mining Corporation (the Company), the U.S. parent of Newmont Canada, including the right to attend and vote at meetings of the common stockholders of the Company. The Company will be holding an annual meeting (the Annual Meeting) of its common stockholders on April 28, 2004 to Elect directors;

Ratify the Audit Committee s appointment of PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP as Newmont s independent auditors for 2004;

Consider and act upon a certain stockholder proposal set forth in the accompanying Proxy Statement, if introduced at the meeting; and Transact such other business that may properly come before the meeting.

At such Annual Meeting you will have voting rights, based on the number of Exchangeable Shares you hold. You are permitted to instruct Computershare Trust Company of Canada, the Trustee under a Voting and Exchange Trust Agreement as to how the Trustee is to vote your Exchangeable Shares at the Annual Meeting of the Company. If you do not give voting instructions, the Trustee will not be entitled to exercise the voting rights attached to your Exchangeable Shares. Alternatively, you may instruct the Trustee to give you or a person designated by you a proxy to exercise personally the voting rights attached to your Exchangeable Shares. To instruct the Trustee as to how you wish to exercise your voting rights, you must complete, sign, date and return the enclosed Voting Instruction Form to the Trustee by 5:00 p.m., Toronto time, on April 22, 2004. The Trustee will not be obligated to act on any instructions received after that time.

You have the right to revoke any instructions to the Trustee by giving written notice of revocation to the Trustee or by executing and delivering to the Trustee a later-dated Voting Instruction Form. No notice of revocation or later-dated Voting Instruction Form, however, will be effective unless received by the Trustee prior to 5:00 p.m., Toronto time, on April 22, 2004.

Whether or not you plan to attend the Annual Meeting, please sign, date and return the Voting Instruction Form in the envelope provided in order to ensure that your Exchangeable Shares will be represented at the Annual Meeting.

Non-Registered Holders

Only registered holders of Exchangeable Shares of Newmont Canada are permitted to instruct the Trustee as to how to vote their Exchangeable Shares at the Annual Meeting or to attend and vote at the Annual Meeting in person or by proxy as described above. You may be a beneficial owner of Exchangeable Shares (a Non-Registered Holder) if your Exchangeable Shares are registered either:

- (i) in the name of an intermediary (an Intermediary) with whom you deal in respect of the Exchangeable Shares, such as, among others, banks, trust companies, securities dealers or brokers and trustees or administrators of self-administered RRSPs, RRIFs, RESPs and similar plans; or

- (ii) in the name of a clearing agency (such as The Canadian Depository for Securities Limited) of which the Intermediary is a participant.

Newmont Canada has distributed copies of the Notice of Meeting, the Proxy Statement dated March 18, 2004 and this Notice to Exchangeable Shareholders (collectively, the meeting materials) to Intermediaries who are required to forward these meeting materials to Non-Registered Holders unless a Non-Registered Holder has waived the right to receive them. If you are a Non-Registered Holder who has not waived the right to receive meeting materials you will be given either:

- (i) a voting instruction form, which has already been signed by the Intermediary (typically by a facsimile, stamped signature) which specifies the number of Exchangeable Shares beneficially owned by you but which is otherwise uncompleted. This voting instruction form need not be signed by you. In this case, if you wish to direct the voting of the Exchangeable Shares held by you or attend and vote at the Annual Meeting (or have another person attend and vote on your behalf) you should properly complete the voting instruction form and deposit it with Computershare Trust Company of Canada, 100 University Avenue, 9th Floor, Toronto, Ontario M5J 2Y1 or by fax to (416) 981-9800 prior to 5:00 p.m., Toronto time, on April 22, 2004; or
- (ii) a voting instruction form, which must be completed and signed by you in accordance with the directions on the voting instruction form (which may in some cases permit the completion of the voting instruction form by telephone).

The purpose of these procedures is to permit you, as a Non-Registered Holder, to direct the voting of the Exchangeable Shares you beneficially own or to attend and vote at the Annual Meeting, in person or by proxy. Non-Registered Holders should carefully follow the instructions of their Intermediaries and their service companies.

A Non-Registered Holder may revoke a voting instruction form given to an Intermediary at any time by written notice to the Intermediary, except that an Intermediary is not required to act on a revocation of a voting instruction form that is not received by the Intermediary at least seven days prior to the Annual Meeting.

