This Form 6-K contains forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 as amended, and information that is based on management's beliefs as well as assumptions made by and information currently available to management. When used in this Form 6-K, the words anticipate, approach, begin, believe, continue, expect, forecast, going forward, improved, likely, look for, outlook, plans, potential, proposal, should and would and similar expressions are intended to identify forward-looking statements. These forward-looking statements necessarily make assumptions, some of which are inherently subject to uncertainties and contingencies that are beyond the Company's control. Should one or more of these uncertainties materialize, or should underlying assumptions prove incorrect, actual results may vary materially from those anticipated, expected, estimated or projected. Specifically, the ability of the Company to realize its ongoing commitment to increasing shareholder value through its ongoing restructuring, asset dispositions, strategic review and implementation, and cost cutting initiatives, may be affected by many factors including: uncertainties and contingencies such as economic conditions both in the world and in those areas where the Company has or will have substantial operations; foreign currency exchange rates; pricing pressures on products produced by its subsidiaries; growth prospects; positioning of its business segments; future production output capacity; and the success of the Company's business strategies, including further structural and operational changes, business dispositions, internal reorganizations, cost cutting, and consolidations.

Ansell Limited Appoints New CEO

Ansell Limited announced today the appointment of Douglas D. Tough to succeed Harry Boon who will retire as Chief Executive Officer and Managing Director on 30 June 2004.

Prior to joining Ansell, Mr Tough, a dual citizen of Canada and USA, spent 17 years with Cadbury Schweppes plc in a number of international and domestic leadership roles, most recently as President and Chief Executive Officer of its largest division worldwide, Dr Pepper/Seven Up, North America. Mr Tough has also had some 12 years experience with Procter & Gamble in various sales and marketing assignments.

In making the announcement, Ansell Chairman Dr Ed Tweddell said, "Doug's appointment follows an extensive global search that produced a strong panel of candidates. We are delighted that Doug has accepted the position and we look forward to drawing on his significant international experience as Ansell continues to build on the solid foundation that has been laid by Harry Boon and his team over the past several years."

Dr Tweddell went on to say "Doug comes to Ansell with an impressive track record having successfully developed and implemented strategic growth plans at billion dollar plus businesses in North America, Latin America, Asia and Europe, the regions in which Ansell operates."

Mr Tough will be located at Ansell's operational headquarters in Red Bank, New Jersey, USA.

Disclosure in accordance with ASX Corporate Governance Recommendation 9.1:

The remuneration package of the new Chief Executive Officer and Managing Director who will be located at Ansell's operational headquarters in Red Bank, New Jersey, USA, comprises a base salary package of US$650,000 per annum, augmented by participation in the Company's short-term incentive plan which provides for a cash bonus of an amount equal to 75% of base salary for achieving specified annual performance targets increasing to a maximum of 150% of base salary if annual stretch targets are met.

The Chief Executive Officer and Managing Director will also participate in the Company's long-term incentive plan. His initial participation will be by way of:

- (a) a total grant of 525,000 options over Ansell shares of which two thirds would vest in equal tranches upon achievement of long-term performance targets in each of the first three years with the remaining one third vesting if stretch performance targets in each of those years are met.
- (b) a total allocation of 150,000 performance share rights (PSRs) of which two thirds would vest in equal tranches upon achievement of long-term performance targets in each of the first three years, with the remaining one third vesting if stretch targets in each of those years are met.

He will also participate in the Company's U.S. retirement plan.

The Chief Executive Officer and Managing Director must provide 6 months notice of his resignation and will in general, be entitled to a lump-sum termination payment equivalent to 18 months of base salary if the Company wishes to terminate his employment within 3 years of his commencement date, or 12 months of base salary after the first 3 years of his employment.
