Material Definitive Agreements

As a consequence of the Merger, the Company succeeded to a number of additional material definitive agreements entered into by Jamba Juice. Each of these agreements have been filed as an exhibit to this current report on Form 8-K under Item 9.01(d) and are summarized below.

Real Property Leases

The Company's corporate headquarters is located at 1700 17th Street, San Francisco, California. This facility is occupied under a lease for approximately 30,000 square feet at a cost of approximately $498,000 per year and it terminates on December 31, 2006. On July 28, 2006, Jamba Juice entered into a lease for new corporate headquarters to be located at 6475 Christie Avenue, Emeryville, California with an anticipated occupancy date on or before March 31, 2007. The Emeryville facility is for approximately 36,000 square feet at a cost of approximately $975,000 per year. In order to facilitate the Company's move to Emeryville, on October 2, 2006 the landlord of the San Francisco facility and Jamba Juice agreed to a lease addendum that extends the lease term to March 31, 2007. The above description of the real property leases does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full lease agreements, copies of which are filed as Exhibits 10.5 and 10.6 hereto.

Credit Line

The Company succeeded to an existing revolving line of credit for a maximum principal amount of up to $35 million or 1.5 times trailing earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation and amortization. Reference is made to the disclosure set forth under Item 2.03 to a current report on Form 8-K filed by the Company on December 5, 2006 concerning the terms of the revolving line of credit, which is incorporated herein by reference.

Distribution Agreement

The Company succeeded to an existing distribution agreement between Jamba Juice and Southwest Traders, Inc. (Southwest Traders). Southwest Traders is a distributor of proprietary products to both company owned and franchise stores. Southwest Traders distributes ingredients that make up approximately 85%, 87%, and 94% of product cost included in Jamba Juice's cost of sales for fiscal years 2006, 2005 and 2004, respectively. Southwest Traders does not manufacture or negotiate pricing agreements for products sold in Jamba Juice stores and serves solely in a warehousing and distribution capacity, receiving a fixed percentage mark up on the independently negotiated cost of ingredients. Jamba Juice's contract provides that through December 31, 2007 it will use Southwest Traders as its exclusive distributor within certain territorial boundaries provided they meet required service levels. The contract is not subject to cancellation unless either party defaults within the contract due to non-performance. This description of the Southwest Traders distribution agreement does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the agreement itself, a copy of which is filed as Exhibit 10.3 hereto. From time to time Jamba Juice enters into distribution agreements with various suppliers of ingredients. A copy of such form of distribution agreement has been filed as Exhibit 10.4 hereto.

Item 2.01 Completion of Acquisition or Disposition of Assets.

As disclosed above, on November 29, 2006, SACI and Jamba Juice consummated the Merger. The Agreement and Plan of Merger provided for the acquisition by SACI of all of the outstanding securities of Jamba Juice through the merger of JJC Acquisition Company, a wholly-owned subsidiary of SACI, or Merger Sub, with and into Jamba Juice and the assumption of certain options and warrants. The Agreement and Plan of Merger was executed on March 10, 2006 and it was subsequently amended on each of August 2, 2006, August 29, 2006 and November 6, 2006, to, among other things, extend the termination date thereunder to December 8, 2006.

Upon consummation of the Merger, Jamba Juice became a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company, and the business and assets of Jamba Juice are its only operations. Subject to certain reductions as described in the Definitive Proxy Statement, the Jamba Juice shareholders were paid an aggregate of $265,000,000 in cash for all of the outstanding securities of Jamba Juice, including the value of all shares of Jamba Juice capital stock issuable upon exercise of all in-the-money vested and unvested options and warrants of Jamba Juice, subject to the optionholders and warrant holders, in certain instances, having the right to exchange their respective options and warrants into options and warrants of the Company.

The merger was financed through a combination of the approximately $131,238,861 raised in SACI's initial public offering and currently held in the trust fund, with the balance funded by the issuance in a private placement financing of 30,879,999 shares of common stock at a price per share of $7.50, resulting in gross proceeds of approximately $231,600,000, and net proceeds of approximately $224,850,000 after the payment of certain fees. As described in greater detail below under Item 3.02 below, the private placement financing closed on November 29, 2006. The Company's certificate of incorporation provides that all directors, officers, employees and agents of the registrant shall be entitled to be indemnified by us to the fullest extent permitted by Section 145 of the Delaware General Corporation Law.

