Consolidated Financial Results

April 1, 2006 June 30, 2006

August 10, 2006

In preparing its consolidated financial information, ORIX Corporation and its subsidiaries have complied with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, except as modified to account for stock splits in accordance with the usual practice in Japan.

U.S. Dollar amounts have been calculated at Yen 115.24 to $1.00, the approximate exchange rate prevailing at June 30, 2006.

These documents may contain forward-looking statements about expected future events and financial results that involve risks and uncertainties. Such statements are based on our current expectations and are subject to uncertainties and risks that could cause actual results to differ materially from those described in the forward-looking statements. Factors that could cause such a difference include, but are not limited to, those described under "Risk Factors" in the Company's annual report on Form 20-F filed with the United States Securities and Exchange Commission.

The Company believes that it will be considered a "passive foreign investment company" for United States Federal income tax purpose in the year to which these consolidated financial results relate and for the foreseeable future by reason of the composition of its assets and the nature of its income. A U.S. holder of the shares or ADSs of the Company is therefore subject to special rules generally intended to eliminate any benefits from the deferral of U.S. Federal income tax that a holder could derive from investing in a foreign corporation that does not distribute all of its earnings on a current basis. Investors should consult their tax advisors with respect to such rules, which are summarized in the Company's annual report.

ROA (Annualized)	2.60% (June 30, 2005: 2.47%)

* Income before income taxes refers to income before income taxes, minority interests in earnings of subsidiaries and discontinued operations.

Revenues: 273,839 million yen (Up 27% year on year)

Revenues increased 27% to 273,839 million yen compared with the same period of the previous fiscal year. Although life insurance premiums and related investment income decreased year on year, revenues from direct financing leases, operating leases, interest on loans and investment securities, brokerage commissions and net gains on investment securities, real estate sales, gains on sales of real estate under operating leases, and other operating revenues were up compared to the same period of the previous fiscal year.

Revenues from direct financing leases increased 7% to 23,791 million yen compared to the same period of the previous fiscal year. In Japan, revenues from direct financing leases were down 4% to 15,597 million yen compared to 16,263 million yen in the same period of the previous fiscal year due to the lower level of operating assets. Overseas, revenues were up 38% to 8,194 million yen compared to 5,947 million yen in the same period of the previous fiscal year due to the depreciation of the yen against the dollar in The Americas segment and the expansion of the leasing operations in the Asia, Oceania and Europe segment.

Revenues from operating leases increased 22% to 63,409 million yen compared to the same period of the previous fiscal year. In Japan, although revenues from the precision measuring and other equipment rental operations were flat year on year, there was an increase in automobile and real estate operating leases that resulted in a 20% increase to 47,716 million yen compared to 39,844 million yen in the same period of the previous fiscal year. Overseas, revenues were up 31% to 15,693 million yen compared to 11,971 million yen in the same period of the previous fiscal year due to the expansion of automobile operating leases and the recognition of gains on the sale of operating lease assets.

Revenues from interest on loans and investment securities increased 20% to 43,219 million yen compared to the same period of the previous fiscal year. In Japan, interest on loans and investment securities increased 17% to 33,910 million yen compared to 29,011 million yen in the same period of the previous fiscal year due to an expansion of revenues associated with loans to corporate customers, including non-recourse loans. Overseas, revenues were up 32% to 9,309 million yen compared to 7,053 million yen in the same period of the previous fiscal year due to the contribution from loans to corporate customers in The Americas segment.

Revenues from brokerage commissions and net gains on investment securities increased 24% to 10,450 million yen compared to the same period of the previous fiscal year. Brokerage commissions were up 66% year on year due to the steady stock market in Japan. Net gains on investment securities were up 16% year on year due mainly to the strong results of the venture capital operations in Japan and contribution from revenues of securities investments in The Americas segment.

Table of Contents

Life insurance premiums and related investment income were down 2% year on year to 29,669 million yen. Life insurance premiums were flat year on year, while life insurance related investment income decreased year on year.

Real estate sales increased 51% year on year to 29,025 million yen due to an increase in the number of condominiums sold to buyers from 414 units in the first quarter of the previous fiscal year to 780 units in the first quarter of this fiscal year.

Gains on sales of real estate under operating leases (refer to the (Note) below) increased 96% year on year to 11,410 million yen due to an increase in sales of office buildings and other real estate under operating leases.

Other operating revenues increased 50% year on year to 62,866 million yen. In Japan, revenues were up 21% to 49,598 million yen compared to 41,136 million yen in the same period of the previous fiscal year due to increases in revenues associated with our integrated facilities management operations, automobile maintenance service operations, and contribution of servicing fees from our loan servicing operations. Overseas, revenues largely increased to 13,268 million yen compared to 845 million yen in the same period of the previous fiscal year due to the contribution from the beginning of the first quarter of this fiscal year of an investment bank Houlihan Lokey Howard & Zukin (HLHZ) that entered the ORIX Group in the fourth quarter of the previous fiscal year and is included in The Americas segment.

