2. To transact such other business as may be properly brought before the Special Meeting or at any and all adjournments or postponements thereof.

Shareholders of Flag of record at the close of business on October 12, 2006 are entitled to notice of and to vote at the Special Meeting and at any adjournments or postponements thereof. In order for the proposal to approve the Merger Agreement to be adopted, the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of Flag common stock entitled to vote must vote in favor of approval of the Merger Agreement. Abstentions and broker non-votes will have the same effect as votes against approval of the Merger Agreement. You are cordially invited to attend the Special Meeting in person; however, whether or not you plan to attend, we urge you to complete, date and sign the accompanying proxy card and to return it promptly in the enclosed postage prepaid envelope. If you wish to attend the Special Meeting and your shares are held in the name of a broker, trust, bank or other nominee, you must bring with you a proxy or letter from the broker, trust, bank or other nominee to confirm your beneficial ownership of the shares.

If the Merger is completed, shareholders perfecting their dissenters' rights therefrom are entitled, if they have complied with the provisions of the Georgia Business Corporation Code regarding rights of dissenting shareholders, to be paid the fair market value of their shares in cash. See The Merger - Dissenters' Rights in the accompanying proxy statement and Appendix B thereto for a description of the procedures required to be followed in order to perfect dissenters' rights.

PROXY STATEMENT OF FLAG FINANCIAL CORPORATION
FOR THE SPECIAL MEETING OF SHAREHOLDERS
TO BE HELD NOVEMBER 21, 2006
YOUR VOTE IS VERY IMPORTANT

The Boards of Directors of Flag Financial Corporation (Flag) and RBC Centura Banks, Inc. (RBC Centura) have approved an Agreement and Plan of Merger dated as of August 9, 2006 and supplemented as of September 6, 2006 (the Merger Agreement), by and among Flag, RBC Centura and Flag Acquisition Sub, Inc., a wholly owned subsidiary of RBC Centura, a copy of which is attached as Appendix A. Pursuant to the terms of the Merger Agreement, Flag Acquisition Sub will be merged (the Merger) with and into Flag with Flag surviving, after which Flag will become a wholly owned subsidiary of RBC Centura.

If the Merger Agreement is approved by Flag s shareholders, upon the effective date of the Merger, each outstanding share of Flag common stock will be converted into the right to receive $25.50 in cash.

At the Special Meeting of Flag Shareholders (the Special Meeting), you are entitled to consider and vote on the Merger Agreement. The Merger cannot be completed unless holders of at least a majority of the issued and outstanding shares of Flag common stock approve it. No vote of RBC Centura shareholders is required to approve the Merger Agreement. Consummation of the Merger is also subject to regulatory approvals and other conditions set forth in the Merger Agreement, as more fully discussed in this proxy statement.

The date, time and place of the meeting are:

Tuesday, November 21, 2006, 1:00 p.m. local time

3475 Piedmont Road, N.E., Suite 550

Atlanta, Georgia 30305

This proxy statement provides you with detailed information about the proposed Merger. We urge you to read carefully the Merger Agreement at Appendix A, along with the rest of this proxy statement, including the Appendices, before deciding how to vote on the Merger Agreement.

Whether or not you plan to attend the Special Meeting, please take the time to vote by completing and mailing the enclosed proxy card to us. Because the Merger requires the affirmative vote of the holders of Flag common stock, if you fail to return your card or vote in person, the effect will be a vote against approval of the Merger Agreement. Your vote is very important. You can revoke your proxy by writing to Flag s Secretary any time before the Special Meeting at 3475 Piedmont Road, N.E., Suite 550, Atlanta, Georgia 30305, by submitting a later-dated proxy, or by attending the Special Meeting and voting in person.

On behalf of the board of directors of Flag, we urge you to vote FOR approval and adoption of the Merger Agreement.

/s/ Joseph W. Evans

Joseph W. Evans

SUMMARY

This summary highlights selected information from this proxy statement. It may not contain all of the information that is important to you. To better understand the Merger and its potential impact on you, we urge you to read this entire proxy statement and the documents incorporated by reference into this proxy statement carefully. See Additional Information for Shareholders on page 52. Each item in this summary includes a page reference directing you to a more detailed discussion of the item.

Flag will hold its Special Meeting on Tuesday, November 21, 2006 at 1:00 p.m. local time at its offices located at 3475 Piedmont Road, N.E., Suite 550, Atlanta, Georgia 30305.

Record Date, Voting Rights and Vote Required (page 12)

The record date for the determination of Flag shareholders entitled to notice of and to vote at the Special Meeting is October 12, 2006. On the record date, there were 17,045,750 shares of Flag common stock outstanding, held by approximately 804 holders of record. Each such share of Flag common stock is entitled to one vote on each matter submitted for approval of Flag shareholders at the Special Meeting. Approval of the Merger Agreement requires the affirmative vote of the holders of at least a majority of the outstanding shares of Flag common stock, or the affirmative vote of shareholders holding at least 8,522,876 shares. Failure of a holder of Flag common stock to vote such shares will have the same effect as a vote against the Merger Agreement.

Action on any other matters that properly come before the Special Meeting will be approved if a quorum is present and the votes in favor of the matter exceed the votes against the matter. Presence in person or by proxy of a majority of the outstanding shares of Flag common stock entitled to vote at the Special Meeting will constitute a quorum.

Recommendation of the Board of Directors of Flag (page 14)

Flag's board of directors believes that the Merger is in the best interest of Flag and its shareholders and recommends that the shareholders vote FOR approval of the Merger Agreement.

The Merger

Description of the Merger (page 15)

In the Merger, Flag Acquisition Sub, a newly formed merger subsidiary of RBC Centura, will merge with and into Flag, and Flag will be the surviving company. Following the Merger, Flag will be a wholly owned subsidiary of RBC Centura.

Pursuant to the terms of the Merger Agreement, upon the effective date of the Merger, each outstanding share of Flag common stock shall be converted into the right to receive $25.50 in cash, and each outstanding option to acquire shares of Flag common stock shall be converted into the right to receive a cash payment equal to the difference between the cash Merger consideration and the applicable exercise price of the option, multiplied by the number of shares of common stock covered by the option, less applicable withholding taxes (collectively, the Merger Consideration). The aggregate cash consideration to be paid by RBC Centura for the outstanding shares of Flag and conversion of Flag stock options will be approximately $456 million.

Completion of the Merger is subject to several conditions. We strongly encourage you to carefully read the Merger Agreement in its entirety, a copy of which is attached as Appendix A to this proxy statement, because it is the legal document that governs the Merger.

We are working to complete the Merger as soon as possible. We currently anticipate completing the Merger in late 2006, subject to receipt of shareholder and regulatory approvals and satisfaction of other conditions to closing, including those described in The Merger Agreement Conditions to Consummation of the Merger. See also The Merger Agreement Effective Time of the Merger.

Background of the Merger; Flag's Reasons for the Merger (pages 17 - 19)

A chronological summary of the material events that resulted in approval of the Merger Agreement and the resulting Merger by Flag's board of directors is set forth in The Merger Background of the Merger.

Table of Contents

In reaching its decision to approve and recommend approval of the Merger Agreement, the board of directors of Flag considered a number of factors, including the following:

The value of the consideration to be received by Flag's shareholders relative to the book value and earnings per share of Flag common stock;

Certain information concerning the financial condition, results of operations and business prospects of RBC Centura;

The financial terms of recent business combinations in the financial services industry and a comparison of the multiples of selected combinations with the terms of the proposed transaction with RBC Centura;

The alternatives to the Merger, including remaining an independent institution;

The competitive and regulatory environment for financial institutions generally;

The fact that the Merger will enable Flag shareholders to exchange their shares of Flag common stock for cash;

The opinion of Burke Capital Group, LLC (Burke Capital), that the consideration to be received by Flag's shareholders as a result of the Merger is fair from a financial point of view; and

The complementary aspects of Flag's and RBC Centura's businesses, including customer focus, geographic coverage and business orientation.

In its deliberations, the board of directors of Flag did not assign any relative or specific weight to any of the factors that are discussed above, and individual members of the board of directors of Flag may have given different weights to different factors as they were discussed. In addition, the discussion of the information above and factors considered is not intended to be exhaustive of the factors considered.

Opinion of Flag's Financial Advisor (pages 19-27)

Flag engaged Burke Capital Group as financial advisor to Flag in connection with its review of strategic alternatives. As part of the engagement, Flag asked Burke Capital to evaluate the fairness of the Merger Consideration to Flag's shareholders from a financial point of view. At the August 2, 2006 meeting of Flag's board of directors to evaluate the Merger, Burke Capital delivered to the board its oral opinion that, based upon and subject to various matters set forth in its opinion, the Merger Consideration was fair to Flag's shareholders from a financial point of view. At this meeting, Flag's board approved the Merger, subject to finalizing the Merger Agreement, and subsequently executed Merger Agreement on August 9, 2006. Burke Capital submitted its written opinion letter to the board of directors on August 9, 2006. In connection with rendering its opinion, Burke Capital performed analyses of Flag's performance, comparable public companies, comparable transactions and transaction premiums paid in other recent transactions. In addition, Burke Capital participated in discussions with Flag's management concerning the business strategy, financial performance and prospects of Flag, and the rationale for the Merger.

Table of Contents

We have included Burke Capital's opinion in its entirety as Appendix C to this proxy statement. We urge you to read carefully the opinion in its entirety.

Regulatory Approval of the Merger (page 27)

The Merger will be consummated pending receipt of all requisite regulatory approvals, including the approval of the Federal Reserve Board and the Georgia Department of Banking and Finance (Georgia Banking Department). The parties have made filings with the applicable regulatory authorities. While Flag and RBC Centura believe that they will be able to obtain these regulatory approvals in a timely manner and without burdensome conditions, there can be no assurances that they will be able to do so.

Material United States Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger (page 28)

The exchange of Flag common stock for cash will be a taxable transaction. The exchange of your shares of Flag common stock for cash will be treated as a sale of the stock. Accordingly, shareholders should recognize gain or loss equal to the difference between the amount of cash received and your tax basis in your Flag common stock. The gain or loss generally will be capital gain or loss. Flag shareholders are urged to consult their own tax advisors as to the specific tax consequences to them of the Merger.

Accounting Treatment (page 30)

The Merger will be accounted for by RBC Centura as a purchase transaction in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles in the United States of America. One effect of such accounting treatment is that the earnings of Flag will be combined with the earnings of RBC Centura only from and after the effective date of the Merger.

Dissenters' Rights (page 30)

Georgia law permits Flag's shareholders to dissent from approving the Merger Agreement and to be paid the fair value of their shares paid to them in cash. To do this, shareholders must follow specific procedures, including filing a written notice with Flag prior to Flag's shareholder vote on the Merger Agreement. If you follow the required procedures, your only right will be to receive the fair value of your common stock in cash.

Interest of Certain Persons in the Merger (page 31)

When considering the recommendations of the board of directors, you should be aware that certain directors and officers have interests in the Merger that differ from the interests of other shareholders, including the following:

Employment Agreements. As a condition to RBC Centura's willingness to enter into the Merger Agreement, William Abraham, Kim Michael Childers, Stephen G. Deaton, James Allan LaHaise, Harold R. Lee, Jr., Bradford Watkins and J. Thomas Wiley have entered into employment agreements with RBC Centura, which will become effective upon the consummation of the Merger.

Consulting and Non-Competition Agreements. Each of Stephen W. Doughty, Joseph W. Evans and J. Daniel Speight have entered into a Consulting and Non-Competition Agreement with RBC Centura Bank, a subsidiary of RBC Centura, which will become effective upon the consummation of the Merger.

Table of Contents

Option Payments. In connection with the Merger, each of the stock options held by Flag's executive officers will be converted into the right to receive a cash payment equal to the difference between the Merger Consideration and the applicable exercise price of the option, multiplied by the number of shares of common stock covered by the option, less applicable withholding taxes.

Other than as discussed above, no officers or directors of Flag, nor any of their associates, have any direct or indirect material interest in the Merger, except insofar as the following might be deemed to create such an interest:

potential change in control payments that may be owed following the Merger;

the ownership by such person of Flag common stock;

the continued employment by such person after consummation of the Merger;

after the effective date of the Merger, the eligibility of such persons to participate in RBC Centura employee benefit plans; and indemnification arrangements in certain circumstances as provided in the Merger Agreement.

Additionally, Flag may pay annual and merit-based salary increases to employees in accordance with the Merger Agreement and as approved by the compensation committee. The board of directors of Flag was aware of these interests and considered them, among other matters, in approving the Merger Agreement and related transactions.

Principal Provisions of the Merger Agreement

The Merger Agreement contemplates the Merger of Flag Acquisition Sub, a wholly owned subsidiary of RBC Centura, with and into Flag, with Flag surviving the Merger. Upon the completion of the Merger, Flag will become a wholly owned subsidiary of RBC Centura. The Merger will become effective as of the date and time that Articles of Merger are filed with the Georgia Secretary of State or such other date and time specified in the Articles of Merger.

On September 6, 2006, the parties supplemented the Merger Agreement by adding Flag Acquisition Sub, Inc. as a party to the agreement. All references to the Merger Agreement in this proxy statement mean the Merger Agreement as supplemented.

Representations, Warranties and Covenants (pages 38-39)

The Merger Agreement contains representations and warranties by Flag and by RBC Centura that are customary for agreements of this nature. The Merger Agreement also contains customary covenants. Some of the covenants include Flag's covenant to carry on its business in the same manner as it has done prior to the date of the Merger Agreement and to obtain RBC Centura's consent before engaging in certain activities. In addition, Flag has agreed to provide RBC Centura with notice of certain developments in its business. Flag also agreed that it will not solicit or encourage acquisition proposals from third parties other than RBC Centura or engage in negotiations with or disclose any nonpublic information to any person who is considering making or has made an acquisition proposal to Flag. Flag may, however, provide information to and engage in discussions or negotiations with a potential acquirer other than RBC Centura under certain limited conditions as described in the Merger Agreement.

Table of Contents

Conditions to Consummation of the Merger (page 42)

Consummation of the Merger is subject to various conditions for both parties, including:

the approval of the Merger Agreement by the holders of at least a majority of the outstanding shares of Flag common stock;

receipt of regulatory approvals from the Federal Reserve Board and Georgia Department of Banking without any conditions that impose on RBC Centura ongoing obligations other than those conditions which are customary for such approvals, and the expiration of all applicable waiting periods associated with these approvals; and no court or other legal or regulatory order statute, rule or regulation restrains or prohibits the Merger.

Flag's obligations to complete the Merger are also subject to the following conditions:

the representations and warranties of RBC Centura must be true in all material respects at the time of the Merger, except as a result of changes or events expressly permitted by the Merger Agreement; and RBC Centura must have performed in all material respects its obligations under the Merger Agreement.

RBC Centura's obligations to complete the Merger are also subject to the following conditions:

the representations and warranties of Flag must be true in all material respects at the time of the Merger, except as a result of changes or events expressly permitted by the Merger Agreement;

Flag must have performed in all material respects its obligations under the Merger Agreement;

Flag shall have obtained all necessary third party consents (other than regulatory approvals) necessary to consummate the Merger, unless the failure to obtain any such consent would not result in a material adverse effect on the surviving corporation; and the employment agreements of each of Kim Michael Childers, James Allan LaHaise and J. Thomas Wiley shall be in full force and effect and shall not have been amended, and each such individual shall remain employed by Flag or Flag Bank and shall not have committed an act or omission that would permit his termination for cause under his employment agreement.