Section 145 of the Delaware General Corporation Law concerning indemnification of officers, directors, employees and agents is set forth below.

Section 145. Indemnification of officers, directors, employees and agents; insurance.

(a) A corporation shall have power to indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (other than an action by or in the right of the corporation) by reason of the fact that the person is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, against expenses (including attorneys' fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by the person in connection with such action, suit or proceeding if the person acted in good faith and in a manner the person reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe the person's conduct was unlawful. The termination of any action, suit or proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, conviction, or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent, shall not, of itself, create a presumption that the person did not act in good faith and in a manner which the person reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had reasonable cause to believe that the person's conduct was unlawful.

(b) A corporation shall have power to indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action or suit by or in the right of the corporation to procure a judgment in its favor by reason of the fact that the person is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise against expenses (including attorneys' fees) actually and reasonably incurred by the person in connection with the defense or settlement of such action or suit if the person acted in good faith and in a manner the person reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation and except that no indemnification shall be made in respect of any claim, issue or matter as to which such person shall have been adjudged to be liable to the corporation unless and only to the extent that the Court of Chancery or the court in which such action or suit was brought shall determine upon application that, despite the adjudication of liability but in view of all the circumstances of the case, such person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for such expenses which the Court of Chancery or such other court shall deem proper.

(c) To the extent that a present or former director or officer of a corporation has been successful on the merits or otherwise in defense of any action, suit or proceeding referred to in subsections (a) and (b) of this section, or in defense of any claim, issue or matter therein, such person shall be indemnified against expenses (including attorneys' fees) actually and reasonably incurred by such person in connection therewith.

(d) Any indemnification under subsections (a) and (b) of this section (unless ordered by a court) shall be made by the corporation only as authorized in the specific case upon a determination that indemnification of the present or former director, officer, employee or agent is proper in the circumstances because the person has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in subsections (a) and (b) of this section. Such determination shall be made, with respect to a person who is a director or officer at the time of such determination, (1) by a majority vote of the directors who are not parties to such action, suit or proceeding, even though less than a quorum, or (2) by a committee of such directors designated by majority vote of such directors, even though less than a quorum, or (3) if there are no such directors, or if such directors so direct, by independent legal counsel in a written opinion, or (4) by the stockholders.

(e) Expenses (including attorneys' fees) incurred by an officer or director in defending any civil, criminal, administrative or investigative action, suit or proceeding may be paid by the corporation in advance of the final disposition of such action, suit or proceeding upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of such director or officer to repay such amount if it shall ultimately be determined that such person is not entitled to be indemnified by the corporation as authorized in this section. Such expenses (including attorneys' fees) incurred by former directors and officers or other employees and agents may be so paid upon such terms and conditions, if any, as the corporation deems appropriate.

(f) The indemnification and advancement of expenses provided by, or granted pursuant to, the other subsections of this section shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which those seeking indemnification or advancement of expenses may be entitled under any bylaw, agreement, vote of stockholders or disinterested directors or otherwise, both as to action in such person's official capacity and as to action in another capacity while holding such office.

(g) A corporation shall have power to purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any person who is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise against any liability asserted against such person and incurred by such person in any such capacity, or arising out of such person's status as such, whether or not the corporation would have the power to indemnify such person against such liability under this section.

(h) For purposes of this section, references to the corporation shall include, in addition to the resulting corporation, any constituent corporation (including any constituent of a constituent) absorbed in a consolidation or merger which, if its separate existence had continued, would have had power and authority to indemnify its directors, officers, and employees or agents, so that any person who is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of such constituent corporation, or is or was serving at the request of such constituent corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, shall stand in the same position under this section with respect to the resulting or surviving corporation as such person would have with respect to such constituent corporation if its separate existence had continued.

