Item 5.03. Amendments to Articles of Incorporation or Bylaws; Change in Fiscal Year.

On January 27, 2010, the board of directors (the Board) of Columbia Banking System, Inc. (the Company) adopted amendments to the Company's Amended and Restated Bylaws (the Bylaws) to add majority voting procedures for the election of directors in uncontested elections. In an uncontested election, nominees must receive more for than against votes to be elected. The term of any director who does not receive a majority of votes cast in an election held under that standard terminates on the earliest to occur of: 1) 90 days after the date election results are certified; 2) the date the director resigns; or 3) the date the Board fills the position. The bylaw amendment provides that an election is considered contested, and thus held under a plurality standard, if there are shareholder nominees for director pursuant to the Company's advance notice provision who are not withdrawn by the advance notice deadline set forth in Section 1.17 of the Bylaws.

The Board also adopted other amendments to the Bylaws to: (i) expand information requirements for any shareholder proposing director nominations or any other business for consideration at a meeting of shareholders, including disclosure of hedging, derivative interests and other similar ownership arrangements; (ii) revise advance notice provisions to ensure that such provisions are clear and unambiguous and that compliance with the notice procedures set forth in the Bylaws is the exclusive means for a shareholder to make nominations or submit other business at a meeting of shareholders (other than proposals governed by Rule 14a-8 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934); (iii) reduce the maximum size of the Board from 25 to 17; (iv) delete the previous restriction that the Board could be increased by only two directors between annual meetings of shareholders; and (v) make other technical and clarifying amendments.

The preceding is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Bylaws, as amended, which are attached hereto as Exhibit 3.2 and are incorporated herein by reference.