Note: Subsidiaries, business units, and certain rental properties sold or to be disposed of by sale without significant continuing involvements are reported under discontinued operations and the related amounts that had been previously reported have been reclassified retroactively.

Expenses: 203,815 million yen (Up 23% year on year)

Expenses increased 23% to 203,815 million yen compared with the same period of the previous fiscal year. Although life insurance costs, provision for doubtful receivables and probable loan losses, and write-downs of securities were down year on year, interest expense, costs of operating leases, costs of real estate sales, other operating expenses, and selling, general and administrative expenses increased year on year.

Interest expense was up 31% year on year to 18,550 million yen. In Japan, interest expense increased 17% year on year due to the higher average debt levels. Overseas, interest expense increased 50% year on year due to the higher average debt levels and higher interest rates.

Costs of operating leases were up 16% year on year to 39,083 million yen accompanying the increase in the average balance of investment in operating leases.

Life insurance costs decreased slightly year on year to 27,071 million yen.

Costs of real estate sales were up 37% year on year to 22,910 million yen along with the increase in real estate sales.

Other operating expenses were up 18% year on year to 32,571 million yen along with the increase in other operating revenues.

Selling, general and administrative expenses were up 44% year on year to 59,003 million yen due to an increase in personnel and related expenses associated with HLHZ, which is included in The Americas segment and entered the ORIX Group in the fourth quarter of the previous fiscal year, as well as an increase in the number of employees in the Corporate Financial Services and Automobile Operations segments in an effort to further expand our sales platform in Japan.

Table of Contents

Provision for doubtful receivables and probable loan losses was down 43% year on year to 2,670 million yen due to a lower occurrence of new non-performing assets despite an increase in operating assets and some reversals of the provision for doubtful receivables and probable loan losses.

There were no write-downs of long-lived assets recorded in the first quarter of this fiscal year.

Write-downs of securities were down 13% year on year to 1,559 million yen.

Net Income: 47,103 million yen (Up 25% year on year)

Operating income was up 41% year on year to 70,024 million yen.

Equity in net income of affiliates was up 25% to 9,074 million yen compared to the same period of the previous fiscal year due to the increase in profits from equity method affiliates in Japan and overseas.

Gains on sales of subsidiaries and affiliates and liquidation loss were down 53% year on year to 681 million yen.

Income before income taxes, minority interests in earnings of subsidiaries and discontinued operations increased 36% year on year to 79,779 million yen.

Minority interests in earnings of subsidiaries, net more than doubled year on year to 896 million yen as a result of the minority interests in earnings of HLHZ that entered the ORIX Group in the fourth quarter of the previous fiscal year and is included in The Americas segment.

Income from continuing operations increased 35% year on year to 46,171 million yen.

Discontinued operations (refer to the (Note) on page 2), net of applicable tax effect decreased 73% year on year to 932 million yen.

As a result, net income increased 25% year on year to 47,103 million yen.

Operating Assets: 5,981,441 million yen (Up 2% on March 31, 2006)

Operating assets were up 2% on March 31, 2006 to 5,981,441 million yen. While investment in direct financing leases and investment in operating leases were flat on March 31, 2006, installment loans, investment in securities, and other operating assets were up.

Segment Information (Segment Profits refer to income before income taxes)

Segment profits for the Corporate Financial Services and Automobile Operations segments were almost flat year on year; declined for the Rental Operations, Life Insurance, and The Americas segments; and increased for the Real Estate-Related Finance, Real Estate, Other, and Asia, Oceania and Europe segments.

Operations in Japan

Corporate Financial Services Segment

Segment revenues were up 14% year on year to 26,248 million yen due mainly to the expansion of loans to corporate customers.

Table of Contents

Although segment revenues increased, segment profits were almost flat year on year at 11,143 million yen due to an increase in selling, general and administrative expenses as a result of upfront costs associated with an increase in the number of employees in an effort to expand our sale and marketing base.

Segment assets increased 5% on March 31, 2006 to 1,690,050 million yen due mainly to an increase in loans to corporate customers and direct financing leases.

Automobile Operations Segment

Segment revenues increased 14% year on year to 36,627 million yen. Although the automobile rental operations were up slightly compared to the same period of the previous fiscal year, the automobile leasing operations were steady due to an increase in operating leases and revenues associated with maintenance services.

Segment profits were flat year on year at 6,258 million yen. Expenses increased along with the increase in revenues from operating leases and maintenance services and due to an increase in selling, general and administrative expenses associated with an increase in the number of employees in an effort to further develop our customer base focusing on increasing our automobile-related business to individuals.