(i) For purposes of this section, references to other enterprises shall include employee benefit plans; references to fines shall include any excise taxes assessed on a person with respect to any employee benefit plan; and references to serving at the request of the corporation shall include any service as a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation which imposes duties on, or involves services by, such director, officer, employee or agent with respect to an employee benefit plan, its participants or beneficiaries; and a person who acted in good faith and in a manner such person reasonably believed to be in the interest of the participants and beneficiaries of an employee benefit plan shall be deemed to have acted in a manner not opposed to the best interests of the corporation as referred to in this section.

(j) The indemnification and advancement of expenses provided by, or granted pursuant to, this section shall, unless otherwise provided when authorized or ratified, continue as to a person who has ceased to be a director, officer, employee or agent and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors and administrators of such a person.

(k) The Court of Chancery is hereby vested with exclusive jurisdiction to hear and determine all actions for advancement of expenses or indemnification brought under this section or under any bylaw, agreement, vote of stockholders or disinterested directors, or otherwise. The Court of Chancery may summarily determine a corporation's obligation to advance expenses (including attorneys' fees).

Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act may be permitted to our directors, officers, and controlling persons pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, we have been advised that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person in a successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, we will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to the court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.

Paragraph B of Article Eight of the Company's Amended and Restated Certificate of Incorporation, as amended, provides:

The Corporation, to the full extent permitted by Section 145 of the GCL, as amended from time to time, shall indemnify all persons whom it may indemnify pursuant thereto. Expenses (including attorneys' fees) incurred by an officer or director in defending any civil, criminal, administrative, or investigative action, suit or proceeding for which such officer or director may be entitled to indemnification hereunder shall be paid by the Corporation in advance of the final disposition of such action, suit or proceeding upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of such director or officer to repay such amount if it shall ultimately be determined that he is not entitled to be indemnified by the Corporation as authorized hereby.

Item 3.02 Unregistered Sales of Equity Securities.

As part of a private placement financing, on March 10, 2006 and March 15, 2006, SACI entered into Securities Purchase Agreements and Registration Rights Agreements with prospective investors (including certain current Jamba Juice shareholders and board members) that collectively provide for the issuance, simultaneously with the closing of the Merger on November 29, 2006, of approximately 30.9 million shares of the Company's common stock, at a per share purchase price of $7.50, resulting in aggregate gross proceeds to the Company of approximately $231.6 million, and net proceeds of approximately $224.8 million after the payment of financing fees, which funds will be used to fund the merger consideration as well as additional working and expansion capital (the Private Placement Financing).

The issuance of common stock to investors in the Private Placement Financing was made in reliance upon an available exemption from registration under the Securities Act of 1933 (the Securities Act), by reason of Section 4(2) thereof or other appropriate exemptions, to persons who are accredited investors, as defined in Regulation D promulgated under the Securities Act and who meet other suitability requirements established for the private placement. Accordingly, and until registered under the Securities Act, the shares sold in the Private Placement Financing may not be offered or sold in the United States absent registration or availability of an applicable exemption from registration. SACI did not independently conclude that the private placement investors met the definition of an accredited investor or qualified institutional buyer within the meaning of the federal securities laws; however, each investor has represented in the Securities Purchase Agreements that each is an accredited investor, which representations have been relied upon by SACI to support the reliance upon such claimed exemption. There was no general solicitation; the certificates representing the shares will be legended and a Form D will be filed within 15 days of closing.

The foregoing description of the Private Placement Financing, the Securities Purchase Agreements and Registration Rights Agreements does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the current report on Form 8-K filed by SACI on March 16, 2006 and the form of Securities Purchase Agreement and Registration Rights Agreement filed therewith as Exhibits 10.2 and 10.3, respectively, which are collectively incorporated herein by reference. Additional details regarding the Private Placement Financing was disclosed within the Definitive Proxy Statement in the section entitled The Financing Proposal, beginning on page 80, and is also incorporated herein by reference.

Item 4.01 Changes in Registrant's Certifying Accountant.

Previous Independent Registered Public Accounting Firm

(i) On November 29, 2006, the Company dismissed Rothstein, Kass & Company, P.C. (Rothstein) as its independent registered public accounting firm.