Information Relating to Newmont Mining Corporation

Exchangeable Shares are exchangeable on a one-for-one basis for shares of common stock of the Company and you, as a holder of Exchangeable Shares, are entitled to receive dividends from the Company payable at the same time as and equivalent to, on a per-share basis, any dividends paid by the Company to holders of its shares of common stock. As a result of the economic equivalency and voting rights between the Exchangeable Shares and shares of common stock of the Company you, as a holder of Exchangeable Shares, will have a participating interest determined by reference to the Company and not Newmont Canada. Accordingly, it is information related to the Company that is relevant to you and enclosed in this package is the Company's Proxy Statement which we urge you to read carefully.

Term of Exchangeable Shares Extended

On March 15, 2004, the Company and Newmont Canada entered an agreement pursuant to which, it was agreed that the outstanding Exchangeable Shares will not be redeemed at the election of Newmont Canada before February 16, 2014, except in certain specified circumstances. Prior to this action, the date on which Newmont Canada could elect to redeem the Exchangeable Shares at its option could be no earlier than February 16, 2009, except in certain specific circumstances. The circumstances in which Newmont Canada may, at its option, continue to redeem Exchangeable Shares before February 16, 2014 are:

- (a) there are fewer than 1,000,000 Exchangeable Shares outstanding (other than Exchangeable Shares held by the Company or its affiliates and subject to necessary adjustments to such number of shares to reflect permitted changes to Exchangeable Shares);

- (b) any merger, amalgamation, arrangement, take-over bid or tender offer, material sale of shares or rights or interest therein or thereto or similar transactions involving the Company, or any proposal to do so occurs, in which case, provided that the board of directors of Newmont Canada determines, in good faith and in its sole discretion, that it is not reasonably practicable to substantially replicate the terms and conditions of the Exchangeable Shares in connection with such transaction and that the redemption of all but not less than all of the outstanding Exchangeable Shares is necessary to enable the completion of such transaction in accordance with its term, the board of directors of Newmont Canada may accelerate the redemption date to such date as it may determine, upon such number of days prior written notice to the holders of the Exchangeable Shares and the Voting and Exchange Trustee as the board of directors of Newmont Canada may determine to be reasonably practicable in such circumstances;

- (c) an Exchangeable Share Voting Event (as defined below) that is not an Exempt Exchangeable Share Voting Event (as defined below) is proposed and (i) the holders of the Exchangeable Shares fail to take the necessary action, at a meeting or other vote of holders of Exchangeable Shares, to approve or disapprove, as applicable, the Exchangeable Share Voting Event or the holders of the Exchangeable Shares do take the necessary action but in connection therewith, more than 2% of the holders of Exchangeable Shares exercise rights of dissent under the Canada Business Corporations Act, and (ii) the board of directors of Newmont Canada determines in good faith that it is not reasonably practicable to accomplish the business purpose (which business purpose must be bona fide and not for the primary purpose of causing the occurrence of the redemption date) intended by the Exchangeable Share Voting Event in a commercially reasonable manner that does not result in an Exchangeable Share Voting Event, in which case the redemption date shall be the business day following the day on which the holders of the Exchangeable Shares failed to take such action, or the board of directors of Newmont Canada makes its determination, as applicable;
- (d) an Exempt Exchangeable Share Voting Event is proposed and holders of the Exchangeable Shares fail to take the necessary action at a meeting or other vote of holders of Exchangeable Shares to approve or disapprove, as applicable, the Exempt Exchangeable Share Voting Event, in which case the redemption date shall be the business day following the day on which the holders of the Exchangeable Shares failed to take such action; or
- (e) Canadian tax legislation is amended and becomes effective such that substantially all Canadian resident holders of Exchangeable Shares may exchange their Exchangeable Shares for shares of the common stock of the Company on a tax deferred basis for Canadian income tax purposes.

For the purposes of paragraphs (c) and (d) above, the term Exchangeable Share Voting Event means any matter in respect of which holders of Exchangeable Shares are entitled to vote as shareholders of Newmont Canada and in respect of which the board of directors of Newmont Canada determines that after giving effect to such matter the economic equivalence of the Exchangeable Shares and the shares of the common stock of the Company is maintained for the holders of Exchangeable Shares (other than the Company and its affiliates) and the term Exempt Exchangeable Share Voting Event means an Exchangeable Share Voting Event in order to approve or disapprove, as applicable, any change to, or in the rights of the holders of, the Exchangeable Shares, where the approval or disapproval, as applicable, of such change would be required to maintain the economic equivalence of the Exchangeable Shares and the shares of the common stock of the Company.
