Item 5.02. Election of Director.

On June 24, 2010, Lockheed Martin Corporation announced that its Board of Directors elected Thomas J. Falk, 52, to serve as a director of the Corporation effective June 25, 2010. Mr. Falk also will serve as a member of the Audit Committee and the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee.

Mr. Falk has served as Chief Executive Officer of Kimberly-Clark Corporation since 2002 and as its Chairman since 2003. Earlier in his 27-year career at Kimberly-Clark, Mr. Falk held various finance, strategy and management positions. Before joining Kimberly-Clark in 1983, Mr. Falk was with the accounting firm of Alexander Grant & Co.

Item 8.01. Other Events.

On June 24, 2010, Lockheed Martin also announced that its Board of Directors elected Maryanne R. Lavan, 51, to serve as Senior Vice President and General Counsel. Ms. Lavan previously served as Lockheed Martin's Vice President of Internal Audit since 2007 and succeeds James B. Comey whose departure from the company was announced previously.

Ms. Lavan also has served as the Corporation's Vice President of Ethics and Business Conduct, as Vice President and General Counsel for Lockheed Martin's Electronic Systems business area, and as an Assistant General Counsel. Before joining Lockheed Martin in 1990, Ms. Lavan worked for a law firm in Washington, D.C., where her practice focused on government contracts and white-collar crime matters.
