Item 5.02. Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

On November 3, 2008, the Company's Board of Directors approved an exception to the Company's mandatory retirement policy for senior executives to permit the Company to continue to employ Richard M. Kovacevich as the Company's Chairman after December 31, 2008. Mr. Kovacevich will continue as Chairman for an interim period, and will focus primarily on assisting the Company's President and Chief Executive Officer (CEO), John G. Stumpf, and senior management achieve a successful merger integration of the Company and Wachovia Corporation. After Mr. Kovacevich retires, the Board intends that Mr. Stumpf would be given added responsibility as Chairman.

On November 3, 2008, the Company's Board of Directors also created a new position of Lead Director of the Company's Board, and appointed Philip J. Quigley to serve as Lead Director beginning January 1, 2009. Mr. Quigley has served on the Company's Board since 1994, and is an independent director under the rules of the New York Stock Exchange and the Company's Director Independence Standards. He currently serves as Chairman of the Board's Audit & Examination Committee, and a member of the Board's Credit and Governance and Nominating Committees. For his service as Lead Director, Mr. Quigley will be paid an annual cash retainer of $30,000 in addition to the compensation previously approved by the Board to be paid to all directors. In connection with the creation of the new Lead Director position, the Board amended its Corporate Governance Guidelines to identify the responsibilities of the Lead Director, which include, among other things, approving Board meeting agendas with the Chairman and CEO, chairing executive sessions or special meetings of non-management and independent directors, calling executive sessions of the Board, working with committee chairs to ensure coordinated coverage of Board responsibilities, facilitating communication between the Board and senior management, and acting as a sounding board for the Chairman and CEO.

On November 3, 2008, the Company issued a press release regarding the matters described above, a copy of which is furnished as Exhibit 99.1 to this Form 8-K.

Item 8.01. Other Events.