Termination of the Merger Agreement (page 43)

Generally, the Merger Agreement may be terminated by Flag and/or RBC Centura under the following circumstances:

by Flag and RBC Centura upon mutual consent;

Table of Contents

by either Flag or RBC Centura, if:

- o a breach by the other party of any representation, warranty, covenant or agreement contained in the Merger Agreement which cannot be or has not been cured within 30 days of written notice of the breach; and which breach, individually or in the aggregate with other breaches, would cause a condition of the Merger Agreement not to be satisfied or is reasonably likely to prevent, materially delay or materially impair the ability of the parties to complete the Merger;

- o the Merger is not consummated on or before March 31, 2007;

- o any approval or consent of any regulatory authority required for consummation of the Merger has been denied by final non-appealable action; or

- o the shareholders of Flag fail to approve the Merger Agreement.

by RBC Centura, if:

- o at any time prior to the Special Meeting, Flag's board of directors fails to recommend that Flag's shareholders approve the Merger Agreement, withdraws its recommendation to approve the Merger Agreement, or modifies or changes its recommendation in a manner adverse to the interests of RBC Centura; or

o Flag or its board of directors recommends that Flag's shareholders approve any acquisition proposal other than the Merger. Flag has agreed to pay RBC Centura a termination fee of $18,000,000 if the Merger Agreement is terminated under the certain circumstances specified in the Merger Agreement. The termination fee, along with the non-solicitation provisions described above, may discourage third parties who are interested in acquiring a significant interest in Flag.

Table of Contents

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS ABOUT THE SPECIAL MEETING AND THE MERGER

Q: What effect will the Merger have on Flag?

A: After the Merger is completed, 100% of Flag's common stock will be owned by RBC Centura and the stock will no longer be publicly traded.

Q: What am I being asked to vote upon?

A: You are being asked to vote to approve the Merger Agreement and the resulting Merger.

Q: Why is my vote important?

A: The Merger Agreement must be approved by a majority of the issued and outstanding shares of Flag common stock, provided that a quorum is present. Unless the holders of more than 50% of the outstanding shares return their proxy cards or appear in person at the Special Meeting, a quorum will not be present and the Merger Agreement will not be approved.

Q: What will I receive in the Merger?

A: If the Merger is completed, you will receive $25.50, in cash and without interest, in exchange for each share of Flag common stock that you own at the time of the Merger.

Q: What factors should I consider?

A: We strongly encourage you to read carefully this proxy statement in its entirety, including in particular the factors considered by Flag's board of directors described in "The Merger - Flag's Reasons for the Merger" beginning on page 19. You should also carefully review the appendices to this proxy statement.

Q: Who will own Flag after the Merger?

A: After the Merger, Flag will be wholly owned by RBC Centura. As a result of the receipt of cash in exchange for Flag's common stock, Flag's shareholders will no longer benefit from any increase in Flag's value, nor will they acquire an ownership interest in RBC Centura.

Q: What should I do now?

Edgar Filing: FLAG FINANCIAL CORP - Form DEFM14A

A: After you have carefully read this proxy statement, indicate on your proxy card how you want to vote, and sign and mail it in the enclosed postage-paid envelope as soon as possible so that your shares will be represented at the Special Meeting. If you sign and send in a proxy card but do not indicate how you want to vote, your proxy will be voted in favor of the proposal to approve and adopt the Merger Agreement.

Q: If my shares are held in street name by my broker, will my broker vote my shares for me?

A: No. Your broker will vote your shares only if you provide instructions on how to vote. Following the directions your broker provides, you should instruct your broker how to vote your shares. If you do not provide instructions to your broker, your shares will not be voted.

Table of Contents

Q: What happens if I do not send in my proxy or if I abstain from voting?

A: If you do not send in your proxy, if you do not instruct your broker to vote your shares, or if you abstain from voting, it will have the same effect as a vote against the Merger proposal.

Q: Can I change my vote after I have submitted my proxy card?

A: Yes. There are three ways you can change your vote. First, you may send a written notice to the person to whom you submitted your proxy stating that you would like to revoke your proxy. Second, you may complete and submit a later dated proxy with new voting instructions. The latest vote actually received by Flag prior to the Special Meeting will be your vote. Any earlier votes will be revoked. Third, you may attend the Special Meeting and vote in person. Any earlier votes delivered by proxy will be revoked. Simply attending the meeting without voting, however, will not revoke your proxy. If you have instructed a broker to vote your shares, you must follow the directions you will receive from your broker to change or revoke your proxy.

Q: Should I send in my stock certificates now?

A: No. Shareholders will exchange their Flag common stock certificates for cash after we complete the Merger. Instructions for exchanging Flag common stock certificates will be sent to you promptly after the Merger is completed.

Q: When do you expect the Merger to be completed?

A: We are working to complete the Merger as quickly as possible. We plan to complete the Merger shortly after we receive shareholder and regulatory approvals for the Merger, which we currently anticipate will result in a closing in late 2006, although there can be no assurances that we will be able to do so.

Q: What are the tax consequences of the Merger?

A: The Merger will be a taxable transaction to you for federal income tax purposes. A summary of the possible tax consequences appears on pages 29 of this proxy statement. You should consult your tax advisor regarding the specific tax consequences of the Merger to you based on your particular circumstances.

Q: Whom should I call with questions about the Merger or the Special Meeting?

A: Shareholders should call J. Daniel Speight, Chief Financial Officer of Flag, at (404) 760-7700.

THE SPECIAL MEETING

General Information

We are providing this proxy statement to the shareholders of Flag (Flag), along with a form of proxy that the board of directors of Flag is soliciting for use at the Special Meeting to be held at 3475 Piedmont Road, N.E., Suite 550, Atlanta, Georgia 30305, 1:00 p.m. local time on Tuesday, November 21, 2006. At the Special Meeting, Flag shareholders will vote upon a proposal to approve the Merger Agreement, dated August 9, 2006 and as supplemented as of September 6, 2006, by and among Flag, RBC Centura and Flag Acquisition Sub, Inc., a wholly owned subsidiary of RBC Centura, pursuant to which Flag Acquisition Sub will merge with and into Flag, and Flag will become a wholly owned subsidiary of RBC Centura. Proxies may be voted on such other matters as may properly come before the meeting at the discretion of the proxy holders. The board of directors of Flag knows of no such other matters except those incidental to the conduct of the Special Meeting. The Merger Agreement is attached as Appendix A.

We request the holders of the common stock of Flag complete, date and sign the accompanying proxy and return it promptly to Flag in the enclosed postage-paid envelope.

How to Vote

If you are a shareholder of record and you hold shares of Flag common stock in your name, you may vote by signing, dating and returning the enclosed proxy card in the postage-paid envelope provided. Please follow the directions on the enclosed proxy card.

If you hold shares of Flag common stock through a broker or other custodian, please follow the voting instructions that the applicable institution provides to you. If you do not return your proxy card, or if your shares are held in a stock brokerage account or held by a bank, broker or nominee, or, in other words, in street name and you do not instruct your bank, broker or nominee on how to vote those shares, those shares will not be voted at the Special Meeting.

If you submit your proxy but do not make specific choices, your proxy will be voted FOR the proposal presented, and at the discretion of the proxy holders with respect to any other business properly brought before the meeting.

If you are a registered shareholder and plan to attend the Special Meeting and vote in person, you will be given a ballot at the Special Meeting. However, if your shares of Flag common stock are held in street name, you must first obtain a proxy from the registered holder authorizing you to vote the shares in person.

Record Date, Voting Rights and Vote Required

The record date for the determination of Flag shareholders entitled to notice of and to vote at the Special Meeting is October 12, 2006. Only the holders of Flag common stock on the record date are entitled to receive notice of and to vote at the Special Meeting. On the record date, there were 17,045,750 shares of Flag common stock outstanding, held by approximately 804 holders of record. Each such share of Flag common stock is entitled to one vote on each matter submitted at the Special Meeting.

Table of Contents

Approval of the Merger Agreement requires the affirmative vote of the holders of at least a majority of the outstanding shares of Flag common stock, or 8,511,660 shares. Failure of a holder of Flag common stock to vote such shares will have the same effect as a vote against the Merger Agreement.

Action on any other matters that properly come before the Special Meeting will be approved if a quorum is present and the votes in favor of the matter exceed the votes against the matter. Presence in person or by proxy of a majority of the outstanding shares of Flag common stock entitled to vote at the Special Meeting will constitute a quorum.

As of the record date, the directors and executive officers of Flag and their affiliates beneficially owned a total of 3,263,696 shares, or 18.87% of the issued and outstanding shares of Flag common stock. These individuals have indicated that they intend to vote their shares in favor of the proposal to approve the Merger Agreement. To the best of RBC Centura management's knowledge, as of the record date, none of the directors and executive officers of RBC Centura nor their affiliates or subsidiaries beneficially owned any shares of Flag common stock.

Voting and Revocation of Proxies

The shares of Flag common stock represented by properly completed proxies received at or before the time for the Special Meeting will be voted as directed by the shareholders unless revoked as described below. If no instructions are given, executed proxies will be voted FOR approval of the Merger Agreement. Proxies marked FOR approval of the Merger Agreement and executed but unmarked proxies will be voted in the discretion of the persons named therein as to any proposed adjournment of the Special Meeting. Proxies which are voted AGAINST approval of the Merger Agreement will not be voted in favor of any motion to adjourn the Special Meeting to solicit more votes in favor of the Merger.

Shares with respect to which proxies have been marked as abstentions also will not be counted as votes cast on the proposal. Shares with respect to which proxies have been marked as abstentions, however, will be treated as shares present for purposes of determining whether a quorum is present. Because the proposal to adopt the Merger Agreement must be approved by the affirmative vote of holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of Flag common stock, abstentions will have the same effect as a vote against the Merger Agreement. Accordingly, the board of directors of Flag urges Flag's shareholders to complete, date and sign the accompanying proxy and return it promptly in the enclosed postage-paid envelope.

If any other matters are properly presented at the Special Meeting and voted upon, the proxies solicited hereby will be voted on those matters at the discretion of the proxy holders. The board of directors of Flag is not aware of any other business to be presented at the Special Meeting other than matters incidental to the conduct of the meeting.

A shareholder's attendance at the Special Meeting will not automatically revoke his or her proxy. A shareholder may, however, revoke a proxy any time before its exercise by:

filing a written notice of revocation with Flag's Secretary at 3475 Piedmont Road, N.E., Suite 550, Atlanta, Georgia 30305 prior to the Special Meeting;

delivering a new duly executed proxy bearing a later date; or

by attending the Special Meeting and voting in person.

A shareholder's proxy will not be revoked by his or her death or incapacity unless, before the shares are voted, the Secretary of Flag or other person authorized to tabulate the votes receives notice of the death or incapacity.

If you hold shares in street name and you wish to change any proxy granted on the voting instruction form, you should contact your bank, broker or nominee in accordance with the instructions provided to you.

Solicitation of Proxies

Flag has engaged The Altman Group, Inc., a proxy solicitation firm, to assist in soliciting proxies from Flag shareholders in connection with the Special Meeting. Flag expects that the fees for these services will total approximately $9,500, plus out-of-pocket expenses. Flag will also reimburse, upon request, brokerage houses and other custodian, nominees and fiduciaries for their reasonable expenses for sending proxy materials to the beneficial owners of Flag's common stock.

Flag will pay for the cost of printing this proxy statement and all other costs of soliciting proxies. Directors, officers and other employees of Flag or its subsidiaries may solicit proxies personally or by telephone or facsimile. None of these people will receive any special compensation for solicitation activities.

DO NOT SEND YOUR FLAG COMMON STOCK CERTIFICATES WITH YOUR PROXY CARD. Promptly after the Merger, the paying agent for the Merger will send a transmittal letter to you with instructions for surrendering your Flag common stock certificates in exchange for the Merger Consideration.

Adjournments or Postponements

Although it is not expected, the Special Meeting may be adjourned or postponed for the purpose of soliciting additional proxies. Any adjournment or postponement may be made by approval of a majority of the shares of Flag common stock present in person or represented by a proxy at the Special Meeting, or the Chairman of the board of directors or the President of Flag, whether or not a quorum is present and without notice other than an announcement at the Special Meeting.

Recommendation of the Board of Directors of Flag

THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS OF FLAG HAS APPROVED AND ADOPTED THE MERGER AGREEMENT AND BELIEVES THAT THE PROPOSED TRANSACTION IS FAIR TO AND IN THE BEST INTEREST OF FLAG AND ITS SHAREHOLDERS. THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS OF FLAG RECOMMENDS THAT FLAG'S SHAREHOLDERS VOTE FOR APPROVAL OF THE MERGER AGREEMENT.

Merger Consideration

Pursuant to the terms of the Merger Agreement, upon the effectiveness of the Merger, each outstanding share of Flag common stock will be converted into the right to receive $25.50 in cash, and each outstanding option to acquire shares of Flag common stock will be converted into the right to receive a cash payment equal to the difference between the cash merger consideration and the applicable exercise price of the option, multiplied by the number of shares of common stock covered by the option, less applicable withholding taxes. The aggregate Merger Consideration to be paid by RBC Centura for the outstanding shares of Flag common stock and conversion of Flag stock options will be approximately $456 million.

Background of the Merger

During the last several years, there has been a trend toward consolidation in the banking industry. This trend has been fueled by, among other things, national and state banking-related legislation, and has enabled participants in business combinations to benefit from economies of sale and greater efficiencies available to the combined entities. Financial institutions have increasingly sought suitable combinations by means of obtaining such benefits.

Senior management at Flag has regularly reviewed with Flag's board of directors the possible benefits of strategic business combinations with other financial institutions. In each case, these reviews were considered in light of each institution's ongoing evaluation of its available strategies to increase shareholder value and strengthen its franchise in order to better compete in the consolidating market for financial services and products. In addition, Flag's senior management team reviewed market conditions.

In January 2006, representatives from Burke Capital met with senior management of Flag to discuss strategic options. In January 2006, Burke Capital hosted a meeting with Joseph W. Evans, chairman and chief executive officer of Flag, Scott Custer, chief executive officer of RBC Centura, and other members of senior management of both Flag and RBC Centura. The purpose of this meeting was to have exploratory discussions regarding a potential transaction. In February 2006, Burke Capital hosted a meeting between Scott Custer and J. Thomas Wiley, president of Flag, in order to determine if the two companies might be compatible from a cultural and personality standpoints.

Following the meetings in January and February 2006, RBC Centura indicated to Burke Capital that it wished to pursue discussions further and would like to meet additional members of Flag's senior management. In May 2006, Burke Capital hosted an all day meeting between members of RBC Centura senior management and Flag senior management. During this same time frame, Burke Capital contacted three regional banking institutions to gauge potential interest in a transaction with Flag. The three other regional institutions indicated that they would not pursue a transaction with Flag at that time.

In late May 2006, Flag supplied preliminary due diligence information to RBC Centura. Flag entered into a Mutual Confidentiality and Nondisclosure Agreement with RBC Centura on May 17, 2006 and engaged Burke Capital on May 19, 2006. During the first two weeks of June 2006, representatives of Burke Capital and RBC Centura had multiple meetings and discussions regarding information pertinent to a potential transaction.

On June 22, 2006, RBC Centura provided a written non-binding indication of interest to acquire Flag for an aggregate cash consideration in the range of $440 million to $470 million, subject to due diligence. Also on June 22, 2006 Flag's board of directors, along with representatives of Burke Capital and attorneys from Powell Goldstein, LLP met to discuss RBC Centura's proposal. At this meeting

Flag's board of directors authorized Flag management and its representatives to move forward with negotiations to arrive at a specific price per share and report back to them.