Segment assets increased 3% on March 31, 2006 to 526,245 million yen due to the expansion of the automobile leasing operations that also include operating leases.

Rental Operations Segment

Segment revenues were down 3% year on year to 15,351 million yen due to the recognition of losses on the sale of investment securities although precision measuring and other equipment rentals were flat compared to the same period of the previous fiscal year.

Segment profits decreased 22% to 1,269 million yen compared to 1,634 million yen in the same period of the previous fiscal year accompanying the decrease in segment revenues.

Segment assets were down 2% on March 31, 2006 to 121,039 million yen.

Real Estate-Related Finance Segment

Segment revenues increased 17% year on year to 18,180 million yen due to a contribution from revenues associated with corporate loans, including non-recourse loans, and the loan servicing operations and the steady performance of the housing loan operations.

Segment profits increased 54% to 10,598 million yen compared to 6,892 million yen in the same period of the previous fiscal year due to the higher segment revenues and decrease in provision for doubtful receivables and probable loan losses as a result of a lower occurrence of new non-performing assets.

Segment assets increased 1% on March 31, 2006 to 1,234,172 million yen.

Real Estate Segment

Segment revenues increased 36% year on year to 70,231 million yen due to an increase in revenues associated with condominium sales as more condominiums were sold to buyers in the first quarter of this fiscal year compared with the same period of the previous fiscal year as well as a year on year increase in sales associated with real estate under operating leases.

Segment profits increased 62% to 20,709 million yen compared to 12,781 million yen in the same period of the previous fiscal year in line with the increase in segment revenues.

Segment assets were flat on March 31, 2006 to 689,273 million yen.

Table of Contents

Life Insurance Segment

Segment revenues were down 2% year on year to 29,530 million yen as a result of a decrease in life insurance related investment income, while life insurance premiums were flat compared to the same period of the previous fiscal year.

Segment profits decreased 30% year on year to 1,139 million yen compared to 1,632 million yen in the same period of the previous fiscal year due to lower segment revenues.

Segment assets increased 4% on March 31, 2006 to 509,171 million yen.

Other Segment

Segment revenues increased 24% year on year to 30,588 million yen due to an increase in gains on investment securities at the venture capital operations, revenues associated with the securities operations, and steady trend in revenues at the card loan operations.

Segment profits increased 34% to 10,996 million yen compared to 8,198 million yen in the same period of the previous fiscal year. While gains on the sales of subsidiaries and affiliates and liquidation loss decreased year on year, the higher segment revenues led to the higher segment profits.

Segment assets were down 2% on March 31, 2006 to 657,583 million yen due to a decrease in loans related to margin trading at the securities brokerage operations.

Overseas Operations

The Americas Segment

Segment revenues were up 87% year on year to 23,855 million yen due to the contribution from the beginning of the first quarter of this fiscal year of HLHZ that entered the ORIX Group in the fourth quarter of the previous fiscal year and the increase in revenues associated with corporate loans.

Segment profits decreased 28% to 5,167 million yen compared to 7,152 million yen in the same period of the previous fiscal year due to the decrease in sales of real estate under operating leases and equity in net income of affiliates.

Segment assets were flat on March 31, 2006 to 442,100 million yen.

Asia, Oceania and Europe Segment

Segment revenues were up 18% year on year to 23,941 million yen due to the steady performance of the automobile leasing operations that include operating leases, as well as the recognition of gains on the sale of operating lease assets.

Segment profits increased 54% to 11,624 million yen compared to 7,569 million yen in the same period of the previous fiscal year due to an increase in segment revenues and the steady performance of equity in net income of affiliates.

Segment assets were up 6% on March 31, 2006 to 597,567 million yen due to the increase in installment loans and the purchase of a real estate company in Australia in the first quarter of this fiscal year.

2. Summary of Cash Flows (Three Months Ended June 30, 2006)

Cash and cash equivalents decreased by 96,358 million yen to 149,498 million yen compared to March 31, 2006.

Cash flows from operating activities provided 116,129 million yen in the first quarter of this fiscal year and provided 29,099 million yen in the first quarter of the previous fiscal year due primarily to inflows associated with the increase in net income and decrease in restricted cash.

Cash flows from investing activities used 178,906 million yen in the first quarter of this fiscal year and used 100,677 million yen in the first quarter of the previous fiscal year. There were higher net cash outflows in the first quarter of this fiscal year compared with the first quarter of the previous fiscal year as installment loans made to customers exceeded principal collected on installment loans and the purchase of investment securities exceeded the proceeds from the sales and maturities of investment securities.

Cash flows from financing activities used 33,282 million yen in the first quarter of this fiscal year and provided 73,104 million yen in the first quarter of the previous fiscal year due to a decrease in debt accompanying the increase in cash inflows from operating activities in the first quarter of this fiscal year.