(ii) The report of Rothstein on the Company's financial statements for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2005, contained no adverse opinion or disclaimer of opinion and was not qualified or modified as to uncertainty, audit scope or accounting principles. Rothstein audited the balance sheet of SACI (a corporation in the development stage) as of December 31, 2005 and the related statements of operations, stockholders' equity, and cash flows for the period from January 6, 2005

(inception) to December 31, 2005. Rothstein's audit included consideration of internal control over financial reporting as a basis for designing audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's internal control over financial reporting. Accordingly, Rothstein expressed no such opinion.

(iii) The Company's Board recommended and approved the decision to change independent registered public accounting firms.

(iv) In connection with the audit of the Company's financial statements for the most recently completed fiscal year ended December 31, 2005, and through November 29, 2006, there have been no disagreements with Rothstein on any matter of accounting principles or practices, financial statement disclosure or auditing scope or procedure, which disagreements, if not resolved to the satisfaction of Rothstein, would have caused it to make reference to the subject matter of such disagreements in connection with its audit report. There were no reportable events as defined in Item 304(a)(1)(v) of Regulation S-K.

(v) The Company has given permission to Rothstein to respond fully to the inquiries of the successor auditor, including concerning the subject matter of this reportable event.

(vi) The Company has requested that Rothstein furnish the Company with a letter addressed to the Securities and Exchange Commission stating whether it agrees with the above statements. A copy of such letter, dated November 29, 2006, is filed as Exhibit 16.1 to this current report on Form 8-K.

Item 5.03 Amendment to Articles of Incorporation or Bylaws; Change in Fiscal Year.

(a) The Company filed a Certificate of Amendment to its Amended and Restated Certificate of Incorporation, effective November 29, 2006, as described in the Definitive Proxy Statement in the section entitled "Amendment to Certificate of Incorporation Proposal" beginning on page 92, which is incorporated herein by reference. The Certificate of Amendment is filed as Exhibit 3.2 to this current report on Form 8-K, which is incorporated herein by reference.

The Company also amended and restated its bylaws effective November 29, 2006. The Amended and Restated Bylaws of the Company are filed as Exhibit 3.3 to this current report on Form 8-K, which is incorporated herein by reference. The Amended and Restated Bylaws included the following modifications: (i) a change in the authorized number of directors of the Company from one to nine to three to twelve; (ii) revisions and clarifications of certain procedures regarding the Company's annual and special meetings of its stockholders, election and appointment of directors and stockholder action by written consent; (iii) creation of a President title; and (iv) modification of the stockholder vote requirement for future amendment to the bylaws from a majority vote to a two-thirds vote. In addition, the Amended and Restated Bylaws change the vote standard for the election of directors in uncontested elections from a plurality of votes cast to a majority of votes cast. A majority of the votes cast means that the number of shares voted for a director must exceed the number of votes cast against that director. In contested elections, where the number of nominees exceeds the number of directors to be elected, the vote standard will continue to be a plurality of votes cast. In addition, if a nominee who already serves as a director is not elected, the Amended and Restated Bylaws require the director to offer his or her resignation to the Board. The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee of the Board will make a recommendation to the Board on whether to accept or reject the resignation. The Board will act on the Committee's recommendation and publicly disclose its decision and supporting rationale within 90 days from the date of the certification of the election results. The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee in making its recommendation and the Board in making its decision may each consider any factors or other information that they consider appropriate and relevant. A director who offers his or her resignation will not participate in the recommendation of the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee or the Board's decision with respect to his or her resignation. If a director's resignation is accepted by the Board or if a nominee for director is not elected and the nominee is not an incumbent director, then the Board may fill the resulting vacancy or decrease the size of the Board in accordance with the Amended and Restated Bylaws. The foregoing summary does not purport to be complete, and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Amended and Restated Bylaws filed as Exhibit 3.2 hereto and incorporated herein by reference.

(b) On November 29, 2006, the Board approved a change in the Company's fiscal year end from December 31 to the second Tuesday following December 31 of the ensuing year. Accordingly, the Company's next Annual Report on Form 10-K will be for the year ending January 9, 2007. In accordance with certain rules promulgated under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, the Company will file an annual report on Form 10-K with the Securities and Exchange Commission within the time period prescribed by such rules.