Between June 26 and July 22, 2006, RBC Centura conducted due diligence and narrowed the pricing range to $455 million to $460 million. Between July 22 and August 2, 2006, Flag and its representatives negotiated the majority of the terms of a definitive Merger Agreement, and arrived at a final price of $25.50 per share, or approximately $456 million on the aggregate. RBC Centura also requested, as a condition to the signing of the Merger Agreement, that certain employees of Flag enter into employment and consulting agreements with RBC Centura Bank and RBC Centura, to take effect at the closing of the transaction. These employees were identified through discussions between senior management of RBC Centura and Flag, and negotiation of the terms of these agreements commenced.

On August 2, 2006, Flag's board of directors met with representatives of Powell Goldstein, LLP to discuss the terms of the proposed Merger Agreement. At this meeting, representatives of Burke Capital provided the board with their analysis of the Merger consideration to be paid to Flag's shareholders. Flag's counsel, Powell Goldstein LLP, reminded the directors of their duties and responsibilities as directors in a transaction of this type. Following a discussion of the terms of the Merger Agreement, the fairness of the Merger consideration to Flag's shareholders and the other factors discussed below under the heading "Reasons for the Merger," Flag's board of directors concluded, by a unanimous vote, that the Merger was fair to Flag's shareholders and in the best interest of Flag, approved the Merger Agreement and recommended its approval by the shareholders of Flag.

Between August 2 and the morning of August 9, 2006, the parties finalized the terms of the Merger Agreement and completed negotiation of the employment and consulting agreements with certain of Flag's employees.

On August 9, 2006, Flag and RBC Centura executed the Merger Agreement and issued a joint press release announcing the proposed Merger of the two companies.

Flag's Reasons for the Merger

In reaching its decision to approve and recommend approval of the Merger Agreement, the board of directors of Flag consulted with Flag's management, as well as its legal counsel and financial advisors, and considered a number of factors, including the following:

The value of the consideration to be received by Flag's shareholders relative to the book value and earnings per share of Flag common stock;

Certain information concerning the financial condition, results of operations and business prospects of RBC Centura;

The financial terms of recent business combinations in the financial services industry and a comparison of the multiples of selected combinations with the terms of the proposed transaction with RBC Centura;

The alternatives to the Merger, including remaining an independent institution;

The competitive and regulatory environment for financial institutions generally;

Table of Contents

The fact that the Merger will enable Flag shareholders to exchange their shares of Flag common stock for cash;

The opinion of Burke Capital, that the consideration to be received by Flag's shareholders as a result of the Merger is fair from a financial point of view; and

The complementary aspects of Flag's and RBC Centura's businesses, including customer focus, geographic coverage and business orientation.

In its deliberations, the board of directors of Flag did not assign any relative or specific weight to any of the factors that are discussed above, and individual members of the board of directors of Flag may have given different weights to different factors as they were discussed. In addition, the discussion of the information above and factors considered is not intended to be exhaustive of the factors considered.

RBC Centura's Reasons for the Merger

Georgia and the Atlanta metropolitan area are strategic to RBC Centura's growth in the southeastern United States and, in particular, its objective of deeper expansion into the metropolitan Atlanta area. RBC Centura believes that the Merger provides an attractive opportunity for RBC Centura to expand its growth in the metropolitan Atlanta area and expand its network of 30 banking centers in Georgia. The Merger also facilitates RBC Centura's objective of building its capabilities to service the needs of owner-managed businesses, a client base for which Flag Bank has developed a full array of products and services. In addition, RBC Centura will be able to use its resources to expand the range of services available to Flag's customers through Flag Bank's branches, thus enhancing their competitiveness.

Opinion of Flag's Financial Advisor

Flag retained Burke Capital to act as its financial advisor in connection with a possible business combination with RBC Centura. Burke Capital is a nationally recognized investment banking firm whose principal business specialty is financial institutions. In the ordinary course of its investment banking business, Burke Capital is regularly engaged in the valuation of financial institutions and their securities in connection with mergers and acquisitions and other corporate transactions.

Burke Capital acted as financial advisor to Flag in connection with the proposed Merger with RBC Centura and participated in certain of the negotiations leading to the Merger Agreement. In connection with Burke Capital's engagement, Flag asked Burke Capital to evaluate the fairness of the Merger Consideration to Flag's shareholders from a financial point of view. At the August 2, 2006 meeting of Flag's board to evaluate the Merger, Burke Capital delivered to the board its oral opinion that, based upon and subject to various matters set forth in its opinion, the Merger Consideration was fair to Flag's shareholders from a financial point of view. At this meeting, Flag's board approved the Merger, subject to finalizing the Merger Agreement, and subsequently executed Merger Agreement on August 9, 2006. Burke Capital submitted its written opinion letter to the board of directors on August 9, 2006.

THE FULL TEXT OF BURKE CAPITAL'S WRITTEN OPINION IS ATTACHED AS APPENDIX C TO THIS PROXY STATEMENT. THE OPINION OUTLINES MATTERS CONSIDERED AND QUALIFICATIONS AND LIMITATIONS ON THE REVIEW UNDERTAKEN BY BURKE CAPITAL IN RENDERING ITS OPINION. THE DESCRIPTION OF THE OPINION SET FORTH

BELOW IS QUALIFIED IN ITS ENTIRETY BY REFERENCE TO THE OPINION. WE URGE YOU TO READ THE ENTIRE OPINION CAREFULLY IN CONNECTION WITH YOUR CONSIDERATION OF THE PROPOSED MERGER.

BURKE CAPITAL'S OPINION SPEAKS ONLY AS OF THE DATE OF THE OPINION. THE OPINION WAS DIRECTED TO FLAG'S BOARD AND IS DIRECTED ONLY TO THE FAIRNESS OF THE MERGER CONSIDERATION TO FLAG'S SHAREHOLDERS FROM A FINANCIAL POINT OF VIEW. IT DOES NOT ADDRESS THE UNDERLYING BUSINESS DECISION OF FLAG TO ENGAGE IN THE MERGER OR ANY OTHER ASPECT OF THE MERGER AND IS NOT A RECOMMENDATION TO ANY FLAG SHAREHOLDER AS TO HOW SUCH SHAREHOLDER SHOULD VOTE AT THE SHAREHOLDER MEETING WITH RESPECT TO THE MERGER, OR ANY OTHER MATTER.

In connection with rendering its opinion, Burke Capital reviewed and considered, among other things:

- o The Agreement and certain of the schedules thereto;
- o Certain publicly available financial statements and other historical financial information of Flag and RBC Centura that it deemed relevant;
- o Projected earnings estimates for Flag for the years ending December 31, 2006 through 2011 prepared by and reviewed with senior management of Flag and the views of senior management regarding Flag's business, financial condition, results of operations and future prospects;
- o Internal financial and operating information with respect to the business, operations and prospects of Flag furnished to Burke Capital by Flag that is not publicly available;
- o The pro forma financial impact of the Merger on RBC Centura's ability to complete a transaction from a regulatory standpoint, based on assumptions determined by senior management of Flag and Burke Capital;
- o The financial terms of other recent business combinations in the commercial banking industry, to the extent publicly available;
- o The current market environment generally and the banking environment in particular;
- o Such other information, financial studies, analyses and investigations and financial, economic and market criteria as it considered relevant.

FLAG'S BOARD OF DIRECTORS DID NOT LIMIT THE INVESTIGATIONS MADE OR THE PROCEDURES FOLLOWED BY BURKE CAPITAL IN GIVING ITS OPINION.

In performing its reviews and analyses and in rendering its opinion, Burke Capital assumed and relied upon the accuracy and completeness of all the financial information, analyses and other information that was publicly available or otherwise furnished to, reviewed by or discussed with it and further relied on the assurances of management of Flag that they were not aware of any facts or circumstances that would make such information inaccurate or misleading. Burke Capital was not asked to and did not independently verify the accuracy or completeness of such information and it did not assume responsibility or liability for the accuracy or completeness of any of such information. Burke Capital did not make an independent evaluation or appraisal of the assets, the collateral securing assets or the liabilities, contingent or otherwise, of Flag or RBC Centura or any of their respective subsidiaries, or the ability to collect any such assets, nor was it furnished with any such evaluations or appraisals. Burke Capital is not an expert in the evaluation of allowances for loan losses and it did not make an independent evaluation of the adequacy of the allowance for loan losses of Flag or RBC Centura, nor did it review any individual credit files relating to Flag or RBC Centura. In addition, Burke Capital did not conduct any physical inspection of the properties or facilities of Flag or RBC Centura. Burke Capital is not an accounting firm and it relied on the reports of the independent accountants of Flag and the directors of RBC Centura for the accuracy and completeness of the financial statements furnished to it.

Burke Capital's opinion was necessarily based upon market, economic and other conditions as they existed on, and could be evaluated as of, the date of its opinion. Burke Capital assumed, in all respects material to its analysis, that all of the representations and warranties contained in the Merger Agreement and all related agreements are true and correct, that each party to such agreements will perform all of the covenants required to be performed by such party under such agreements and that the conditions precedent in the Merger Agreement are not waived. Burke Capital also assumed that there has been no material change in Flag's and RBC Centura's assets, financial condition, results of operations, business or prospects since the date of the last financial statements made available to them, that Flag and RBC Centura will remain as going concerns for all periods relevant to its analyses.

In rendering its opinion, Burke Capital performed a variety of financial analyses. The following is a summary of the material analyses performed by Burke Capital, but is not a complete description of all the analyses underlying Burke Capital's opinion. The summary includes information presented in tabular format. In order to fully understand the financial analyses, these tables must be read together with the accompanying text. The tables alone do not constitute a complete description of the financial analyses. The preparation of a fairness opinion is a complex process involving subjective judgments as to the most appropriate and relevant methods of financial analysis and the application of those methods to the particular circumstances. The process, therefore, is not necessarily susceptible to a partial analysis or summary description. Burke Capital believes that its analyses must be considered as a whole and that selecting portions of the factors and analyses considered without considering all factors and analyses, or attempting to ascribe relative weights to some or all such factors and analyses, could create an incomplete view of the evaluation process underlying its opinion. Also, no company included in Burke Capital's comparative analyses described below is identical to Flag Financial and no transaction is identical to the Merger. Accordingly, an analysis of comparable companies or transactions involves complex considerations and judgments concerning differences in financial and operating characteristics of the companies and other factors that could affect the public trading values or Merger transaction values, as the case may be, of Flag and the companies to which they are being compared.

The earnings projections used and relied upon by Burke Capital in its analyses were based upon internal projections of Flag. Burke Capital assumed for purposes of its analyses that such performance would be achieved. Burke Capital expressed no opinion as to such financial projections or the assumptions on which they were based. The financial projections furnished to Burke Capital by Flag were prepared for internal purposes only and not with a view towards public disclosure. These projections, as well as the other estimates used by Burke Capital in its analyses, were based on numerous variables and assumptions which are inherently uncertain and, accordingly, actual results could vary materially from those set forth in such projections.

In performing its analyses, Burke Capital also made numerous assumptions with respect to industry performance, business and economic conditions and various other matters, many of which cannot be predicted and are beyond the control of Flag and Burke Capital. The analyses performed by Burke Capital are not necessarily indicative of actual values or future results, which may be significantly more or less favorable than suggested by such analyses. Burke Capital prepared its analyses solely for purposes of rendering its opinion and provided such analyses to Flag's board of directors at the August 2, 2006 meeting. Estimates on the values of companies do not purport to be appraisals or necessarily reflect the prices at which companies or their securities may actually be sold. Such estimates are inherently subject to uncertainty and actual values may be materially different. Accordingly, Burke Capital's analyses do not necessarily reflect the value of Flag's common stock or the prices at which Flag's common stock may be sold at any time.

Summary of the Proposed Merger

Burke Capital reviewed the financial terms of the proposed transaction whereby the holders of Flag stock shall be entitled to receive, in exchange for their shares of Flag common stock, $25.50 in cash. Utilizing the Flag's publicly available financial information on the date of announcement, which was June 30, 2006 unaudited financial information, Burke Capital calculated the following ratios:

Deal Value Considerations:		Deal Multiples:
Aggregate Price / Fully Diluted Share	$ 25.50	Transaction Value / LTM Net Income	22.37x
Aggregate Value For Common Shares	$ 434,094,660	Transaction Value / Book Value	2.15x
Aggregate Value for Outstanding Options	$ 22,728,283	Transaction Value / Tangible Book Value	4.70x
Total Transaction Value	$ 456,822,943	Core Deposit Premium	35.56%

The fully diluted share count is based upon Flag's 17,023,320 outstanding common shares and 1,586,218 outstanding options to purchase common shares at a weighted average strike price of $11.17. This analysis assumes no options are exercised prior to closing. Any exercise of options prior to closing would change the fully diluted share count and would slightly change the per share consideration, but not the total transaction valuation.

Discounted Cash Flow Analysis

Using a discounted cash flow analysis, Burke Capital estimated the present value of the future stream of earnings and dividends that Flag could produce over the next five years based upon an internal earnings and balance sheet forecast for 2006 – 2011. Burke Capital performed discounted cash flow analyses based upon terminal values to both earnings and tangible equity.

In order to derive the terminal value of Flag's earnings stream beyond 2011, Burke Capital assumed terminal value multiples ranging from 14.0x to 20.0x of fiscal year 2011 net income. The dividend streams and terminal values were then discounted to present values using different estimated discount rates ranging from 13.0% to 16.0%. These discount rates were derived from a Capital Asset Pricing Model (CAPM) and are also reflective of rates of return for community bank stocks historically. This discounted cash flow analysis indicated a value range between $17.00 and $26.23 per share of Flag common stock. Burke Capital also applied terminal value multiples ranging from 2.25x to 3.25x fiscal year-end 2011 tangible book value. The dividend streams and terminal values of equity were then discounted to present values using discount rates ranging from 13.0% to 16.0%. The discounted cash flow analysis based terminal values to equity ranged from $15.78 to $24.49.

The value of the consideration offered by RBC Centura to Flag in the Merger is $25.50 per share of Flag common stock, which is at the high end of the range of values imputed from the discounted cash flow analysis.

Information Regarding Burke Capital

Pursuant to a letter agreement dated May 19, 2006, Flag paid Burke Capital a retainer fee of $20,000 upon the execution of the May 19, 2006 engagement letter and a progress fee of $200,000 upon the signing of the definitive Merger Agreement. In addition, Flag has agreed to pay Burke Capital a financial advisory fee of 0.80% of the transaction value. Flag also has agreed to reimburse Burke Capital for its reasonable out-of-pocket expenses and to indemnify Burke Capital and certain related persons against certain liabilities arising out of or in conjunction with its rendering of services under its engagement, including certain liabilities under the federal securities laws.

Regulatory Approval of the Merger

The Merger will be consummated pending receipt of the requisite regulatory approvals and consents from all applicable federal and state regulatory authorities. Flag and RBC Centura have agreed to cooperate and use their reasonable best efforts to obtain all permits, consents, approvals and authorizations from any regulatory authority necessary to consummate the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement as promptly as practicable. While Flag and RBC Centura have no reason to believe that they will not be able to obtain the required regulatory approvals and consents in a timely manner and without the imposition of burdensome conditions, they cannot be certain that these approvals and consents will be obtained within the period of time contemplated by the Merger Agreement, on conditions that would not be detrimental to the combined company or at all.

Federal Reserve Approval. Pursuant to Section 3 of the Bank Holding Company Act of 1956 and the regulations promulgated pursuant thereto, the approval of the Federal Reserve must be obtained prior to completion of the Merger. The Federal Reserve must withhold approval of the Merger if it finds that the transaction will result in a monopoly or be in furtherance of any combination or conspiracy to monopolize or attempt to monopolize the business of banking in any part of the United States. In addition, the Federal Reserve may not approve the Merger if it finds that the effect thereof may be substantially to lessen competition in any section of the country, or tend to create a monopoly, or would in any other manner be in restraint of trade, unless it finds that the anti-competitive effects of the Merger are clearly outweighed by the probable effect of the Merger in meeting the convenience and needs of the communities to be served. The Federal Reserve will also take into consideration the financial condition and managerial resources (including the competence, experience, and integrity of the officers, directors, and principal shareholders) and future prospects of the existing and proposed institutions. In considering financial resources and future prospects, the Federal Reserve will evaluate, among other things, the adequacy of the capital levels of the parties to a proposed transaction and of the resulting financial institution. The Federal Reserve will also consider the convenience and needs of the communities to be served and the compliance records of Flag Bank under the Community Reinvestment Act.

The Federal Reserve's regulations provide for the publication of notice and public comment on the application and authorize the Federal Reserve to permit interested parties to intervene in the proceedings. If an interested party is permitted to intervene, such intervention could delay the regulatory approval required for consummation of the transaction. Section 11 of the Bank Holding Company Act imposes a waiting period that prohibits consummation of the transaction, in ordinary circumstances, for a period ranging from 15 to 30 days following the Federal Reserve's approval of the transaction. During such period, the U.S. Department of Justice, should it object to the transaction for antitrust reasons, may challenge the consummation of the transaction.

Georgia Banking Department Approval. Pursuant to Section 606 of Title 7, Chapter I of the Official Code of Georgia, the Merger is also subject to the prior approval of the Georgia Banking Department Approval. The Georgia Banking Department Approval considers the financial and managerial resources and future prospects of the holding companies and banks involved in the transaction and the convenience and needs of the communities to be served. The Georgia Banking Department's regulations provide for the publication of notice and public comment on the application.

As of the date of the mailing of this proxy statement, RBC Centura and its parent holding companies, including Royal Bank of Canada, have filed the requisite applications and such applications are being reviewed by the applicable regulators.

Any approval received from bank regulatory agencies reflects only their view that the Merger does not contravene applicable competitive standards imposed by law and that the Merger is consistent with regulatory policies relating to safety and soundness. THE APPROVAL OF THE BANK REGULATORY AGENCIES IS NOT AN ENDORSEMENT OR RECOMMENDATION OF THE MERGER.

Material United States Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger

The following is a general summary of the material United States federal income tax consequences of the Merger to Flag shareholders who hold Flag common stock as capital assets within the meaning of Section 1221 of the Internal Revenue Code, assuming that the Merger is effected as described in the Merger Agreement and this proxy statement. This summary is based on currently existing and effective provisions of the Internal Revenue Code, the Treasury Regulations thereunder, and administrative rulings and court decisions, all of which are subject to change possibly with retroactive effect. This summary does not address the tax consequences of the Merger under foreign, state, or local tax laws, or the tax consequences of transactions effectuated prior or subsequent to or concurrently with the Merger, whether or not such transactions are in connection with the Merger, including, without limitation, transactions in which Flag common stock is acquired or disposed of in such prior or subsequent transactions. Further, this discussion assumes that the Flag shareholders hold their Flag common stock as a capital asset within the meaning of section 1221 of the Code. The discussion does not address other aspects of federal income taxation that may be relevant to Flag shareholders who, as a result of their special circumstances, do not hold their Flag common stock as a capital asset, but instead, are subject to differing tax treatment under the Code, including, without limitation, Flag shareholders who are subject to such treatment because they are:

financial institutions, mutual funds, dealers in securities or insurance companies;

tax-exempt organizations;

S corporations or other pass-through entities;

non-United States persons;

Flag shareholders whose shares are qualified small business stock for purposes of section 1202 of the Code or who may be subject to the alternative minimum tax provisions of the Code; or

Flag shareholders who received their Flag common stock through the exercise of employee stock options or otherwise as compensation or through a tax-qualified retirement plan.

The exchange of Flag common stock for cash will be a taxable transaction to Flag shareholders for federal income tax purposes. The exchange of your shares of Flag common stock for cash will be treated as a sale of the stock. Accordingly, shareholders should recognize gain or loss equal to the difference between the amount of cash received and your tax basis in your Flag common stock. The gain or loss generally will be capital gain or loss.

Flag shareholders who are United States persons generally will be required to furnish a Social Security number or other taxpayer identification number, along with certain certifications under penalties of perjury, in order to avoid backup withholding at the applicable rate, currently 28%, with respect to amounts paid pursuant to the Merger. Such payments generally will be reported to the Internal Revenue Service (IRS). Any amounts withheld under the backup withholding rules will be allowed as a refund or credit against the Flag shareholder's United States federal income tax liability, provided the required information is furnished to the IRS.

No ruling has been or will be obtained from the Internal Revenue Service in connection with the Merger. Flag shareholders should be aware that the discussion of tax consequences above does not bind the Internal Revenue Service.

THE PRECEDING DISCUSSION IS INTENDED ONLY AS A SUMMARY OF CERTAIN UNITED STATES FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSEQUENCES OF THE MERGER AND DOES NOT PURPORT TO BE A COMPLETE ANALYSIS OR DISCUSSION OF ALL POTENTIAL TAX EFFECTS RELEVANT THERETO. THUS, FLAG SHAREHOLDERS ARE URGED TO CONSULT

THEIR OWN TAX ADVISORS AS TO THE SPECIFIC TAX CONSEQUENCES TO THEM OF THE MERGER, INCLUDING TAX RETURN REPORTING REQUIREMENTS, THE APPLICABILITY AND EFFECT OF NON-U.S., FEDERAL, STATE, LOCAL, AND OTHER APPLICABLE TAX LAWS AND THE EFFECT OF ANY PROPOSED CHANGES IN THE TAX LAWS.

Accounting Treatment

The Merger will be accounted for by RBC Centura as a purchase transaction in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles in the United States of America. One effect of such accounting treatment is that the earnings of Flag will be combined with the earnings of RBC Centura only from and after the effective date of the Merger.

Delisting and Deregistration of Flag Common Stock after the Merger

When the Merger is completed, Flag's common stock will be delisted from the NASDAQ Global Select Market and will be deregistered under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.

Dissenters' Rights

Pursuant to Article 13 of the Georgia Business Corporation Code, a copy of which is attached hereto as Appendix B, any holder of record of Flag common stock who objects to the Merger and who fully complies with all of the provisions of Article 13 of the Georgia Business Corporation Code shall be entitled to demand and receive payment for the fair value of all (but not less than all) of his or her shares of Flag common stock if the Merger is consummated.

Any Flag shareholder who objects to the Merger and desires to receive payment for the fair value of his or her common stock:

- (a) Must deliver to Flag, either prior to the Special Meeting or at the Special Meeting but before the vote is taken, a statement that the shareholder intends to demand payment for his or her shares if the Merger is approved; AND
- (b) Must not vote his or her shares in favor of the Merger; AND
- (c) Must demand payment and deposit his or her Flag common stock certificate in accordance with the terms of the dissenters' notice sent to the dissenting shareholder by Flag following approval of the Merger.

A vote against the Merger alone will not constitute the separate written notice and demand for payment referred to in (a) and (c) above; dissenting shareholders must separately comply with all three conditions. Any notice required to be given to Flag must be forwarded to Joseph W. Evans, President and Chief Executive Officer of Flag, at 3475 Piedmont Road, N.E., Suite 550, Atlanta, Georgia 30305.

If the Merger is approved, Flag will mail, no later than ten days after the approval, to each shareholder who has complied with conditions (a) and (b) above, written notice of such approval, addressed to the shareholder at such address as the shareholder has furnished in writing, or, if none, at the shareholder's address as it appears on the records of Flag. Flag will set a date by which it must receive the payment demand, which date may not be fewer than 30 or more than 60 days after the date the dissenters' notice is delivered. The notice will state where the payment demand must be sent, supply a form for the payment demand, enclose a copy of Article 13 of the Georgia Business Corporation Code, and inform the recipient of any restrictions that will apply to the transfer of his or her shares after the payment demand is received.

If all conditions in (a), (b) and (c) above are complied with in full, Flag is required to make a written offer to each dissenting shareholder upon receipt of the payment demand to purchase all of such shareholder's shares of Flag common stock at a specified price. If Flag and any dissenting shareholder are unable to agree on the fair value of the shares within 60 days, Flag shall commence a proceeding in the Superior Court of Fulton County, Georgia, to determine the rights of the dissenting shareholder and the fair value of his or her shares. If Flag does not commence the proceeding within the 60-day period, it shall pay each dissenter whose demand remains unsettled the amount demanded.

The foregoing does not purport to be a complete statement of the provisions of Article 13 of the Georgia Business Corporation Code, and it is qualified in its entirety by reference to Article 13, which is reproduced in full as Appendix B to this Proxy Statement.

Upon compliance with the statutory procedures, dissenting shareholders will not have any rights as shareholders of Flag, including, among other things, the right to receive dividends or the right to vote on matters submitted for shareholder consideration, but will only be entitled to receive cash in an amount equal to the fair value of their shares, which may be determined to be more or less than $25.50 per share.

Flag shareholders are entitled to dissent from the Merger under Georgia law and, if the Merger is consummated, to receive payment in cash for the fair value of their shares of Flag common stock, upon compliance with the dissenters' rights provisions set forth under Article 13 of the Georgia Business Corporation Code.

IN VIEW OF THE COMPLEXITY OF THE PROVISIONS OF ARTICLE 13 OF THE GEORGIA BUSINESS CORPORATION CODE, FLAG SHAREHOLDERS WHO ARE CONSIDERING DISSENTING FROM THE MERGER AND SEEKING RIGHTS OF APPRAISAL SHOULD CONSULT THEIR OWN LEGAL ADVISORS.

Interest of Certain Persons in the Merger

In considering the recommendation of Flag's board of directors with respect to the Merger Agreement and Merger, you should be aware that certain Flag directors and officers have interests in the Merger that are different from your interests as a shareholder. The board of directors was aware of and considered these actual and potential conflicts of interest. These interests include those described below.

If RBC Centura terminates the employment agreement without cause or if Mr. Wiley terminates his employment agreement for good reason, Mr. Wiley will be entitled to the following payments: (i) if the agreement is terminated during the initial three-year term, he will be entitled to a lump sum payment of his annual salary for the initial term and target short term incentive bonus for the remaining term of his employment agreement, with a minimum payment of one year's base salary and the target short term incentive bonus, and (ii) if the agreement is terminated following a renewal of the agreement, he will be entitled to a lump sum payment of his annual salary for the current term and the average of the three previous cash bonus awards. Under his employment agreement, Mr. Wiley agrees not to compete with RBC Centura within the Atlanta Metropolitan Statistical Area during the two year period following the closing date of the Merger.

Other Employment Agreements. Each of the employment agreements entered into by William Abraham, Stephen G. Deaton, Harold R. Lee, Jr., and Bradford Watkins has a three year initial term, which begins as of the consummation of the Merger. The employment agreements provide for annual base salaries ranging from $165,000 to $225,000. Each employment agreement also provides that the employee is eligible to participate in short term and long term incentive plans. Additionally, under the employment agreements, the employees are entitled to receive retention bonuses ranging from $250,000 to $500,000 on the third anniversary of the closing date of the Merger if the employee is employed by RBC Centura on such date or if he is terminated without cause (as defined in the employment agreements) or resigns for good reason (as defined in the employment agreement) prior to such date, and signing bonuses ranging from $300,000 to $388,000 payable in January 2007, except that Mr. Watkins's employment agreement does not provide for a signing bonus. If RBC Centura terminates one of the employment agreements without cause or if an employee terminates his employment agreement for good reason, the employee will be entitled to the following payments: (i) if the agreement is terminated during the initial three-year term, the employee will be entitled to a lump sum payment of his annual salary for the initial term and target short term incentive bonus for the remaining term of his employment agreement, with a minimum payment of one year's base salary and the target short term incentive bonus, and (ii) if the agreement is terminated following a renewal of the agreement, the employee will be entitled to a lump sum payment of his annual salary for the current term and the average of the three previous cash bonus awards. Each employee agrees not to compete with RBC Centura within the Atlanta Metropolitan Statistical Area during the two year period following the closing date of the Merger.

Consulting and Non-Competition Agreements. Each of Stephen W. Doughty, Joseph W. Evans and J. Daniel Speight has entered into a Consulting and Non-Competition Agreement with RBC Centura, which will become effective upon the consummation of the Merger. Under each agreement, the consultant agrees to provide consulting and advisory services within the consultant's area of expertise for a term of three years after the effective date of the Merger. The consultant further agrees not to compete with RBC Centura within the Atlanta Metropolitan Statistical Area during the two year period following the effective date of the Merger and not to solicit customers or employees of RBC Centura during the three year period following the effective date of the Merger. If RBC Centura terminates the consulting agreement without cause (as defined in the agreement) or if a consultant terminates the services for good reason (as defined in the agreement), the consultant will be entitled to the monthly fee (discussed below) through the expiration of the three-year term. The consultant and RBC Centura agree to engage a compensation consultant to determine whether the payments under the agreements are reasonable and agree to restructure the payments if the compensation consultant is unable to conclude that any of the payments are reasonable.

Under the terms of Mr. Doughty's agreement, he will receive a conversion bonus in the amount of $150,000 payable within 30 days of the earlier of March 31, 2007 or the date on which Flag's operating system is converted to RBC Centura's system. During the term of the agreement, Mr. Doughty will receive a monthly fee of $16,666.66 for his consulting services. Additionally, Mr. Doughty will receive a payment of $1,051,000 as soon as possible after the effective date of the Merger in consideration of his agreement not to compete with RBC Centura or solicit RBC Centura's customers or employees.

Under the terms of Mr. Evans's agreement, he will receive a conversion bonus in the amount of $250,000 payable within 30 days of the earlier of March 31, 2007 or the date on which Flag's operating system is converted to RBC Centura's system. During the term of the agreement, Mr. Evans will receive a monthly fee of $19,444.44 for his consulting services. Additionally, Mr. Evans will receive a payment of $1,385,000 as soon as possible after the effective date of the Merger in consideration of his agreement not to compete with RBC Centura or solicit RBC Centura's customers or employees.

Under the terms of Mr. Speight's agreement, he will receive a conversion bonus in the amount of $250,000 payable within 30 days of the earlier of March 31, 2007 or the date on which Flag's operating system is converted to RBC Centura's system. During the term of the agreement, Mr. Speight will receive a monthly fee of $13,888.56 for his consulting services. Additionally, Mr. Speight will receive a payment of $1,474,000 as soon as possible after the effective date of the Merger in consideration of his agreement not to compete with RBC Centura or solicit RBC Centura's customers or employees.

Option Payments. The chart below lists the number of options held by each executive officer. In connection with the Merger, each of these options will be converted into the right to receive a cash payment equal to the difference between the Merger Consideration and the applicable exercise price of the option, multiplied by the number of shares of common stock covered by the option, less applicable withholding taxes.

Deferred Compensation. J. Daniel Speight, Flag and Flag Bank are parties to an Executive Salary Continuation Agreement under which Mr. Speight is eligible to receive approximately $11,333.33 per month for fifteen years following his retirement from Flag Bank if he remains in continuous employment with Flag Bank until at least age 65. Mr. Speight is currently 25% vested in the arrangement and will become 29% vested in November 2006. In the event of a change in control, however, the requirement that Mr. Speight remain in the continuous employ of Flag Bank until his retirement is waived if he is involuntarily terminated within six months following the change in control. In that case, Mr. Speight effectively becomes 100% vested in the full retirement benefit.

Insurance and Indemnification. The Merger Agreement provides that for six years after the effective time of the Merger, RBC Centura has agreed to indemnify, to the same extent currently provided by Flag in its certificate of incorporation and bylaws or under applicable law, Flag's past and current officers and directors against all costs or expenses incurred in connection with any claims asserted before or after the effective time of the Merger pertaining to acts or omissions in their capacities as officers and directors.

The Merger Agreement also provides that, for three years after the effective time of the Merger, RBC Centura will use its commercially reasonable efforts to maintain or cause to be maintained directors' and officers' liability insurance for claims relating to the period before the Merger, on terms at least as favorable as those contained in Flag's current directors' and officers' liability insurance policy.

Table of Contents

Other than the employment agreements and insurance and indemnification arrangements discussed above, no officers or directors of Flag, nor any of their associates, have any direct or indirect material interest in the Merger, except insofar as the following might be deemed to create such an interest:

potential change in control payments that may be owed following the Merger;

the ownership by such person of Flag common stock;

the continued employment by such person after consummation of the Merger; and after the effective date of the Merger, the eligibility of such persons to participate in RBC Centura employee benefit plans. Additionally, Flag may pay annual and merit-based salary increases to employees in accordance with the Merger Agreement and as approved by the compensation committee. The board of directors of Flag was aware of these interests and considered them, among other matters, in approving the Merger Agreement and related transactions.

THE MERGER AGREEMENT

Set forth below is a description of the material terms of the Merger Agreement. We urge you to read carefully, in its entirety, the Merger Agreement, which we have attached as Appendix A to this proxy statement and incorporated by reference into this document. If there is any discrepancy between the terms of the Merger Agreement and the following summary, the Merger Agreement will control.

Merger Structure

The Merger Agreement contemplates that Flag Acquisition Sub, a newly formed subsidiary of RBC Centura, will merge with and into Flag, with Flag surviving the Merger and becoming a wholly owned subsidiary of RBC Centura.

On September 6, 2006, the parties supplemented the Merger Agreement by adding Flag Acquisition Sub, Inc., the subsidiary that will merge with and into Flag, as a party to the Merger Agreement.

Effective Time of the Merger

The Merger will become effective when all of the conditions to the Merger have been satisfied and Articles of Merger are filed with the Georgia Secretary of State. Subject to the conditions specified in the Merger Agreement, including the receipt of all required regulatory approvals, the parties anticipate that the Merger will become effective by the end of 2006. There can be no assurances, however, as to whether or when the Merger will occur.

Treatment of Flag Common Stock

At the effective time of the Merger, each issued and outstanding share of Flag common stock, except those shares held by shareholders who are exercising their dissenters' rights under Georgia law, will be converted into the right to receive the Cash Consideration of $25.50 per share.

Procedure for Exchange of Flag Common Stock Certificates

Concurrently with the Merger, RBC Centura will deposit or will cause one of its affiliates to deposit with a paying agent, for the benefit of Flag's shareholders, cash sufficient to pay the Merger Consideration in exchange for shares of Flag common stock outstanding immediately prior to the Merger. The paying agent will mail to each shareholder of record promptly after the completion of the Merger a letter of transmittal providing instructions for the surrender of stock certificates by Flag shareholders. Shareholders who surrender their Flag common stock certificates, together with a duly executed letter of transmittal, will be entitled to receive the Cash Consideration, without interest. The surrendered Flag common stock certificates will be cancelled.

Promptly upon receipt of the Flag common stock certificates in accordance with the transmittal letter, the paying agent will deliver the portion of the Merger Consideration due to that shareholder, less any required tax withholdings.

Any portion of the cash deposited with the paying agent that remains unclaimed by Flag shareholders 180 days after the effective date of the Merger will be returned to the merged company. After the return of these funds, Flag shareholders may look only to RBC Centura for payment of the cash merger consideration.

Table of Contents

Holders of Flag common stock should not send in their Flag common stock certificates to the paying agent until they receive a transmittal letter from the paying agent.

Treatment of Stock Options

The Merger Agreement provides that each vested stock option that remains outstanding at the closing of the Merger will be cancelled and converted into the right to receive an amount in cash equal to the difference between the Merger Consideration and the applicable exercise price of the option, multiplied by the number of shares of common stock covered by the option, less applicable withholding taxes.

Representations and Warranties

The Merger Agreement contains representations and warranties of Flag and RBC Centura customary for agreements of this nature with regard to their respective businesses, financial condition and other facts pertinent to the Merger. Each of Flag and RBC Centura has made representations and warranties to the other in the Merger Agreement as to, among other things:

organization, corporate standing, qualification to do business and corporate power;

authorization of the Merger Agreement and the Merger;

regulatory approvals and consents required for the Merger;

the fact that the execution, delivery and performance of the Merger Agreement and consummation of the transactions will not violate, conflict with, or require a consent or approval under, or result in a breach of, any organizational documents of the party, any contract, commitment or other arrangement, or any law, statute, ordinance, rule, regulation, judgment, order, decree, permit or license; and the absence of litigation that would materially impair or impede completion of the Merger.

In addition, Flag has made additional representations and warranties to RBC Centura in the Merger Agreement as to, among other things:

Flag's capital stock and stock options;

Flag's subsidiaries;

Flag's SEC filings and financial statements;

the absence of undisclosed liabilities and material adverse changes;

litigation;

compliance with applicable laws;

material contracts and other agreements, including certain specifically identified agreements;

The representations and warranties described herein were made as of specific dates and, in many cases, are subject to important qualifications, limitations and supplemental information, including qualifications, limitations and supplemental information set forth in a disclosure schedule delivered by Flag to RBC Centura in connection with the signing of the Merger Agreement. In certain instances, the representations and warranties are subject to contractual standards of materiality that may be different from those standards of materiality that may be applicable to transactions with which you may be familiar. In addition, the representations and warranties may have been included in the Merger Agreement for the purpose of allocating risk between Flag and RBC Centura, rather than to establish matters as facts. The representations, warranties and other provisions of the Merger Agreement should not be read as statements of fact regarding Flag and RBC Centura, but instead should be read only in conjunction with the information provided elsewhere in this proxy statement and in the documents incorporated by reference into this proxy statement.

Conduct of Business Pending the Merger

During the period from the signing of the Merger Agreement until the Merger becomes effective, Flag has agreed, subject to the exceptions specified in the Merger Agreement, that it and its subsidiaries will not, without the consent of RBC Centura, among other things:

No Solicitation of Acquisition Proposals

Flag has agreed that it will not, and it will cause its representatives not to, solicit or encourage inquiries or proposals with respect to, or engage in any negotiations concerning, or provide any confidential information to, or have any discussions with, any person relating to any acquisition proposal other than that contemplated by the Merger Agreement. Flag has the right, however, to:

make any disclosure to Flag's shareholders if, in the good faith judgment of its board of directors, failure to do so would be inconsistent with its obligations under applicable law;

provide information to, or engage in discussions or negotiations with, any person who has made a bona fide written acquisition proposal, which was received after the date of the Merger Agreement and before the Special Meeting of shareholders, but which did not result from a breach of the non-solicitation provisions of the Merger Agreement; and recommend an acquisition proposal to its shareholders, and withdraw its favorable recommendation of the Merger, if (1) the acquisition proposal is a superior proposal (as such term is defined in the Merger Agreement), (2) Flag's board of directors, after having consulted with and considered the advice of outside counsel, determines in good faith that providing information or engaging in negotiations or discussions, or making a recommendation is required under Georgia law, and (3) Flag has received a confidentiality agreement from the person making the superior proposal.

Flag has also agreed to:

terminate any activities, discussions or negotiations with any parties regarding acquisition proposals conducted prior to the date of the Merger Agreement; and notify RBC Centura within 24 hours of receipt of any acquisition proposal and its material terms, including the identity of the person making the acquisition proposal.

Other Employee Benefits

Flag and RBC Centura have agreed that, after completion of the Merger:

During the one-year period following the effective time of the Merger, RBC Centura will provide Flag employees with pension and welfare benefits under employee benefit plans that are no less favorable, in the aggregate, than those provided by Flag and its subsidiaries immediately prior to the Merger.

The years of service of the Flag employees with Flag will be taken into account when determining eligibility and vesting (but not benefit accrual) under RBC Centura benefit plans.

Flag employees will retain credit for vacation pay accrued with Flag, and service of Flag employees will be treated as service with RBC Centura for determining entitlement to vacation pay.

Employees of Flag will not be subject to any waiting periods or pre-existing condition limitations under the employee benefit plans of RBC Centura in which they are eligible to participate.

Prior to the effective time of the Merger, Flag will terminate its 401(k) plan.

Flag's obligations to complete the Merger are also subject to the following conditions:

RBC Centura must have performed in all material respects its obligations under the Merger Agreement.
RBC Centura's obligations to complete the Merger are also subject to the following conditions:

Flag must have performed in all material respects its obligations under the Merger Agreement;

Flag shall have obtained all necessary third party consents (other than regulatory approvals) necessary to consummate the Merger, unless the failure to obtain any such consent would not result in a material adverse effect on the surviving corporation; and the employment agreements of each of Kim Michael Childers, James Allan LaHaise and J. Thomas Wiley shall be in full force and effect and shall not have been amended, and each such individual shall remain employed by Flag or Flag Bank and shall not have committed an act or omission that would permit his termination for cause under his employment agreement.

Termination of the Merger Agreement

Generally, the Merger Agreement may be terminated by Flag and/or RBC Centura under the following circumstances:

by Flag and RBC Centura upon mutual consent;

by either Flag or RBC Centura, if:

- o by the other party of any representation, warranty, covenant or agreement contained in the Merger Agreement, which cannot be or has not been cured within 30 days of written notice of the breach; and which breach, individually or in the aggregate with other breaches, would cause a condition of the Merger Agreement not be satisfied or is reasonable likely to prevent, materially delay or materially impair the ability of the parties to complete the Merger;

Table of Contents

- o the Merger is not consummated on or before March 31, 2007;
- o approval or consent of any regulatory authority required for consummation of the Merger has been denied by final non-appealable action; or
- o the shareholders of Flag fail to approve the Merger Agreement.

by RBC Centura, if:

- o at any time prior to the Special Meeting, Flag's board of directors fails to recommend that Flag shareholders approve the Merger Agreement, withdraws its recommendation to approve the Merger Agreement, or modifies or changes its recommendation in a manner adverse to the interests of RBC Centura; or

- o Flag or its board of directors recommends that Flag's shareholders approve any acquisition proposal other than the Merger.

Fees if the Merger Agreement is Terminated

Flag has agreed to pay RBC Centura a termination fee of $18,000,000 if the Merger Agreement is terminated under the following circumstances:

if RBC Centura terminates the Merger Agreement because Flag has breached any of its covenants with respect to (1) the solicitation of acquisition proposals or (2) convening a special meeting of shareholders to vote on approval of the Merger Agreement as promptly as practicable and soliciting shareholder approval of the Merger Agreement; or if, prior to the approval of the Merger Agreement and Merger by Flag's shareholders, (x) Flag's board fails to recommend that the shareholders approve the Merger Agreement or (y) Flag's board of directors (i) provides information to, or engages in discussions or negotiations with, any person other than RBC Centura that makes a bona fide written acquisition proposal after the date of the Merger Agreement, or (ii) recommends the acquisition proposal referred to in (i) above to Flag's shareholders; as long as RBC Centura is not in material breach of any of its covenants or agreements such that Flag would be entitled to terminate the Merger Agreement;

if Flag terminates the Merger Agreement at any time prior to the approval of the Merger Agreement by Flag's shareholders, and when Flag is not in breach of any material term of the Merger Agreement, because Flag's board of directors determines to enter into a definitive written agreement regarding a transaction that constitutes a superior proposal and notifies RBC Centura of this intention; or if Flag has not previously paid a termination fee to RBC Centura and any of the following events occur prior to a fee termination event as described below:

- o any person other than RBC Centura acquires beneficial ownership of 40% or more of Flag's then-outstanding common stock; or
- o Flag agrees, without the consent of RBC Centura, to enter into an acquisition transaction with a person other than RBC Centura. An acquisition transaction, for purposes of determining if a termination fee is due under this provision, includes a Merger, sale of substantially all of Flag's assets of any similar transaction, or a purchase of 25% or more of Flag's voting power.

A fee termination event is any of the following events:

the effective time of the Merger;

the termination of the agreement in accordance with its terms prior to the occurrence of any tolling events listed below, except if the Merger Agreement is terminated by RBC Centura due to a breach by Flag that is wholly not volitional of any of its representations, warranties, covenants or agreements contained in the Merger Agreement; or upon the lapse of 18 months after the termination of the Merger Agreement by RBC Centura after a tolling event or due to a breach by Flag that is wholly not volitional of any of its representations, warranties, covenants or agreements contained in the Merger Agreement.

A tolling event occurs when:

Flag agrees, without the consent of RBC Centura, to enter into an acquisition transaction with a person other than RBC Centura;

Flag or its board of directors recommends that Flag enter into an acquisition transaction with a third party, without RBC Centura's prior written consent;

a person other than RBC Centura acquires or obtains the right to acquire 20% or more of Flag's outstanding shares of common stock;

Flag's shareholders fail to approve the Merger or the Special Meeting is not held and a proposal to engage in an acquisition transaction with a third party is publicly announced;

Flag's board of directors withdraws, modifies or qualifies its recommendation with respect to the Merger, or Flag proposes, authorizes or recommends an agreement to engage in an acquisition transaction with a third party;

any person other than RBC Centura files with the SEC a registration statement or tender offer materials with respect to a potential exchange or tender offer that would result in an acquisition transaction with Flag, or if any person files a preliminary proxy statement with the SEC with respect to a potential vote by its shareholders to approve the issuance of shares to be offered in such an exchange offer;

Flag willfully breaches a covenant or obligation of the Merger Agreement in anticipation of an acquisition transaction and the breach entitles RBC Centura to terminate the Merger Agreement; or any person other than RBC Centura files an application or notice with any regulators or antitrust authority regarding an acquisition transaction.

Edgar Filing: FLAG FINANCIAL CORP - Form DEFM14A

An acquisition transaction for purposes of a tolling event is a merger, sale of substantially all of Flag's assets or any similar transaction, or a purchase of securities representing 20% or more of Flag's voting power.

Table of Contents

The payment of this fee is in addition to any other rights that RBC Centura has under the Merger Agreement or otherwise.

Waiver and Amendment

Prior to the effective date of the Merger, RBC Centura may waive any provision of the Merger Agreement from which it benefits, including any or all conditions precedent to the obligations of RBC Centura under the Merger Agreement. Flag also may waive any provision of the Merger Agreement from which it benefits, including any or all conditions precedent to the obligations of Flag under the Merger Agreement.

The Merger Agreement may be amended any time by an agreement in writing by the parties, provided that the parties may not amend the provisions of the Merger Agreement subsequent to the approval of the Merger Agreement by the shareholders of Flag if such amendment would require further approval of Flag's shareholders, without obtaining such required further approval.

Expenses

The Merger Agreement provides that RBC Centura and Flag will each pay their own expenses in connection with the Merger Agreement and related transactions, including, but not limited to, the fees and expenses of their own counsel and accountants. Legal and other professional expenses incurred separately by any shareholder in connection with the Merger (or any documents related thereto) shall be the individual responsibility of each shareholder.

Effect of Merger on Rights of Flag Shareholders

At the completion of the Merger, holders of the common stock of Flag will cease to have rights of shareholders and will only have the right to receive the Merger Consideration as set forth in the Merger Agreement.

Recommendation of the Board of Directors of Flag

The board of directors of Flag recommends that you vote FOR approval and adoption of the Merger Agreement.

Promptly after the Effective Time, the Surviving Corporation shall cause the Paying Agent to mail to each person who was, at the Effective Time, a holder of record of outstanding shares of Company Common Stock a form of letter of transmittal and instructions for use in effecting the surrender of the certificates which, immediately prior to the Effective Time, represented any of such shares in exchange for payment therefor. Upon surrender to the Paying Agent of such certificates, together with such letter of transmittal, duly executed and completed in accordance with the instructions thereto, the Surviving Corporation shall promptly cause the Paying Agent to pay to each person entitled thereto a check in the amount of the Consideration to which such person is entitled, after giving effect to any required Tax withholdings. One hundred and eighty days following the Effective Time, the Surviving Corporation shall be entitled to cause the Paying Agent to deliver to it any funds (including any interest or other amounts received with respect thereto) made available to the Paying Agent that have not been disbursed to holders of certificates formerly representing shares of Company Common Stock outstanding on the Effective Time, and thereafter such holders shall be entitled to look to the Surviving Corporation only as general creditors thereof with respect to the cash payable upon due surrender of their certificates. As a condition to the right to receive such payment, each holder shall deliver to the Acquiror an acknowledgement and waiver (in form and substance reasonably to be mutually agreed by the Acquiror and the Company prior to the Effective Time) that (i) confirms the cash amount to which such holder is entitled under such holder's Company Stock Options and (ii) releases the Company, the Acquiror and their respective affiliates, and the officers, directors and employees of the foregoing, from any and all claims relating to the Company Stock Options upon payment of the cash amount due. Each Company Stock Option to which this paragraph applies will be cancelled by the Company and shall cease to exist automatically as of the Effective Time. The Acquiror is, and Acquiror Sub will be, following its formation, duly qualified to do business and in good standing in the jurisdictions where the ownership or leasing of property or assets or the conduct of business requires such qualification.

(b) Corporate Power. The Acquiror and each of its Significant Subsidiaries each has, and Acquiror Sub will have, as of the Closing Date, the requisite power and authority to carry on its business as it is now being or, in the case of Acquiror Sub, will be, conducted and to own all its properties and assets; the Acquiror has, and Acquiror Sub will have, as of the date it executes a supplement to this Agreement, the corporate power and authority to execute, deliver and perform its obligations under this Agreement and, in the case of Acquiror Sub, to adopt the plan of merger contained in this Agreement and, in accordance therewith, to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby.

Acquiror Sub, enforceable in accordance with its terms (except as enforceability may be limited by applicable bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, and similar laws of general applicability relating to or affecting creditors' rights or by general equity principles).

(d) Regulatory Approvals: No Defaults. (1) No consents or approvals of, or filings or registrations with, any Governmental Authority or with any third party are required to be made or obtained by the Acquiror or any of its Subsidiaries in connection with the execution, delivery or performance by the Acquiror of this Agreement or to consummate the Merger or the other transactions contemplated hereby except for (A) the filing of applications and notices, as applicable, with the Federal Reserve System, the NCCOB and the GDBF with respect to the Merger; (B) the filing of a notification, if required, and expiration of the related waiting period under the HSR Act, (C) the filing of articles of merger with the Secretary of State of the State of Georgia pursuant to the GBCC; and (D) approval by the Superintendent of Financial Institutions under the Bank Act (Canada). As of the date hereof, the Acquiror is not aware of any reason why the approvals of all Governmental Authorities necessary to permit consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby will not be received on a timely basis without the imposition of a condition or requirement described in Section 7.01(b).

(2) Subject to receipt of the regulatory approvals, and expiration of the waiting periods, referred to in the preceding paragraph and the making of all required filings under federal and state securities laws, the execution, delivery and performance of this Agreement and the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby do not and will not (A) constitute a breach or violation of, or a default under, or give rise to any Lien, any acceleration of remedies, penalty, increase in material benefit payable or right of termination under, any law, rule or regulation or any judgment, decree, order, governmental permit or license, or Contract of the Acquiror or of any of its Subsidiaries or to which the Acquiror or any of its Subsidiaries or properties is subject or bound, (B) constitute a breach or violation of, or a default under, the Constitutive Documents of the Acquiror or any of its Subsidiaries or (C) require any consent or approval under any such law, rule, regulation, judgment, decree, order, governmental permit or license or Contract.

(e) Funds. At the Effective Time, the Acquiror will have the funds necessary to consummate the Merger and pay the Consideration in accordance with the terms of this Agreement.

(f) Interim Operations of Acquiror Sub. Acquiror Sub will be formed solely for the purpose of engaging in the transactions contemplated hereby and, as of the Closing Date, will have engaged in no business other than in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement. Acquiror Sub will be a direct or indirect wholly owned subsidiary of the Acquiror.

(g) No Brokers. No action has been taken by the Acquiror or Acquiror Sub that would give rise to any valid claim against any party hereto for a brokerage commission, finder's fee or other, like payment with respect to the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, except that the Acquiror has employed SunTrust Robinson Humphrey in connection with this transaction.

(h) Litigation. No litigation, claim or other proceeding before any court, arbitrator or Governmental Authority is pending against the Acquiror or any of its Subsidiaries and, to the Acquiror's knowledge, no such litigation, claim or other proceeding has been threatened, that would materially impair the ability of the Acquiror to perform its obligations under this Agreement or otherwise materially threaten or materially impede the consummation of the Merger and the other transactions contemplated by this Agreement.

(i) Disclosure. The information Previously Disclosed or otherwise provided to the Company in connection with this Agreement, when taken together with the representations and warranties contained herein, does not contain any untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state any material fact necessary in order to make the statements contained therein, in the light of the circumstances in which they are being made, not misleading. The copies of all documents furnished to the Company hereunder are true and complete.

ARTICLE VI

6.01 Reasonable Efforts. (a) Subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, each of the Company and the Acquiror agrees to use its reasonable best efforts in good faith to take, or cause to be taken, all actions, and to do, or cause to be done, all things necessary, proper or desirable, or advisable under applicable laws, so as to permit consummation of the Merger as promptly as practicable and otherwise to enable consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby and shall cooperate fully with, and furnish information to, the other party hereto to that end.

(b) Without limiting the generality of Section 6.01(a), the Company agrees to use its reasonable best efforts to obtain the consent or approval of all persons party to a Contract with the Company or any of its Subsidiaries, to the extent such consent or approval is required in order to consummate the Merger or for the Surviving Corporation to receive the benefits of such Contract.

6.02 Shareholder Approvals. The Company agrees to take, in accordance with applicable law, applicable NASDAQ National Market System rules and the Company's Constitutive Documents, all action necessary to convene an appropriate meeting of shareholders of the Company to consider and vote upon the approval of this Agreement and any other matters required to be approved by the Company's shareholders for consummation of the Merger and the transactions contemplated hereby (including any adjournment or postponement, the Company Meeting), and to solicit shareholder approval, as promptly as practicable after the date hereof. The Company Board has adopted a resolution contemplated by GBCC Section 14-2-1103 recommending that the shareholders approve this Agreement (and will keep such resolution in effect) and take any other action required to permit consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby. The obligation of the Company to hold the Company Meeting shall not be affected by any Acquisition Proposal or other event or circumstance and the Company agrees that it will not submit any Acquisition Proposal to its shareholders for a vote, unless this Agreement is terminated in accordance with its terms.

6.03 Proxy Statement. (a) The Acquiror and the Company will cooperate in the preparation of a proxy statement and other proxy solicitation materials of the Company (the Proxy Statement). The Acquiror agrees to provide as promptly as reasonably practicable all necessary information for inclusion in the Proxy Statement. The Company agrees to file the Proxy Statement in preliminary form with the SEC as promptly as reasonably practicable. The Company will advise the Acquiror promptly of the time when the Proxy Statement and any amendment or supplement to the Proxy Statement has been filed, and of any request by the SEC for amendment of the Proxy Statement or comments thereon and responses thereto or requests by the SEC for additional information. The Company agrees to use its reasonable best efforts, after consultation with the Acquiror, to respond promptly to all such comments of and requests by the SEC. Each party shall cooperate and provide the other party with a reasonable opportunity to review and comment on any amendment or supplement to the Proxy Statement prior to filing such with the SEC, and each party will provide the other party with a copy of such filings with the SEC.

(b) Each of the Company and the Acquiror agrees, as to itself and its Subsidiaries, that none of the information supplied or to be supplied by it for inclusion or incorporation by reference in the Proxy Statement and any amendment or supplement thereto will, at the date of mailing to shareholders and at the time of the Company Meeting, contain any untrue statement that, at the time and in the light of the circumstances under which such statement is made, is false or misleading with respect to any material fact, or omit to state any material fact necessary in order to make the statements therein not false or misleading or necessary to correct any earlier statement in the Proxy Statement or any amendment or supplement thereto. Each of the Company and the Acquiror further agrees that if it shall become aware prior to the Effective Time of any information furnished by it that would cause any of the statements in the Proxy Statement to be false or misleading with respect to any material fact, or to omit to state any material fact necessary to make the statements therein not false or misleading, to inform promptly the other party thereof and to take the necessary steps to correct the Proxy Statement.

(c) The Company will use its reasonable best efforts to cause the definitive Proxy Statement and all required amendments and supplements thereto to be mailed to its shareholders as promptly as practicable after the date hereof.

6.04 Press Releases. The initial press release concerning the Merger and the other transactions contemplated by this Agreement shall be a joint press release in such form agreed to in advance by the parties, and thereafter each of the Company and the Acquiror agrees that it will not, without the prior approval of the other party, issue any press release or written statement for general circulation relating to the transactions contemplated hereby (except for any release or statement that is required by law or regulation and as to which the Company or the Acquiror, as the case may be, has used its best efforts to discuss with the other in advance, provided that such release or statement has not been caused by, or is not the result of, a previous disclosure by or at the direction of the Company or the Acquiror, as the case may be, or any of its representatives that was not permitted by this Agreement).

6.05 Access; Information. (a) Upon reasonable notice and subject to applicable laws relating to the exchange of information, the Company shall afford the Acquiror and its officers, employees, counsel, accountants and other authorized representatives, such access during normal business hours throughout the period prior to the Effective Time to the books, records (including credit files, Tax returns and work papers of independent auditors), properties, personnel and to such other information as it may reasonably request and, during such period, the Company shall furnish promptly (1) a copy of each material report, schedule and other document filed by it pursuant to the requirements of federal or state securities or banking laws and (2) all other information concerning its business, properties and personnel as the Acquiror may reasonably request.

(b) Each of the Company and the Acquiror agrees that it will not, and will cause its representatives not to, use any information obtained pursuant to this Section 6.05 for any purpose unrelated to the consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement. Subject to the requirements of law, each party will keep confidential, and will cause its representatives to keep confidential, all information and documents obtained pursuant to this Section 6.05, and, with respect to the Company, in connection with the transactions contemplated hereby, unless such information (1) was already known to such party, (2) becomes available to such party from other sources not known by such party to be bound by a confidentiality obligation, (3) is disclosed with the prior written approval of the party to which such information pertains, (4) is or becomes readily ascertainable from published information or trade sources or (5) is such that such party is required by law or court order to disclose. If either party is required or reasonably believes that it is required to disclose any information described in this section by (i) law, (ii) any court of competent jurisdiction or (iii) any inquiry or investigation by any governmental, official or regulatory body which is lawfully entitled to require any such disclosure, such party (the Required Party) shall, so far as it is lawful, notify the other party of such required disclosure on the same day that the Required Party (a) is notified of a request for such disclosure from the relevant authority, body or other entity or (b) determines that such disclosure is required, whichever is earlier. Immediately thereafter, and to the extent practical on the same day, and subject to applicable laws, the parties shall discuss and use their reasonable best efforts to agree as to the mandatory nature, the required timing and the required content of such disclosure. The Required Party will furnish only that portion of the information described in this section that is legally required to be disclosed and will exercise its reasonable best efforts to obtain an order or other reliable assurance that confidential treatment will be accorded to the information described in this section so furnished. In the event that this Agreement is terminated or the transactions contemplated by this Agreement shall otherwise fail to be consummated, each party shall promptly cause all copies of documents or extracts thereof containing information and data as to another party hereto to be returned to the party which furnished the same, or at the other party's request, destroyed.

(c) No investigation by either party of the business and affairs of the other shall affect or be deemed to modify or waive any representation, warranty, covenant or agreement in this Agreement, or the conditions to either party's obligation to consummate the transactions contemplated by this Agreement.

(d) Promptly following the date hereof, the Company shall use its reasonable best efforts to cause any person to whom the Company has provided documents, data or other materials relating to the Company or its Subsidiaries in connection with the consideration of any business combination involving the Company to return or destroy any such documents, files, data or other materials in accordance with the confidentiality agreement between the Company and such person.

6.06 Acquisition Proposals. The Company agrees that it shall not, and shall cause its Subsidiaries and its and its Subsidiaries' representatives not to, solicit, encourage or otherwise facilitate inquiries or proposals with respect to, or engage in any negotiations concerning, or provide any confidential information to, or have any discussions with, any person relating to, any tender or exchange offer, proposal for a merger, consolidation or other business combination involving the Company or any of its Subsidiaries or any proposal or offer to acquire in any manner a substantial equity interest in, or a substantial portion of the business, assets or deposits of, the Company or any of its Subsidiaries, other than the transactions contemplated by this Agreement (any of the foregoing, an Acquisition Proposal); provided that nothing contained in this Agreement shall prevent the Company Board from (i) making any disclosure to its shareholders if, in the good faith judgment of the Company Board, failure so to disclose would be inconsistent with its obligations under applicable law; (ii) before the date of the Company Meeting, providing (or authorizing the provision of) information to, or engaging in (or authorizing) such discussions or negotiations with, any person who has made a bona fide written Acquisition Proposal received after the date hereof which did not result from a breach of this Section 6.06; or (iii) recommending such an Acquisition Proposal to its shareholders if and only to the extent that, in the case of actions referred to in clause (ii) or (iii), (x) such Acquisition Proposal is a Superior Proposal, (y) the Company Board, after having consulted with and considered the advice of outside counsel to the Company Board, determines in good faith that providing such information or engaging in such negotiations or discussions, or making such recommendation is required in order to discharge the directors' fiduciary duties to the Company and its shareholders in accordance with the GBCC and (z) the Company receives from such person making such Acquisition Proposal a confidentiality agreement substantially in the form of the Confidentiality Agreement. For purposes of this Agreement, a Superior Proposal means any Acquisition Proposal by a third party on terms that the Company Board determines in its good faith judgment, after receiving the advice of its financial and legal advisors (including with respect to prospects for approvals by Governmental Authorities), to be materially more favorable from a financial point of view to the Company and its shareholders than the Merger and the other transactions contemplated hereby, after taking into account the likelihood of consummation of such transaction on the terms set forth therein, taking into account all legal, financial (including the financing terms of any such proposal), regulatory and other aspects of such proposal and any other relevant factors permitted under applicable law, after giving the Acquiror at least five business days to respond to such third-party Acquisition Proposal once the Board has notified the Acquiror that in the absence of any further action by the Acquiror it would consider such Acquisition Proposal to be a Superior Proposal, and then taking into account any amendment or modification to this Agreement proposed by the Acquiror. The Company also agrees immediately to cease and cause to be terminated any activities, discussions or negotiations conducted prior to the date of this Agreement with any parties other than the Acquiror, with respect to any of the foregoing. The Company shall promptly (within 24 hours) advise the Acquiror following the receipt by it of any Acquisition Proposal and the material terms thereof (including the identity of the person making such Acquisition Proposal), and advise the Acquiror of any developments (including any change in such terms) with respect to such Acquisition Proposal promptly upon the occurrence thereof. The Company agrees that neither it nor any of its Subsidiaries shall terminate, amend, modify or waive any provision of or release any of its rights under any confidentiality or standstill agreement to which it is a party. The Company shall enforce, to the fullest extent permitted under applicable law, the provisions of any such agreement, including, but not limited to, by obtaining injunctions to prevent any breaches of such agreements and to enforce specifically the terms and provisions thereof in any court having jurisdiction.

Nothing contained in this Section 6.06 or any other provision of this Agreement will prohibit the Company or the Company Board from notifying any third party that contacts the Company on an unsolicited basis after the date hereof concerning an Acquisition Proposal of the Company's obligations under this Section 6.06.

6.07 Takeover Laws and Provisions. No party hereto shall knowingly take any action that would cause the transactions contemplated by this Agreement to be subject to requirements imposed by any Takeover Law and each of them shall take all necessary steps within its control to exempt (or ensure the continued exemption of) the transactions contemplated by this Agreement from, or if necessary challenge the applicability or validity of, any purportedly applicable Takeover Law, as now or hereafter in effect. No party hereto shall knowingly take any action that would cause the transactions contemplated hereby not to comply with any Takeover Provisions and each of them shall take all necessary steps within its control to make those transactions comply with (or continue to comply with) the Takeover Provisions.

6.08 No Rights Triggered. The Company shall take all reasonable steps necessary to ensure that the entering into of this Agreement and the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby and any other action or combination of actions, or any other transactions contemplated hereby, do not and will not result in the grant of any rights to any person (a) under the Constitutive Documents of the Company or (b) under any material Contract to which it or any of its Subsidiaries is a party except, in each case, as Previously Disclosed or contemplated by this Agreement.

6.09 Regulatory Applications. (a) The Acquiror and the Company and their respective Subsidiaries shall cooperate and use their respective reasonable best efforts to prepare all documentation, to effect all filings and to obtain all permits, consents, approvals and authorizations of all third parties and Governmental Authorities necessary to consummate the transactions contemplated by this Agreement. The Acquiror and the Company will promptly file applications, notices or other materials required to be filed with Governmental Authorities by applicable law in connection with the Merger and promptly file any additional information requested as soon as practicable after receipt of request thereof. Each party shall have the right to review in advance, and to the extent practicable to consult with the other party, subject to applicable laws relating to the exchange of information, with respect to, all material written information submitted to any third party or any Governmental Authority in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement. In exercising the foregoing right, the parties agree to act reasonably and as promptly as practicable. Each of the Acquiror and the Company agrees that it will consult with the other party hereto with respect to the obtaining of all material consents, registrations, approvals, permits and authorizations of all third parties and Governmental Authorities necessary or advisable to consummate the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, and each party will keep the other party apprised of the status of material matters relating to completion of the transactions contemplated hereby.

(b) Each of the Acquiror and the Company agrees, upon request, to furnish the other party with all information concerning itself, its Subsidiaries, directors, officers and shareholders and such other matters as may be reasonably necessary or advisable in connection with any filing, notice or application made by or on behalf of such other party or any of its Subsidiaries to any third party or Governmental Authority.

6.10 Indemnification. (a) Following the Effective Time and for a period of six years thereafter, the Acquiror shall, or shall cause the Surviving Corporation to, indemnify, defend and hold harmless the present and former directors and officers of the Company and its Subsidiaries (each, an Indemnified Party) against all costs or expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees), judgments, fines, losses, claims, damages or liabilities (collectively, Costs) incurred in connection with any claim, action, suit, proceeding or investigation, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, arising out of actions or omissions occurring at or prior to the Effective Time (including the transactions contemplated by this Agreement), whether asserted or claimed prior to, at or after the Effective Time (each, a Claim), to the fullest extent that the Company is permitted to indemnify its directors and officers under applicable law and its Constitutive Documents in effect on the date hereof (and the Acquiror shall, or shall cause the Surviving Corporation to, also advance expenses as incurred to the fullest extent permitted under applicable law provided the person to whom expenses are advanced provides an undertaking to repay such advances if it is ultimately determined that such person is not entitled to indemnification); provided that any determination required to be made with respect to whether such an officer's or director's conduct complies with the standards set forth under applicable law and the Company's Constitutive Documents shall be made by independent counsel reasonably acceptable to both the Indemnified Party and the Surviving Corporation.

(b) For a period of three years from the Effective Time, the Acquiror shall use its commercially reasonable efforts to provide (or cause the Surviving Corporation to provide) that portion of director's and officer's liability insurance that serves to reimburse the present and former officers and directors of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries (determined as of the Effective Time) with respect to claims against such directors and officers arising from facts or events which occurred before the Effective Time, which insurance shall contain at least the same coverage and amounts, and contain terms and conditions no less advantageous, as that coverage currently provided by the Company; provided, however, that in no event shall the Acquiror be required to expend more than twice the current amount spent by the Company (the Insurance Amount) to maintain or procure such directors' and officers' insurance coverage; provided, further, that if the Acquiror is unable to maintain or obtain the insurance called for by this Section 6.10(b), the Acquiror shall use its reasonable best efforts to obtain as much comparable insurance as is available for the Insurance Amount; provided, further, that officers and directors of the Company or any Subsidiary may be required to make application and provide customary representations and warranties to the Acquiror's insurance carrier for the purpose of obtaining such insurance.

(c) Any Indemnified Party wishing to claim indemnification under Section 6.10(a), upon learning of a Claim, shall promptly notify the Acquiror thereof; provided that the failure so to notify shall not affect the obligations of the Acquiror under Section 6.10(a) unless and to the extent that the Acquiror is actually prejudiced as a result of such failure. In the event of a Claim (whether arising before or after the Effective Time), (1) the Acquiror or the Surviving Corporation shall have the right to assume the defense thereof and the Acquiror shall not be liable to such Indemnified Parties for any legal expenses of other counsel or any other expenses subsequently incurred by such Indemnified Parties in connection with the defense thereof, except that if the Acquiror or the Surviving Corporation elects not to assume such defense or counsel for the Indemnified Parties advises that there are issues that raise conflicts of interest between the Acquiror or the Surviving Corporation and the Indemnified Parties, the Indemnified Parties may retain counsel satisfactory to them, and the Acquiror or the Surviving Corporation shall pay all reasonable fees and expenses of such counsel for the Indemnified Parties promptly as statements therefor are received; provided, however, that the Acquiror shall be obligated pursuant to this paragraph (c) to pay for only one firm of counsel for all Indemnified Parties in any jurisdiction unless the use of one counsel for such Indemnified Parties would present such counsel with a conflict of interest, (2) the Indemnified Parties will cooperate in the defense of any such matter and (3) the Acquiror shall not be liable for any settlement effected without its prior written consent, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld; and provided, further, that the Acquiror shall not have any obligation hereunder to any Indemnified Party when and if a court of competent jurisdiction shall ultimately determine, and such determination shall have become final and non-appealable, that the indemnification of such Indemnified Party in the manner contemplated hereby is prohibited by applicable law.

(d) If the Acquiror or any of its successors or assigns shall consolidate with or merge into any other entity and shall not be the continuing or surviving entity of such consolidation or merger or shall transfer all or substantially all of its assets to any entity, then and in each case, proper provision shall be made so that the successors and assigns of the Acquiror shall assume the obligations set forth in this Section 6.10.

(e) The provisions of this Section 6.10 are intended to benefit, and may be enforced by, all Indemnified Parties and their respective heirs and representatives.

6.11 Notification of Certain Matters. (a) Each of the Company and the Acquiror shall give prompt notice to the other of any fact, event or circumstance known to it that would reasonably be expected, individually or taken together with all other facts, events and circumstances known to it, (1) to result in any Material Adverse Effect with respect to it or (2) to cause or constitute a material breach of any of its representations, warranties, covenants or agreements contained herein without giving effect to any Material Adverse Effect qualifications.

(b) The Company shall promptly notify the Acquiror of any written notice or other bona fide communication from any person alleging that the consent of such person is or may be required as a condition to the Merger.

(c) The Company and each of its Subsidiaries shall, prior to the Closing Date, notify its insurers in writing of all known incidents, events and circumstance that would reasonably be expected to give rise to a claim against the Company or its Subsidiaries, as applicable.

6.12 Employee Benefits.

(a) The Acquiror agrees that, during the period commencing at the Effective Time and ending on the first anniversary thereof, the employees of the Company and its Subsidiaries will continue to be provided with pension and welfare benefits under employee benefit plans that are no less favorable in the aggregate than those provided by the Company and its Subsidiaries to such employees immediately prior to the Effective Time. Following the Effective Time, employees of the Company and its Subsidiaries will cease participation in the Company's benefit programs and become eligible members of the Acquiror's or its Affiliates benefit programs.

Table of Contents

(b) The Acquiror will cause each employee benefit plan of Acquiror and its Subsidiaries in which employees of the Company and its Subsidiaries are eligible to participate to take into account for purposes of eligibility and vesting thereunder, but not for purposes of benefit accrual, the prior service of such employees with the Company and its Subsidiaries as if such service were with Acquiror and its Subsidiaries, to the same extent that such service was credited under a comparable plan of the Company. The Acquiror will (1) waive any preexisting condition and waiting periods under employee benefit plans applicable to the Acquiror in which the employees of the Company and its Subsidiaries are eligible to participate (other than requirements that become applicable because the employee of the Company or its Subsidiaries seeks to increase the scope or level of his or her benefits) and (2) cause such employee benefit plans to honor any expenses incurred by the employee and his or her beneficiaries under similar plans of the Company or its Subsidiaries during the portion of the calendar year in which he or she became an employee of the Acquiror for purposes of satisfying applicable calendar year deductibles and maximum out-of-pocket expenses, coordinated with the employee benefit plans of the Acquiror, as appropriate. Employees of the Company and its Subsidiaries will retain credit for vacation pay which has been accrued as of the Effective Time and for purposes of determining the entitlement of such employees to vacation pay following the Effective Time, the service of such employees with the Company and its Subsidiaries shall be treated as if such service was with Acquiror and its Subsidiaries.

(c) Prior to the Effective Time, the Company shall take all actions necessary to terminate the FLAG Financial Corporation Retirement Plan effective as of the day prior to the Closing Date, including adopting resolutions of the Company Board.

(d) The Company shall be responsible for providing or discharging any and all notifications, benefits and liabilities to employees and Governmental Authorities required by the WARN Act or by any other applicable law relating to plant closings or employee separations or severance pay that are required to be provided before the Effective Time as a result of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement and Acquiror shall be responsible for any and all such matters following the Effective Time. The Company shall cooperate in preparing and distributing any notices that Acquiror may desire to provide prior to the Effective Time, in connection with actions by Acquiror after the Effective Time would result in a notice requirement under such laws.

(e) As soon as practicable following the date hereof, the Company shall take all steps necessary (1) to amend the First Capital Bancorp, Inc. Directors' Deferral Plan (the Deferral Plan) to provide that any additional amounts deferred under the Deferral Plan from the date hereof through the Closing Date shall not be notionally invested in shares of Company Stock and that any dividends paid on shares of Company Stock in the Rabbi Trust (within the meaning of the Deferral Plan) shall not be reinvested under the Plan or the Rabbi Trust and (2) to terminate the Deferral Plan effective as of the Closing Date.

6.13 Certain Adjustments. Upon the request of the Acquiror, the Company shall (a) consistent with generally accepted accounting principles and regulatory accounting principles, use its best efforts to record any accounting adjustments required to conform the (1) loan, litigation and other reserves (including loan classifications and levels of reserves) and (2) real estate and securities valuation policies and practices of the Company and its Subsidiaries so as to reflect consistently on a mutually satisfactory basis the policies and practices of the Acquiror and (b) make reasonable adjustments to the corporate structure of the Company or its direct or indirect subsidiaries and transfer assets or liabilities between the Company and its Subsidiaries or between Subsidiaries; provided, however, that the Company shall not be obligated to record any such accounting adjustments (1) unless and until the Company shall be satisfied that the conditions to the obligation of the parties to consummate the Merger will be satisfied or waived on or before the Closing Date and (2) in no event until the day prior to the Closing Date.

6.14 Certain Contracts. Prior to the Effective Time, the Company (a) shall cause any Contracts with Related Persons (other than Compensation Plans) specified by the Acquiror to be terminated (effective immediately prior to or as of the Effective Time) without any penalty or other adverse consequences to the Company or any of its Subsidiaries and (b) will use its reasonable best efforts to cause the Contracts with third parties reasonably requested by the Acquiror to be terminated (effective immediately prior to or as of the Effective Time) without any penalty or other adverse consequences to the Company or any of its Subsidiaries or to be amended in the manner reasonably requested by the Acquiror; provided, however, that the Company shall not be obligated to cause any such Contract to be terminated unless and until the Company shall be satisfied that the conditions to the obligation of the parties to consummate the Merger will be satisfied or waived on or before the Closing Date, and such terminations shall be conditioned upon the consummation of the Merger.

6.15 Regulatory Compliance. In consultation with the Acquiror, the Company will take all reasonable measures to ensure that the Surviving Corporation's subsidiary depository institutions will perform at a level of at least satisfactory under the CRA and that the Surviving Corporation and its subsidiary depository institutions should be deemed well managed by their appropriate Federal banking agency (as such term is defined in Section 3(q) of the Federal Deposit Insurance Act).

6.16 Formation of Acquiror Sub. As soon as practicable following the date of this Agreement, the Acquiror shall cause Acquiror Sub to be duly organized as a direct or indirect wholly owned Subsidiary of the Acquiror and to become a party to this Agreement by executing and delivering a supplement hereto.

6.17 Post-Closing Merger. The Company acknowledges that following the Effective Time, Acquiror intends to effect the merger of the Company and the Bank with and into RBC Centura Bank (the Post-Closing Mergers). Prior to the Effective Time, upon the Acquiror's request, and at the Acquiror's sole cost and expense, the Company shall take, or cause to be taken, all actions, and to do, or cause to be done, all things necessary, proper or desirable, so as to permit consummation of the Post-Closing Mergers and shall cooperate fully with, and furnish information to, the Acquiror to that end, including entering into such Contracts and filing such applications, notices and other documents with Governmental Authorities as necessary to effect the Post-Closing Mergers; provided that the effectiveness of any such Contracts shall be contingent upon the consummation of the Merger in accordance with this Agreement.

ARTICLE VII

Conditions to Consummation of the Merger

7.01 Conditions to Each Party's Obligation to Effect the Merger. The obligation of each of the Acquiror, Acquiror Sub and the Company to consummate the Merger is subject to the fulfillment or written waiver by the Acquiror and the Company prior to the Effective Time of each of the following conditions:

(a) Shareholder Approval. This Agreement shall have been duly approved and adopted and a plan of merger shall have been duly approved by the affirmative vote of the holders of the requisite number of the outstanding shares of Company Common Stock entitled to vote thereon in accordance with applicable law and the Company's Constitutive Documents.

(b) Governmental and Regulatory Consents. All approvals and authorizations of, filings and registrations with, and notifications to, all Governmental Authorities required for the consummation of the Merger, and for the prevention of any termination of any material right, privilege, license or agreement of either the Acquiror or the Company or their respective Subsidiaries, shall have been obtained or made and shall be in full force and effect and all waiting periods required by law shall have expired; provided, however, that none of the preceding shall be deemed obtained or made if it shall be subject to any condition or restriction the effect of which, together with any other such conditions or restrictions, would impose or is reasonably likely to impose a material burden on the Acquiror and its Subsidiaries or the Company and its Subsidiaries or a material burden on the manner and method in which the businesses or operations of the Acquiror and its Subsidiaries or the Company and its Subsidiaries are conducted after the Effective Time.

(c) No Injunction. No Governmental Authority of competent jurisdiction shall have enacted, issued, promulgated, enforced or entered any statute, rule, regulation, judgment, decree, injunction or other order (whether temporary, preliminary or permanent) which is in effect and prohibits consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement. (a) Representations and Warranties. Subject to the standard set forth in Section 5.02, the representations and warranties of the Acquiror set forth in this Agreement shall be true and correct as of the date of this Agreement and as of the Closing Date as though made on and as of the Closing Date (except that representations and warranties that by their terms speak as of the date of this Agreement or some other date shall be true and correct only as of such date), and the Company shall have received a certificate, dated the Closing Date, signed on behalf of the Acquiror by a senior officer of the Acquiror having authority to bind the Acquiror to such effect.

(b) Performance of Obligations of the Acquiror and Acquiror Sub. The Acquiror and Acquiror Sub shall have performed in all material respects all obligations required to be performed by it under this Agreement at or prior to the Effective Time, and the Company shall have received a certificate, dated the Closing Date, signed on behalf of the Acquiror by a senior officer of the Acquiror having authority to bind the Acquiror to such effect.

7.03 Conditions to Obligation of the Acquiror. The obligations of the Acquiror to consummate the Merger are also subject to the fulfillment or written waiver by the Acquiror prior to the Effective Time of each of the following conditions:

(a) Representations and Warranties. Subject to the standard set forth in Section 5.02, the representations and warranties of the Company set forth in this Agreement shall be true and correct as of the date of this Agreement and as of the Closing Date as though made on and as of the Closing Date (except that representations and warranties that by their terms speak as of the date of this Agreement or some other date shall be true and correct only as of such date), and the Acquiror shall have received a certificate, dated the Closing Date, signed on behalf of the Company by the Chief Executive Officer and the Chief Financial Officer of the Company to such effect.

(b) Performance of Obligations of the Company. (c) Third Party Consents. All consents or approvals of all persons, other than Governmental Authorities, required for or in connection with the execution, delivery and performance of this Agreement and the consummation of the Merger shall have been obtained and shall be in full force and effect, unless the failure to obtain any such consent or approval is not reasonably likely to have, individually or in the aggregate, a Material Adverse Effect on the Surviving Corporation.

(d) Employment Agreements. The Employment Agreements of each individual set forth on Annex 2 shall be in full force and effect and shall not have been amended and, in each case, such individual shall remain employed by the Company or a Subsidiary of the Company, and shall not have committed an act or omission that would permit their termination for cause thereunder; provided that this condition shall not be deemed unsatisfied as a result of the death or disability of one of such individuals.

ARTICLE VIII

8.01 Termination. This Agreement may be terminated and the Merger may be abandoned:

(a) Mutual Consent. At any time prior to the Effective Time, by the mutual consent of the Acquiror and the Company, if the Board of Directors of each so determines by vote of a majority of the members of its entire Board.

(b) Breach. At any time prior to the Effective Time, by the Acquiror or the Company (and with written notice to the other party), in each case if its Board of Directors so determines by vote of a majority of the members of its entire Board, in the event of either: (1) a breach by the other party of any representation or warranty contained herein, which breach cannot be or has not been cured within 30 days after the giving of written notice to the breaching party of such breach; or (2) a breach by the other party of any of the covenants or agreements contained herein, which breach cannot be or has not been cured within 30 days after the giving of written notice to the breaching party of such breach and which breach, individually or in the aggregate with other such breaches, would cause the conditions set forth in Section 7.03(a) or (b), in the case of a breach or breaches by the Company, or Section 7.02(a) or (b), in the case of a breach or breaches by the Acquiror, not to be satisfied or would reasonably be expected to prevent, materially delay or materially impair the ability of the Company or the Acquiror to consummate the Merger and the other transactions contemplated by this Agreement.

(c) Delay. At any time prior to the Effective Time, by the Acquiror or the Company (and with written notice to the other party), in each case if its Board of Directors so determines by vote of a majority of the members of its entire Board, in the event that the Merger is not consummated by March 31, 2007 (the Permitted Termination Date), except to the extent that the failure of the Merger then to be consummated arises out of or results from the action or inaction of the party seeking to terminate pursuant to this Section 8.01(c).

(d) No Approval. By the Company or the Acquiror (and with written notice to the other party), in each case if its Board of Directors so determines by a vote of a majority of the members of its entire Board, in the event the approval of any Governmental Authority required for consummation of the Merger and the other transactions contemplated by this Agreement shall have been denied by final nonappealable action of such Governmental Authority.

(e) Failure to Recommend, Etc. By the Acquiror (and with written notice to the Company), if (1) at any time prior to the receipt of the approval of the Company's shareholders contemplated by Section 7.01(a), the Company Board shall have failed to recommend that the shareholders give such approval, withdrawn such recommendation or modified, qualified or changed such recommendation (or publicly announced its intention to withdraw, modify, qualify or change) in a manner adverse to the interests of the Acquiror or (2) the Company Board takes any of the actions described in clause (ii) or (iii) of the proviso to Section 6.06.

8.03 Termination Fee. (a) In addition to any other rights that the Acquiror has under this Agreement and/or otherwise, the Company shall pay to the Acquiror $18,000,000 (the Termination Fee) (it being understood that such fee is not intended as liquidated damages), if:

(i) this Agreement is terminated by the Acquiror pursuant to (A) Section 8.01(b) with respect to a breach of Section 6.02 or 6.06 on the part of the Company or (B) Section 8.01(e); or

(ii) this Agreement is terminated by the Company pursuant to Section 8.01(f); or

(iii) a Fee Payment Event shall have occurred prior to the occurrence of a Fee Termination Event; provided that the Company has not previously paid a Termination Fee to the Acquiror pursuant to clause (i) or (ii) of this Section 8.03(a).

(b) Each of the following shall be a Fee Termination Event : (i) the Effective Time; (ii) termination of this Agreement in accordance with its terms, other than a Listed Termination, if such termination occurs prior to the occurrence of a Tolling Event; or (iii) the passage of eighteen (18) months after termination of this Agreement if such termination follows the occurrence of a Tolling Event or is a Listed Termination. The term Listed Termination shall mean a termination by the Acquiror pursuant to Section 8.01(b) (unless the breach giving rise to such right of termination is wholly not volitional on the part of Company, its Affiliates or representatives).

(c) The term Tolling Event shall mean any of the following events or transactions occurring on or after the date hereof:

(i) The Company or any of its Subsidiaries, without having received the Acquiror's prior written consent, shall have entered into an agreement to engage in an Acquisition Transaction with any person other than the Acquiror or any of its Subsidiaries (each an Acquiror Subsidiary), or the Company Board shall have recommended that the shareholders of the Company approve or accept any Acquisition Transaction with any person other than the Acquiror or an Acquiror Subsidiary.

ownership of 20 percent or more of the outstanding shares of Company Common Stock (the term beneficial ownership for purposes of this Agreement having the meaning assigned thereto in Section 13(d) of the Exchange Act, and the rules and regulations thereunder);

(iii) The shareholders of the Company shall have voted and failed to approve this Agreement at a meeting which has been held for that purpose or any adjournment or postponement thereof, or such meeting shall not have been held or shall have been canceled prior to termination of this Agreement if, prior to such meeting (or if such meeting shall not have been held or shall have been canceled, prior to such termination), it shall have been publicly announced that any person (other than the Acquiror or any of its Subsidiaries) shall have made, or disclosed an intention to make, a bona fide proposal to engage in an Acquisition Transaction;

(iv) The Company Board shall have withdrawn, modified, qualified or changed (or publicly announced its intention to withdraw, modify, qualify or changed) in any manner adverse in any respect to the Acquiror its recommendation that the shareholders of the Company approve the transactions contemplated by this Agreement in anticipation of engaging in an Acquisition Transaction, or the Company shall have authorized, recommended, proposed (or publicly announced its intention to authorize, recommend or propose) an agreement to engage in an Acquisition Transaction with any person other than the Acquiror or its Subsidiary;

(v) Any person other than the Acquiror or any Acquiror Subsidiary shall have filed with the SEC a registration statement or tender offer materials with respect to a potential exchange or tender offer that would constitute an Acquisition Transaction (or filed a preliminary proxy statement with the SEC with respect to a potential vote by its shareholders to approve the issuance of shares to be offered in such an exchange offer);

(vi) The Company shall have willfully breached any covenant or obligation contained in this Agreement after an overture is made by a third party to Company or its shareholders to engage in an Acquisition Transaction, and following such breach the Acquiror would be entitled to terminate this Agreement (whether immediately or after the giving of notice or passage of time or both); or

In any case such payment shall be made, without setoff, by wire transfer in immediately available funds, to an account specified by the Acquiror.

(f) The Company acknowledges that the agreements contained in this Section 8.03 are an integral part of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement and are cumulative with, and not intended to limit, other remedies that may be available, and that, without these agreements, the Acquiror would not enter into this Agreement; accordingly, if the Company fails promptly to pay any amount due pursuant to this Section 8.03, and, in order to obtain such payment, the Acquiror commences a suit which results in a judgment against the Company for the payment set forth in this Section 8.03, the Company shall pay the Acquiror's costs and expenses (including attorneys' fees) in connection with such suit, together with interest on any amount due pursuant to this Section 8.03 from the date such amount becomes payable until the date of such payment at the prime rate published in The Wall Street Journal on the date such payment was required to be made plus two percent.

(g) The Company shall notify the Acquiror promptly in writing of the occurrence of any Tolling Event or Fee Payment Event, it being understood that the giving of such notice by the Company shall not be a condition to the Acquiror's rights pursuant to this Section 8.03.

GEORGIA BUSINESS CORPORATION CODE

ARTICLE 13.

DISSENTERS RIGHTS

PART 1. RIGHT TO DISSENT AND OBTAIN PAYMENT FOR SHARES

14-2-1301 Definitions. - As used in this article, the term:

- (1) Beneficial Shareholder means the person who is a beneficial owner of shares held in a voting trust or by a nominee as the record shareholder.
- (2) Corporate action means the transaction or other action by the corporation that creates dissenters rights under Code Section 14-2-1302.
- (3) Corporation means the issuer of shares held by a dissenter before the corporate action, or the surviving or acquiring corporation by merger or share exchange of that issuer.
- (4) Dissenter means a shareholder who is entitled to dissent from corporate action under Code Section 14-2-1302 and who exercises that right when and in the manner required by Code Sections 14-2-1320 through 14-2-1327.
- (5) Fair value, with respect to a dissenter's shares, means the value of the shares immediately before the effectuation of the corporate action to which the dissenter objects, excluding any appreciation or depreciation in anticipation of the corporate action.
- (6) Interest means interest from the effective date of the corporate action until the date of payment, at a rate that is fair and equitable under all the circumstances.
- (7) Record shareholder means the person in whose name shares are registered in the records of a corporation or the beneficial owner of shares to the extent of the rights granted by a nominee certificate on file with a corporation.
- (8) Shareholder means the record shareholder or the beneficial shareholder.

14-2-1302 Right To Dissent. - (a) A record shareholder of the corporation is entitled to dissent from, and obtain payment of the fair value of his shares in the event of, any of the following corporate actions:

- (1) Consummation of a plan of merger to which the corporation is a party:
 - (A) If approval of the shareholders of the corporation is required for the merger by Code Section 14-2-1103 or the articles of incorporation and the shareholder is entitled to vote on the merger, unless:

- (i) The corporation is merging into a subsidiary corporation pursuant to Code Section 14-2-1104;
- (ii) Each shareholder of the corporation whose shares were outstanding immediately prior to the effective time of the merger shall receive a like number of shares of the surviving corporation, with designations, preferences, limitations, and relative rights identical to those previously held by each shareholder; and
- (iii) The number and kind of shares of the surviving corporation outstanding immediately following the effective time of the merger, plus the number and kind of shares issuable as a result of the merger and by conversion of securities issued pursuant to the merger, shall not exceed the total number and kind of shares of the corporation authorized by its articles of incorporation immediately prior to the effective time of the merger; or

Table of Contents

(B) If the corporation is a subsidiary that is merged with its parent under Code Section 14-2-1104;

- (2) Consummation of a plan of share exchange to which the corporation is a party as the corporation whose shares will be acquired, if the shareholder is entitled to vote on the plan;
- (3) Consummation of a sale or exchange of all or substantially all of the property of the corporation if a shareholder vote is required on the sale or exchange pursuant to Code Section 14-2-1202, but not including a sale pursuant to court order or a sale for cash pursuant to a plan by which all or substantially all of the net proceeds of the sale will be distributed to the shareholders within one year after the date of sale;
- (4) An amendment of the articles of incorporation with respect to a class or series of shares that reduces the number of shares of a class or series owned by the shareholder to a fraction of a share if the fractional share so created is to be acquired for cash under Code Section 14-2-604; or
- (5) Any corporate action taken pursuant to a shareholder vote to the extent that Article 9 of this chapter, the articles of incorporation, bylaws, or a resolution of the board of directors provides that voting or nonvoting shareholders are entitled to dissent and obtain payment for their shares.

(b) A shareholder entitled to dissent and obtain payment for his or her shares under this article may not challenge the corporate action creating his or her entitlement unless the corporate action fails to comply with procedural requirements of this chapter or the articles of incorporation or bylaws of the corporation or the vote required to obtain approval of the corporate action was obtained by fraudulent and deceptive means, regardless of whether the shareholder has exercised dissenters' rights.

(c) Notwithstanding any other provision of this article, there shall be no right of dissent in favor of the holder of shares of any class or series which, at the record date fixed to determine the shareholders entitled to receive notice of and to vote at a meeting at which a plan of merger or share exchange or a sale or exchange of property or an amendment of the articles of incorporation is to be acted on, were either listed on a national securities exchange or held of record by more than 2,000 shareholders, unless:

- (1) In the case of a plan of merger or share exchange, the holders of shares of the class or series are required under the plan of merger or share exchange to accept for their shares anything except shares of the surviving corporation or another publicly held corporation which at the effective date of the merger or share exchange are either listed on a national securities exchange or held of record by more than 2,000 shareholders, except for scrip or cash payments in lieu of fractional shares; or
- (2) The articles of incorporation or a resolution of the board of directors approving the transaction provides otherwise.

14-2-1303 Dissent By Nominees And Beneficial Owners. - A record shareholder may assert dissenters' rights as to fewer than all the shares registered in his name only if he dissents with respect to all shares beneficially owned by any one beneficial shareholder and notifies the corporation in writing of the name and address of each person on whose behalf he asserts dissenters' rights. The rights of a partial dissenter under this Code section are determined as if the shares as to which he dissents and his other shares were registered in the names of different shareholders.

(b) The offer of payment must be accompanied by:
